

AMERICANS INSIST CONSTITUTIONALIST MUST BE PRESIDENT

Attitude Is Made Plain to Mediators and the Mexicans.

Rabasa Denies Any Charge of Bad Faith Was Made.

Huerta's Emissaries May Seek to Call on Wilson.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 15.—The American delegates, mediators and Mexican delegates resumed their informal conference today on the personnel and form of the new provisional government of Mexico. More names were discussed, but the American delegates have not yet obtained from the Constitutionalists a complete list of persons who would be acceptable to them.

In the absence of such information, the discussion was devoted to the phrasing of the second plank of the peace plan. It is considered most likely that a provisional president and four cabinet officers will be provided for, instead of the contention or council, as the latter is not in conformity with the Mexican Constitution.

Favor Constitutionalism.
The publication in some newspapers of charges of bad faith against the American government for its espousal at this juncture of a Constitutionalism for provisional president, brought no formal comment from the American delegates. It is known, however, that the Americans informed the mediators in the very first conference, several weeks ago, of their intention to favor a Constitutionalism in order to pacify the big revolutionary army, which would cease fighting only on such a condition.

Whether the mediators informed the Mexican delegates of the attitude of the American government early in the conference is not known. The American delegates are surprised at the published reports of bad faith, and they declare their position has been before the mediators for several weeks.

No Bad Faith Charges.
Emilio Rabasa, head of the Mexican delegation, authorized the statement (Continued on page 5, third column.)

MODERN WOODMEN BEGIN TO CLASH

Court Action May Grow Out of the Meeting at Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio, June 15.—The battle between the Modern Woodmen of America administration and insurgents began today before the credentials committee, and insurgent leaders declared if their big Middle West delegations are not seated they will either bolt or carry their fight to the courts as soon as the committee meets.

In the big contested state conventions the administration forces were the bolter. The credentials committee probably will not be ready to report until Tuesday. The insurgents insist that their Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska delegations must be seated. The Missouri, Wisconsin and Indiana insurgent delegates are not contested. The insurgents expect to be defeated in the credentials committee, and are preparing accordingly. Their court action, if there be any, will take the form of an injunction suit, it is expected.

JUMP FROM FAST TRAIN IS FUTILE

Alleged Abductor Is Recaptured and Taken to Chicago.

Chicago, June 15.—After a daring attempt to escape by leaping from the window of a swiftly moving train, and his subsequent capture after a five-mile chase by bloodhounds, Edward Hastings, 28 years old, of Watervliet, N. Y., charged with abducting Hazel Dell Knapp, aged 18, was brought to Chicago today by Detective Sergeant J. L. Kinder.

The prisoner escaped from the train near North Platte, Neb., yesterday, and was traced to a farm house with the aid of bloodhounds and arrested.

"Hastings complained of feeling ill and I left him to get a glassy waiter," said Detective Kinder. "While I was away he leaped out of the window while the train was running forty miles an hour. How he escaped injury is a mystery."

TOLLS REPEAL BILL SIGNED WITH QUILL

President Uses Historic Implement to Complete the Measure.

Washington, June 15.—President Wilson today signed the Panama tolls exemption repeal bill as amended in the senate and agreed to by the house.

There was no ceremony at the signing. Assistant Secretary Forester was the only person with the president.

Mr. Wilson signed the bill with a quill pen used by President Harrison in signing the international copyright law in 1891, and by President Taft in signing the Lincoln memorial bill and the act incorporating the National Institute of Arts and Letters.

CALIFORNIA HEIRESS IS MARRIED ONCE MORE

MRS. JACKSON GOURAUD MISKINOFF.

London, June 15.—Mrs. Jackson Gouraud is married again. Alexandre Miskinoff is her fourth husband. Mrs. Gouraud, who was Miss Almée Crocker of California, first eloped with Porter Ashe, a Kentucky horseman, whom she divorced a year later. Her second husband was Commodore H. M. Gillie. She divorced him. She is the widow of Jackson Gouraud, whom she married in 1910.

She is still young, charming and rich and is well known in all the capitals of the world and especially to the Bohemian set. She has lived in Tokyo, Paris and in London, but her steady home has been in New York. She is a patron of Bohemia and quite naturally she has had stage ambitions. She is a Buddhist and keeps a statue of Buddha hung with a rope of pearls in her boudoir.

"WET AND DRY" 1916 ISSUE

So Says H. P. Faris at the Meeting of the Prohibition Party.

He Says Congress Never Will Vote Against Liquor.

Clinton, Mo., June 15.—Predictions that the next national political campaign in the United States will be fought out on a "wet" and "dry" issue and that the year 1920 will see a nominee of the Prohibition party in the White House, were made by H. P. Faris of Clinton, treasurer of the national Prohibition committee, in welcoming delegates to the national conference of the Prohibition party here today.

Mr. Faris declared it was almost hopeless to expect to get prohibition through the present plan of an amendment to the Federal Constitution.

Who Elect Congressmen.
"We must show the people," said Mr. Faris, "that there is folly in attempting the well-nigh hopeless task of getting two-thirds of both houses of congress and then the legislatures of three-fourths of the states to give us a constitutional amendment when most members of congress and the legislatures are elected and controlled by the organized, demoralized run power in politics."

"Prohibitionists have the one hopeful, sane and safe plan, which we present, and that is, elect our party to power by ever so small a plurality of the electorate, and then the whole question is sold and settled forever. For we will kill the liquor traffic as the lottery evil was killed."

Chafee to Speak.
The conference will last all week and will be addressed by leading advocates of prohibition, including Eugene W. Chafee of Arizona, twice candidate for president; F. M. Stewart of Chicago; Henry J. Allen of Kansas, and others.

WOMAN'S BROOM NO MATCH FOR MAD BULL

Aged North Dakotan and Wife Are Seriously
Gored.

Harvey, N. D., June 15.—James Buchmiller, aged 74, and his wife aged 72, were seriously gored by an infuriated bull that attacked them at their home near here.

The husband, first attacked, was felled to the ground by a blow, and his wife then attacked and felled by beating the bull off with a broom. Turning its attention to her, the bull threw her to the ground, breaking several ribs and causing internal injuries. Only the arrival of a neighbor saved the aged couple from further injury. Both are in a critical condition.

ROOSEVELT GUEST OF SIR EDWARD GREY

London, June 15.—Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, today gave a private luncheon in honor of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Ambassador Walter Hines Page was among the guests.

CHURCHES GO UP IN FLAMES

Italian Rioters Destroy Them During Outbreaks in Strike.

Efforts to Get All Railroad Men Out Are Unsuccessful.

Rome, June 15.—Church property suffered very severely during the riots accompanying the recent general strike in Italy, according to reports presented to the pope today. These show that 14 churches were burned and 39 damaged, while 23 others were looted.

Work was resumed generally today at Ravenna, Forlì, Cesena, Rimini, Lugo, Faenza and Parma. In other districts the authorities were gradually succeeding in restoring order.

Set Cathedral Afire.
Bologna, Italy, June 15.—Rioters today set fire to the cathedral, the Church of Peace and the Church of the Holy Cross in Senigallia on the Adriatic, after sprinkling the doors with petroleum stolen from a store.

Cavalry arrived in time to prevent the destruction of the cathedral, but the interiors of the other churches were devastated and only the walls remain standing of the Church of the Holy Cross.

A detachment of 200 sharpshooters arrived on board a torpedo boat at Senigallia today to assist in preserving order.

A stretch of 100 yards of railroad track on the line between Modena and Mantua was torn up by strikers today and thrown into adjacent fields. At the same time the telephone poles along the line were cut. Soldiers were sent out to effect repairs.

Railroad Service Continues.
Naples, June 15.—The agitation among the railroad workmen here still continued today. The object of the strikers was to secure accessions to their ranks, so as to render it more difficult for the government to inflict punishment on the men who had quit work on the state lines. Sufficient men remained at their posts, however, to permit the train service to run almost normally.

At Work in Ancona.
Ancona, Italy, June 15.—In this city, where the stern repression of disorders brought about the declaration of a general strike throughout Italy, work was resumed today, but detachments of soldiers and sailors still patrolled the streets and occupied strategic positions.

TWO MEN KILLED IN FIGHT OVER BANANA

Georgia Doctor Shoots Merchant and Is in Turn Killed.

Milner, Ga., June 15.—A quarrel over a banana led to a revolver battle in which two men were killed here. A third man is under arrest charged with murder.

Dr. Homer Maddox and Harry Barry, a merchant, quarreled. It is said, when the physician took a banana from Barry's hand yesterday, Barry was shot, dying later. His brother, Robert Barry, approached and asked the physician for the wounded man. Dr. Maddox, it is said, refused, and was shot and killed.

Robert Barry was arrested.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS ARE TERRIBLE. THE COUNTRY IS GOING TO THE DOGS. WHY CAN'T WE ELECT SOME GOOD MEN TO RUN OUR GOVERNMENT? I DON'T KNOW WHAT IS GOING TO BECOME OF US.

LOSES TWO PLEAS IN SUPREME COURT

HARRY K. THAW.

Washington, June 15.—Harry K. Thaw was today denied release on bail pending consideration by the supreme court of his extradition from New Hampshire to New York.

The court also declined to grant the request that Thaw be taken to Pittsburg in the custody of Sheriff Drew of Cook county, N. H., to testify in the settlement of his father's estate.

Judge Aldrich of the Federal court in New Hampshire ordered Thaw's release on habeas corpus proceedings. The supreme court will next pass upon that.

MUNDAY HAS NEW SCHEME

Would Form New Bank to Take Over Those Closed.

Report of Examiner on the Lorimer Institution
Not Completed.

Chicago, June 15.—J. B. Munday, vice president of the La Salle street bank, announced today a new scheme to straighten out the affairs of the institution, the principal feature being the organization of a new bank which will purchase the assets of the La Salle street bank and continue its business. Munday did not discuss again his statement of last night regarding the fund of $1,000,000, which he said, were to be advanced to help in reopening the La Salle street bank.

Examiners at Work.
State bank examiners under the direction of Chief Examiner Daniel V. Harkin, continued work today preparing the report of the financial condition of the La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank and the four outlying banks which were closed last week by state officials.

The report was expected to be submitted tomorrow to State Auditor Brady. No statement of resources or liabilities was made by Examiner Harkin.

PENNYBACKER HEADS SLATE

Is Offered Re-election as Head of Women's Clubs.

Resolutions Censure Magazine Stories and Immodest Dances.

Chicago, June 15.—The slate of the nominating committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, prepared to be presented today, was headed by the name of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin, Tex., the incumbent of the presidency, who was to be offered the traditional second term. Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath of Tiffin, Ohio, second vice president, Mrs. Eugene Reilly of Charlotte, N. C., recording secretary, Mrs. Harry L. Keefe of Wall Hill, Neb., corresponding secretary, Miss George A. Beaton of Worcester, Mass., treasurer, Mrs. William B. Williams of La Verne, Mich., auditor, Mrs. C. H. McMahon of Salt Lake City, Utah, directors, Mrs. William E. Andrews, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. W. Brooks Young of Jacksonville, Fla.

Complete Slate.
The nominating committee prepared the regular slate as follows:

President, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin, Tex.; first vice president, Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath of Tiffin, Ohio; second vice president, Mrs. Eugene Reilly of Charlotte, N. C.; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry L. Keefe of Wall Hill, Neb.; corresponding secretary, Miss George A. Beaton of Worcester, Mass.; treasurer, Mrs. William B. Williams of La Verne, Mich.; auditor, Mrs. C. H. McMahon of Salt Lake City, Utah; directors, Mrs. William E. Andrews, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. W. Brooks Young of Jacksonville, Fla.

Home economies and public health were the subjects of the day's sessions as outlined in the program. Eugenics, sanitation, pure food legislation, tuberculosis and compulsory education were among the leading topics. Mr. J. M. Lathrop, head of the children's bureau of the U. S. department of commerce, was the speaker of the day's sessions.

FEDERAL FUNDS TO HELP MOVE CROPS

Secretary McAdoo Ready to Aid the Banks.

Washington, June 15.—Secretary McAdoo again stands ready to lend a hand to Western and Southern banks in case they need money for crop moving purposes. The plan of lending government money to the banks in agricultural districts for use during crop moving season last year was so successful that it will be adopted this year if the necessity arises.

The total amount loaned to banks last year was $37,846,000. It went to 193 banks in 62 cities and 28 states.

NOMINATIONS MADE.

Washington, June 15.—Nominations of Charles S. Hamlin of Boston, T. B. Jones of Chicago, W. E. C. Harding of Birmingham, Ala., Paul Warburg of New York, and A. C. Miller of San Francisco, to be members of the Federal reserve board, were made today by President Wilson.

The members of the Federal reserve board were nominated to serve the following terms: Hamlin, two years; Warburg, four years; Jones, six years; Harding, eight years, and Miller, ten years.

Washington, June 15.—E. C. Simmons of St. Louis has declined appointment to the Federal reserve board. Charles S. Hamlin of Boston, now assistant secretary of the treasury, is expected to be designated in his place when the nominations for the entire board go to the senate.

It was said unofficially that President Wilson would send the nomination of the five members probably late today without designating a governor, and would choose that officer later.

Thomas B. Jones, a Chicago lawyer, has been selected for the governorship, but with the coming of Mr. Hamlin to the board, it was thought that plan might be changed and the governorship might go to the Boston man.

Hamlin an Expert.
Mr. Hamlin is an expert in finance, who served as assistant secretary under President Cleveland and returned to the treasury department soon after President Wilson took office, as the assistant secretary in charge of customs. The appointment of John Skelton Williams to vacant the office of assistant secretary in charge of the treasury fiscal bureau, and Mr. Hamlin was appointed to that place, which put him logically in line for promotion to the secretary's office itself.

President Wilson, it is said, has been reluctant to appoint Mr. Hamlin to the reserve board because he felt he was needed in his present position.

EIGHT YEARS APIECE FOR EXTORTION PLOT

Philadelphia, Pa., June 15.—Armanaz Razizian and Guerabad Narizian were convicted in the United States court here today on a charge of conspiring to extort through the mails $7,000 from Miran Karagheusian, a wealthy merchant of New York. Each was sentenced to eight years imprisonment.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

HOUSE.
Bills requiring unanimous consent considered.

Representative Alexander, Missouri, introduced a bill for regulation of so-called shipping commissions and it was referred to merchant marine committee for report.

Representative Reilly, Connecticut, delivered a tribute to the American flag and flag day.

SENATE.
Voted to place commercial attaches of the department of commerce under civil service.

Judiciary committee resumed work on the Clayton omnibus bill recently passed by the house.

Hint Is Given That Links

White House Declaration

the Capitol.

Washington, June 15.—President Wilson made the direct charge today that sentiment in favor of postponement of the administration trust legislation program was the result of a campaign by certain interests, and intimated that it was the cause of the psychological business depression of which he recently spoke.

In support of the president's views, copies of letters and telegrams circulated among business men calling for an adjournment of congress without completion of the trust bills, praying for the freight rate increase asked by the railroads of the interstate commerce commission, and calling for a halt of the "attacks on business," were made public at the White House.

President Wilson made it clear that the campaign would have no effect upon him, and that it was his plan to push the trust program through the senate with the aid of all the means at his command. He expressed the view that business was as good if not better now than a while ago, and that it would be less harmful to the business of the country to have the

ALBANIAN PRINCE DEFEATS REBELS

William Himself Heads Defenders of City of Durazzo.

Durazzo, Albania, June 15.—The government troops under the personal leadership of Prince William today repulsed a strong attack on the Albanian capital by Mussulman insurgents.

At the outset of the fighting, the insurgents gained an advantageous position, but after a short time the Durazzo commander of the gendarmerie, had been killed, Prince William placed himself at the head of the defenders and succeeded in silencing the rifle and artillery fire of the attacking force after three hours' fighting.

Among the first of the defenders of the Albanian capital to be killed was Col. Thomson, the Dutch officer selected by the Mussulman rebels against the gendarmerie in succession to the Swedish officers who previously had held the position.

Bluejackets from the international fleet lying off the Albanian coast also been sent ashore to guard the foreign legations.

Attack a Surprise.
Today's attack by the insurgents came as a complete surprise to the residents of the capital, where official statements had been published declaring that the Mussulman rebels against the rule of Prince William had been utterly defeated by the government forces a few days ago.

It was asserted that the remnants of the rebel forces was surrounded by government troops at Shkull between Durazzo and Tirana.

Accounts vary as to the strength of the opposing forces in the field. It is generally estimated, however, that the government had 5,000 trained men who were said to be opposed by about 27,000 insurgents. The rebels, for the most part, are tribesmen without discipline and they are scattered over a wide range of country.

Durazzo occupies a peninsula position and from a natural fortress, easily defended by a few modern guns.

PUTS DIME NOVELS NEXT TO THE BIBLE

Y. M. C. A. Man Recomtion Reading.

New York, June 15.—Business men about to start on their summer vacations are advised to read dime novels and act like "kids" again by Dr. Louis R. Weismiller, physical director of the West Side Young Men's Christian association. His prescription for the rejuvenation of business-worn members of the association has been posted all over the association's buildings. It reads in part:

"Forget your dignity, throw away your steeles and be a kid again. wholesome, fun-loving, boisterous, dime novel-reading kid—during your vacation."

"Dime novels make good summer reading. They are next to the Bible for vacation reading, but take the Bible along, of course. Many great men read Nick Carter, Jesse James and like writings for relaxation. Most of you have read dime novels and made good. Help yourselves to make good again next winter by being a boy on your vacation."

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS

LYCEUM—BALDWIN PLAYERS in
"The Man From Home."
EMPIRE—Vaudeville.
ECHO—Musical comedy.

AT THE LYCEUM.

Baldwin Players in Excellent Production of "The Man From Home."Homer Barton, as "Daniel Voorhes Pike," with an Indiana drawl that would fool the old folks back at Kokomo, assumed the title role in "The Man From Home" at the Lyceum theater before a packed house (that should be repeated throughout the week), at the matinee Sunday, and his excellent work quickly was apparent to an appreciative audience. The Baldwin Players, one and all, ably followed the lead of the new leading man, and the performance, except for an occasional and entirely excusable misreading of the strange lines, was smooth and pleasing.Lolo May, who has endeavored herself to Duluth theatergoers by her excellent and sympathetic depiction of the incidental and difficult parts that have fallen to her lot since the company came to Duluth, was both charming and beautiful as the American girl—"Ethel Granger Simpson" of Kokomo, Ind.— who, with her brother, "Horace Granger Simpson" (Walter S. Baldwin, Jr.), and fallen into the clutches of deasing alleged English nobility in Italy.
The action is laid in Sorrento, Italy.The earl of Hawcastle (Joseph B. Stefani) was extremely well done. His son, "The Hon. Almeric St. Aubyn" (A.
Romaine Callender), could hardly have been improved upon; his cockney and induction were right.Special mention rightly should be given Pearl Melrose as "Lady Creech." Taken all in all, the performance was quite up to the high standard of the company's previous work. Stage settings were correct and unexpectedly elaborate, and showed that considerable attention to detail had been given them.Ethel Granger Simpson of Kokomo, Ind., and her brother, Horace, sojourning in Italy, have become acquainted with to be a noble and timid by unscrupulous persons, claiming to be a mere matter of $150,000 (only $750,000) is proposed by the English earl as a "dot" without which there can be no marriage between the earl's son and the Indiana girl. The girl's brother, anxious to the interests of his sister, sanctions the marriage and the "dot."
Back home in Kokomo lives the girl's guardian, and administration of her father's estate. "He probably is an old codger and he will sanction my marriage," believes the girl, but he is not, and he does not. Instead he begins to act around to ascertain just who the earl of Hawcastle is, and by writing to the American consul at London he finds out a lot.Enter "Yvonne," an escaped professor of languages (James B. Nelson), who, through the machinations of the earl of Hawcastle and the professor's runaway wife, the "Comtesse De Champigny" (Laura Frankendorf), has served nine years in the penal colony of Siberia. The Indiana legislator, who declares that he has not been in politics without learning the ways of crooks, discovers that the earl of Hawcastle and the Comtesse are none other than the professor's enemy and the professor's wife, and the legislator arranges for the denouement in presence of the girl from Kokomo. She still wants to keep her promise to marry the earl's son, believing the son must be mentally crushed by the discovery that his father is a villain, but the son soon convinces her that he is more interested in a new girl than he is in the girl, and that he is willing to let the price on "dots" because of the loss of his good name.
Whereupon the girl turns from the villain.Superior

inee, the Empress theater management will put on a bill of five high-class vaudeville acts and three reels of motion pictures.Featuring the bill will be Miss Cladya Ives Brainerd, a local woman, who has just returned from a tour.
She has been studying under Joseph Lachvaine of Berlin, and she has also studied under other prominent teachers of London and New York. She will sing a number of songs and play her own accompaniments. Many of her local friends are expected to be presented.Dean, Dore and Dean will do a singing, dancing and talking act. Their work has received many favorable comments. Mueller brothers do a bathhouse act that is said to have original features. Alice Ware bills herself as "That Different Little Girl."
The De Costa duo are xylophone players with a reputation of excellent accomplishment.The show will be closed with a two-reel feature film.Manager Mistachkin of the Echo theater has a two-feature musical comedy, "The Girl From Lukenburg."
The "high-class burlesque" actress from the Lukenburg theater, Chicago, and Miss Marie Russell, who is leading her company at that theater for the summer, will vie for headline honors.The show this week is expected to be even better than that of last week, and will be very successful. New songs, dance specialties and a lot of comedy will make up a good share of the program. The chorus is unusually attractive and the members make an excellent appearance in their bright costumes. Messrs. Harty, Hobb and Scott are good comedians and will bring in for a hearty reception. Several reels of the latest motion pictures will be shown.THREE CONVENTIONS
HERE THIS WEEKDuluth Will Entertain Many Visitors; Opening of Convention Season on Tuesday; Friday and Saturday Busy Days.Tomorrow morning the gigantic new passenger steamer Noronia of the Northern Navigation company, Capt.
Robert Foote, master, will arrive with the first convention of the season.
There will be two more this week;
and thereafter there will be many here this summer.The pole arriving tomorrow are the members of the National Association of Circulation Managers.
They and their wives, about 150 in all, together have chartered the Noronia, and will hold their convention on board of her. Duluth was their principal visiting point and they will spend the week here.On next Friday and Saturday the members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, who meet in annual convention this week in St.
Paul, will come to Duluth to visit this part of the city and to view and inspect the wonderful water power and other interesting features that interest them.On next Saturday also, will come the immense summer District III, with about 700 members and their wives and families, who are here to view and inspect the city and the water power and other interesting features that interest them.Elaborate preparations are made for the entertainment of these visitors.MAINTENANCE OF SEWER IS HIGHElectrical Cost for Booster Pumps Will Be Looked Into.The actual cost of furnishing electricity for operating the five booster pumps of the Park Point sewer is figured by the city engineer as 56 cents per month. The bills rendered by the Duluth Electric company aggregate $25 per month.Commissioner Murchison, head of the works department, has the matter up with the Edison company and was informed that under the schedule of rates fixed by the city, the company cannot charge less than $5 per month for each motor. The city's contract with the Edison company was for two or three years ago and was never renewed but the rates fixed by the old contract are still being charged.Coupled with the cost of paying a man $20 per month for looking after the pumps, this makes their maintenance much more expensive than was previously estimated. The first bill has just been received and rather startled the officials. Before it is paid Commissioner Murchison intends to take the question up with the legal department.

ENJOY MUSIC IN CITY PARK

Big Crowd Attends First of the Free Band Concerts.

Duluthians Spend Perfect Summer Day in the Out-of-Doors.

The city's first open-air band concert at Chester park yesterday afternoon attracted a large crowd, which enjoyed to the limit the excellent program which was given by the Third Regiment band.

They came from all directions. Family men came with their wives and children, some of them with baskets from which lunches were served under the trees. Gallants came with their sweethearts, and Duluth's beautiful East end park was never more thoroughly appreciated.

It was a beautiful day outdoors. The morning was threatening and cloudy but old Sol broke through the clouds during the forenoon and for the rest of the day more than held his own with the elements which tried to drive him from sight.

While Chester park had the record attendance of the day, thousands of others scattered to other parks and recreation centers. Some boarded trains for streams and lakes near the city. Others motored to favorite resorts. The bay and river were dotted with launches, sail boats and row boats. Others walked about the city or went to the theaters or participated in the Flag Day observances, while a big crowd saw the locals defeat Winona in the last game of their present series.

Altogether it was a most satisfactory day from an inauspicious beginning. Duluth has been fortunate in its Sundays thus far this season, for while the weather during the week may have been unpleasant at times, the week ends have been all that could be desired.

INTERESTS WORKING TO PREVENT TRUST LAWS BEING PASSED, SAYS PRESIDENT

trust legislation program completed. Simmons has been at the head of the uncertainty which would accompany delay.

Simmons, of Reserve Board. One of the circular letters which came into possession of the White House was circulated by the Simmons Hardware company of St. Louis. E. C. Simmons, president of the company, had been elected for a member of the Federal reserve board and his nomination was to have gone to the senate today. This morning it was announced at the White House that Mr. Simmons had declined the place, and that Charles A. Hamlin of Boston, now an assistant secretary of the treasury, would be nominated in his place. White House officials emphatically denied, however, that the circular letter sent out by the Simmons company had any connection with the nomination of Mr. Simmons.

Letter From New York. Another circular letter made public was purported to have been sent out by the Pictorial Review company of New York, and signed by W. F. Ahlert as president. It was dated May 1 and inclosed a draft of a letter which embraces the views of a majority of the thinking business people of our section of the country, and which should be addressed to the president of the United States, the congress and members of the interstate commerce commission, respectively. The letter concludes:

"You prefer to use copies of the inclosed letter we will mail you as many as you can conveniently use. It will be more effective, however, if you write them on your own letter-heads."

The form letter attached was an appeal for postponement of trust legislation and a 6 per cent freight rate increase on the railroads.

Recalls Lobby Charges. Not since President Wilson made his charge of "an insidious lobby" in Washington to influence tariff legislation, has there been a sensation of such a sort in official circles. News of what the president had said and the giving out of the circular letters spread quickly to the capital, where it became the subject of animated discussion in both houses of congress.

The letter purporting to have been sent out by the Simmons company was dated June 9, which was after Mr. Simmons had declined a place on the reserve board. This letter was not given out for publication with the others.

of the department of labor, made a strong plea for compulsory registration of every birth.

"Legal record of birth is the only means of preserving the lives and rights of children, and no baby should be deprived of that right," she said. "Only by prompt registration can nurses and doctors discover the children who need need care, if only the fact that we can stamp out blindness of the newly born."

Between 15 and 18 per cent of babies born in the last two years have been deprived of what advantages they might have had in prompt legal registration of their birth," said Miss Lathrop. "We have no accurate knowledge of country-wide infant mortality, but the census bureau has estimated it at 30.00 annually."

Miss Lathrop urged the delegates to plan to have a meeting of every club unit within the next six months at which they would take action to protect the babies of their own communities.

Charles S. Rockhill of Cincinnati urged the women's clubs to work for playgrounds and breathing spaces in congested city districts as part of the fight against tuberculosis. The most important work the women's clubs could do, he said, would be to urge the establishment of a federal tuberculosis commission.

To Guard Marriage. Demand that certificates of freedom from communicable disease should accompany every application for a marriage license was formulated in a resolution submitted today by Mrs. S. S. Crockett, chairman of the public health department of the Federation. Resolutions adopted were:

Protesting against suggestive stories in magazines and pledging members of the federation to subscribe for only those publications whose columns are clean.

Pledging support to a national centennial celebration at Baltimore in commemoration of the composition of "Star Spangled Banner."

Censuring immodest forms of dancing.

AMERICANS INSIST CONSTITUTIONALIST MUST BE PRESIDENT

that no charges of bad faith against the United States had been made by the Mexican delegates at any time. He insisted that the Mexican delegates had not wired for permission to withdraw. He added that until the American plan was submitted in writing last week, the Mexican delegates had no intention of the desire of the United States that a Constitutional be chosen.

It was suggested that the mediators might have withheld an explanation of the American point of view in the hope of persuading the United States to make concessions as negotiations developed.

All sides agree that on the selection of a provisional president the success or failure of mediation depends. The Huerta delegates have suggested five names. The Americans have informally mentioned several, but are unwilling for the complete list from the Constitutionalists. Some of the Mexican delegates are hopeful that the American individual may be found who, though a Constitutional in sympathies, may not be an undesirable candidate.

Huerta Agents in Washington. Washington, June 15.—Facing the crucial stage of mediation negotiations at Niagara Falls, President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, upon resuming conversation with the American delegates, were to take up the question of selecting a provisional president acceptable to all factions in Mexico. While the United States holds firmly to its stand that a Constitutional must be named to succeed Huerta, the Mexican delegates have argued for a "neutral" candidate, which was declined, nevertheless, reiterated that negotiations were going ahead satisfactorily.

Embassies of Huerta who were in Washington today were expected to attempt to see President Wilson. They were said to be exerting efforts to save Huerta from humiliation.

kin, whose only positive statement today was "None of the banks will open today."

Examiner Harkin refused to comment on the statement of B. Munday, vice president of the La Salle Trust & Savings bank, that $1,000,000 would be paid to the city of Duluth for the La Salle street bank, which would be the property of William Lorimer, president, and Munday, vice president, would sever the connection with the city.

"Outside of a few words from Mr. Munday," said Harkin, "I have no knowledge of the $1,000,000 offer except what I have read in the newspapers. I am not a depositor and would be a matter for the state auditor to decide."

Silent as to Methods. Mr. Harkin was equally uncommunicative on the question of the possible criminal prosecution of officers of the bank, nor would he venture an opinion on whether depositors would be reimbursed.

Numbers of depositors, anxious for the safety of their funds, stood in the street today in front of the closed La Salle street bank.

The city treasurer prepared to make for the La Salle street bank, which would be the property of William Lorimer, president, and Munday, vice president, would sever the connection with the city.

Request was made Friday on the La Salle street bank for the $250,000 of its deposits. The four smaller banks have a total of $450,000 of city funds.

The attempt will be made tonight to have the city council authorize an investigation of the depositing of city funds to the limit allowed by law with the Lorimer-Munday banks, when other financial institutions were so favored.

Merriman Wants Inquiry. The investigation is being sought by Alderman Merriman, who said: "What we want to find out is why the Lorimer bank got the full amount of funds that the city deposited, while other banks received only a part of the amounts which they could legally receive."

C. W. Novak, president of the State bank of Duluth, which was closed Saturday, said depositors of the bank would be paid in full whether or not the bank obtained the $50,000 which it had on deposit with the La Salle street bank.

Monday Bank Closed. The State bank of Marine, Ill., was closed by the state auditor, who was in the city today. The action of the state auditor, who was in the city today, was in connection with the resignation of the president of the bank.

Examination of the books of the bank began today under the direction of the state auditor. The bank had deposits of $1,000,000 in March, and secured funds of $1,000,000 in August, $50,000,000 in November, and $35,000,000 in February.

In the calendar year 1913 Canada's imports of merchandise were $659,000,000 in value, while her exports were $486,000,000. Imports thus averaged $56,000,000 and exports $38,000,000 per month. Canadian imports, however, are sharply declining from month to month, the total having been $58,000,000 in March, $40,000,000 in April, $30,000,000 in May, and $20,000,000 in June.

VICTORY CLAIMED FOR HUERTA FORCES

Repulse of Rebels at Zacatecas With 3,000 Dead Is Reported.

Mexico City, June 15.—Telegraph reports received at the capital today from Zacatecas say that the losses of the Constitutionalists in the battle at that place are estimated at 3,000.

A message received by Huerta says that the Constitutionalists, who for the last four days had been attacking Zacatecas, were definitely repulsed at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

It was a column under Gen. Benjamin Arguendo which was sent from San Luis Potosi, which turned the tables in favor of the government troops. Gen. Arguendo's troops were in the hands of the Constitutionalists, which was in the hands of the Constitutionalists, and then entered the town and assisted the garrison to repulse the Constitutionalists from other points.

Federal cavalry was then sent in pursuit of the Constitutionalists, who fled in the direction of the mountains. The victorious Huerta forces entered the town and were met by the inhabitants, according to the report.

Another report from the government victory over the Constitutionalists is reported to have been won today in La Victoria, about thirty miles south of Saltillo, by troops commanded by Gen. Antonio M. Gaitan. The rebel loss is said to be more than 100.

COAT CAUSES WRECK ON SCENIC RAILWAY

Seventeen Are Injured in Smashup at Rochester, N. Y.

Rochester, N. Y., June 15.—The seventeen persons injured on the scenic railway at Rochester, N. Y., last night when a two-car train turned on its side and was rammed by another car, were all reported on the road to recovery today.

The derailment, it is said, was caused when a coat, dropped by one of the occupants of the train, wound about one of the wheels.

1914, the smallest total shown in any month within the last two years.

Exports of domestic products from Canada during October, November and December last, following the passage of the American tariff law now in force, rose to about $57,000,000 per month, but in January, 1914, had fallen to $28,000,000, and in February to less than $21,000,000.

The temporary lull in the October-December period period reflected the unusually large shipments to the United States of flaxseed, hides, and printing paper, and of cattle, cream and other foodstuffs transferred to the free list by the above-mentioned law, effective on and after Oct. 4 last.

American goods represented in the fiscal year 1913, 65 per cent of the entire imports of Canada, while the markets of the United States absorbed 39.2 per cent of the Canadian products sold in foreign markets. A year ago they were selling to Canada four times as much as we bought from her, while we are now selling a little more than twice as much as we buy in our trade with the Dominion.

PASSES AWAY AT ADVANCED AGE

Cyrus Schultz, Aged 86, Dies at Home of His Daughter.

Cyrus Schultz passed away Saturday at 6:30 p. m. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lida S. Risdon, 525 West Third street. He had been in failing health for about a year and for the last eight months had been confined to his home. He was born in Franklin, Mass., April 13, 1828, being 86 years, 1 month and 24 days old at the time of his death.

In the early 50's as a young man, he pioneered in Missouri, in November, 1856, he was married to Elizabeth Rydman in Knox county, Mo., where they made their home for eighteen years, going from there to Kirksville, Mo., where he engaged in business and resided until 10 years ago when they came to Duluth to be with their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Risdon, 525 West Third street.

Eight years ago Mr. and Mrs. Schultz celebrated their golden wedding.

Mr. Schultz was intensely interested in observing the possibilities and improvements in this city. He was for many years a member of the first Christian church. His body will be taken back to Missouri today for burial.

He is survived by his aged wife, one daughter, Mrs. Lida S. Risdon and one little grand daughter, Frances E. Risdon.

INSTRUCT TEACHERS IN CONSERVATION

Lectures and Movies of Forest Fires to Be Used at Chautauqua, N. Y.

New York, June 15.—General instruction in forest conservation is to be given more than 8,000 school teachers from every state in the Union at the midsummer meeting of the American Forestry association at Chautauqua, N. Y., on July 8 and 10. They will hear lectures showing the great loss of life and property every year in this country from forest fires, and motion pictures of raging fires will be shown to the teachers.

The pictures also will show how forest fires are fought and how forests may be protected by patrols.

EMBARGO ON ARMS TO IRELAND UPHELD

King's Bench So Decides By Vote of Two to One.

Dublin, Ireland, June 15.—By a majority of 2 to 1 the judges of the King's bench court today decided that the government's proclamation prohibiting the importation of arms into Ireland was valid.

This judgment reverses the decisions of the assize court of Belfast, which on March 10 had decided that the proclamation was invalid because the Act of Union provided that all subjects should have the same privileges in respect to trade.

New York, June 15.—"Better babies, better mothers, better city," was announced today as the slogan for Greater New York baby week, June 20 to June 26. The celebration is for the purpose of making the city's infant mortality statistics put to shame those of all other communities.

Mayor Mitchell's baby week commission has arranged automobile cuttings for the little ones, visiting days, special exercises at the city hall and other meetings. The mayor is honorary president of the commission and Seth Low is the president.

Appeal to Wilson AGAIN FOR SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley Will Head Club Women's Delegation.

Washington, June 15.—Another suffragist march on the White House is being planned as the result of the endorsement of women's suffrage by the Federation of Women's Clubs at Chicago.

President Wilson will be asked to receive a deputation of suffrage club women headed by Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley on June 30. Mrs. Wiley will select the members of the delegation, which will be composed of several hundred representative club women from all the states.

The demonstration will come as the climax of a campaign for favorable action on the suffrage amendment by the house rules committee on July 1. The suffrage leaders say they intend to ask the president to act regardless of the Baltimore platform, and to use his influence for a favorable report from the rules committee.

SMOOT ANSWERS PLAGIARISM CHARGE.

Washington, June 15.—Senator Smoot of Utah, replying to a charge made in Chicago that he had been guilty of plagiarism in his Memorial day speech at Arlington national cemetery, explained that he had used as quotations a poem and a description which had been handed him by an old soldier, and that he had specifically referred to them as having been "well said."

"My attention was called today," the senator said, "to an Associated Press dispatch in which Jasper T. Darling complained in an open letter to myself that I used in my Arlington speech on Memorial day, a poem of his, and other parts of a speech delivered by him two years ago. I have not received the letter from Mr. Darling as yet. The facts are that an old soldier handed me the poem referred to, and also the description of the battles of the Civil war, with certain comments, and suggested that I use them at Arlington.

"I did not give Mr. Darling credit and did not claim it for myself, will take great pleasure in answering Mr. Darling's letter as soon as received."

FACING DEPORTATION; WOMAN TO FIGHT.

Pembina, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald).—Regarded as an undesirable immigrant, Fannie Bire, a Jewess, with two children, was denied admission to the United States. She claimed to have a brother and a sister in Fargo. Defeated in her efforts to come across by train she got over the line in an auto and was traced to Grand Forks where she was placed under arrest by the immigration officials. She grew very much excited over her arrest and will engage attorneys to prevent her deportation.

HONORS FOR NAVAL MEN

Fletcher Is to Head Atlantic Fleet for His Conduct.

Officers and Men Who Served at Vera Cruz Are Rewarded.

Washington, June 15.—Command of the great Atlantic fleet, goal of every American naval officer's ambition, is to be the reward of Rear Admiral Frank P. Fletcher for his work in Mexican waters. Secretary Daniels announced that he will recommend Admiral Fletcher for commander-in-chief of the fleet when the latter completes his term of service within the next few weeks.

Several of the navy's higher officers outrank him, but the secretary holds that the conspicuously masterful conduct of Admiral Fletcher at Vera Cruz entitles him to special recognition. Moreover, if congress passes the pending bill creating the rank of vice admiral, Fletcher will be among the first advanced to that grade.

Navy Office Statement.

A navy department statement said: "Since Admiral Badger took the Atlantic fleet to Mexican waters he has had the whole situation well in hand and his services there have added to his reputation as one of the first men of the American navy."

"Admiral Fletcher will be promoted from the command of the first division of the Atlantic fleet. He has been in Mexico since the presence of American ships in those waters was first called for, and his command of the situation during the whole time he has been in charge has been most efficient. He proved himself not only a great admiral, but a statesman and diplomat as well. His services commended themselves not only to the secretary, but to the president, and the latter has ordered that when presenting diplomas to the Annapolis graduates at their recent commencement he hold up Admiral Fletcher as a pattern."

Honors for Others, Too.

Officers and men among the American bluejackets and marines who distinguished themselves by conspicuous bravery and heroism at Vera Cruz, were formally recognized and rewarded yesterday by the navy department. Every one of the 108 singled out for mention in Rear Admiral Fletcher's report of the occupation of the Mexican port, was given official commendation in a letter from Secretary Daniels, and in most cases of medals, gratuities or promotions.

Medal and $100.

A general order has been issued awarding a medal of honor and a gratuity of $100 each to the following eleven enlisted men for extraordinary heroism:

Henry H. Nickerson, Wheeling, W. Va.; Abraham De Somer, Milwaukee, Wis.; Joseph G. Harner, Canton, Ohio; George C. Regan, Port Richmond, N. Y.; Harry C. Beasley, Newark, Ohio; Lawrence C. Smetter, Auburn, W. Va.; Percy A. Decker, Anselmville, N. Y.; Charles F. Bligh, Pittsburgh; James A. Walsh, New York city; Charles L. Nordliek, Valatie, N. Y.; and Fred J. Schnepel, New York city.

Each of these men, except De Somer, will be advanced to the next higher rating carrying increased pay. De Somer, who is a chief turret captain, cannot advance higher as an enlisted man, and an opportunity will be given him to take examinations to become a warrant officer.

To forty-two officers and fifty-five enlisted men, the secretary has written highly commendatory letters. Each letter recites the gallant deeds for which Rear Admiral Fletcher recommended that they be rewarded, and to this recital the department added commendatory paragraphs suited to the particular case.

In addition to the letter, each enlisted man has been advanced to the next higher rating above that held, carrying with it increased pay.

PAYS OFF BIG DEBT.

Peavey & Co. Settles $500,000 of $2,000,000 Claim.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 15.—The Minneapolis grain firm of F. H. Peavey & Co. today will pay off $500,000 of notes, which is 25 per cent of an issue of $2,000,000 given three years ago and which are not due until Aug. 1.

Another 25 per cent will probably be paid off the following week and the entire issue according to the management will be liquidated on Aug. 1.

The paying off of these notes by F. H. Peavey & Co. is of particular importance not only locally but throughout the Northwest, but in the financial centers of Chicago and New York.

Three years ago the company assumed a debt of $1,000,000 over night, of which it had not the slightest previous knowledge, through the speculation of a trusted employee in Chicago. Because of this the Peavey company asked interested bankers for an extension of time, and for $2,000,000 at 6 per cent for three years were given.

HEALTH TALKS

William Brady, M.D.

Before and After

DYSPEPTIC pessimists and well fed cynics delight in coining witty remarks about the doctor's mistakes. Real humor is called by surgeons "an exploratory operation" has been dubbed by the humorous paragraphers "an antemortem autopsy."

The word autopsy means literally seeing with one's own eyes. It formerly referred to the examination of a body by postmortem dissection to determine the cause of death. But use of the term is becoming obsolete. A more accurate term is now employed, namely, necropsy, signifying examination of the dead.

Conceding a point to the funny paragraphers, we must admit that doctors in the pre-antiseptic era were necessarily constrained to await the postmortem investigation in order to make the diagnosis in many cases. And we are not prepared to deny that the modern medical man makes many an antemortem autopsy in the reasonable hope of discovering precisely what extent the disease process may have reached, and if possible, rendering surgical aid while there is still hope. Antemortem dissection at least gives the subject a better chance than did the old time postmortem diagnosis.

Even though the patient may be "opened by mistake" the effect of the exploration is almost without serious results under modern aseptic technique and shockless surgery. Surely one would rather be "looked into," at the cost of a week in the hospital, than die a "baffling" case. We would ourselves, at any rate, and we are as cowardly as they make them.

Dr. Brady will answer all questions pertaining to health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through this column; if not it will be answered personally if stamp addressed to Dr. William Brady, care of The Herald.

As a matter of fact, there are numerous surgical emergencies which develop so suddenly and place the victim's life in jeopardy so soon that nothing short of an exploratory incision can suffice for a diagnosis which will save life. The surgeon and physician clearly recognize that something of fatal import has taken place that call for "an acute surgical abdomen." The safest plan is to "get in at once," repair the perforation or tie the ruptured vessel or do whatever can be done, and then "get out as soon as possible." Formerly these emergencies terminated in "natural" death. Now many of them—thanks to the antemortem autopsy the courageous physician dares to undertake.

Questions and Answers.

Mrs. A. W. F. writes: What is the best way to give castor oil? Our children make a dreadful fuss about taking it.

ANSWER.

I don't blame the children. It is a crude remedy. However, if you are determined to inflict it on the children, try administering it in milk.

D. L. R. writes: Is there any treatment for enlarged tonsils other than surgical removal? Is an ordinary doctor, not a surgeon, competent to remove tonsils?

ANSWER.

(1) Sometimes local treatment is sufficient. (2) Thousands of such operations are done every day by "ordinary" doctors.

ANOTHER SIDE TO "MASHING"

Two Women Nod to Male Pedestrians and "Husbands" Promptly Threaten With Violence Any Who Respond.

That there is another side to the "mashing" evil, and that certain young women make it a practice of flirting with young men to get them into trouble, either for their own amusement or because it is the claim of the police, to whom several complaints have been made, but two of them "fell" for the advances.

An episode on West Superior street last evening proved conclusively to police that the men are not always to blame. When the officer started walking the man toward headquarters, the other three began to nod and smile at him. They remonstrated with this officer, while the women cried and promised to behave in the future. The officer took the names of the four and allowed the man his liberty.

The two men claimed that they were traveling salesmen and that they were staying with them at a local hotel.

Meanwhile a Duluthian to whom the women had nodded without result, and who had turned back in time to see this incident, told Sergeant Roebuck what had happened. One of the two men stepped up to the Duluthian and even claiming that his wife had made any advances. Sergeant Roebuck was a few feet behind and he arrested the "husband" on a charge of using profane language on the street.

FIVE DEAD AND TEN DYING IN COLUMBUS

Explosion in Gas Trench Is Laid to Lighted Cigar.

Columbus, Ohio, June 15.—Five men, four of them foreigners, are dead and ten are in hospitals, probably fatally injured, as the result of a gas explosion here in a trench in which a gang of laborers were laying a gas main. Five other men were painfully burned, but they will recover, according to reports.

The cause of the accident has not been fully determined, but it is believed that a cap on a joint of the pipe was blown off, and that the escaping gas was ignited by a lighted cigar.

her way into port, an impressive service of thanksgiving, presided over by Rev. Francis E. Clark of Boston, founder of the Christian Endeavor societies in this city, was held. A dry eye among the congregation while "Nearer, My God, to Thee" was being sung in memory of those less fortunate than the New York's passengers in wrecks at sea.

That the Pretoria did not strike the New York at her most vulnerable point—between the funnels—was due to the skillful handling of the American liner by Capt. Roberts. When he saw that a collision was inevitable, the captain ordered his boat full speed astern, and the order was executed so promptly from a dead stop, that the great ship leaped backward like a thing alive.

How to Get Strong

Doctors agree that the only way to gain strength is through food that is taken into the system. That is why a pure food medicine, such as Father John's Medicine, makes strength by means of its nourishing body-building elements which are easily taken into the system.

Those who are weak and run down have the best chance to regain flesh and strength during the summer months. How best to gain weight is told in the following interviews:

Capt. H. F. Rehberg, 60 Carnation street, Pawtucket, R. I., says: "I gained 18 pounds while I was taking Father John's Medicine."

Mrs. G. A. Goodwin of Blossburg, Pa., says: "My boy gained 30 pounds while he was taking Father John's Medicine. It is a grand body builder."

"I gained 20 pounds taking Father John's Medicine," says M. Crosby, 2161 Eighth avenue, New York City.

Policeman Alexander Kilmer of Johnstown, N. Y., says that while he was taking Father John's Medicine he gained 15 pounds.

"I gained 40 pounds by taking Father John's Medicine, and recommend it as a body builder," says Chas.

Florence, 58 Stagg street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Remember that Father John's Medicine builds you up because it contains the exact kind of nourishment that blood and tissue are made of. It is a pure and wholesome food medicine for those who are weak and run down. It does not contain alcohol or dangerous drugs.

Father John's Medicine is for sale in Duluth by William A. Abbott, 205 West Superior street, 101 West Fourth street, 932 East Second street, also Boyce Drug Store, 331 West Superior street; Wirth Drug Store, 13 West Superior street, and practically all other drug stores in the city. If you have any difficulty in getting Father John's Medicine from your druggist, write to Father John's Medicine, Lowell, Mass., enclosing $1 for a large bottle by express, prepaid.

THIS WEEK'S WEATHER

Washington, June 15.—Generally fair weather is forecasted for the coming week, though it will be unsettled and showery the first day or two from the Missouri valley eastward. Toward the end of the week, a disturbance is expected to develop in the extreme Northwest.

"Temperatures will not change markedly during the week," said the weather bureau's bulletin. "Over the central districts they will be normal or a little below, while over the north they will be somewhat lower for the season with a recovery to warmer conditions over the Northwest after the middle of the week."

CHURCHES TAKE UP JAPANESE PROBLEM.

New York, June 15.—The Federal council of the Churches of Christ in America, composed of thirty of the leading Protestant bodies in the country, has appointed commissions on relations with Japan. It is announced. The question of the relations of the United States with Japan will be considered by the commission from a Christian viewpoint.

Human Realm

Minnesota is well represented at the General Federation of Women's clubs being held in Chicago.

Miss Margaret J. Evans of Northfield is one of the honorary vice presidents and on standing committees there are: Mrs. J. L. Washburn, Duluth, chairman of the advisory committee of civil service; Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, Minneapolis, committee on resolutions; Prof. Maria L. Sanford, Minneapolis, advisory committee on education; Mrs. C. G. Higbee, St. Paul, vice chairman of the committee on industrial and social conditions; Miss Josephine V. Brower, St. Paul, vice chairman of the committee on literature and library extension; and Mrs. H. A. Tomlinson, St. Paul, committee on public health.

The educational part of the program will be furthered by exhibits relating to subjects of national interest. There will be exhibits of education, art, music, public health and industrial and social conditions. The civic exhibit will include plans and models of public buildings, especially school buildings. A Chicago architect has consented to give talks on the use of school houses as social centers. The planning of new buildings and the adapting of old ones to this purpose. A garbage collection and disposal exhibit has been arranged with special reference to small towns. A member of the waste commission of Chicago will give a lecture illustrated with garbage apparatus. The Men's Club of Chicago lent its city planning exhibit of home and foreign cities for the benefit of the members of the convention. Another exhibit is that of the Massachusetts Anti-Alcohol Poster campaign, including a collection of German prints. Lectures are scheduled on the scientific anti-alcohol movement and means of aiding it.

All the exhibits are not of such prosaic subjects as garbage and school houses. Exhibitions have been arranged in order to allow the visitors to see the art gallery of Mrs. Foster Palmer and the Chicago Art Institute. Dr. Frank Gunsaulus gave an illustrated lecture on Rembrandt and there have been informal openings of some of the prominent studios, among them those of Miss Clyde Chandler and Lorado Taft.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Daughters of Revolution to Meet in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Daughters of the Revolution will hold their national convention here this week. Social features have been planned for every day, following the business sessions. The first will be the banquet tonight, when the Sons of the Revolution also will be guests. Other smaller affairs will take place at noon and evening each day, with numerous automobile trips to the various lakes and districts. On Thursday the guests will go out to Minnetonka, where they will have luncheon at the La Fayette club. They will then take a boat trip, returning to Minneapolis at the city hall, at the home of one of their members.

FLAG DAY A SUCCESS.

Red, White and Blue Society Raises $300.

At their flag day Saturday the members of the Red, White and Blue society took in $403.50, exclusive of two bad nickels and one bad quarter. The society had taken out a bankbook for their donations to the St. Louis County hospital, and an Saturday afternoon $300 was placed to the credit of the proposed institution. This money will be used to equip the children's ward, the expenses of the day amounted to $93, leaving a balance of $105.50 for the treasury of the society. The largest amount paid for a flag was $1, the $300 county being made up of small offerings, many of them of 5 and 10-cent pieces. Hulda Halvorsen, 12 years old, was the star flag seller, taking in $20. Mrs. Joseph Longren, founder and advisor of the society said, "Considering all the tag days that have been held we are pleased and gratified; the children sold 5,400 flags. Their $300 is the first money to be donated to the proposed hospital."

The Red, White and Blue society is grateful to the courtesy extended to them by the color guard, Chief Quartermaster Erikson of the United States navy, Sergeant Buck of the marine corps and Private Mallory of the state militia. Sergeant Buck and Private Mallory stood on each side of Quartermaster Erikson when the flag was saluted in front of the city hall before the parade started out Superior street.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Shyness in Children Should Be Overcome.

Naturally we are sociable creatures, glad to mingle with our kind and anxious to find congenial companionship. We are born so and it is good for mankind that we are.

The world would make slow progress otherwise. But there are shy people in the world, who make themselves and others miserable because of their inability to mingle easily with friends.

This shyness is a problem which no mother with a timid, shrinking, sensitive child should minimize, for upon the overcoming of this tendency depends the future man's and woman's comfort, happiness and a good part of their success in life.

I well remember as a girl another child several years younger than myself for whom my heart bled to ache in responsive sympathy. I didn't understand then, as I do now, that she was abnormally afraid of every human being outside the members of her own family and that to be spoken to by a stranger inspired as much actual terror in her heart as a whole company of bears would in mine.

She was constantly making the neighborhood ring with her screams of distress. We felt sorry for her and used to make friendly advances which she interpreted more or less in the nature of an attack, judging by her shrill cries. Several experiences of this kind and a little counsel went to make a worried mother taught us to ignore her. Gradually, one by one, she overcame her fear of us, and we are today friendly, but scarcely at ease, in one another's company.

Woman-grown though she is and married, with a son of her own, she has never acquired ease of manner. She is still shy and embarrassed in company and afraid of strangers. She doesn't cry out now, but when anyone attempts to converse with her, but she is just as retiring, and I believe her shyness causes her as much suffering and annoyance as it did when she was a tiny girl.

Childhood is the time to apply the remedy for this sort of shyness. The social side of every human being should be cultivated to the utmost, not for pleasure purely, but because a friendly personality is just as necessary in earning a living as elsewhere, and I do not know but more so. Reticence of speech and an inability to seem agreeable, if not more so, to a bound to be a serious detriment in a workaday world.

Wilkinson has returned to Duluth, but the other members who attended the convention will not return for several days.

SPECIAL MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

Social Center Matter Coming Up—Delegations Will Attend.

There will likely be something in the nature of fireworks at the meeting of the board of education tomorrow evening, for the matter of not only maintaining but extending social centers will be up for discussion. The school board is in doubt whether or not to let the schools be used for such purposes in view of the fact that there has been discussion between social center workers and school principals during the year of trial and the regular meeting of the school board, held on June 2, there was considerable adverse discussion concerning it by board members.

It is understood that several delegations will be present to impress their views on the board. Since the last meeting Mayor Prince has commented unfavorably on the board's action and will likely be at the meeting tomorrow night.

A few routine matters are also expected to come up.

DIES IN THE SOUTH.

Mrs. H. C. Howe, Former Resident of Duluth, Passes Away.

Sterling H. Howe of the Barnum Grain company, returned today from Eaton, N. Y., where he attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. H. C. Howe, who died at Roanoke, Va.

She was an old resident of Duluth, residing for a number of years at Woodland. She removed with her husband and family to Cuba ten years ago, and they subsequently moved to Roanoke, Va., where her death occurred. Mrs. Howe was survived by two sons and one daughter, Sterling H., of Duluth and Rothwell and Florence, residing at Roanoke, Va. Her husband died three years ago.

SOUVENIRS FOR THE PRESIDENT.

Washington, June 15.—Apparently entered by his strenuous Saturday at Princeton, President Wilson, accompanied by Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, returned to Washington shortly after 7 o'clock Sunday morning. The president brought with him as souvenirs of the board of education tomorrow evening, for the matter of not only maintaining but extending social centers will be up for discussion. The school board is in doubt whether or not to let the schools be used for such purposes in view of the fact that there has been discussion between social center workers and school principals during the year of trial and the regular meeting of the school board, held on June 2, there was considerable adverse discussion concerning it by board members.

to see the demonstration of FLORENCE AUTOMATIC OIL STOVES. A special demonstrator and a Duluth chef will show you all about these stoves. Light lunch made on the "Florence" will be served.

Be cool this summer. Don't swelter in a hot kitchen. Every drop of oil used in these stoves is first turned into gas. No wicks to clean, a simple lever device does the trick. When you want a flame just turn the lever and light with a match and you have a flame (blue flame). When through turn it again and it goes out.

LADIES Come in Tuesday or Wednesday, bring your friends, get a light lunch and see the splendid "Florence" Automatic Oil Stoves, with or without ovens. Reasonable in price. — COOK, BAKE, FRY or BROIL.

DEMOCRATS AND THE PRIMARIES.

If there is not a large Democratic vote in tomorrow's primaries it will be simply because many Democrats have not been alive to their opportunity to be of service to their state and their party.

They have a chance, tomorrow, to nominate by an overwhelming and impressively large vote a man whom they can present with confidence to the people of Minnesota as the best man available for governor no matter what happens in the Republican primary. They have a chance to nominate Winfield Scott Hammond, who will be a candidate of whom they will be proud and who will make a governor of whom the whole state will be proud.

They have the opportunity of making their party as useful to Minnesota as they have made it to the nation, by nominating and electing as governor a man who has stood by the president in Washington, and who will apply to the governorship of Minnesota the spirit of progress and achievement that has made the national administration great.

The Democratic ballot is available also, of course, to those of independent attitude to whom the candidacy of Winfield Scott Hammond appeals and who, having voted for President Wilson two years ago and being pleased with the results, are determined to cast their political fortunes with the Democratic party hereafter, at least so long as it continues to meet their conceptions of government.

In past primary elections many Democrats in Republican counties have voted in the Republican primaries, just as Republicans in Democratic counties have voted in the Democratic primaries. If they had not, they would have been denied a voice in the selection of county officers, for in all such counties the real county election day was held on primary election day.

No Democrat need vote in the Republican primaries this year, and no Republican need vote in the Democratic primaries, to have a voice in nominating county and legislative candidates.

This year all candidates for county and legislative offices go upon a non-partisan ticket which everybody gets, no matter what party he belongs to. Party labels are abolished so far as these offices are concerned. Republicans and Democrats all will get the same county and legislative ballot, and the party ballots are restricted to state and congressional nominations.

So that no Republican in Stearns county, for instance, will need to get a Democratic ballot in order to save himself from being disfranchised on county officers. And no Democrat in St. Louis county will need to get a Republican ticket to save himself from that situation.

This was all the solution needed to stop members of one party from mixing in the primaries of another party. When this happened, it happened because if minority party members did not vote the majority party ticket they had no voice in county and legislative affairs. Now everybody has a voice in county and legislative nominations regardless of politics. The Democrats will "nominate a winner" tomorrow, and they should do it with all their strength.

MORE TARIFF RUINATION.

Senator T. J. Walsh of Montana is a Democrat who fought free wool when the Underwood tariff bill was before the senate.

The Standard, of Anaconda, Montana, reports that "the wool clips in which Senator T. J. Walsh is heavily interested were sold yesterday by Lewis Penwell for twenty cents. This was the top price of the season." Moreover it is several cents higher than sellers of wool clips have been used to getting under protection and Republicanism.

Thus the Democratic tariff pursues its devastating course.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

Tomorrow is primary election day in Minnesota.

Democratic, Republican and Bull Moose candidates will be nominated for state and congressional office. Non-partisan candidates will be nominated for judicial, county and legislative offices.

Everybody will get two ballots: his party ballot, on which will appear the candidates for his party's nomination for governor, state officers and congressmen; and the non-partisan ballot, on which will appear the candidates for judicial, legislative and county offices.

Of course everybody should vote. Elections are everybody's business, and their outcome depends invariably and solely upon how diligently everybody attends to this business.

The poorest kind of a citizen is the one who doesn't vote. His neglect has the same effect as the votes of the purchasable and the corrupt: it produces bad government.

The non-voter and the venal voter are twin sources of evil—twin menaces to free government.

And the primary election is so important as the general election—often more important. In many cases its results are final. In many cases it diminishes the voter's choice, and often by neglect at the primaries nothing but Hobson's choice is left the voter at the general election.

Maybe, if you live in Duluth, you have not registered for the primary election. Don't let that stop you. See that two property-owners, residents of your election district, are there when you are. The three of you will fill out blank affidavits that will be provided at the polling places, and thus make you eligible to vote.

Anyway, if you would vote in November you must register for that election. Tomorrow is your first chance to do that. There is but one other chance—October 24—and something might happen to prevent your registering then.

HARD LUCK FOR CALAMITY BREEDERS.

A certain political element, out of pocket when out of office and out of office when the Democrats are in, has made up its mind that the best way to get back is to convince the people that Democratic rule means hard times.

If times aren't hard, they say they are loudly and often, hoping that many will believe it.

But this element is having practically hard luck. First came the crop reports, indicating a record-breaking grain yield. Good crops are the surest foundations of prosperity, and many a Republican victory has been built upon them. That was the first blow to the calamity-breeders.

Then general reports of increased industrial activities came tumbling in from right and left. That was another body blow—or rather a series of them.

For many months the railroads were reporting decreasing net earnings, even with increased gross earnings. The latest reports are of increased net earnings, and that's another knock at the foundations of calamity.

But the worst blow yet is dealt by the tariff figures. The calamity-breeders were gloating, not long ago, on the agreeable prospects of national bankruptcy. The tariff revenues were to fall off until there wouldn't be money enough to run the government, and then where would the Democrats be? The question where the country would be, didn't worry them. The country can go hang if they can get office.

And now even that hope is denied them. The nation is not going bankrupt. The revenues are going to be ample.

When the Underwood tariff law was passed it was known that it would reduce the revenues. An attempt was made to estimate how much it would reduce them. Figuring safely, the authorities estimated a pretty big cut. The calamity-breeders, thinking the authorities would put the best face on it, figured that they had underestimated the cut, and announced that it would be bigger than estimated.

Here again the calamity-breeders have been fooled.

For instance, in the last fiscal year tariff revenue was $318,891,000. The tariff bill framers estimated that it would be $270,000,000 in this fiscal year. The calamity-framers figured it would run much less than that.

At the present rate this year's tariff revenue will reach $291,000,000, or $21,000,000 more than the Democrats estimated it. So instead of bankruptcy on July 1, the country, Secretary McAdoo now figures, will have a surplus of thirty millions.

Truly, the political calamity-breeder is having a tough time of it, butting his head against the stone wall of irresistible prosperity.

Fortunately, there is no danger of damage to his head. Ivory is nearly as hard as stone.

The Gossips

Wait Mason in Judge: Old Mrs. Swords dropped in to see her old friend Mrs. Sabers; they blew the foam from bowls of tea and talked about their neighbors.

"I have been told," said Mrs. Swords, "that Sarah Jane McGee was asked to leave the place she boards, because she wouldn't settle. She had the money to do so, but she wouldn't. I hear she couldn't pay the little bill for codfish balls and blotters. I always said she was a freak, a dame who wouldn't be trusted, and every time I hear her speak, I always feel disgusted. She is, considering her years, too frolicsome and frisky; I have never known her sober and keeps a jug of whiskey."

"She's bad enough. I have no doubt," said Mrs. Sabers slowly, "but lots of people hereabouts are down on her. There's Mrs. Skaggs, across the way, who is the chief of sillies; the way she's trailing George Gray has given me the willies. She's bound that she will capture him and rush him to the altar, and in that purpose, weird as it grim, you'll never see her fail. She simply has no sense of shame, she trails him close and closer, and I'm afraid that withered dame will hog the grocer. There are more blemishes on her than e'er I set my glims on; her upper lip is black with fur, her ugly beak is crimson; her headpiece aching void, she has no shape whatever, her teeth are made of celluloid, she is not bright or clever. Her talk is always coarse and rough, she never thinks or reasons, and I have heard she's fond of snuff and hits the pipe at seasons."

Now there are chirrups of delight and shaken heads and kisses. "Your coming is a gladness sight," Mrs. Sabers hisses. "Enjoy yourself, now. Mrs. Skaggs, while I put on the kettle; take off your bonnet and your rage, and let me see your face. You're a quite honored, I declare, to have you come and see me; congenial callers are so rare!" she goes on, glad and beaming.

Says Mrs. Swords, "You know I live up by the village pond, there, and I don't think you'd forgive if you don't drop around there." They gossip till the sun goes down, on divers village matters, and give up everyone's renown and dance upon the tatters. They toddle homeward when the moon is in the heavens or us. "We're out of the charm of afternoon," they, parting, say, in chorus.

The Outstretched Palm.

Chicago News: Americans who have traveled in Europe report feeling that a hearty welcome awaits anyone there, particularly an American. Nearly everybody, they say, has his hand out. However, the outstretched palm is not always a sign of friendship. In brief, it is the bugbear of travel in Europe, so these pilgrims assert.

A similar impression with respect to the United States seems to have been gained by not a few Europeans. Now they are coming back to the States, and they are doing the nation a service in attempting to dispel the idea. It gives a scale of tipping rates to which the visitor from Australia or any other foreign shore might well adhere. This includes the 10 per cent rule for restaurants or hotel cafes, 15 per cent for barbers' services, 10 cents for barbers and so on. If a traveler in this or other countries is to be conceded that he must—be he should not be the object of frowns and dour looks if he confines himself to some such moderate scale.

Meanwhile, it would do wealthy or spendthrift Americans no harm to think over the injury they are doing by spoiling hotel porters and waiters with lavish fees, thereby depriving the people who really do the work of good service and sometimes of respectful treatment. Such people ought to know that giving extravagant tips is a sign of ill breeding.

Intensive Sleeping.

Frederick Paterson in the Atlantic: There seems to be such a thing as intensive sleeping, just as we have intensive gardening and farming. It has been shown experimentally that repose is deepest during the first hour or two, and that sleep becomes more shallow, more superficial, and it seems to be conceivable that very sleeping intensively for two or three hours we might secure as much actual rest as we now obtain by dissipating it over seven or eight hours. It would be interesting to know more than we do about comparative sleep of the various animals. The authorities state that birds, despite their enormous activities and more intense metabolism, sleep very little. The dog, which appears to sleep so much, is said to be the most wakeful of animals. Man is regarded as the soundest sleeper, and the least wakeful among all creatures. It has been suggested that this sleep-relation between dog and man, companions from prehistoric ages, which has been so conducive to their mutual preservation, is another example of that duplex kind of life that we call symbiosis.

Spent.

When I look back along the way I can't count each bootless prayer at wayside shrines; When I remember all the altar stones I've stained with my wanton gifts of tears and wine, And words with roses, broken ruthlessly, To buy reluctant blessings of the Powers; When I consider these, my empty hands, And this my heart, that leaps no more at life, And is too useless to give back the sound Of dancing feet and lure of flute and life, That call and beckon from the market place, When once I danced to mock the graybeard hours; When I remember all the wealth I had, Of joy and faith and careless youth of heart, Which slipped from hands held out for lesser things; I can not wonder that the high gods sit apart And mock me cruelly, by sending you To lift the latches of an empty heart! —Dorothy Paul in Harper's.

Old Age Can Be Cured

Samuel L. Lippincott's

Old age can be cured. The prescription is simple: mix open air and a hobby, shake well, and take as many hours a day as possible. No one is old until he is bored, and the first way hair comes when a man suddenly thinks to himself, "What's the use." Then is the time when a hobby makes life interesting again.

There was an official on one of our great railroads who was retired at 70. "He'll die now," said his friends kindly. But he didn't. Instead, he became interested in the wild flowers, and now he is too busy in looking for the ram-head orchid, and trying to find a new station for the long-tongued fern, and tramping around in the woods and fields in all kinds of weather, even to think of going to bed, that he has no time until he has finished his monograph on the willows of the United States.

There is a woman in Baltimore, 72 years old, who years ago sought to forget a great sorrow by learning the art of the hundred odd migrants, and come the rendezvous for entomologists all over the world, and houses a famous collection. While her contemporaries are doing day between dawn and dusk, she spends her summers in the mountains and her winters in Florida with a butterfly net. Twenty-one new species of butterflies are her contribution to the lepidoptera, and she plans to live until the day she has no more to reach—the using of her single initial species.

An octet of men in Philadelphia, all well past their three-score years, some in business and some foot-loose, belong to the same ornithological society. They are affixed every day of the year, rain or shine, to the ever-changing bird-life. In the spring each prepares migrant-sheets showing the arrivals of the hundred odd migrants that pass through every place every year. There is great rivalry as to who shall score the most warblers or identify the hundred odd migrants in one day. At present writing, the oldest of the eight holds a record of seventy-five different kinds of birds in one day. At the end of a year in the open, he notified his indifferent physician that he had become too much interested in his hobby to confirm his diagnosis. In ten years he has discovered, classified, and named the hundred odd migrants of edible mushrooms, and has published a book which is one of the standard authorities for mushroom-eaters of the world.

Another septuagenarian attributes his long life to the stars. Confined to business during the day, he sought the open air at night to study the changing constellations and the perplexing planets. Then he found that the stars were not so far off as they seemed, and he began to study their colors, and revealed in the blue light of Vega, the green glare of Sirius, the rose-red of Aldebaran, the flame-blue of Rigel, and the strange shades of other gleaming sky kings. Finally he bought a small telescope, and he began to study the stars. He had become too much interested in his hobby to confirm his diagnosis. In ten years he has discovered, classified, and named the hundred odd migrants of edible mushrooms, and has published a book which is one of the standard authorities for mushroom-eaters of the world.

Try it, young men, lest you grow old. Be more interested in your work. Escape into the open from these narrow indoor days and learn the way to where the stars dwell. In their land you will find the help of the hills, and hope wide as the world, and strength, and youth, and happiness. Try it.

The Day of the Gentleman Farmer. William T. Trim in the Atlantic: As a result partly of the widening influence of our agricultural colleges and partly of the new spirit of idealism being created with regard to country life. The nation as a whole, in fact, is making a new estimate of rural life. With the coming of dear lands, city people have awakened to a new interest in country affairs and a new respect for country inhabitants. There is before us in the United States the opportunity to develop perhaps the finest type of life that the world has ever known. The ownership of land in past ages has always been most honorable, but it is regarded as degrading, and is generally as degrading. The actual farmers, equipped with their poor, pitiable instruments, and competing with the various and dishonest tools, have been slaves, serfs, heathen, pagans, bores, peasants. But today the use of modern machinery and the use of modern tools make it possible for the same individual to be a tiller of the soil and a gentleman.

Don't Be a Quitter. We cannot always find the ways that lead to waiting treasures; There must sometimes be dismal days; That are devoid of pleasures; The winning ticket, so swiftly now Tomorrow may be bitter; The storms will come, but anyhow, Don't be a quitter.

We cannot always do the things We wish we might be doing; We may not be all dukes or kings, Some men must plow and some must till; While some live in jewels glitter, But if your place is high or low, Don't be a quitter.

Some men may live in idleness On fortunes they inherit, And some men may possess The sweat, rewards of merit; Some men may ride in lordly state, And some may plow the furrowed field; But, rich or poor, or small or great, Don't be a quitter.

You cannot win by sitting in Your corner, sighing gravely; Inflate your chest, thrust out your nose, And you will never get a thing; And do your duty bravely; You may have cause to be in doubt, Your hardness may be proved, But let the world find out— Don't be a quitter.

Nothing Like That. Baltimore, Md. (The Evening Post): "Oh, no, sir, not a bit of it!" He never takes a drop! —Dorothy Paul in Harper's.

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Edwin O. Wood, Democratic national committeeman from Michigan, is a professional joker. But on his last trip to Washington Wood had a lot of hard luck with his pranks. Nearly every one that he attempted had flunked to it. For instance, on the train he was traveling with, a friend who doesn't smoke. Wood went back to the smoking compartment, leaving his friend in his seat. Then he called the conductor to him. "That man up yonder," says Wood, pointing out his traveling companion, "is a little off his nut, and I am his keeper. It seems to irritate him if I stick around too close, so I'm going to take a chance on leaving him alone for a little while. But I wish you would keep an eye on him. Walk up to him occasionally and tell him he's all right. That always seems to soothe him. If he tries to leave his seat, don't let him. He may try to convince you that he's perfectly sane, and he can put up a good story, too, for he really acts all right most of the time. He's a clever guy in his way."

In a few minutes the conductor came running. "What's the matter?" he asked. "That fellow's all right, but there's a crazy woman back in the next car and she can't handle her. You probably know more about this kind of people than anybody else aboard. So I'll have to get you to come back and help us out."

Before Wood could remonstrate, the conductor had dragged him back into the other car and the crazy woman went on her way. Wood was obliged to ride with her until she got out of the train.

About a week after that Wood went into a Washington hotel with a friend and began to give an order to the colored waiter.

"George," he began, "we'd like a nice sirloin steak, extravagance style, with mushrooms, and a few potatoes, and a mushroom de bonis non. Then bring us some potatoes after ego, tomatoes caput mortuum, new peas durande bent, oh, yes, and some watercress salad with corpus delicti and quasi dressing. Now have you got all that dotted?"

"Yes, sah," replied George quietly. "I guess I got it all, sah—sirloin steak, extravagance style, a plumb unum Sabers, mushrooms, de bonis non, potatoes after ego."

"Well, he read off the whole list of just what he wanted, and he said Wood couldn't have repeated it all himself. He looked up at the waiter and blinked. "Would you remember it all?" he asked, in a subdued tone. And the waiter replied all in Latin, quite as he would in a full Caesar. It seemed that the waiter was working his way through some colored university near Baltimore. "I haven't got away with a joke now for a week."

Sam Blythe, the temperance writer, and Tom Pence, the genial and high-minded publicity agent of the Democratic party, met on a Washington street corner one morning simultaneously with a group of people. By means of having quit drinking and writing about how he felt, Blythe had become a good living, but he thought it would be fine to make even more money, and he decided to go back to drinking. He had learned of a certain stock that was going to shoot skyward, and all that one had to do, as Sam looked at it, was simply to purchase a little block of this stock. One could then sit back quietly, awaiting developments, and in a very short time he would be a small fortune without the bother of having to work for it.

Tom Pence stood thoughtfully fingering a little assortment of subsidiary coins in his pocket while Sam looked on. He had a hunch that Tom was going to do something, and he was sure that Tom would do it.

Well, when they had lost a trifle more than $100 apiece, Sam decided to go back to drinking. He had learned of a certain stock that was going to shoot skyward, and all that one had to do, as Sam looked at it, was simply to purchase a little block of this stock. One could then sit back quietly, awaiting developments, and in a very short time he would be a small fortune without the bother of having to work for it.

Finally, at Tom's suggestion, he and Sam were to put a little money into a common fund, and if the stock did not go up, they were to divide the years of the Roosevelt administration, from 1901 to 1909.

Who should be the man who was president during those years when the trust question and "Tariff reduction has not helped."

When was apprehension more widespread among our people than in 1907, when the Roosevelt administration was in progress, when most of the banks refused payments, when the longest bread lines ever seen in this country were formed, and when 2,000,000 men were out of work?

When was it that the high cost of living first began to pinch, and that the years of the Roosevelt administration, from 1901 to 1909, were the years when the trust question and "Tariff reduction has not helped."

Keeping Up With Minnesota Editors

From Comments on Current Events.

A Reasonable Deduction! Park Rapids Journal: A Wisconsin judge discharged a saloon keeper who sold liquor to a halfbreed on the ground that a halfbreed is not an Indian. In line with this decision the saloon keeper must have been a grape juice enthusiast.

And Yet They Say "Depression!" Preston Times: An exchange suggests that the cities are full of idle men clamoring for work. The country is full of farmers clamoring for workers. But the idle men the city would rather remain idle than go to the country and learn to work on the farm. Perhaps if the farmers would adopt an eight-hour rule, following the city fellows to begin work at 3 and quit at 5, with an hour off for dinner, a few from the city would consent to try it at a union scale of $6.40 a day.

How Can They on Him? Brown's Valley Tribune: If the Republicans and Progressives should unite on Roosevelt in 1916, he would not doubt be the next president. And the colored is about the only man upon whom they could unite.

Consistency! Princeton Union: An iron range newspaper—one that is always on the side of the bar! candidates—has discovered that favoring the iron tonnage tax on iron ore and for that reason is not deserving of support in the iron country. Henry Rines has consistently opposed the imposition of a tonnage tax on iron ore and the same range newspaper is putting in its best looks for Mr. Rines' opponent. What a medley of capriciousness, inconsistency and ingratitude!

Why They Like Him. Austin Transcript: Nothing helps a candidate for office like a good, clean, consistent record. Let a few people out working for Henry Rines for state auditor just because they admire the long, hard fight he has made for good government and because they know he has backed up every promise he ever made by actual performance, just as he will do in the auditor's office.

Andist "Some Goe." Hutchinson Leader: Prof. C. M. Andrist has tendered his resignation as professor on the state university faculty. In the published news item no reason was assigned, but if it is due to time to prosecuting his campaign for lieutenant governor, for which office he has filed on the Democratic ticket, there will be a real contest for that office this fall. Mr. Andrist is a man whose friends wherever he goes make him "go some" when he gets started.

Such Language! Anoka Union: Teddy is going to repeat his old trick again, defeating the Republican party, den him.

New York World: No uproarious Progressive is going to thrive directly upon the mental nourishment left by Col. Roosevelt on his departure for Spain. Roosevelt has left no doubt that there will be a real contest for that office this fall. Mr. Andrist is a man whose friends wherever he goes make him "go some" when he gets started.

The Free Love Handed.

Louisville Courier-Journal: A life insurance company has resisted payment of a policy upon the life of a California man who was shot by a woman with whom he maintained illicit relations. The contention upon which refusal of payment is based is that when the policy was written the man was engaged in a hazardous occupation. He was at the time a member of the "free love" party, and subsequently killed him and was acquitted when arraigned for murder. It is argued that such relations are a constant lead to acts of violence upon the part of one or the other parties that murder is a not uncommon final result of such a relationship. The company is, therefore, an act of fraud upon the part of an applicant for life insurance who is engaged in an illicit affair to represent himself as a not extra hazardous risk. He should answer the question

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the relative differences of the Duluth and the Herald. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

PLEA FOR DOGS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The Herald of June 11 published an account of a boy who was heartbroken because his dog was arrested and put in pound. He took his little savings of months and bought a tag, went to the pound to get his dog and discovered he had to pay an additional fee of $2 to get him out, which he could not do; and with tears streaming down his face he met Mr. Hicken, who loaned him the money, to be paid back when possible. I know Mr. Hicken will get every penny he loaned that boy, for one showing his disposition will surely make good.

But, how about the poor kiddie who can't raise the $1.50 or the $3.50? Must he be deprived of a pet? Many people can feed and care for a pet, but a great many cannot pay such a fee for a tag. Personally, I have bought tags for my pets in many different cities, but Duluth is the only city I ever paid such a price. The price is a terribly large one and prohibits many from keeping their pets. No doubt the city officials will say there are too many dogs, but from close observation, and many thousands of miles of driving, Duluth I know there are dozens of children in the streets to every dog and I know if children had more pets they would be kept off the streets more and in their yards where they belong, the poorer classes especially. My suggestion is "live and let live." Give the poor a chance and allow the children to have their pets that mean so much to them. The only way to do so is to reduce this fee for tags from $1.50 to 75 cents at the most, including tag, that costs so little. Surely Duluth is big enough and the loss to the city in dollars and cents could be replaced by foregoing the pleasure of purchasing any more motor cars. The men who regulate these things should think of their childhood and remember their pets, which no doubt were never tagged as now, and if they have hearts they will surely do something to help save the dogs from this wholesale slaughter. Very truly yours, a lover of children and dogs.

MRS. F. M. GREER.

REPLIES TO MR. TOWNE.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Please allow a brief space for a reply to the letter sent to The Herald last night by Mr. Towne, secretary of the county committee of the Socialist party.

The gist of the letter is that I am the Socialist candidate for state senator from the Fifty-eighth district. Now if there is anyone in the Fifty-eighth district who does not know this to be a fact, will please hold up his hand. With The Herald and the News Tribune continually referring to me as such, is there any doubt in the minds of the readers of these papers that I am a party Socialist?

The letter, however, is admittedly sent out to emphasize this fact, and because I am being supported by the Labor World and believers in municipal ownership and home rule for cities.

The support of the Labor World is being given me on my record as a union labor man, that of the others because of my activity in advocating their principles. Will Mr. Towne or some other champion of free speech and free press give a single reason why the Labor World and these people should not be permitted to endorse my candidacy?

What I "admitted" to my friend, Towne, was that the policy of the Socialist party organization is to advocate the election of the entire ticket and not that of any individual. But will he please point to any statute, municipal, state or Federal, that would prohibit any individual from expressing his political preference for a Socialist candidate? Speak louder, please! It is true there is no "split" in the Socialist party in Duluth. There is, however, a serious difference of opinion regarding party tactics which is well known as the "revolutionists" or "impossibilists" on the one hand, and the "opportunists" or the wing composed of men and women who believe in getting something for the working class today, on the other. I claim to belong to this latter class. Our opinions on matters of tactics seldom agree. Yours truly, RICHARD JONES.

Duluth, June 14.

FAREWELL DINNER

TO P. M. BISSONNETTE

The officers and employees of P. A. Patrick & Co. tendered P. M. Bissonnette a luncheon at the Glass Block tea room on Saturday noon on the occasion of his retirement from the office after being associated with it for eleven years as a department manager.

As a token of the esteem in which he is held, he was presented with a handsome silver set. W. B. Cross acted as toastmaster and several speeches were made all attesting the kindly feelings held towards Mr. Bissonnette.

Mr. Bissonnette's resignation will take effect on July 1, after which he will open an office in St. Paul as the representative of several well known importers and manufacturers through the territory adjacent to the Twin Cities.

ELKS HONOR OLD GLORY

Flag Day Exercises Are Held in Lodge's Club Rooms.

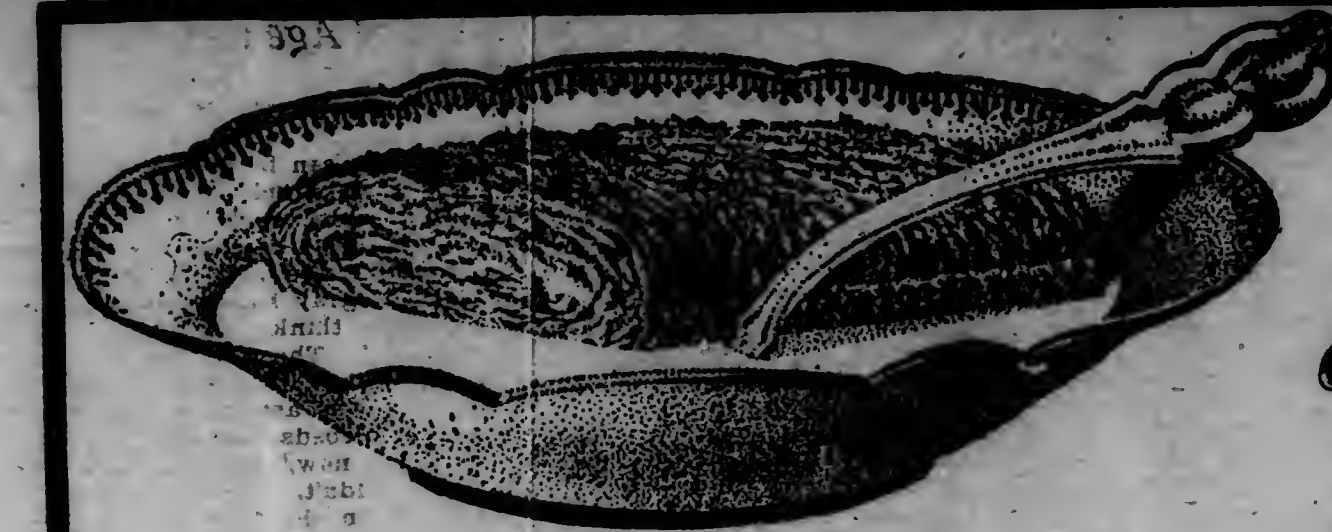

Ray M. Hughes Talks on "Citizenship"—"Liberty Bell" of Flowers.

Flag Day was observed yesterday afternoon by Duluth Elks with appropriate exercises in the lodge rooms, 309-311 West First street, which were beautifully decorated for the occasion with the stars and stripes and flowers. The services were featured by a masterful address on "Citizenship" by Ray M. Hughes. He recited the events leading to the adoption of Old Glory as the national emblem, pointed out the significance of the stars and stripes and declared that the same spirit which prevailed at that time as necessary now as then to promote citizenship which will further the best interests of the country. He asserted that citizenship means more than participation in government, carrying with it proper exercise of through study and active appreciation of the problems which confront the people today. The services were opened with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the audience. Richard Jones read a brief history of the flag and the officers of the lodge assisted in erecting the "Liberty Bell," consisting of a base of red roses, a center piece of white lilies, a wreath of blue violets with a bow of stars on top, upon the altar, over which the flag had previously been draped. The roses are symbolic of loyalty and devotion, the lilies of charity, purity and truth and the violets of love and fidelity. Following this eleven strokes were sounded by the Elks, a remnant of brothers who have gone to the other shore. The Elks tribute to the flag was given by H. C. State. The exercises were under the direction of Exalted Ruler Morrisson. They were attended by a large number of Elks and their families and friends.

MONAHAN ATTACKS "GRAIN GAMBLERS."

That the trade in grain futures is robbing the producer of the cream of his profits by causing the fluctuation of prices through artificial supply and demand was the keynote of a speech given by Congressman-at-large James Monahan Saturday night at the corner of Second avenue west and Superior street.

Mr. Monahan, who is making a run for the nomination as attorney general, is basing his candidacy upon his fight in congress against alleged grain dealers, said Mr. Monahan, "but I do declare that men who make their money by buying and lowering prices at their own will, are robbing the producer of the cream of the profits of their toil."

Shredded Wheat

It contains all the body-building nutriment in the whole wheat grain, is not "bleached," nor "treated," nor "compounded" with anything; contains no yeast, baking powder or chemicals of any kind. Its purity, cleanliness and food value stand unchallenged, being endorsed by the highest health and dietetic authorities.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Deliciously nourishing when eaten in combination with baked apples, stewed prunes, sliced bananas or canned or preserved fruits. ## ADLAI E. STEVENSON WILL BE BURIED AT BLOOMINGTON Former Vice President's Body Lies in State There.

Death Occurs Early Sunday After Several Months' Illness.

Bloomington, Ill., June 15.—Adlai E. Stevenson, former vice president of the United States, who died early Sunday in a hospital at Chicago, will be buried here Tuesday afternoon. Vice President Marshall will come from Washington to attend the funeral. Governor Dummer and other state officials will be honorary pall bearers.

The body arrived last night and will lie in state until the funeral. A private service at the residence in Franklin square will precede the services at the Second Presbyterian church.

Adlai E. Stevenson, 58 years old, died at 10:30 a. m. Sunday after a long illness. He was born in Chicago, Ill., and was a member of the Democratic party. He was vice president of the United States from 1893 to 1897.

His last illness followed a five months' attack of the kidneys, which he had since the death of his wife, Mrs. Stevenson, who died in 1908. He had been suffering from a nervous breakdown since his return from his home at Bloomington, Ill., for treatment. His condition gradually improved, and he was able to leave the hospital. The burden of his years and the oppressive heat combined to bring on his death.

He became unconscious Saturday morning and was revived long enough to recognize relatives and then lapsed. He was unconscious at the end.

Three children survive him: Lewis G. Stevenson, president of the Illinois state board of pardons; Mrs. Martha D. Hardin of Chicago, and Miss Letitia Stevenson of Bloomington, Ill.

Adlai Ewing Stevenson, once vice president of the United States, had a long and honorable public career. He was vice president from 1893 to 1897 and again was nominated by the Democratic party for vice president in 1900. He was again nominated by the party's candidate for president, but was defeated. He served as a member of the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth congresses. From 1895 to 1899 he served as first assistant postmaster general under President Cleveland.

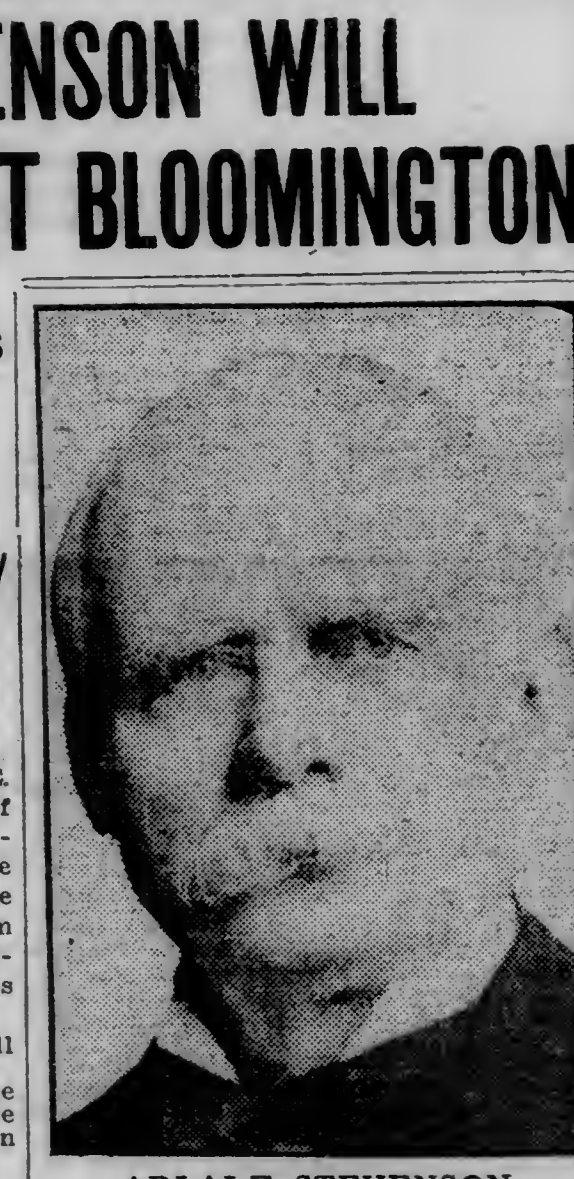

His last appearance as a candidate for public office was in 1908, when he was nominated for governor of Illinois by the Democratic party and was defeated by Charles S. Deneen, Republican.

Born in Kentucky, he was born in Christian county, Kentucky, Oct. 23, 1855, of Scotch-Irish parentage. In 1862 his parents moved to Bloomington, Ill. He attended the public schools and the University of Kentucky.

In 1886 he graduated from Center college, Danville, Ky. There he was a classmate of Senator Joe Blackburn and other Kentucky youths who later became prominent in public life. He signaled the close of his college career by marrying Miss Letitia Green, daughter of Dr. Lewis W. Green, president of the college. Stevenson returned to Bloomington and read law. He was admitted to the bar in 1888 and began the practice at Mt. Vernon, Ill., where he remained until 1893. During these ten years he held various offices in the community, and served as first assistant postmaster general under President Cleveland.

In 1893 he returned to Bloomington and formed a law partnership with his cousin, James E. Ewing, and for many years this firm was one of the best known in Illinois legal circles.

Stevenson's political career dated from 1864, when he was a presidential elector in behalf of the McClellan ticket. He made a canvass of Illinois in behalf of the McClellan ticket and won a reputation as a political orator. In 1874 Stevenson was nominated for congress by the Greenbacks and Anti-monopoly parties in the Thirtieth Illinois district against Gen. John Mc-

Nulta, Republican. The Democrats considered the case hopeless and did not even hold a convention. The ensuing campaign was exciting and Stevenson was elected by a majority of 1,322 votes.

In 1876 he again was elected to congress from the same district on the Greenback ticket, although he was supported by the Democrats, who declined to put up a candidate. In 1884 Stevenson led the Illinois delegates to the Democratic national convention which nominated Grover Cleveland for president. In 1887 he was appointed a member of a commission which visited Europe in an effort to secure international bimetalism.

SUFFRAGIST AIDS FREE SPEECH WORK

Dispute Over Methods Breaks Up Meeting at Tarrytown.

Tarrytown, N. Y., June 15.—Advocates of free speech developed such differences among themselves at a meeting here Sunday in free speech advocacy that the authorities intervened and the gathering broke up.

Members of the Free Speech league and others, incensed over recent arrests of industrial workers of the World and sympathizers who came here to discuss the attitude of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., with regard to the Colorado strike situation, tried in vain last week to secure permission from local authorities to hold a street meeting. They likewise found all available church halls closed to them. Mrs. Charles A. Gould, a prominent suffragist, however, offered the use of the Greek theater near her estate near here for a meeting and yesterday Tipton Sinclair and others availed themselves of the opportunity to present free speech arguments to an audience of several hundred people, many of them I. W. W. members from New York.

Walter the Disturber, declared that the agitation for free speech would be kept up in Tarrytown, near which the Rockefeller estate is situated, until the privilege had been granted the men and women arrested in the recent demonstration. The speaker was Adolph Wolf, a sculptor. He denounced Sinclair for using methods he had adopted for gaining "free speech." The people would demand, not plead, for their rights, he said.

"We want free speech and we'll get it before we are through, and we won't have to crawl before anyone to get it," he declared. Mrs. Gould and others tried to quiet the speaker, but he persisted in shouting his arguments. Then Sheriff Doyle of Westchester county and five of his deputies took a hand in the argument. Wolf ended his speech and this ended the meeting. Mrs. Gould said that should Sinclair be unable to secure a hall to present further arguments to the people of the village, she would allow him to use the theater again.

TWO ARRESTED FOR BIG LOTTERY DEAL.

Chicago, June 15.—Frank Urwan, partner of Mack K. Higginbotham in what is said to be one of the greatest lottery schemes ever brought to the attention of the government, was arrested here yesterday. Higginbotham was taken into custody Friday night. According to the district attorney, the two promoted the Railroad Improved Land association, renting half of a floor in a large office building here and employing twenty stenographers. The association represented that it owned 75,000 acres near St. Louis. For $15 a person would be given a chance of drawing a tract of 160, 80, 40 or 20 acres. Victims who failed to draw land were entitled to 100 shares in a 2,000-acre orchard which had been planted at a cost of $450,000, the promoters said.

For COUNTY COMMISSIONER SECOND DISTRICT ST. LOUIS COUNTY

ROBERT H. McQUADE

THE undersigned has filed for the office of County Commissioner for the Second District of St. Louis County. He has resided in this County for the past 46 years and is familiar with the duties of that office.

The roads in this County are largely unfinished.

The main thoroughfares should be finished in such shape so that travel could be made over them at any time with comfort, and the money expended for that purpose applied therefor.

Your vote is solicited for the welfare of St. Louis County as well as the district in which you reside.

Truly yours,

ROBERT H. McQUADE.

STATE-WIDE PRIMARIES TUESDAY; REVIEW OF WARM CAMPAIGN

WILLIAM E. LEE.

***** Tomorrow is primary election day in Minnesota. Party candidates are to be nominated for state and congressional offices on party ballots. Non-partisan candidates for judicial, legislative and county offices are to be nominated on a non-partisan ballot. To vote in Duluth you must be registered; but if you have not already done so you can register tomorrow by making an affidavit, attested to by two property owners of your election district, that you are qualified to vote. Blank forms will be provided at the polling places. Tomorrow is also the first registration day for the November election, and there is but one more registration day. If you vote tomorrow you are registered for the November election. If you are in doubt about any point, call up The Herald or the city clerk's office. *****

With tonight will end the first campaign that the state has had under the non-partisan primary act, and the second under the statewide primary.

Tomorrow will be primary election day, and after that, except the usual political post-mortems, there will probably be a time until along in September somewhere, when the candidates will again be hitting a big spend for preference at the election of Nov. 3.

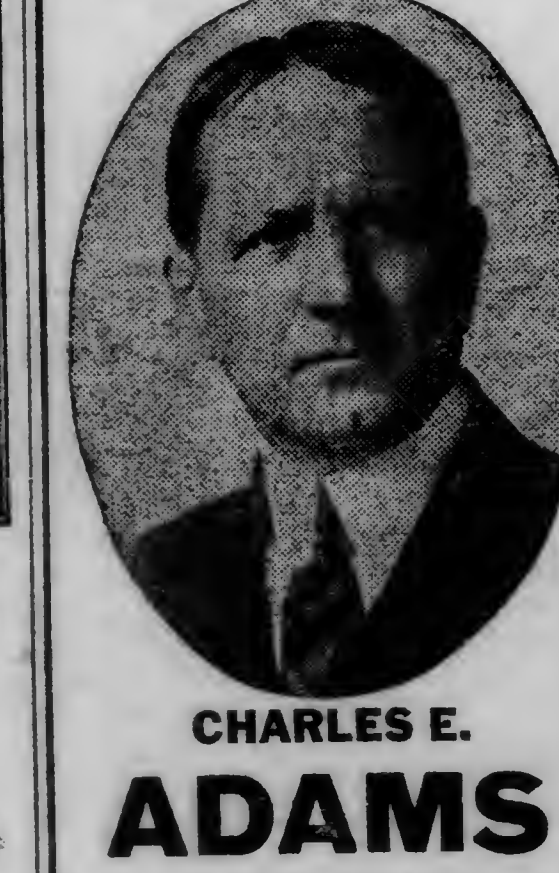

That the non-partisan primary law is a step in the right direction, almost the entire state agrees. It is a Minnesota idea, and no other state has yet adopted it.

Many hope that the non-partisan principle will be extended by the next legislature to take in state offices. The bear-pit scramble in the Republican party is disgusting even the party leaders, and they, it is believed, realize that the non-partisan feature of the law, there would be less mess in the party than there is, and a better chance of victory in November, a chance that now seems remote.

So far as the campaign is concerned, the promises made at the beginning—that it would be clean and dignified—have hardly been lived up to. The governor, of course, has been very dignified—entirely untrifled. It would seem—but his campaign committee, consisting of one newspaperman, has not hesitated to use language that could scarcely be said to carry much dignity with it. In fact, at times, he almost descended to billingsgate. On the other hand, Mr. Lee and his supporters, while not wholly engaged in mud-slinging, used enough of the stickiest stuff to take away the credit of dignity from them. In all, a lovely time was had in this fight and therefore more sore spots than those who think much of the Republican party like to think about. They fear that it spells disaster in the November election—and the fear seems to be well grounded.

As to the chances between Eberhart and Lee in tomorrow's election, there is a wide divergence of opinion. The Lee men are enthusiastically confident; and it must be admitted that it is not "put on" confidence either. They either have pretty sure grounds for that confidence, or it has been pointed out, or it is the enthusiasm of the younger generation of men engaged for the first time in a hard and aggressive campaign. The Eberhart crowd is older and more conservative. But with all the

WINFIELD SCOTT HAMMOND.

Eberhart claims of victory, it sounds much like the case of the boy who whistled in the dark to keep up his courage. And yet, with all the machinery which the governor has, and the experienced manipulation of the adroit and astute Ed Smith, it has been uphill work for Lee with a newly formed machine.

Here is the way that a close canvass and comparison of opinions, made with the past week, makes things look by congressional districts—no prediction intended, however:

First—Close. Claimed for Eberhart, but many counties strongly for Lee, and he may carry it.

Second—For Lee by a fair majority.

Third—Eberhart fairly strong.

Fourth—For Eberhart. This district includes St. Paul, where the governor is expected to be the strongest.

Fifth—Claimed for Lee. This includes most of Minneapolis. Estimates vary from a guess that Lee will carry it two to one to a fair majority for Eberhart. It looks like a Lee district.

Sixth—This is Lee's own district and is counted for him.

Seventh—For Lee strongly, beyond question.

Eighth—For Eberhart.

Ninth—For Lee, very likely by an overwhelming vote.

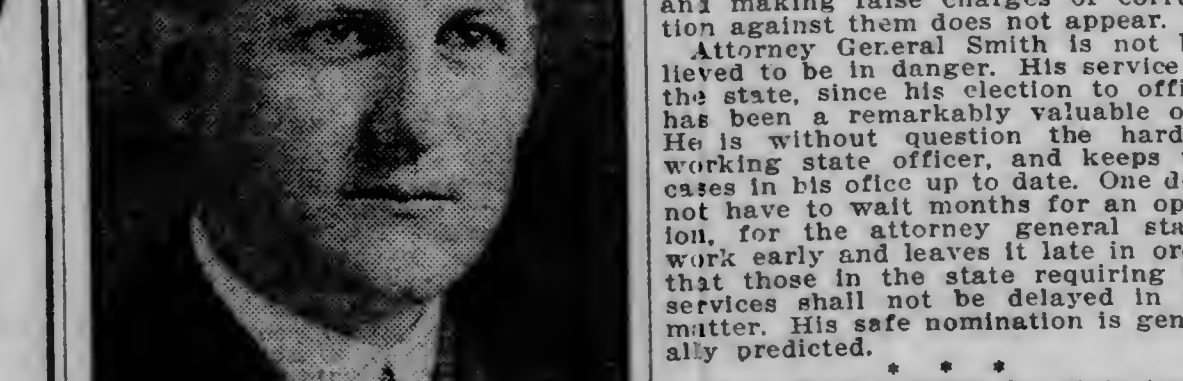

Tenth—For Lee if the Fifth is, as it too, includes part of Hennepin.

It will be noticed that the Eighth—this district—is conceded to Eberhart. The fact is, it is claimed, the Eberhart forces secretly look to the Eighth seat to pull the governor through. Should this fall them, it's good-by, Mr. Eberhart. The hardest work has been put in here to make the Eberhart majority big, but the Lee forces have worked hard to overcome this condition. Mr. Lee, himself, has said that there is no hope for him to carry this congressional district and hopes only to keep Eberhart's majority from increasing here. St. Louis county and Ramsey have cast no vote upon as Eberhart's strongest fields.

On the Democratic ticket the only contest is for the governorship and there is little doubt that Congressman Winfield Scott Hammond will be the Democratic candidate.

On the eve of primary election day, Democrats are again urged to help swell Congressman Hammond's primary election vote. Democrats are admonished to remember that, therefore, Hammond's friends should also vote. Every Hammond Democrat should get to the polls and cast his vote for his favorite. The returns should show a full Democratic vote for, besides nominating Mr. Hammond, a large party vote will have a strong effect on the result in November. There should be no indication of desertion or indifference tomorrow, for that will have a bad effect on the ultimate election.

Congressman Hammond has not deserted his post in Washington to campaign for the nomination and it is therefore up to his friends to see that he is given just as big a vote as body in this district for many campaigns. However, it is believed among Democrats, at least, that the winner of the primary contest is due for an awful jolt when he goes up against Andrew Nelson in November.

The legislative ticket is non-partisan and two nominations will be made tomorrow for every office, these two to contend at the November election.

In the Fifty-seventh district it looks as though Charles E. Adams will poll the largest vote of the three running and that he will have no difficulty qualifying in November—which, however, is a long way ahead. In that district the contest for representative is regarded as close between the three aspirants—E. J. Kenny, W. J. North and E. N. Wheeler—with the prospects that they will figure in that order in the returns.

In the Fifty-eighth district Senator Pugh, however, is looked upon as certain to lead by a heavy vote, and the prospects are that Capt. Randall will be the other nominee over Richard Jones, Socialist. There is no more contest here, as there are no more candidates than there are nominations to be made.

In the Fifty-ninth district George M. Peterson and P. C. Phillips are the contestants for senator and therefore do not appear on the primary ballot. There is a lively contest on, however, for the house, there being seven candidates, two of them Socialists.

In the Sixtieth district John A. Healy of Hibbing is not only nominated, but goes before the people with a loyal prize in its nominee, and with an opportunity to elect men who will be the governor of the whole people.

Democracy never had a better chance of landing its man in the saddle than in the two campaigns of Governor Johnson after he had established himself with the people of the state. The opportunity is fully as good as was that of 1904.

Grand Rapids Herald-Review: "We most decidedly do not agree with those papers that seem to think that inasmuch as Mr. Hammond is the only Democratic congressman from Minnesota."

So far as county offices are concerned, there are only a few contests. Tomorrow there will be no contests for county auditor or treasurer.

While there are contests for practically all of the other state offices, there is only one real fight is for the office of state auditor and warehouse commissioner. For this three Republicans have filed. The one that the organization is backing is E. B. Johnson of Fergus Falls, who was appointed to the place to fill out the unexpired term of C. P. Staples, who was appointed to the advisory board of the interstate commerce commission some time ago. The fact that Mr. Jacobson is backed by the machine is his worst time. He is believed to be a capable man.

Then comes J. S. Arneson, a former range newspaper man. Jim is popular and capable and would, it is conceded, make an able member of the commission. The third is J. P. Rosenwald of Mauden, who ran against Commissioner or District two years ago, but is not expected to cut much figure this year. It is taken for granted that this will be a very close fight. While Mr. Arneson lacks organized backing, he is said to have more individual backing on a basis of friendship than the other two men combined; and that speaks pretty well of any man.

Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith has opposition for re-nomination in the person of James Munahan, congressman-at-large, who, knowing that he had no show for being elected to congress from the Tenth district, where he had intended to run, and wanting some kind of an office, headed into the fight for the attorney generalship. His chief claim to the office is that he has been fighting the Duluth board of trade and the Minneapolis chamber of commerce in congress; but just where he justifies himself in assuming two of the state's chief institutions and making false charges of corruption against them does not appear.

Attorney General Smith is not believed to be in danger. His service to the state since his election to office, has been a remarkably valuable one. He is without question the hardest working state officer, and keeps the cases in his office up to date. One does not have to wait months for an opinion, for the attorney general starts work early and leaves it late in order that those in the state requiring his services shall not be delayed in the matter. His safe nomination is generally predicted.

As to Walter Smith for state treasurer, it seems like a joke that anybody should file against him. The office of clerk of the supreme court. It is also believed that Justice Bunn will have no difficulty in being returned to the supreme bench.

In the Eighty district, the battle for congress is being fought by a most interesting one. Who will win as between Congressman Miller and Senator Boyle is a matter of keen dispute these days. Both have their adherents and both sides seem confident of a victory. They that are a matter of fact, one side or the other is due for the hardest mental jolt that has been handed any-

For the office of register of deeds, three have filed, the present incumbent, Charles Calligan, B. F. Smith and Peter Borgstrom. The latter is not taken seriously, but it is still a question as to what figure Mr. Smith will cut. He is very well known in the county. Mr. Calligan has had but one term, and his record is good.

In the matter of sheriff, five men want the job, and it is anybody's fight. One can hear all kinds of predictions on the streets, and each one has his adherents and admirers. Blackwood, the Socialist, is not considered a possibility, but Charles G. Miller, Frank Magle, Sheriff Meining and Walter Johnson are strong contenders for the two places on the general election ballot.

For superintendent of schools, most people expect Supt. Young to lead tomorrow. Who will be his opponent in November, Mr. Arnold or Mr. Forsell, will, of course, have to be determined by the vote tomorrow.

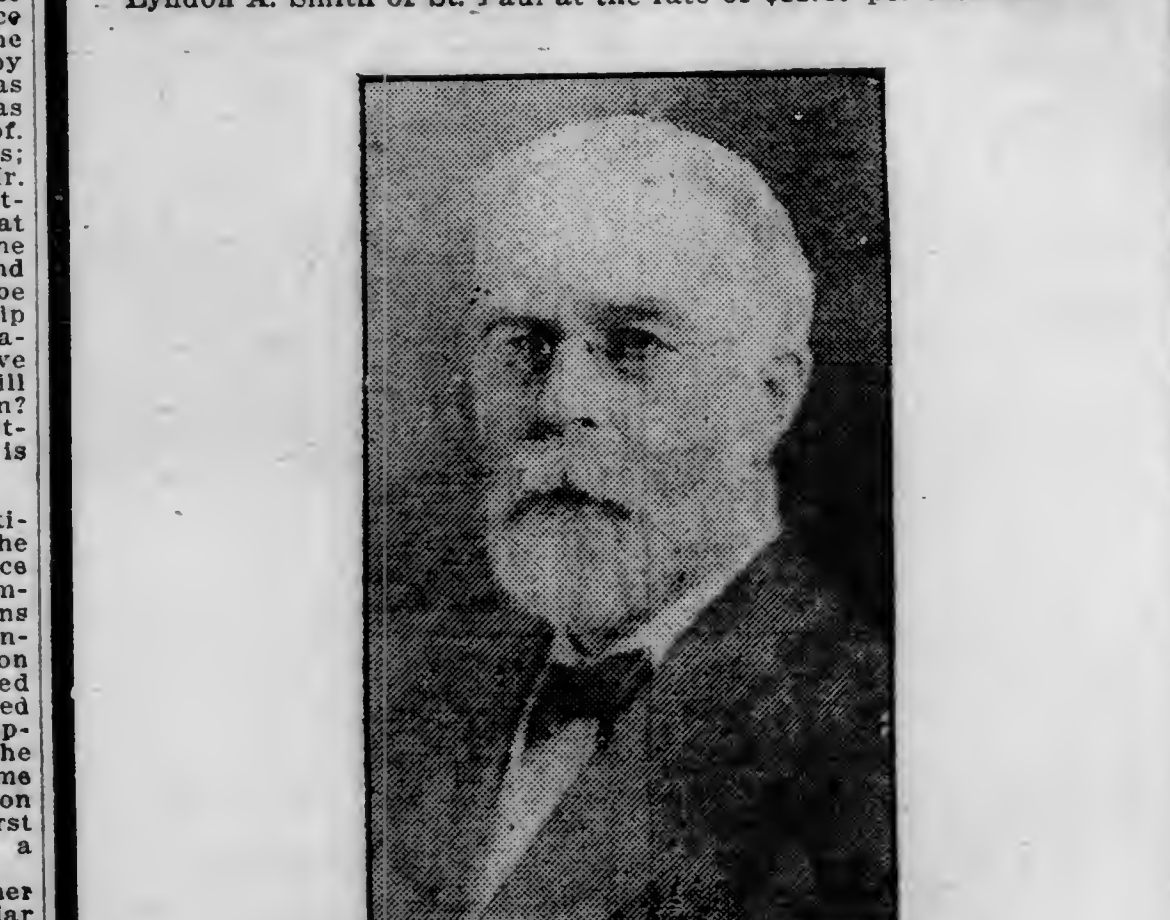

The hardest fight in the county is likely to be in the Second commissioner district. There are thirteen candidates and only two can be nominated. "Ham" Little holds the job now, having been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of the late John Theodor and some believe that this gives him some advantage. However this is not conceded by his opponents, each of whom seems confident of winning.

Outside of this congressional district, perhaps the most interest of Duluthians is in the race in the Tenth district, where the former congressman from this district, J. Adam Bode is a candidate for congress. It is believed, however, that Victor L. Johnson of Center City is the leader in that district. Lowell E. Leeson of Minneapolis is also in the field. Sidney Anderson, congressman from the First district, took the campaign of his opponent, also his former secretary, Ole M. Levang, as a joke, but owing to the big claims made by the latter, Mr. Anderson ceased to smile about it and has been home for some time pursuing a campaign. With W. S. Hammond out of the congressional race in the Second district, Senator J. E. Haycraft and F. F. Ellsworth are the hammer and tongs for the Republican nomination, that, with Hammond out, being, it is believed, equivalent to an election. The fight is a close one and has been hard-fought throughout. It is possible to harmonize the warring factions. This means that Democracy, with a strong and clean candidate, has more than an even chance to win at the November election. Democracy can nominate such a candidate in the person of Winfield Scott Hammond. With Hammond as its leader, the party can go before the people with a loyal prize in its nominee, and with an opportunity to elect men who will be the governor of the whole people.

Democracy never had a better chance of landing its man in the saddle than in the two campaigns of Governor Johnson after he had established himself with the people of the state. The opportunity is fully as good as was that of 1904.

LYNDON A. SMITH

Attorney General of Minnesota and Candidate for a Second Term on the Republican Ticket, at the Primaries on June 16th.

Attorney General Smith has been for 20 years a well known figure in the public affairs of Minnesota. As County Attorney for Chippewa County, Lieutenant Governor of the State, Assistant Attorney General and for two and one-half years Attorney General, he has rendered high service to the state. Mr. Smith has not played politics in his official service, and in his present campaign is content to submit his claims for re-election on the basis of his achievements as Attorney General.

Here are some significant figures from the records of Mr. Smith's office for the two and one-half years of his incumbency:

Inheritance taxes collected	$1,420,152.09
Other taxes collected by suits	215,082.10
Timber trespass collections	33,536.11
Other collections	18,215.30
Official inquiries answered	3,000
Criminal cases handled in supreme court	66
Civil cases handled, 164; brought, 105; closed up, 90.
Loan applications passed on, 616, involving state loans of $5,511,180.

All this splendid record has been accomplished without increasing the expense of the office. Mr. Smith has even declined a legislative offer to increase his salary and has prosecuted important matters without expensive outside legal help, as had been the custom. Two years ago Mr. Smith was chosen for his first elective term by the second largest plurality given at the election. General Smith would appreciate the support of all St. Louis County voters who approve an efficient and faithful administration of his office.

note, he should have been kept in Washington. There is a bigger job nearer home. Mr. Hammond is the one man particularly fitted to take charge of it. Recollect also, please, that not only is there another Democrat likely to be elected in Mr. Hammond's district, but that this man will not, in all probability, be the only Democratic congressman from the North Star state. A strong, sound man was needed as a gubernatorial candidate by the Democrats this year, and Mr. Hammond was the most available party answering the description. Don't worry about what will happen in the Second district, but put in your best ticks in helping to redeem the state by the election of Mr. Hammond as governor.

Frank Day of the Fairmont Sentinel, please notice. There's no need for a modern Jeremiah on the Democratic side of this campaign.

When a candidate for a legislative office is thought enough of by his colleagues in the legislature from other districts so that they will take the trouble to send out letters recommending him, it is generally taken as meaning that he is an effective member. That is the case here. State Senator John Moonan of Vasco, Minn., has written The Herald the following concerning State Senator Pugh, who is a candidate in the Second district.

"It is a great pleasure to know that Senator T. M. Pugh has become a candidate for re-election to the senate for, in my judgment, no senator ever served his constituents more faithfully than did Senator Pugh.

"It would be a great loss to the country of St. Louis and to the state at large if he were not returned to the senate. Having served the state so well, and having had opportunity to know, I can safely assert that, as senator, he always aimed to do right and was fearless in defense of what he considered right.

"I feel that if the people of Duluth know and fully appreciate the value of Senator Pugh's services to his district and his state, there will be few, if any, votes against him. I trust that the voters in his district will give him that endorsement which his faithful service has so justly earned."

Many people are puzzled on the first and second choice feature of the primary ballot. To clarify matters it should be said that there is no first and second choice on the non-partisan ticket; but there is on the state ticket, when there are three or more candidates. That is as far as it goes.

Martin P. Falk of Duluth, who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor two years ago, announces that he is supporting Mr. Lee this time. Said he concerning the matter:

"I have voted in the last two general elections for Mr. Eberhart, but I believe two terms are enough for any man and I do not believe that the governor should have sought the nomination again. I think a change will be better this year, for there is something wrong in this stand."

Mr. Falk returned from Minneapolis on Saturday and gives it as his belief that Lee will carry Hennepin county.

state auditor, in announcing his candidacy some time ago, said that he would issue further details later. It proves to be very much later, for his platform was received by the press of the state on Saturday last and was not to be "released" until yesterday. Here it is:

"First—I believe that with the tremendous trust funds held by the state auditor, that a public domain department should be established by the legislature before our people than the development of Northern Minnesota.

"Third—The state auditor is the man elected by the people to safeguard the expenditures made by all other state departments, and as such he can be of great value in holding down to a minimum the expenditures of the various state departments.

"Fourth—I believe that it could properly be made the duty of the state auditor to systematically study and prepare for every succeeding legislature the budget of every state department viewed from the standpoint not of the head of such department but as an entire outsider interested in holding the expenses of each department down to the lowest possible figure."

ALL QUIET IN BUTTE AGAIN

Riots End and Governor Stewart Expects No Renewal.

Funds Raised to Help Michigan Strike Feature in Trouble.

Butte, Mont., June 15.—With the resumption of work in various mines, and because of the unbroken quiet that continued through the night, it is the belief of Governor S. V. Stewart that the industrial turmoil between the two factions of the Western Federation of Miners is over.

Governor Stewart, who arrived here early today, accompanied by Attorney General Kelly, said there did not appear to be any necessity for his presence, or any likelihood of further outbreak.

Rioting by seceding members of the local union of the Western Federation of Miners continued all Saturday night and Sunday. After dynamiting and looting the safe of the local union at midnight, many of the 2,000 rioters against extra assessments and the card system of the union continued to parade the streets.

Dynamite was exploded under the porch of the home of P. K. Sullivan, an officer of the miners' union, and General Kelly, said there did not appear to be any necessity for his presence, or any likelihood of further outbreak.

During all the disorder the unruly miners declared they would not continue the card system, under which each individual miner sold his union card before going to work in the mines. Many members of the local union were recently disfranchised from voting at the recent union election because they refused to show their cards at the mines.

This, in addition to large extra assessments, the copper miners strike in Michigan, caused the men to secede from the union, they said.

Acting Mayor Frank Curran, who was thrown out of a window Saturday and sustained a broken leg and wrist, while trying to pacify the mob which wrecked the federal headquarters, is resting easily in a hospital.

Managers of the Speculator and Black Rock mines, the North Butte Mining company and the Butte & Superior mines, have, according to insurgents, agreed to permit miners to return to work without Western Federation cards, provided they abstain from walking delegates do not appear at the mines to protest against the mine owners.

Of the 9,000 members of the union here, the insurgents are said to control the votes of 2,000.

All saloons, ordered closed Saturday, remained with doors locked for the first Sunday in many years.

The meeting will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and Debs will remain in the city late this afternoon.

The Socialists are congratulating themselves on being able to secure Debs on the eve of the primary election and hope that they will help them roll up a record primary vote for the party's candidates.

Debs is an interesting character and has had a turbulent career. He first came into prominence during the Pullman strike in 1893. The employees of the Pullman company went out on strike to enforce a higher wage scale and a shorter working day, and the American Railway union, which had been organized by Debs and others, declared a secondary boycott and refused to handle the cars of the Pullman company. The fight between the companies and the men became exceedingly bitter and Debs and a number of his fellow unionists were arrested for conspiracy. Debs was convicted and sentenced to six months in jail, and it is said that during this period he was induced to become a Socialist.

Victor Berger, formerly Socialist congressman from Milwaukee, was a friend of Debs at the time and Berger is given credit for bringing Debs into the Socialist ranks.

Debs is a mild mannered man with a burning sympathy for the cause of the working class. He has spent the greater part of his life advocating their cause.

During the existence of the American Railway union, that organization contracted obligations upwards of $20,000 that remained unpaid when the union disbanded. While not personally liable, Debs began to pay off this sum and only a few months ago finished paying the last installment. His admirers point to this fact as an example of the honesty and unselfishness of the man.

Duluth's big Auditorium will unquestionably be packed tonight with men and women from all walks of life. Hundreds of people in this city, while not adhering to the philosophy of Debs, willingly express their admiration for his qualities.

E. W. Debs will be chairman of the meeting tonight.

TWINS AND THEIR SISTER DROWNED.

Savannah, Mo., June 15.—Locked in each other's embrace, Ludwig and Theresa, twin children of Jacob Martin, and their 12-year-old sister, were drowned wading in the river here Sunday. They had gone to the river to play, and in trying to cross stepped into a fifteen-foot hole.

SAYS ENGLAND WILL SOON BE REPUBLIC.

Boston, Mass., June 15.—C. N. Daney, one of Sir Edward Carson's lieutenants in Ulster, predicted last night that England would become a republic within five years, should King George sign the bill granting Ireland home rule.

"King George is in a predicament," he said. "He signs measures he will sacrifice thousands of loyal subjects, and will precipitate the destruction of the British empire."

CATTLE PLAGUE IN PHILIPPINES WORSE.

Manila, June 15.—The rinderpest, or cattle plague, for the eradication of which the legislature appointed provincial boards, is spreading and the situation has become decidedly worse. Governor General Francis Burton Harrison has suspended several officials, and has summoned the boards to Manila for a conference.

Stunned By Lightning.

Woodworth, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Four men were knocked down and two of them were badly scorched by lightning which hit the barn on the Calfee Williams farm near here last night. Twelve horses also were killed outright.

Mr. Williams and Henry Hanson were both badly injured by the bolt, while Don Williams and Thomas Thompson escaped only with slight shocks. It is expected that the two injured men will recover.

Church Cornerstone Laid.

Jamestown, N. D., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The cornerstone of the new Methodist Episcopal church, to be erected here at a cost of $35,000, was laid Saturday by Rev. J. M. Anderson, pastor, being in charge.

The church is of the Greek style of architecture, 100 by 70 feet. The main auditorium will seat 450 with an adjoining auditorium that will increase the capacity to 850. Rev. J. M. Waterson of Fargo preached the sermon yesterday.

Phillips Succeeds Alton.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—E. M. Phillips, rural school commissioner for Minnesota, was elected state high school inspector to succeed George B. Alton, at a meeting of the state high school board Saturday. Alton, who was the high school inspector in Minnesota, resigned last year. Phillips is a graduate of Hamline university.

WOMAN FIRES AT BURGLAR

Shoots Twice at Man Who Attempted to Enter House.

Miss Lillian Morrey, daughter of Mrs. George Morrey, 731 East Fifth street, frustrated an attempted burglary at her home Saturday evening, when she fired her revolver at a thief, who was endeavoring to gain entrance into the house through a kitchen window.

Miss Morrey and her mother were awakened at 12:30 o'clock by a noise made by the burglar, when he attempted to break a screen in a kitchen window. The two women stole downstairs after hearing the noise, and Miss Morrey, who has had some experience with a .32-caliber revolver, opened the kitchen door and fired twice at a fleeing figure that sped across the yard.

Following this Miss Morrey telephoned headquarters and Lieut. Barber responded to the call. He found a bullet hole in a small cottonwood tree several feet from the entrance and part of the window frame, but no other evidence of an attempted burglary. The women were unable to give a good description of the fleeing man.

Red Wing Salesman Dies.

Red Wing, Minn., June 15.—Charles H. Ashton, pioneer traveling salesman of Red Wing, and one of its best known and highly esteemed citizens, is dead at his home after an illness of several months. Mr. Ashton was born in Red Wing, Oct. 24, 1860. He is survived by a wife and one son, William H. Ashton, and a brother, E. A. Ashton of this city.

SULPHUR DRIES UP ECZEMA AND STOPS ITCHING

This Old Time Skin Healer Is Used Just Like Any Cold Cream.

With the first application of bold-sulphur cream the angry itching attending any eczema eruption ceases, and its remarkable healing powers begin. Sulphur, says a renowned dermatologist, just common bold-sulphur, made into a thick cream will soothe and heal the skin when irritated and broken out with Eczema in any form of eruption. The moment it is applied all itching ceases and after two or three applications the Eczema disappears, leaving the skin clear and smooth.

He tells Eczema sufferers to get from any good pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur cream and apply it to the irritated, inflamed skin, the same as you would any cold cream.

For many years this soothing, healing sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections by reason of its parasitic-destrorying property. It is not only parasiticidal, but also antipruritic, and is especially remarkably healing in all irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to instantly subdue the irritation and heal the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

NORTHERN LEAGUE ARE DASHING TOWARD TOP

White Sox Make It Six Straight on Saturday and Sunday.

Take the Two Final Games of the Winona Series.

Our rudely jostling athletes, who are pushing their way in a boisterous fashion toward the aristocracy of the first division, grabbed another from the slipping Pirates yesterday, making it four straight on the series and six in a row for Darby's voluntarily orphaned pets.

The Sox are going like the demon motorcyclist of the first ward, with two dogs and seven children in sight. Henry Clay Blanche was nominated for mound duty and right nobly did he respond to the call. He was lighter than a sailor on shore leave after a six months' voyage, and only five times did they get to him for anything resembling a safety. Brother Pautsch in the short field of the enemy, collected two of them, and the rest are nicely distributed through the innings.

Incidentally Mr. Bell of the Davis gang was not what might be called prodigal with his hits. Six of our own rising athletes connected, but nobody could boast of more than one safe nick.

We drew first blood in the joyous second, but it wasn't exactly a run to be proud of, being in the nature of a gift. Collins was passed and stole second. Ford sent a grounder down third base line and the throw first Collins headed for third. The return throw was high and Collins romped home.

The enemy tied it up in the third with their only run in the nature of a gift. Collins started the lucky inning with a slashing double. Ford laid one down the third base line and bent his throw to first. Wolfe advanced both runners on a sacrifice. Hargrove, who was next in line, drove a hot one through the pitcher's box, which Bell could not touch, and both runners were home.

Davis drew down the wrath of Umpa Carney, who headed him to the doghouse in the ninth, for some remarks reflecting on the uselessness of umpires in general, and the particular lack of knowledge of the game on the part of Mr. Carney.

Bresler replaced him, the locals could gather but three scattered hits. Scott was hit hard and this, coupled with his wildness and a couple of errors, cost Chicago the game. Schaik, whose arm was out in Friday's game, with Washington, left for home. He will be out of the game for several days.

Cleveland 4; Washington 0. Cleveland, Ohio, June 15.—A raw re-run of the Cleveland game of yesterday was played in the Washington Nationals with Walter Johnson in the box. It was the first victory for Cleveland against Washington in the last twelve starts. It was also the seventh defeat of Johnson this year. He lost only seven games last season.

Bowman did not allow two hits in any one inning and only four times did Anderson, 3b, get on base. None went as far as third.

R.H.E. Cleveland: 10010002—4 6 1. Washington: 00000000—0 0 0. Batteries—Brown, Bresler and Lapp; Scott, Jasper, Faber and Mayer. Umpires—O'Loughlin and Hildebrand.

Tigers 3; Yankees 1. Detroit, Mich., June 15.—After he started the rally in the eighth, when he gave New York its only run, Slim Caldwell went to pieces yesterday and Detroit took advantage of his wildness to count three tallies in its half of the same inning. Neither team scored except in the eighth and up to that inning the game was a thrilling pitchers' battle between Caldwell and Hall, with the honors about even.

When Umpire Chilly called Moriarty safe in the eighth, Sweeney rushed at him and in a few moments Chilly was surrounded by the New York team. Cobb attempted to strike Sweeney during the argument, but Sweeney tagged him out at the plate. Then the visitors continued their dispute over Chilly's decision on Moriarty and Sweeney was ordered off the field.

AMERICAN ASSN. Saturday's Results. Kansas City, 8; Columbus, 3. Minneapolis, 3; Indianapolis, 2.

Make It One Piece. Minneapolis, Minn., June 15.—Minneapolis and Indianapolis split even in a four-game series. The locals took the first, 16 to 4, while the locals won the second, 2 to 0. Lake relieved Burns in the fourth inning of the second game, when the latter was put out for disputing a call. Minneapolis pitched invincible ball, allowing but one hit. He was supported brilliantly.

JOHNSON IS NOT "GETTING THE BREAKS"

Walter Johnson, the star pitcher for the Washington team, has lost seven games this season, four of them to the "phenoms." Friends of the great twirler call attention to the fact that all of Johnson's losses have been by small margins, and they do not worry about his "going back." They attribute his poorer record to be a bad break in the luck of the game.

grounds yesterday by a score of 8 to 2. The batting of Greenwood and the pitching of Keyon featured. Batteries: Du Moe and Baden; Keyon and Hall.

The Owl baseball team yesterday morning defeated the Clearmakers, 10 to 4, in a nicely played game. The seventh inning proved the undoing of the clear men.

The Pittwell Juniors defeated the Longfellow at the Fifty-second avenue grounds yesterday by a score of 9 to 2. The Pittwells are out under new management and wish to secure games with all the fast amateurs at the head of the Lake. They would like to arrange a game between the Maroons of Superior for next Sunday. For games call Calumet 4651.

The Patrick baseball team won over the Morrells yesterday afternoon by a score of 15 to 8, at the Fifty-second avenue grounds. Timely and hard hitting by the winners featured the game. Batteries: Patrick—Gillman, Graines, Morrell—Knox and Hughes.

RULES PREPARED FOR WORLD RACE

Any Kind of Motor-Driven Air Craft May Compete in Race From Exposition Grounds Next Year.

New York, June 15.—The tentative rules and regulations for the Panama-Pacific international exposition round the world race, as prepared by Guy T. Slaughter, president of the Pacific Aero club, were given out here last night by Arnold Kruckman, chief of aeronautics of the exposition. The rules have been submitted to the Aero club of America, which, under the rules of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale, must formally approve them before formal sanction of the contest is granted. Mr. Kruckman said that there was no intention that the rules would fail to secure the necessary sanction.

Under the proposed rules and regulations $150,000 will be offered by the exposition as prizes and an endeavor will be made to raise an additional $150,000 from the sale of bonds, and from the course of the race will lie, and from individuals, which also will be given as prizes.

To the competitors finishing within 120 days from the start of the race $100,000 will be awarded, $20,000 will constitute the second prize and $20,000 third. In case the first arrival in the race fails to reach the finish line within the 121 days but does finish before Dec. 4, the first prize will be reduced by $1,000 per day for each day over 121 days. The second prize will be reduced similarly by $300 per day, and the third prize by $200 per day.

The race will start from the Panama-Pacific exposition grounds, San Francisco, Mar. 15, 1915. The course will be eastward, around the world, any route being open to the pilot, who possesses a pilot's certificate will be eligible to compete. Any other kind of motor-driven air craft of any size may be used. There is to be no limit to the number of entrants, who may sign in writing between Nov. 1, 1914, and May 3, 1915, their intention to compete.

POLO MAY HAVE TO BE POSTPONED

Changes in American Team Imperative and Likely to Be Made.

Hempstead, L. I., June 15.—Owing to the downpour of rain all night, indications this forenoon were that the second international polo game, set for Tuesday, might have to be postponed, owing to the slippery condition of the field. However, if the weather clears by evening, the game may be held.

Defeat of the American team by a decisive margin Saturday in the first of the matches for the international polo trophy cast gloom over American followers of the sport.

That some radical changes in the defending team are necessary unless the Americans are resigned to bidding goodbye to the trophy, with the close of the next game Tuesday, is the prevailing opinion. That the hope seemed slim at the best, as indicated by the betting odds, instead of ruling favorites, the Americans are a little more than a long shot chance.

Although none of the members of the National Polo association or others associated with the international match would talk for publication, it seemed certain that a meeting of the governing body would be called to determine upon a new lineup for the American four. Leading American and English poloists declared it a great mistake to have changed Devereux Milburn from back to No. 3. Even Lord Wimborne of the British team declared Milburn as a back to be one of the greatest players in the world in this position.

The American players also now appear to realize that the team which he had played since boyhood, to back, and "Monty" from No. 2 to No. 3 was a grievous error.

To dispense with Rene La Montagne, whose work yesterday was a disappointment, and return Lawrence Waterbury to No. 2 and make Malcolm Stevenson No. 3, and Milburn back, appeared to most followers of the game to be the logical solution.

The betting changed yesterday to 3 to 1 and 4 to 1, with the Englishmen favorites.

MILWAUKEE MAN PROBABLE WINNER

National Skat Congress Ends—Protests Against National Prohibition.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 15.—Henry Wendt, Jr., of Milwaukee probably is the winner of the capital prize of $1,000 of the North American Skat congress which finished last evening. Wendt secured twenty-seven games won and 755 points. The points were not to be announced officially until tonight, but it was the general opinion that Wendt's score would not be topped.

Peoria, Ill., was voted next year's congress and E. McGross of that city was elected president. Among other officers are: First vice president, Henry Schnelbacher, Pekin, Ill.; second vice president, Adam Kohl, Peoria; treasurer, C. Leithner, Peoria, Ill.

A resolution was adopted protesting against the federal prohibition congress for nation-wide prohibition.

Duryea's Horse Fourth.

Paris, June 15.—The Prix du Jockey club—the French derby—which was run yesterday over the Chantilly course was won by the favorite, Baron Maurice de Rothschild's Sardanapale. Rutter's Le Diable in the second, August Pellicier's Le Corsaire third, and Herman D. Duryea's Durbar II, the English derby winner fourth. The French derby, which this year was worth 141,600 francs, is a 3-year-old event at one mile and a half.

JOCKEYING FOR PLACE

Teams in Various Leagues Have Many Shifts in Week.

Second Division Teams in Majors Show Unexpected Class.

New York, June 15.—Every team in the American association had a change in position during the past week except Milwaukee, which went through the week without losing its hold on first place, and Minneapolis and St. Paul, which stuck to seventh and eighth places, respectively.

Louisville's third straight win gave the Colonels second place on Sunday, but they rested on Monday while Milwaukee gained half a game by downing Kansas City. Tuesday was featured by the association's long game, Minneapolis winning from Louisville, 3 to 2, in a contest that went twenty innings and consumed 3 hours and 31 minutes.

The unsuccessful fight which Chicago waged for first place drew most attention in the Federal league races. Baltimore had suffered enough reverses in the series preceding to be within striking distance, and in the beginning of the western session appeared to be toying. With Indianapolis beating the Terrapins, all Chicago had to do was beat Brooklyn, but under the leadership of Artie Hoffman, the latter put up an unexpectedly good fight and though the Hoosiers did trounce Knabe's men in the final double-header, Brooklyn beat Chicago in the farewell contest. The advance of Indianapolis to a place in the forefront of the Federal league race was another notable event of the week.

The baseball attention during the week just passed was centered largely upon the work of second division teams in the two major leagues.

This was particularly the case in the National league, where New York, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Chicago all played ball at anything but a pennant clip, while St. Louis, Philadelphia and Boston displayed the class that told in winning victories. The Cardinals, indeed, forced their way into first division, winning five out of six games and displacing the Cubs, who only broke even. Philadelphia showed better form and won four in six, passing the slumping Brooklyn, who must brace up if the spurring Braves are now to vacate the cellar, relegating the Superbas to last place.

The work of Miller Huggins' men on the present trip has been a revelation to Eastern fans. The Cardinals look better than they have since the early days of Roger Bresnahan in the management. The champion Giants were barely able to split the series with them, while the Brooklyn were overcome in all four games. Huggins is running his team with discretion.

In Boston George Stallings finally has got his team going. After making it all even in the series with Cincinnati, the Braves went right at Pittsburgh and blocked with a vengeance the attempt of Fred Clarke's men to get back to winning ways, making a clean sweep of the series with the Pirates.

Giants and Reds Parallel.

While all this spurring by lower place teams was going on the New Yorks and Cincinnati continued their remarkable game of regularly winning on the same day—the one losing only when the other did. Without a break that could really be called one, this process had been kept up from May 25. The only exceptions to the rule came on May 31 and June 2, the Giants playing a double-header day, winning and losing on the former day, while on the latter Cincinnati won one game, and tied another, while the Giants were idle.

Teams below the three leaders were almost as much in the limelight in American league play as in the National. The Athletics were only winning two in two times in Cleveland, and Coakley of Detroit being the only one who troubled the slumping Mackmen, but Washington had rather a disastrous week of it, for a team that is struggling for the lead, they dropped four straight in three games at St. Louis and one at Chicago.

After coming back at the White Sox and taking a brace of games, were trounced by the tail-end Clevelanders. Curiously enough, the Senators' only defeat at Chicago came with Walter Johnson in the box and he was again on the losing end in the game at Cleveland.

Detroit lost almost as much ground as Washington, although the Tigers should pick up this week having a series of games with the New Yorks, who have been losing with monotonous regularity. St. Louis, however, continued the notably brilliant spurt which began a week ago, and has worked up until it is right at the Tigers' heels. The Browns had to play fast ball to keep ahead of the Bostonians who have been doing a little spurring of their own.

The Red Sox are clamoring for first division consideration.

Another second division team, which has done excellent work in the last two weeks, is the Chicago White Sox.

AMERICANS DEFEATED

Englishmen Win First of the Polo Games With Ease.

Meadow Brook Polo Club, Westbury, L. I., June 15.—Completely demoralized by the speed and team work of the English challenges, the American team went down to defeat here Saturday afternoon in the first game of the match for the international polo cup by a score of 8 to 3. After the first flurry in the opening period, the English players never held the away, being outplayed and outstrutted by the English club representatives and the British ponies.

The defeat came as a great surprise to a majority of the 40,000 spectators. The cup defenders were 10 to 1 favorites, the American players previous to the game. The spectators were quick to appreciate the brilliant play of the English players, and the English team with applause at the clever exhibition of the blue-shirted riders from England.

This superiority became apparent in the first half of the game, and it appeared to upset the defending four, which never recovered the form shown in recent practice games until the closing minutes of the game, when the Americans settled down and gave the first indications of team play.

THE City of Duluth and the State of Minnesota both seek to reduce the number of accidents due to heavy traffic through ordinances and state laws. We would respectfully ask the co-operation of Duluth drivers of all kinds of vehicles in a "safety first" campaign to help make these laws and ordinances more effective.

Section 3 of the Duluth city traffic ordinance reads as follows:

"Every person using any vehicle on any street in the city of Duluth shall, before turning out to pass any other vehicle, and before turning around, and before turning out of the line of traffic for any purpose, look carefully to the rear of the vehicle which said person is using upon the side toward which he contemplates turning, and if he fails so to look and in so turning out causes a collision with any vehicle coming from the rear he shall be deemed guilty of gross negligence."

The failure of drivers and chauffeurs to look back before turning out of their course in obedience to the above is the direct cause of a great majority of the collisions between street cars and other vehicles. IN ALL SUCH CASES THE DRIVER OR CHAUFFEUR IS GUILTY OF GROSS NEGLIGENCE.

Remember that "A Street Car Can't Dodge" to avoid running into anything upon or near the track. Our Duluth street cars weigh twenty-five tons—the rails are very often slippery from a variety of causes in summer as well as from frost in winter—if the motorman cannot stop before reaching an obstruction he cannot turn his car out to avoid it, as could be done with any other vehicle, and a collision is the result. This inability to dodge obstructions puts the motormen at a great disadvantage and at the same time gives the drivers of other vehicles the great advantage of knowing the course the car will take.

In the interests of safeguarding life and property, we would like to call the attention of every driver of a vehicle in Duluth to this ordinance.

STREET WILL PUT IT UP TO BE IMPROVED RESIDENTS

Council Decides to Pave Highland Street for Seven Blocks.

The city council will order the improvement of Highland street from Fifty-ninth to Sixty-ninth avenues west, this conclusion being reached at an informal meeting of the commissioners this morning.

This will be done in connection with the subway which the D. M. & N. railroad has agreed to construct under its tracks where they are intersected by Highland street.

The fact that the road is desirous of building a second subway west of Tecony street, now the main highway to Proctor, was mentioned, but no action was taken relative towards it. If the second subway is built it will be necessary for the city to condemn a right-of-way for a street. But as this can be considered independently it was decided to so handle it.

The estimated cost of improving Highland street from Fifty-seventh to Sixty-ninth avenues is about $45,000. But omitting the two blocks between Fifty-seventh and Fifty-ninth avenues, already graded, and allowing for the cost between Fifty-ninth and Sixty-first avenues, which the railroad will pay, and for the city's share, the amount to be borne by the property is reduced to approximately $25,000. The subway proper is estimated at $50,000 and will be paid for by the D. M. & N.

As the improvement will make Highland street the principal thoroughfare to Proctor, whereas now it is in disuse, and will greatly enhance property values, the commissioners are hopeful that no remonstrance will be filed against it.

CHOOSE THREE SETS OF DELEGATES.

Longshoremen's union No. 12 elected delegates to the Duluth Trades and Labor assembly, to the state federation convention to be held in Duluth, in July and to the National Longshoremen's convention to be held in Milwaukee on July 16, at its meeting in Gilley's hall, Saturday evening.

Gordon O'Neill, Charles Murray and Louis Anderson will represent the body at the trades assembly. Gordon O'Neill, Charles Topf and Calvin Ammerman were elected delegates to the state convention and Mr. O'Neill was also elected the delegate to the national convention.

State Senator James P. Boyle gave a short address at the meeting on the issues of the congressional campaign.

Goodholm Funeral.

The funeral for Axel Goodholm, 38 years old, 2314 West Eighth street, who died Friday night at St. Mary's hospital, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from Olson & Crawford's undertaking rooms and at 2 o'clock from the First Swedish M. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street. Rev. C. W. R. Vermile, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. H. A. Oestle of the Norwegian-Danish M. E. church will officiate. Interment will be at the Union cemetery.

MURDERED WOMAN LEFT $800 ESTATE

Mrs. Mary Lawler, 43, who was shot and killed by her brother-in-law, Charles E. Lawler, in a room they were occupying at the Astoria hotel on the night of April 10, left a 40-acre farm worth about $800 as her estate, according to a petition for letters of administration filed with the probate court by Walter Grams, 727 East Second street. Mrs. Lawler was also a brother-in-law. He was appointed by the court.

Mrs. Lawler leaves as her heirs four brothers and three sisters, some of whom reside in Duluth. Charles E. Lawler, who is responsible for her death, is slowly recovering from a physical and mental breakdown which he experienced immediately after shooting and killing his brother's widow.

Mrs. Lawler is a native of Duluth and may be taken to have him committed to the state institution for the criminal insane.

Gray of St. Paul, will give his lecture.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

BEMIDJI BEATS SHEVLIN 19 TO 0.

Bemidji, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Failure of the Shevlin baseball squad to get organized for the first four innings of the baseball game here Sunday, lost the game to the Bemidji Athletics, 19 to 0. The victory of the locals was the most decisive thus far in the season. Two two-base hits of Murphy and one two-base hit of Howe, the latter when the bases were full, proved the sensations of the game.

In one of the fastest baseball games here this year, Bemidji Athletics last night defeated Bemidji Railroaders, 3 to 2. The game was interesting throughout, the railroaders falling, however, to continue for the first three innings played with the same good head of steam with which they started. The Bemidji Athletics, however, in the fourth inning, batted one of the first three-base hits of the season. R. Rice, Hazen and J. Carter for the railroaders are conductors. The others are brakemen.

BRAINERD BEATS STAPLES 4 TO 1.

Brainerd, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Playing a snappy ball game, Brainerd defeated Staples, 4 to 1. Al Victor pitched for Brainerd and the local pitcher, Ed Staples, struck out ten. Features were the fielding of Erickson, the batting of Fred Cook and Tom Brainerd. Staples plays Brainerd here July 4 and 5.

MORE PARIS HOUSES COLLAPSE AS RESULT OF TERRIFIC STORM

French Capital Is Without Gas, Water or Electric Light.

Eight Known Dead and Many Missing in Parts of City.

Whole Sections Caved in, Sewers Are Ripped Open.

Paris, June 16.—Several more buildings collapsed in various parts of Paris today, owing to subsidence of the soil caused by yesterday's terrific storm, and a number of persons were injured. The list of dead known today was officially stated to be eight, but as many persons are missing, the search of the debris is continued.

The minister of the interior urged on the government the necessity of taking measures to prevent a repetition of the occurrences.

Three bodies were recovered today from a deep hole at the junction of the Rue du Havre and the Boulevard Haussmann, near the Saint Lazare station.

The courtyard of a hotel in the Rue Pierre-Guillet at Montmartre fell in today, but there were no casualties.

In another locality the walls of a building under construction collapsed and two workmen were injured severely.

Scenes of Devastation. Parts of Paris presented scenes of devastation today, with gaping holes in some of the main thoroughfares as the result of yesterday's terrific storm. The city was deprived of water, gas and electricity, cut off as a precautionary measure against floods, explosions and fires.

Several lives are known to have been lost through vehicles falling into cavities in the earth, but the exact number of dead was not known this morning as some bodies were believed to be buried.

THOUSANDS PASS STEVENSON'S BIER

Prominent Men Honor Memory of Former Vice President.

Bloomington, Ill., June 16.—With business entirely suspended and the city draped in mourning, thousands turned out on massed today to pay final honors to former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson. The body lay in state in the rotunda of the court house for two hours.

The procession to the church was headed by a band, a troop of Illinois National Guard and a number of members of the Stevenson Escort club, a famous marching organization of the campaign of 1902, which accompanied the vice president-elect to the inauguration at Washington.

Mr. Stevenson was for many years president, member of the Bar association, the mayor and city officials and numerous local organizations. The Second Presbyterian church, the largest in the city, held but a fraction of those assembled.

Interment Private. The interment at the Bloomington cemetery was private. The list of honorary pallbearers included many men prominent in law, politics and business, headed by James S. Dunning, formerly ambassador to Belgium and long Mr. Stevenson's law partner. Former Governor Joseph W. Fifer, Congressman Sterling.

Among the notable people present were former Vice President Fairbanks, former Governor Francis of Missouri, Governor and Mrs. Dunne, Secretary of State Woods, Auditor Brundage, State Treasurer Ryan and Attorney General and Mrs. Lucey.

EXPECTS TO FIND PATMONT

Detroit Chief Detective Doubts That Minister Was Kidnaped.

Says Circumstances of New Disappearance Belie That Theory.

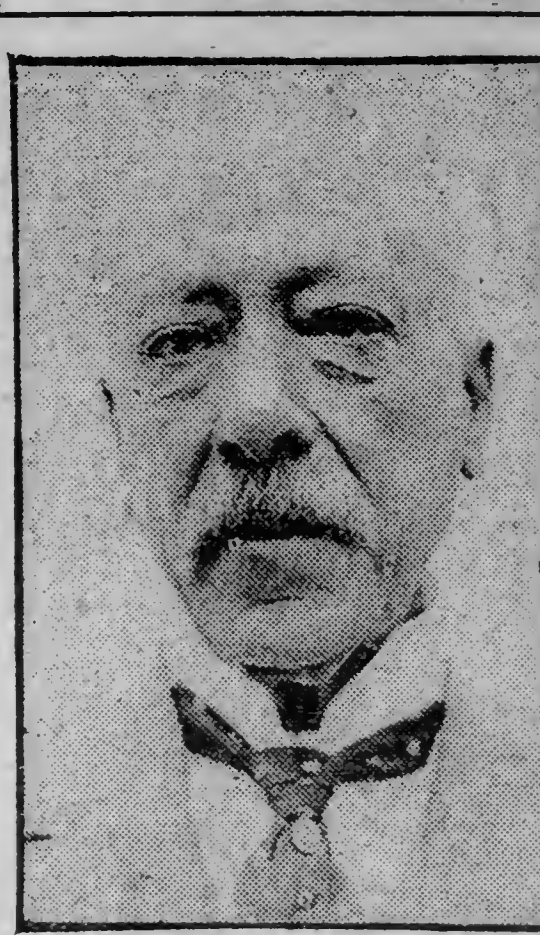

Detroit, Mich., June 16.—Every available member of the local police department searched the city today for some trace of Rev. Louis R. Patmont of Milwaukee, Wis., who disappeared out of sight here last night. The minister's wife and friends insist that enemies have pursued him from Westville, Ill., where he claims he was kidnaped March 21 in the midst of a local option campaign and was held captive nearly two months.

The police officials, however, claim the evidence surrounding Mr. Patmont's latest disappearance does not sustain the theory of kidnaping.

Doubts Kidnaping. "I don't know where he is, but we are working hard to find him, and when we do locate him I think we

BADLY BEATEN IN ROMAN ELECTION

—Copyright by the Hahn News Service.

ROME, June 16.—The entire Catholic and monarchist ticket was elected at the municipal elections held on Sunday, the results of which became known today. Prince Colonna headed the ticket with over 6,000 votes more than Ernesto Nathan, the former mayor, who led the anti-clerical coalition.

Signor Nathan was last but one among the representatives of the minority and he got on the list with only eighty-two votes to spare.

MEDIATION IS DELAYED

Washington Expects Success, However; Huerta Repudiates Towne.

Mexican Congressmen Are Asked to Stay in Capital.

Washington, June 16.—Secretary Bryan today said he still believed the Constitutionalists would participate in the mediation proceedings in some form.

Heads of the Constitutionalists agency here said they had no new advice from Carranza. The general opinion in official circles was that mediation was again confronted with a period of delay and uncertainty, but that another step would be worked out soon.

Mr. Huerta, however, repudiated the war department today that the food supply of Vera Cruz was not in danger, although some prices were high and he recommended especially against sending food supplies from the United States except for troops.

Go Through the Motion. Niagara Falls, Ont., June 16.—While there was little expectation of agreement today between the Mexican and American delegates over the organization of a new provisional government in Mexico and the selection of a successor to Gen. Huerta, the delegates continued their consideration of available material in the hope that

ALL IS QUIET IN BUTTE, SAYS MOYER

Montanans Will Talk to Wilson About Federal Troops.

Denver, Colo., June 16.—The situation at Butte is quiet and our men are back at work, said President Charles H. Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners today, quoting a message he had just received relative to labor disorders in Montana.

"I hardly think it necessary now that I should go to Montana," he said. "The local union holds its regular meeting tonight, and upon its outcome largely depends my action."

See Wilson Wednesday. Washington, June 16.—Senator Myers and Representatives Stout and Evans today in connection with the request of Governor Stewart that President Wilson send Federal troops to quell the order at Butte between members of the Western Federation of Miners and the Industrial Workers of the World.

In view of the apparent quiet conditions in Butte today, the Montana delegation did not press for the immediate sending of troops, but made an engagement to see President Wilson tomorrow and discuss the entire situation with him. They expect additional word today from Governor Stewart, who has gone from Helena to Butte to take personal charge of the situation.

The president is not expected to take any definite action until he hears further from Governor Stewart and the Montana delegation.

"DEVIL BABY" STORY TOLD

Jane Addams Pleads Immigrants' Case Before Club Women.

Sociologists and Educators Also Address Chicago Meeting.

Chicago, June 16.—The story of the "Devil Baby" of Hull house was told by the head of that social center, Jane Addams, to the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs here today. The story was told in connection with a plea that club women extend the hand of fellowship to immigrant women, especially the older women.

Miss Addams said the origin of the fairy story seems to have been with primitive women, who invented it to influence to gentler ways their brutal lords and masters.

"There was, of course, no devil baby, but such currency did the story have that for six weeks the ordinary activities of Hull house were almost suspended while we explained to hundreds of ignorant inquirers that it was all a fairy story," said Miss Addams.

Two Versions Found. "Finally we placed detectives at work and we found two versions. The Italian version was that a Christian girl married an atheist, who, at the culmination of an assault on his wife, suspended while we explained to hundreds of ignorant inquirers that it was all a fairy story," said Miss Addams.

The Jewish version differed but little. "The Jewish version," she continued, "told of a father whose wife had borne him seven daughters, and upon the approach of the eighth he swore he would rather have a devil in the house than another daughter. And the story, like that of the Italian's, concluded with the birth of the devil baby."

MAINE DEMOCRATS NOMINATE CURTIS

He Will Oppose Haines in Contest for Governorship.

Portland, Me., June 16.—Mayor Oakley S. Curtis of Portland secured the Democratic nomination for governor at yesterday's primaries, according to returns in hand today. Governor William T. Haines, Republican, was renominated without opposition.

There was no opposition to the nomination of the four Maine congressmen, Daniel G. McCall, Democrat, and Asher G. Hinds, John A. Peters and Frank E. Guernsey, Republicans. At the election in September, Mr. McCall will be opposed by Harold M. Sewall, Republican; Mr. Peters by William E. Pettanah, Democrat, and Mr. Guernsey by Mayor Charles W. Mullen of Bangor.

VOTE AT PRIMARY MAY EXCEED THE FIRST TWO DAYS' REGISTRATION

Many Voters Are Qualifying By Presenting Affidavits.

Will Offset Those Who Registered and Fail to Vote.

Polls Will Remain Open Until 9 P. M.—New Interest Aroused.

The vote being cast at today's primaries may exceed the registration of the first two days, which totaled $64.

Many voters are qualifying by presenting affidavits, attested by two freeholders, stating that they are qualified electors. In several districts the blanks provided for this purpose were exhausted by noon and a new supply had to be secured.

The interest in the primary seems to be more general than was first anticipated. New life has been injected into the campaign in the last few days by those who have contested and the result is being reflected in the vote which is being cast today.

The polls opened at 6 o'clock this morning and will remain open until 9 o'clock tonight. The counting of the ballots will start as soon as the polls are closed.

Second Choice Used But Little. In view of the fact that the voters for second choice appear only to state offices and not to legislative or county offices, which are non-partisan, it is expected that the ballots will be counted much more quickly than in the last

SEVEN DEAD; SCORE BADLY HURT IN FIRE

Armenian Lodging House Burns at Milford, Mass.

Milford, Mass., June 16.—Seven men were burned to death, and twenty seriously injured when eighty persons were trapped in a burning Armenian lodging house here early today.

The bodies were taken from the upper floor of the four and one-half-story brick and wood building, an addition to the twenty-story hotel, which was suffering from burns or from injuries received in jumping from windows, thirty minutes after the fire broke out. The fire, the cause of which has not been determined, started in the dining hall on the ground floor. When firemen arrived flames were shooting through all four floors. There was a scene of wild excitement as the crazed foreigners attempted to save their lives.

The building, erected more than fifty years ago, formerly was used as a shoe factory and its timbers were impregnated with oil. The heat was intense. The victims were laborers and molders at a manufactory in Hopedale. None of them had families. The financial loss was small.

EVANGELIST MUST PAY GIRL $20,000

GEORGIA W. JAY.

Chicago, June 16.—Georgia W. Jay, a stenographer, got a verdict of $20,000 against Homer A. Rodeheaver, the silver-voiced chorister, who follows the fortunes of Rev. Billy Sunday. She had sued for $50,000. She testified that Rodeheaver proposed to her on a taxicab ride. He admitted that he had hugged and kissed her and had asked her views on matrimony, so the jury decided that Miss Jay had every reason to consider herself engaged to him, even if he did not make a formal proposal of marriage.

Rodeheaver has appealed.

OVER 1,000 SPECIAL POLICE GUARD KING FROM WOMEN

REFUSES TO INDICT WOMAN FOR SLAYING

West Virginia Grand Jury Sets Mrs. McSurley Free.

Charleston, W. Va., June 16.—Mrs. Dollie McSurley, who recently walked into the sheriff's office and announced that two days before she had killed her husband and hid his body in the cellar of their home, walked out of the county jail here today, a free woman.

The Kanawha county grand jury refused to return an indictment against her. Mrs. McSurley declared she struck her husband with a hatchet after he tried to kill her.

IRISH PATRIOT'S DAUGHTER WEDS.

San Francisco, Cal., June 16.—Miss Margaret O'Donovan Rossa, daughter of O'Donovan Rossa, famous Irish patriot and revolutionist, was married here yesterday to William H. Cole of this city. Miss Rossa came from New York for the ceremony.

WIDOW WILL WITHDRAW HER CONTEST AGAINST CAPT. SELLWOOD'S WILL

H. A. RODEHEAVER.

Settlement With the Other Heirs Has Been Effected By Her.

Attorneys Refuse to Disclose the Terms of the Agreement Yet.

Hearing Resumed—Morning Spent on Argument of Law Points.

Mrs. Martha M. Sellwood, widow of the late Capt. Joseph Sellwood, millionaire banker and mining man, whose death occurred in this city Feb. 24, will withdraw her contest against her husband's will. It is understood that a settlement has been effected between Mrs. Sellwood and the other heirs of the estate.

H. B. Fryberger of the firm of Fryberger, Fulton & Spear, attorneys for Mrs. Sellwood in the three-cornered contest, which is being waged against the will which Richard M. Sellwood, son, and Mrs. La Rue S. Merriam, daughter, are seeking to have admitted to probate, admitted this morning that negotiations for a settlement had been entered into. Mr. Fryberger, as well as the attorneys for the other Sellwood heirs, declined to state what the terms of the compromise were.

At the time Mrs. Ophelia Lethbridge, disinherited daughter of the late Capt. Sellwood, started her contest to break the will on the grounds that her brother and sister had brought undue influence to bear on their father at the time it was executed, Mrs. Sellwood also filed a general objection to the allowance of the will. The objection of the widow was made on the grounds that the ante-nuptial agreement which was mentioned in the will was void, and that the allowance of the will would affect her dower and statutory rights.

In the last will, her husband be-

CLAIM TURKS SLEW HUNDRED GREEKS

Refugees From Asia Minor Tell About Massacre.

Athens, Greece, June 16.—Greek refugees from Asia Minor today brought reports of the massacre by Turks of 100 Greeks, including priests, old men and children, in the town of Phokis, twenty-five miles northwest of Smyrna.

The town, according to the official report, was invaded by a horde of armed men, who looted and then set fire to all buildings. They are said to have been assisted by the Turkish police.

The inhabitants, most of whom were Greeks, fled, leaving their property behind them and 3,500 of them have reached Salonika. They declare that the bodies of the massacred people were thrown into wells.

The refugees, many of whom were suffering from wounds, were in a state of starvation on their arrival.

THAW DENIES HE IS GOING ABROAD.

Gorham, N. H., June 16.—In a signed statement, Harry K. Thaw today denied a report that he was planning to go to Europe.

"The only place I am going is to Pittsburgh," he said. "As soon as I get permission I am going home, to my family and look after my business interests. I have no intention whatever of going abroad. Any statement to that effect is fabricated."

GET THROUGH, SAYS WILSON

President Wants Trust Bills Passed By End of July.

Believes There Will Be No Organized Opposition in Senate.

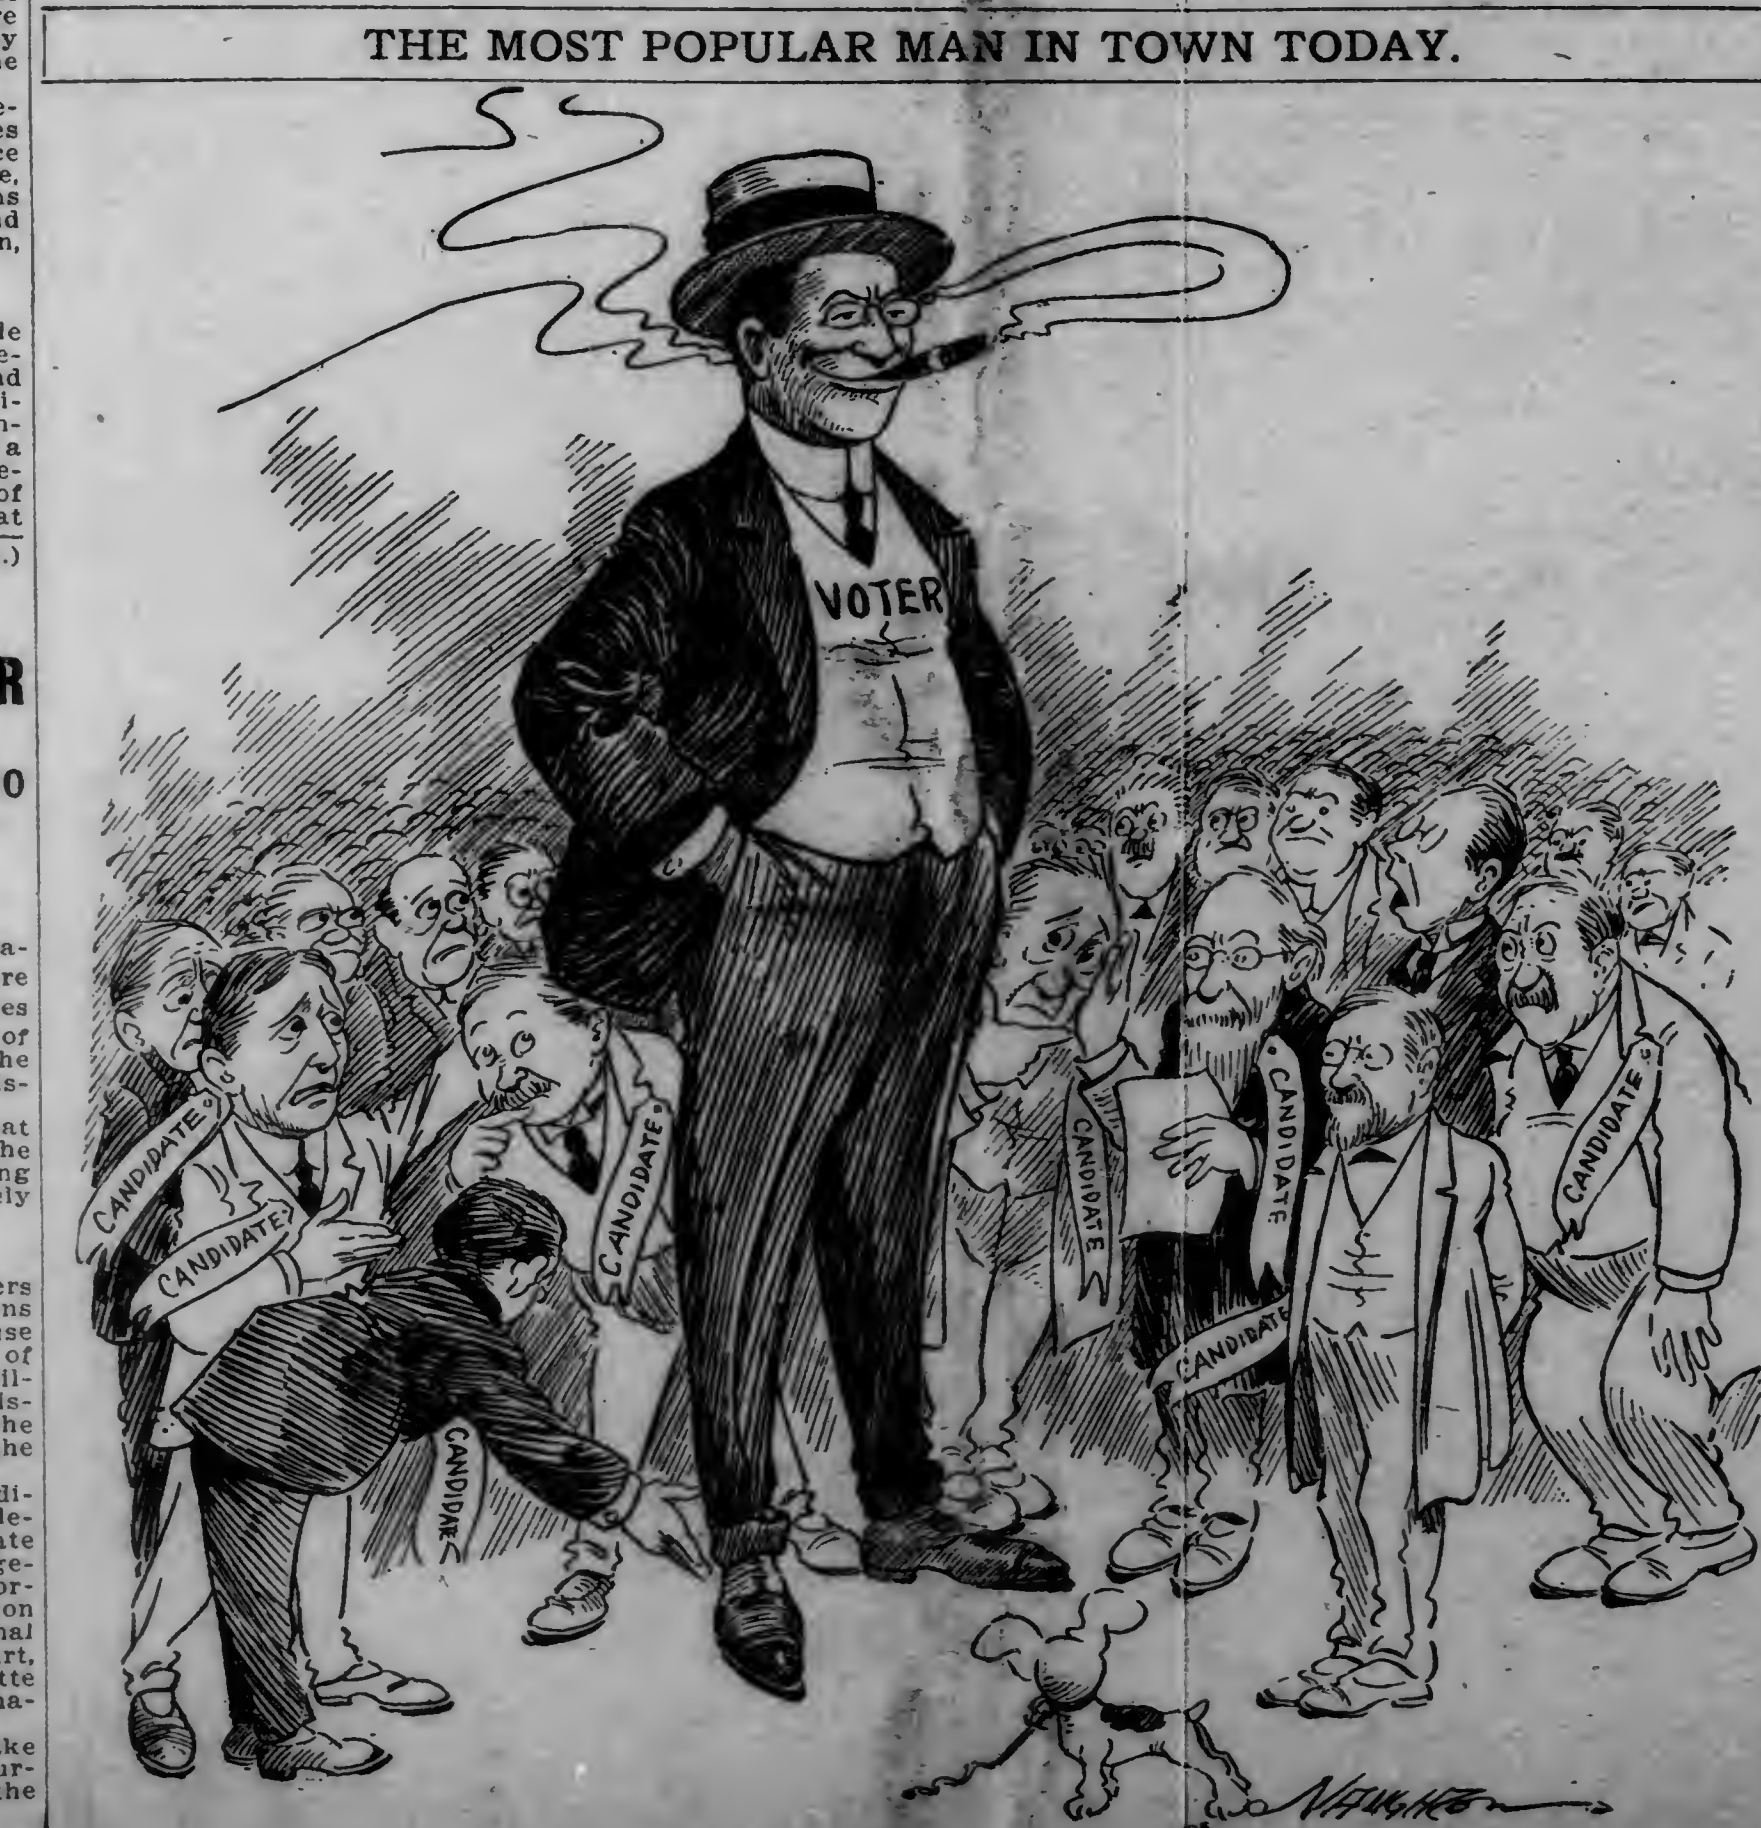

Washington, June 16.—President Wilson was hopeful today that the administration trust legislation program will be passed so congress may adjourn by the end of July.

According to officials close to the president, he believes there is no prospect of any organized opposition to the trust legislation by Republicans in the senate and that a filibuster is improbable.

The president expects the railroad securities and the omnibus anti-trust bill to be reported out of committee within the next two weeks.

It was made plain today that he has not finally committed himself to the details of the bill as they passed the house.

The president's attitude against any adjournment without enacting the trust bill had an immediate effect at the capitol. The leaders began busy work on the appropriation bills and turning up the legislative machinery all along the line. Most of the senators are eager for a midsummer adjournment.

city property will be used for the new fire hall, police station and West Duluth branch of the municipal court.

A two-story brick building will be planned to cover the entire property, according to Commissioner Hicken, who, in company with Chief Randall of the fire department and an architect, was looking over the ground this morning. The building will be set back about twelve feet from the sidewalk line in order to conform with the building ordinance. The lot has a frontage of fifty feet on the corner and is 125 feet deep.

The entire department will be motorized when it gets into its new building. The police department will also be equipped with a small automobile.
Several bids were received this morning by Lieut. C. E. Wilcox for the team of horses and other equipment owned by the department at this station.

The second floor of the building will be arranged for sleeping quarters for the firemen as well as for the municipal court. A stairway will be built leading from the police station to the courtroom so that it will not be necessary to take prisoners outside of the building to get them to the courtroom.
Arrangements will also be made for a barn in the rear where a team of horses can be kept in cases of emergency. This barn will be a part of the building, but will be made thoroughly sanitary.

BIG VOTE BEING CAST IN SUBURBS

Almost Total Registration Is Turning Out to the Polls.

Indications are that nearly the total registration will vote today in West Duluth and the West end. In addition to those registered, there will be a heavy vote by affidavits. At the West Duluth polling station, now known as the thirty-sixth voting district, the supply of ballots used for swearing in the voters was exhausted before 10 o'clock this morning, requiring an additional supply being sent out from the city hall.

At noon today more than 100 had voted at that precinct. Proportionately heavy was the vote in the thirty-fifth and other western precincts.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION OPENS

in Annual Meeting at Proctor.

The annual convention of the Epworth League of the Duluth district opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Proctor hotel. The Epworth church of the Forbes Memorial M. E. church of Proctor. The afternoon session opened with an address of welcome by Rev.
J. D. Hanson of the Proctor church and a response by Clinton Oblinger, president of the league.

The appointment of committees and the reports of officers and various chapters took up the greater part of the session. The reports showed that substantial growth had been made by the league in the district during the year. This evening the principal address will be given by Dr. W. E. J.
Gatz of St. Paul.

BACHELORS' CLUB WILL GIVE DANCE.

The Bachelors' club of New Duluth has planned to entertain a Sunday evening at another of its dancing parties at the Macabees hall. Invitations were issued this morning. The committee in charge have termed this "A Shirt Waist Dancing Party". It is the intention of allowing the male guests to dance without their coats.

Arrangements have been made for a bus to leave the end of the Grand avenue car line at 9 o'clock to take West Duluth guests. The bus will make the return trip after midnight.

month. Games and music featured the entertainment. The room was prettily decorated with pink and white hearts and carnations. The guests were:
Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mrs. L. E. Allen,
Mrs. S. Swanson, Misses Jennie Gilson,
Olive Bergstrom, Ida Bergstrom, Lena Gotkin, Anna Brett, Bertha Wangen,
Emily Brett, Ida Swanson, Margaret Benson, Clara Staird and Anna Vold.

Circle Entertains.

The Inner Circle of the Westminster Presbyterian church entertained at a social at the home of Mrs. Janet Jennings, 612 West Roosevelt street. The program included an instrumental solo by Miss Janet Haley, a vocal solo by Rev. W. L. Staab, a vocal solo by Mrs.
O. S. Olson, a duet by Misses Mabel Melin and Antoinette Johnson, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Flora.

LETTER CARRIERS WILL MEET

OLD AND NEW CHIEFS AT BANQUET

POSTMASTER A. P. COOK.

WILLIAM E. McEWEN,
Postmaster-Elect.

The Duluth branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers will tender a banquet at the St. Louis hotel on Thursday evening in honor of A. P.
Cook, retiring postmaster, and William E. McEwen, the newly named head of the local postoffice.

The dinner will be served in the Woodland cafe at 7 o'clock and will be attended by about 150 people. All the members of the association residing in Duluth will be present and a large number of prominent citizens, including members of the city commission, are also expected to attend.

Another honor guest of the evening will be E. J. Cantwell of Washington, D. C., secretary of the National Association of Letter Carriers, who is making a tour of the country in behalf of the association and who is also taking his honeymoon trip at the same time. He was married in Washington last week and he and Mrs.

FINLAND NOT A NATION IN SPORT

Olympic Congress Refuses to Recognize Her—
Other Rules.

Paris, June 16.—Finland was wiped off the Olympic map today when the Olympic congress decided that Finland was not a nation in sport.

The German definition of an Olympic nation. Under this definition, Finland cannot enter as a separate nation. The congress also decided that Finland was not a nation in sport.

The congress also accepted a proposal by Italy, seconded by the United States, that a man who competes for one club in the series of Olympic games may never compete afterward in the games for another country.

The congress also decided that competitors must be natives or naturalized citizens of the country they represent.

COMMY SAYS IT'S SO.

Chase Leaving Sox, But Future
Plans Not Given.

Chicago, June 16.—Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American league club, admitted today that Hal Chase had notified him he would leave the White Sox "in ten days."

The first baseman in an interview with the press yesterday declared his intention of quitting, but according to Comiskey he did not say he would join the Buffalo Federals, as reported.

Comiskey gained the idea that Chase was going into business, he said.
Chase himself refused to make any

Will Lighten Keel.

Georgetown, Eng., June 16.—It is understood that Charles E. Nicholson, designer of Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, purposes to remove about four tons of lead from the keel of the new challenger for the America's cup.
He thinks this will materially increase the speed of the yacht.

TO BUILD EXTENSION.

Northern Pacific to Have Line South
From Beach, N. D.

Beach, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Residents of Beach are elated over the progress of the work on the extension to be built south of here by the Northern Pacific. President Hannard has been in New York and financed the deal and Vice President Slade will be here soon to make official selection of the route.

The survey provides the road shall strike the main line of the Northern Pacific about one mile west of here, run south along the state line then curve toward Burky. It will run near the present towns of Carlyle and Ollie and will be extended south at least twenty-five miles.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE AT FARGO.

Fargo, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Delegates from nearly every subordinate lodge in North Dakota are here today attending the annual Masonic grand lodge. More than 100 lodges are represented. There will be a banquet this evening.

DRILL FALLS; MAN KILLED

F. Keisel Struck on Head By Instrument Falling
Five Stories.

Injured Workman Dies in Ambulance on Way to Hospital.

While working in one of the elevator shafts in the Palladio building, Fred Keisel, 35 years old, was struck by a drill that fell five stories and hit him on the head. Keisel was knocked unconscious and he died on the way to St. Luke's hospital.

Keisel was a mechanic's helper and was working for the Otis Elevator company, which is installing new elevators in the Palladio building. He had been doing some steel work on a scaffold on the second floor during the morning. Shortly before noon a large drill was accidentally dropped from the seventh story by Edward Traves and struck Keisel.

The injured man was picked up by his fellow workmen and carried in the hospital. Authorities were then notified and an ambulance was then immediately rushed to the Palladio building. Keisel died before reaching the hospital.

Keisel had been a resident of Duluth for several years and had made his home with his brother John, at the Blanchard hotel, Twentieth avenue west and Michigan street. His parents reside in Bay City, Mich., and the body will be sent there tomorrow for burial.

BREWERS' AGENT AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

Zollman Would Talk to Officials About Treaty Lid.

From The Herald Washington Bureau.

Washington, June 16.—Fred W. Zoll-man of St. Paul, agent of the Minnesota brewers, came to Washington today to confer with officials of the Indian bureau relative to the enforcement of the prohibition provision in the treaty of 1855 in the territory covered by that treaty.

Zollman said that he had been in New York consulting John C. Spooner, counsel for the Bemidji liquor dealers, and it was possible a petition would be filed in the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. Should a petition be filed, it is said by those familiar with the court procedure that it will be denied.

It is possible, however, that action will be delayed until the court convenes for the next term in October.
Should this delay occur, the sale of the affected territory will remain open for several months.

OBITUARY

Rev. Alfred Robert Tucker, canon of Durham, Eng., since 1911, became suddenly ill in St. Paul on the night of June 15 and died in the edifice. Canon Tucker was bishop of Eastern Equatorial Africa from 1904 to 1909 and bishop of Uganda from 1909 to 1911.
He was born in 1849.

POLICE RAID THE "JUNGLE"

Arrest Thirty-One Men on the Charge of Vagrancy.

Only One Pleads Not Guilty—Must Work or Leave the City.

Thirty-one men were arrested in a raid made on the "jungle" at the foot of Sixth avenue west at 1:50 o'clock this morning by Sergeant Roberg and Patrolmen Engler, Danielson and W. Monahan. It is the aim of the police to rid the city of all men who refuse to work.

These men have been living in the "jungle" for the last few weeks. They make their homes on the strip of land running out at the foot of Sixth avenue west, directly opposite the Northern Pacific dock, No. 4. The men have been eating their own meals, washing their clothes and sleeping in the "jungle" as it is known about that section of the city.

The thirty-one men were all arraigned before Judge Cutting this morning on charges of vagrancy and all but one pleaded guilty. He is Oleg Olson, 35 years old, who denied being a vagrant and his trial was set for 3 o'clock this afternoon. Six of those who pleaded guilty were given suspended sentences, providing they leave the city. They are: Albert Wahrus, 23; John Kuopala, 25; Karl Maki, 23; Phillip Rozinski, 30; Nestor Kivi, 33; and John Maki, 26.

Joseph Saarinen, 28 years old, has been arrested before and when he pleaded guilty Judge Cutting gave him thirty days on the work farm. On Saarinen's promise to leave the city, the court suspended sentence. Judge Cutting is investigating the remaining twenty-three prisoners and will sentence them during the next twenty-four hours. It is his aim to weed the other ones out and send them to the work farm and give the others a chance to leave the city.

Those awaiting sentence are: John Sewon, 36; Bruno Krasavich, 26; Tony Pietrzyk, 22; Steve Matrick, 27; Tony Bushkevich, 35; Mike Doehinski, 23; Mike Kitch, 26; Frank Johns, 30; Joe Mala, 37; Clemence Zikes, 28; John Arthur Maki, 31; Fred Bernhardt, 20; John Anderson, 27; William Savick, 22; John Poloski, 32; Erik Kroen, 29; Matt Pakkala, 40; Paul Soutack, 32; Frank Cieciorka, 40; Anton Hanson, 60; John McCue, 48; John Lawson, 51; and William George, 22.

The police were compelled to make two trips to headquarters, taking eighteen of the men on the first run and the remaining thirteen for the last trip.

PETITION FOR CONCRETE PAVING

Property Owners on Victoria Street Say Asphalt Is Too Costly.

Property owners on Victoria street between Woodland avenue and the Hartley road have presented a petition to Commissioner Murchison asking that they not be paved with concrete as a width of sixteen feet. The commissioner has not yet checked up the petition to ascertain if it is sufficient.

The contract for paving this part of Victoria street with asphalt was let last year to P. McDonnell and was taken over by the Victoria Street Improvement company. This spring the property owners appeared before the city council and asked that a less expensive pavement be laid as Victoria is a side street. If the petition is sufficient it is probable that the work will be done this season.

WHITTLES BULLET; SHELL EXPLODES

William Peck, Aged 14, Is Wounded in Finger and Knee.

Whittling a .45-caliber bullet, which he had found, William Peck, 14 years old, this morning caused the shell to explode and pass through his index finger and penetrate his right knee. The boy has been removed to the St. Luke's hospital, where Dr. John W. Kurz attended the bullet wounds. It is reported that the injuries are slight and that the boy will recover.

Young Peck was cutting the bullet with a pocket knife in his room at his home, 215 First avenue east, where he lives with his widowed mother, Cecelia Peck, who is a native of Wisconsin.

The bullet went through the boy's finger and penetrated his knee. His cries attracted neighbors to the house and the boy was carried to the St. Luke's hospital, 101 east Fourth street.

Dr. Kurz, whose office is upstairs, was called and gave the boy temporary treatment, after which he was taken to St. Luke's hospital in the police ambulance.

RUSSIA ACCUSES LAWYERS OF INSULT

Twenty-Five Are Tried as Echo of Beilis Case.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—Twenty-five members of the Russian bar were placed on trial here today accused of insulting the Russian ministry of justice in connection with the case of Mendel Beilis, who was acquitted Nov. 10 last year at Kiev on the charge of the "ritual murder" of the boy Yushkevitch.

The lawyers, at the time of the Beilis trial, issued a press statement in which the ministry of justice and the court at Kiev were inspired by racial and national enmity.

JONES SAID TO BE PRESIDENT'S CHOICE

Chicago Man May Yet Head the Federal Reserve Board.

Washington, June 15.—Thomas D. Jones of Chicago nominated yesterday for the six year term on the Federal reserve board, was said in official circles today to be the president's choice for governor of the board. Charles S. Hamlin of Boston was expected to be made vice governor. Reports continue that confirmation of some of the nominees will be opposed in the senate. Official close to the president declared he considered the entire board so good that he will support the nominations to his utmost power.

A Single Application Will Banish Hairs

(Beauty Culture)
Here is an unfailing way to rid the skin of objectionable hair or fuzz: With some powdered delatone and water mix enough paste to cover the hairs not wanted, apply and after two or three minutes rub off and every hair will have vanished. The skin should then be washed to remove the rest of the delatone. No injury can result from this treatment, but be careful to get real delatone.—Advertisement.

the companies were endeavoring to induce at least a part of the men to return to work. Homewood, the Thirteenth ward of Pittsburgh, is not directly in the strike zone, although many Westinghouse employees live there, including foremen who are not among the strikers. Bridget Kenny, the strike leader, said the union would be represented at the meeting.

Additional men, it was stated, today returned to the shops of the Union Switch & Signal company.

"IT DOESN'T TAKE ANY BRAINS TO SAY DON'T"

A. M. Locker Tells Sunday School Workers What Should Be Done.

Chicago, June 15.—"It doesn't take any brains to say 'Don't'—'Don't go to the theater,' 'Don't play cards,' 'Don't dance'—these are easy enough commands. What costs something is to tell our young people what they may do," said A. M. Locker of St. Paul, Minn., today at the Sunday school week convention.

Mr. Locker, who is secretary of the Minnesota State Sunday school association, added: "When you tell a young man 'Don't play ball on Sunday,' but you can play on week days, it means that you must let him off from his work for half a day. It means a basketball suit, a playground; it means taking trouble in securing an organization and in patronizing the game so as to encourage him. This is what it costs. But the church must do this until it dominates the play life of the nation, and not leave it to be exploited by commercialized vice."

ANOTHER ATTACK MADE ON DURAZZO

Artillery Duel Is Feature of Religious War in Albania.

Durazzo, Albania, June 15.—Another attack on the Albanian capital was made by Mussulman insurgents at 6 o'clock this morning when heavy artillery was brought to bear on the defending force commanded by Prince William.

The guns of the attacking force were soon located in the vicinity of Esanbi, and the artillerymen in the garrison quickly found the range. The fighting forces then engaged in a brisk artillery duel.

Detachments of Bluejackets from the international fleet lying off the coast took up positions in the neighborhood of the foreign legations and consulates, and also erected barricades around the royal palace.

Several Austrian torpedo boat destroyers started early in the day for Scutari to embark 1,500 Malsorian tribesmen loyal to Prince William's government to reinforce the garrison of the capital.

Maj Roelsem, one of the Dutch officers of the gendarmerie, was appointed today to succeed to the command of the troops in vacant yesterday by the death during the fighting of Col. Thomson.

Barney Jasnuszkiewicz Gives Right Name at Wrong Time.

New York, June 15.—When Barney Jasnuszkiewicz, fireman on the steamship New York, which was recently rammed by the Hamburg-American liner Pretoria, stopped forward today in the hope that he might be rewarded for his conduct at the time of the accident, he was promptly arrested. The detective who made the arrest said he was wanted by the Chicago police on charges of assault and robbery.

The fireman had used an assumed name when he signed the ship's articles, but when it was rumored that the crew was to be rewarded for their courage, he gave his right name.

DAVIES HEADS CONCERN

Commissioner of Corporations President of Ashland Company.

Ashland, Wis., June 15.—Commissioner of Corporations John E. Davies of Wisconsin is president of the Knight Loan & Investment company, a corporation formed to take over all of the property of the Knight estate not taken by Clark M. Knight.

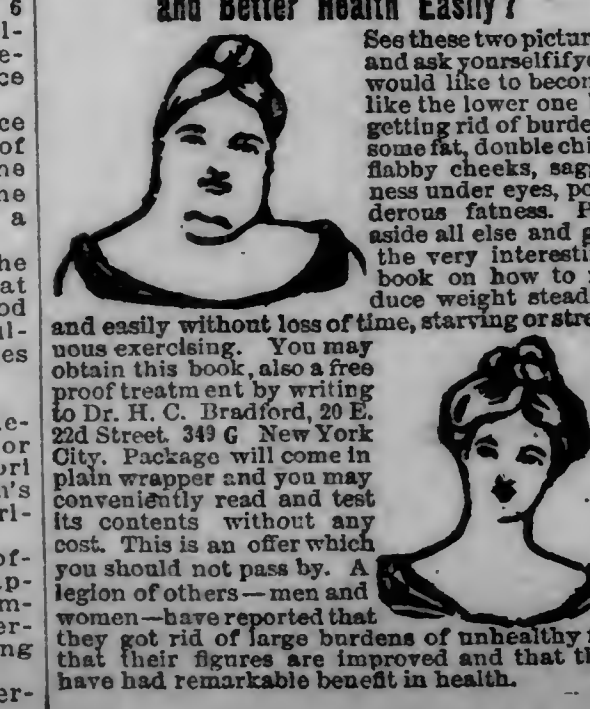

The first vice president is L. B. Rowley of Madison; second vice president, S. K. Gooding of Wausau, with C. H. Clark of this city as the secretary and treasurer and also manager of the company's interests.

Clark M. Knight took over certain lands and securities as his individual share, while his sisters and their husbands organized the company to handle the balance of the property, including the Knight hotel.

THIRTY-THREE LOST DOGS SHOT

Police Average Two a Day for First Half of June.

Between June 1 and June 15 the police shot thirty-three dogs that had been brought to the pound by the dog catchers, while $82 was added to the city treasury from the pound fees and sales of animals, according to the report prepared yesterday by Patrolman P. Barber, who is in charge of the pound.

During the first half of the month twenty-two people paid pound dues of $2 each, to obtain their dogs, which had been caught, while the sale of nine animals brought in $18.

Of the dogs that were captured one escaped from the pound, while one belonged out of the city and it was returned to the owner. Two dogs were returned to their owners free of charge, it being discovered that the families were in straightened circumstances and unable to pay the fees.

SAVINGS OF YEARS LOST

New York Man, on Way to Claim, Stranded in Duluth.

Loses $253 With Which He Had Planned to Clear Farm.

For years and years Thomas E. Moffett of Cold Springs, N. Y., had dreamed of the West and of Minnesota and has saved his money in the hope that some day he might be able to come here and settle down in "God's own country" with his wife and children. Yesterday afternoon Moffett arrived here with his wife and five children and while on the way to the Union station about 9:30 o'clock last evening, he lost his entire savings amounting to $253. And now Moffett, who has a claim at Staudette, is unable to go there. He appealed to the police to help him in his search for his fortune, which he lost through a safe pocket. Moffett discovered his loss just as he reached the station and asked the agent for tickets. He does not remember where he might have lost the money, but he believes it was somewhere between the Park hotel, where he had roomed, and the station. He is now staying at the hotel at the cost of the local charitable institutions and every day is made to find his money. There were forty five-dollar bills in the roll and fifty-three ones, according to the report Moffett gave the police shortly after discovering his loss. It represented his savings of years and what he had planned to use in breaking his way to Duluth direct from Cold Springs.

BODY OF MARY NOLAN IS FOUND
Officers Use Dynamite and Raise Body Near Grassy Point Bridge.

Two boys fishing on the Grassy Point bridge of the Northern Pacific railroad discovered the body of Miss Mary Nolan, 21 years old, who was drowned last Thursday evening in a canoe accident. The body came to the surface following the dynamiting of the river by police officers of Superior. The expedition to dynamite the river started out early yesterday forenoon and was headed by Chief of Police McKinnon, Capt. O'Connell, Detective Mead and Trooper Saunders. The body rose to the surface about 300 feet south of the bridge, and about 400 feet from where the accident occurred. The body was taken to the LeSage undertaking rooms. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 3 o'clock from the Sacred Heart cathedral with interment in Calvary cemetery.

MAY SECEDE FROM CITY.

Action of Tenth Ward Residents Depends on Attorney's Report.

The interest of Superior citizens centers today on the meeting to be held at Allouez this evening when the residents of the Tenth ward will be informed if they can legally secede from the rest of the city. A committee from the Allouez residents has been in conference with Judge William M. Steele and this evening a report of that committee will be given by the judge. If the district court legally secede then it is proposed to take immediate action to the end. The residents say they have endured the non-progressive policy of the city administration too long and propose to assume the reins of government themselves and provide for their own improvements.

HEARING ON THE MINIMUM WAGE SCALE.

The Wisconsin Industrial commission will hold a meeting at the Superior Commercial club rooms this evening for a hearing on the proposed minimum wage scale for women and children. The commission will be addressed by the recent legislature to make a thorough investigation of the wage scale being paid women and to report on its investigation at the next session. From here the commission will go to La Crosse, Milwaukee and other large centers of population.

WOULD BAR WOMEN FROM USING CANOES.

Chief of Police McKinnon has recommended to the city commission that it pass an ordinance prohibiting women from using canoes. The recommendation was made by the police on the ground that canoes were dangerous and that women as a rule were careless in the use of them.

"Y" Building the Topic.

Directors of the Superior Y. M. C. A. will meet at the Commercial club this evening to determine whether or not to start an active campaign for raising funds to erect the new building. The foundation for the building has been completed. The directors will debate the subject, several claiming that at the present time the financial condition of Superior is not the best for starting such a campaign.

Washington, June 16.—Representatives of the American Electric Railway association urged the senate Interstate Commerce committee today specifically to exempt street railways and interurban lines from the railway securities bill.

TELL STORY OF DISASTER

Counsel for Storstad Speak at Empress of Ireland Inquiry.

Claim Skipper of Lost Vessel Was to Blame for Wreck.

Quebec, June 16.—Capt. Kendall, skipper of the Empress of Ireland, was the first witness today at the opening of the government's investigation into the collision between his steamer and the Storstad, in the lower St. Lawrence, and the loss of more than 1,000 lives. Although Kendall still limped from the injuries he received in the disaster, he refused a seat and faced the court on his feet. The examination of witnesses was preceded by the introduction of brief summaries of the facts by counsel representing the owners of the two vessels. Counsel for the Storstad declared that when the first sighted the Empress the latter was off the Storstad's port. Two minutes later the fog shut down, the Storstad signalled by whistle that she was under way and keeping her course heading west by south. Their statement continues: "When the whistles of the Empress were heard again the charge of the Storstad put his wheel to port while the ship slowed up. The wheel was put back to port, and when she did not answer it, assistance was given by steaming up sufficiently."

"Two long blasts were given to indicate that the vessel had not steered in the way. About the same time the engine room was ordered to go slow ahead so that the vessel would not become unmanageable."

"The captain, who had gone below, was called up by the mate. He asked, 'Can you see Father Point?' and the mate said it had just been cut out by the fog. He made no mention of the Empress, and called the captain back to the deck to be called if it got foggy."

"When the captain got on deck he saw the mast lights of the Empress three points to port. He immediately ordered full steam ahead. The vessels were then about 800 feet apart. The green light of the Empress appeared."

"Three minutes later the vessels came together. The master of the Storstad heard a chorus of cries, and proceeded toward them with care, his four boats ready to launch. The Storstad saved 100 of the Empress' survivors, and manned entirely an Empress' boat on its trip to the scene of the wreck, and another boat partially."

"The Storstad blew its whistle for the liner, but it did not answer. About ten minutes afterward the master of the Storstad heard a chorus of cries, and proceeded toward them with care, his four boats ready to launch. The Storstad saved 100 of the Empress' survivors, and manned entirely an Empress' boat on its trip to the scene of the wreck, and another boat partially."

NO WORD YET FROM THE "SPRINGFIELD"

Balloon Apparently Has Been Overtaken by Disaster.

Portland, Ore., June 16.—That disaster in some form has overtaken the crew of the balloon Springfield, which vanished after having left here Thursday morning, is a fact. The crew, under the auspices of the National Aero club, seemed certain today. Yesterday last night an organized search over the sandy river district was made, but no sign of the balloon was seen. Additional searching parties left today for points to the south and west of here.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS.

Philadelphia inquired, "Yes, Mrs. Bane," chattered the hostess over the luncheon table, "I am an excellent reader of faces. Perhaps it is not fair, but I always go by first impressions and form my own opinion of a person's character."

"Not always safe," smiled Mrs. Bane.

"But do you know, I find I am never wrong," answered her friend. "Mamma" piped a shrill little voice from the end of the table.

"What the mother, indelicately, 'what is it? He is so intelligent,' she murmured to her sister."

"Mamma," came the insistent little voice, "what is your opinion was when you first saw me?"

SOCIALISTS SEIZE HALL

Take Possession of Building Claimed By the Prohibitionists.

Winton Ask Courts for Relief.

Whether or not the Winton Finnish Socialist association is lawfully enjoying possession of its meeting place known as the Finnish Temperance hall at Morse in section 24, 63-12, will be a question which will be left to the courts. Suit was begun in district court today by the Finnish Temperance society of Winton and Fall Lake to secure possession of the premises now occupied by the Socialist organization and to recover damages because it has been deprived of the use of the hall. The temperance society selected Gust Johnson, Charles Bergquist, Charles Erickson, Nick Knutinen and Gust Lindy as active members and plaintiffs in the election suit, allege that the Socialists took possession about Oct. 1, 1910, after ousting the temperance society. The plaintiffs ask $500 damages for the loss of the use of the hall and $100 for damaged furniture and fixtures.

AGED CASE IS REVIVED

Injury Twelve Years Ago Is Cause of Damage Suit.

Twelve years ago, John Hannula, a boy of 4, was crushed under the wheels of a locomotive and both of his legs taken off.

In Judge Fessler's division of the district court today, trial of an action instituted by the child, through his guardian, Erick Johanson, against the Duluth & Iron Range Railroad company for $20,000 damages was begun. The claim which is made is that the boy with his brothers and sisters were in the habit of playing around a Duluth & Iron Range locomotive which stopped daily at Embarras station, located about eighty rods from the school house.

During the noon recess on Nov. 14, 1902, John and his brothers were climbing on and off the locomotive. The engine was started and the youngsters were crushed under the wheels. The boy lost both legs. His asks for damages because his prospects has been destroyed and his life has been ruined.

In reply to the company's answer, it is alleged that the understanding of the settlement which was made between the company and the boy's father was that it was a settlement of a claim as between the father and the company for damages and not made for the benefit of the boy.

The entire morning was given over to the selection of a jury.

NICARAGUA "COERCED"

Smith of Michigan Says Uncle Sam Defrauded Her.

Offers Resolution in Senate Denouncing Government's Action.

Washington, June 16.—Charges that the United States kept its marines in Nicaragua to influence the recent presidential election, and that the state department has been acting in the interest of the American banks, contained in a resolution introduced today by Senator Smith of Michigan, were referred to the senate foreign relations committee.

The resolution charges that the state department, through its control of Nicaraguan customs houses, has forced the public to reduce the value of $2,000,000 of bonds issued by Zelaya, later repudiated and bought in at about 25 per cent of their face value by Brown Bros. and Seligman & Co., American bankers interested in Nicaraguan financing.

"The sole beneficiaries of the fraud upon a friendly republic," says the resolution "were the Brown Bros. Seligman & Co. and Speyer & Co. and their allies."

The resolution charges that the Nicaraguan National railway was sold much below its value to the bankers, and that the last election in Nicaragua was intentionally influenced by the presence of the United States troops, in violation of the treaty with Nicaragua.

like shouting. "Why in heaven's name don't you go? And they always leave the screen door open and the flies are eating me up! There are millions of flies in this room!"

"Time for that medicine again!" I just took it a second ago. I've had a quart of the stuff in the last half hour. You forget that you have given it to me and come right back and give it to me again. Why don't you pump it into me steady?"

"Oh, the doctor said! How can you remember what he said when it has been two weeks since he was here?"

"Why, he was here yesterday."

"He comes fifty times one day and not at all the next. He will charge about $1,000 a visit, I suppose. He just walks right in when he comes, too, and that shows that we do not lock our doors. I doubt if the doors have been locked since I got sick. That's a great way to run a house—the doors unlocked all night, and the house full of burglars!"

"I am so glad you are getting well," remarked Mrs. Honkenort.

Summer Picnic

The picnic and week-end outing season is now at its height in Duluth. The boat club branches promise to be especially popular this year. Many improvements have been made at the Spirit Lake branch. The Minnesota Steel company has agreed to provide free light for the club house buildings, which are now being wired, and it is expected that the lights will be ready for use when the branch is opened on Saturday.

Mrs. H. E. Marsh, has charge of the high school lunch room for two years, will be in charge of the cafe at the branch. The tennis courts were never in such good condition, and the auto road into the club is now in fair shape. The Northern Pacific road has consented to remove its unsightly old depot at the boat club and extend its platform.

Canoeing is proving popular for picnic parties this season, and scarcely an evening passes without several parties taking advantage of the facilities offered. The swimming is good at both branches.

The main house is being well patronized, and every evening the members have a number of parties. The carmen work out on the bay, the finish of the picnic season taking place in front of the club house.

WILL HOLD ELECTION.

Daughters of Revolution President May Succeed Herself.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Daughters of the Revolution, now holding their annual convention here, after an afternoon of sightseeing and last evening banquet, enthusiastically took up the work of today's formal business session. Addresses were made by various state regents and then reports were made by standing committees.

The election of officers is to take place tomorrow and Mrs. Clarence L. Bledsoe of New York, president general, who has served the society in that capacity for three years, is said to be sure of re-election, as so far the name of no other candidate has been presented. The term of the regents of the board of directors expires tomorrow, as does that of Mrs. Washington Yale of Minneapolis, fourth vice president general. Those familiar with the customs of the Daughters of the Revolution say it is usual for the presidents general and other officers to be given a second term.

"MEXICO"

Mrs. Wells Makes Interesting Talk on Social Customs.

Mrs. D. B. Wells of Chicago, who has been giving an interesting series of lectures at the summer school of missions at the Y. W. C. A., spoke informally last evening at the First Baptist church on "Mexico." Mrs. Wells has traveled extensively in Mexico and has studied the social customs of the country. She related some of her personal experiences interspersed with what has been said by other lecturers. Mrs. Wells complimented the Mexicans on their politeness, but deplored their lack of cleanliness. She said the lecturer has seen life in that disturbed country and is especially interested in the condition of the people whose terrible condition is the result of the land being held by a small number of persons.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT THE CATHEDRAL SCHOOL

The commencement exercises of the Girls' Cathedral school will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the cathedral auditorium. Miss Alice Lamb, the honor pupil of the class, will give the valedictory. Miss Leona Toben, the class essay, "Woman, Her Life and Influence," and Miss Elizabeth Monahan, the class prophecy.

The senior play, "Not a Man in the House," will be presented by Misses Agnes Cruickshank, Margaret Mackey, Alice Murray, Frances McInale, Margaret Flynn and Durah Cameron. Sixteen members of the junior class will appear in a dance in the play and will give several Irish-melodies. There will be numbers by the Girls' Glee club.

Rev. Bishop McGee will confer the diploma and make an address to the graduates.

"A DOLL'S HOUSE."

Mme. Labadie Will Return in Ibsen Play.

Mme. Harriet Labadie will return to Duluth, where she will give an interpretation of "A Doll's House" at the Orpheum theater July 2, under the auspices of St. Luke's hospital.

Mme. Labadie is so well known to Duluth audiences that the success of her return appearance is assured. For her remarkable power of dramatic presentation and her psychological insight into the inner meaning of the complexities could make flesh and blood personalities such a diversity of temperamentally opposed characters as Ibsen has grouped in "A Doll's House" than at romanticism or strained emotional appeal in her presentation.

With an inferior play this might prove a disappointment, but Mme. Labadie is at her best. Only a mature experience of life, a sympathetic insight into the inner meaning of the complexities could make flesh and blood personalities such a diversity of temperamentally opposed characters as Ibsen has grouped in "A Doll's House" than at romanticism or strained emotional appeal in her presentation.

ERICSON-MOE.

Home Wedding for Well Known West End Residents.

Miss Ethel Louise Ericson and Alfred H. Moe were married at 4 o'clock yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ericson of 1001 East Third street. Only the relatives and the immediate friends of the family were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Carl Fisher. The bride wore a suit and hat of pearl gray and carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley. The wedding music was played by Miss Winifred White. The appointments in the dining room were in yellow and white.

The bride wore a white net gown and white hat trimmed with pink plumes. Her flowers were lilies of all colors and white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried pink roses. Michael Brown was the best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. E. F. Lurg.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY.

Individual Preference Should Determine Work.

The chances of finding the niche in life for which one is suited are all the time improving. In the passing of a few years a wonderful change has been brought in this particular. Parents are not so determined to settle the question without consideration of the young person's wishes.

Once upon a time a goodly proportion of the youth of the land had their life work mapped out for them while they were in their cradles. If fathers and grandfathers were farmers, son and grandsons were farmers, son and grandsons were farmers, son and grandsons were farmers.

Even today there are parents who do not hesitate to specify that a son shall be educated in some high-sounding profession who would be more successful and a good bit happier as a carpenter. Fortunately there is less

Mrs. Joseph Getty of 224 East Fourth street. The dining room and living room were decorated with ferns, red peonies and carnations and green ribbons.

Mrs. and Mrs. Callahan will leave tonight for a wedding trip to Minneapolis. They will be at home after July 1 at 224 West Third street.

When changing the address of your paper, it is important to give both old and new addresses.

The Duluth Herald accepts advertising contracts with the distinct guarantee that it has the largest circulation in Minnesota outside the Twin Cities.

Its attention called to any misstatement or untrue statement which may appear in its news, editorial or advertising columns.

THE HERALD AND VACATION

Those going away for the summer or even for a short vacation should not leave without sending in an order for The Herald to follow. Keep up with what's going on in Duluth. Get all the latest news. It's like a daily letter from home. Have your address changed if you are already a subscriber. Do not miss a single copy. Both phones, 324.

WELCOME TO THE CIRCULATORS.

Duluth today is entertaining the members of the International Circulation Managers' association, who are combining business and pleasure by holding their annual convention on the newest of the lake passenger boats during its first trip.

The circulation manager of a newspaper, he it known, is the man who fires the gun at the editorial and news forces have loaded is to the muzzle with the world's doings; and it is his duty, moreover, so to aim that gun that it will hit every potential newspaper reader in his field.

Another of his manifold duties—he's a busy man—is to "smooth out" the irate subscriber who has missed his favorite paper.

At times he even dares to tell the editor how to run his end of the machine—and sometimes his advice isn't so bad.

Naturally, therefore, the circulation man thinks his is the most important department, and that without him the paper would go to the eternal bow-wow. There are times, between us, when we are tempted to concede him a good deal of right to that belief. And anyway, we wouldn't give a penny for a man who didn't think something like that of his particular department of his particular business.

The circulation managers, who gather annually for the exchange of ideas, have this year shown originality—and wisdom—in the method of holding their convention. Especially have they shown good judgment in the route they have chosen.

This delegation probably represents more of this continent than almost any that ever visited Duluth, as the leading daily papers in every section of the United States and Canada are represented.

In behalf of Duluth and of the newspapers of this community we have pleasure in extending to these guests the warmest welcome and the warmest fraternal greetings. The Herald hopes that their convention and trip will prove profitable in every way, and that they will remember Duluth as one spot in it to which they will always be glad to return—as glad as Duluth will be to have them.

ELECTING MINOR STATE OFFICERS.

Now, honestly, Mr. Voter, when you went to the polls today, what did you know about the state candidates outside of those seeking the governorship?

Did you know who were the candidates for state auditor? If you did, what did you know about them and their fitness for office? Did you know who was running for railroad and warehouse commissioner? Did you know who was running against Caswell for clerk of the supreme court, or against Walter Smith for state treasurer?

Of course you knew that Lee and Eberhart were wrangling over the Republican nomination for governor, and that Mr. Lawler was making a sort of a contest against Congressman Hammond for the Democratic nomination.

But how far down the ticket did your knowledge go? Of how many candidates for state office did you know as much as you would want to know of a man you thought of hiring to run a peanut stand that you had got on a mortgage?

And if you, with your intelligence and public spirit and knowledge of public affairs, knew as little as you did about these candidates, what about the great numbers of voters who never pay attention to politics until they go to the polls to vote?

We talked the other day with a candidate for a minor state office who had been making a canvass of the state, and he spoke frankly.

"I found," he said, "that while pretty nearly everybody knew about Lee and Eberhart, not one in twenty-five knew anything about the contests for other state offices. They had never heard of me or of my opponents. Most of them did not even know there was such a contest on. And the same thing is true of the other state offices below governor."

That situation is the wide-open door to inefficiency and corruption. The long ballot in state government is a Trojan horse that carries biennially a cargo of unknowns, and the wonder of it is that so few of them turn out wrong.

The answer, of course, is the short ballot. Elect a governor, a lieutenant governor to take his place if he dies or resigns or is discharged, and a legislature. Let the governor appoint the rest and stand responsible to the public for their behavior in office. That's the short ballot.

The present system is a joke—but a dangerous one. It is as absurd as it would be if the country had to elect the heads of the various federal departments. Now, the president appoints them and stands responsible for their doings. If they go wrong, he is held to blame, as Taft was held to blame for Ballinger. If they were elected the cabinet would be filled with unknowns, none of them responsible to the president or to each other or to anybody but a public that didn't know anything about them when it elected them.

THE POLLS ARE OPEN UNTIL NINE

This is primary election day.

The polling places throughout the state are open until nine o'clock.

If you have not voted, there is yet time to vote if you can make your polling place a little before nine.

If it has slipped your mind, this is to remind you.

ELECTION RETURNS.

As always, the complete machinery of The Herald's news-gathering facilities will be busy tonight and tomorrow preparing the election returns for publication at the earliest possible moment.

Decisive returns probably will be late. The polls are open throughout the state until nine o'clock, and only scattering returns are likely before midnight. In all probability the issue of the Republican nomination for governor will have to be decided by the country precincts, and if the contest is as close as now seems likely, the outcome will not be known before well into Wednesday.

Editors of The Herald, extra and regular, tomorrow will inform the public of the progress of the returns, and definite results will be announced as fast as they can be ascertained.

SOCIAL CENTERS IN DULUTH.

We hope—and confidently believe—that the school board when it takes up the subject of social centers at its meeting tonight will do it in a spirit of progressive good will.

Social centers have just closed a successful year in Duluth. They have been tried, and they have made good. There is an abundance of testimony to that. Though the experiment has been conducted in only three widely scattered school buildings, already social centers are a powerful influence toward a better and sounder and more unified community spirit.

And that is something which every citizen, whether a member of the school board or not, approves and wishes to foster in every practicable manner.

The requests for next year are modest: The three established centers are to be continued, and two more added. This is expanding safely, and slowly enough to make sure of the way.

We find it inconceivable that the school board will put itself in the way of this progressive and desirable movement. We think those who have anticipated that it would have grievously misjudged the spirit of the directors.

There is some slight expense, and doubtless some slight annoyance to the principals of the schools. But these are small sacrifices when weighed against the great community good that is being achieved.

We hear that the few opponents of social centers are using the case of Rochester, New York, against them. They have chosen unhappily.

Rochester furnishes the most conspicuous example of social center experiments, and the most conspicuous example of their collapse.

But the collapse of social centers in Rochester is the best argument for social centers ever made.

Rochester is a boss-ridden town. Even the school board is controlled by the machine. The "organization" let social centers start because it thought them a harmless plaything. The people, though, got together in the social center clubs and discussed public affairs, and were learning how to beat the bosses. So the bosses, as a measure of self-protection, killed social centers in Rochester.

Does Duluth wish to put itself in Rochester's category? We think not, and we think that tonight's meeting of the school board will develop the fact that the directors have a broader public spirit than those who anticipated trouble have given them credit for.

BULLDOZING THE LAW MACHINERY.

President Wilson took occasion yesterday to tell everybody who is interested that so far as he is concerned he proposes to go ahead with the trust-regulation program no matter what attempts are made to bulldoze the lawmakers.

He pointed out, too, that there is a very intimate connection between the "psychological depression" of which he spoke the other day and the well-organized campaign now in progress to palsy the legislative machine "in the interests of business."

Moreover, not all business interests by any means are engaged in this campaign, but only a very definite and restricted element of business, no less restricted in numbers because it is highly powerful financially.

Uncertainty is worse for business than bad legislation. Uncertainty will prevail if the pending program goes over until after election. General business will be hurt worse by delay than by action.

But the definite and restricted business interests that are campaigning for delay do not care about this. What they care about is that if the program goes through, THEIR BUSINESS PRACTICES WILL BE PUT UNDER THE BAN OF LAW.

To this end, they are willing to create a "psychological" business depression, hoping to scare congress out of action. To this end, they hope to bring about a Republican house of representatives so that further action will be halted between a Democratic senate and a Republican house.

These interests deserve the rebuke the president has given them. Moreover, they deserve the prohibitive legislation which the president is urging, and which will curb their greedy enterprises.

He-Towns and She-Towns.

Chicago Tribune: A little village of neat houses along a quiet street. The houses are painted and stand self-respectfully in well-kept little yards, their windows discreetly curtained and their lawns trimly mowed. In the center of the village, there is a dipper at the pump, a broom and dustpan lean against the wooden door, the front windows are shut, though it is summer, and their shades are jealously drawn, though it is day.

Order, economy, the routine of home, the procession of familiar hours changeless, unvarying as the tick-tock of the old clock in the hall—a woman's world, a community dominated by her needs, limited by her reserves, formed, almost, in her image.

Another village, shacks straggling along an unkempt street, unpainted gapping here and there, out at elbows and marked by the rude buffets of hard weather. The gate hangs rottingly in the yard, and no yards at all, an old hat jammed in a front window frame. Also a dozen barrooms, and a saloon, and a little sound of loud talk, the click of ivory and the clink of glasses roughly washed by the "barkeep" under the bar.

Disorder, slovenly masculine comfort, the easy satisfaction of appetite, the clash of wills, rough and unpolished, the unexpected—a man's world, strong of flavor, violent, wasteful.

Between these two swings civilization along the road of time—the expansive and the conservative impulses, the forces that drive on, the force that orders and preserves, the centrifugal and centripetal, the adventurous and the perfective, the Klondike and the Fifth Avenue.

Ardent feminists declare that we live in a man-made world. There would be no Fifth Avenue, no New York, London, Paris. If it is a man-made world, man shows a strange tendency to fly from his nest, and only for a fortnight, along a trout stream, sans razor, sans collar, and sans—wife!

Three Shortest Poems.

Strickland Gillilan in the Indianapolis Star: Robertus Love does good stuff for the Republic in St. Louis. We hope, on the side, that the St. Louis one is an exception to the proverbial ungratefulness of republicans.

But recently Robertus took a friendly fall out of us in the matter of the briefest poem possible.

The "briefest possible" referred to was our long lyric entitled "The Antiquity of Microbes." And the poem itself was:

"Adam had 'em."
Robertus speaks kindly of this epic, and refers at some length to the unsuccessful efforts that have been made to write a shorter one. Then, in closing, he sums up thus:

"Lines on the Effort to Shorten the Shortest Poem!" And his poem on that theme is:

"Robertus, it is easy to beat that. Here is the title and the poem: 'Our Opinion as to Whether Robertus Love Has Written a Shorter One!'"

The Pool.

The day—the day—the shining day. When happy winds were blowing, And down the shady garden way. The cherry flowers were snowing. I blew and blew the wide world through.

All whispering, wet and cool, And saw the high, the silver sky. Down in a pavement pool. I leaped to see the trees and me. And clouds a-blowing by.

Then blew away, for fear I'd stay. And fall into the sky! The day—the day—the shining day. When happy winds were blowing, And down the shady garden way. The cherry flowers were snowing.

—Mary White Slater in Harper's.

Bright Signs of the Times

Editorial by the Louisville Post.

Even in this period of deliberation, capital increases, and the savings banks show large deposits. Evidently the great body of the American people are profitably employed, making good the loss and waste of an era of reckless conduct and wild expansion.

"Don't worry," said Mr. Simmons of St. Louis to his traveling men. "War or no war, freight rates or no freight rates, tariff or no tariff, baseball or no baseball, grape juice or champagne—the farmer is still on the job. Don't forget him!"

The railroads, whether they get the subsidy they ask, with amnesty and clemency, are entering upon another era of great prosperity. The April returns show generally an increase in net earnings, even on a reduced basis. With a business revival the will again be unable to handle the traffic.

The years ago the railroads were unable to carry the traffic, and congestion inflicted a great disaster on the industry of the country.

Then, after 1870, and after 1890, this year it is to be more than 900,000,000, and other grain crops in the United States. The year 1884, after 1893, it was the great crops of America that made possible the reumption of activity, and the restoration of the industry of the country.

Now, after 1907, it is the farmer that comes to the rescue of the nation. The nation is in a straits, and it is husbanding resources of an unsurpassed proportion. Three years of fiscal mismanagement have not only impaired our strength, they have only checked our investments.

The bank surplus in New York is the largest in the history of the country. The surplus of the year 1907 was $50,000,000 last week, and commercial paper was in demand at 3 1/2 per cent.

Today the United States is the most prosperous nation in the world, and is carrying all nations through an era of peace and plenty, and a time of prosperity and peace.

Philadelphia Telegraph: On first thought it would be natural to suppose that representatives of electric light companies, such as the National Electric Light association, would be a unit in proclaiming electric signs and advertising medium. But, on earth, vast sums are spent every year in exploiting the virtues, convenience, savings and desirability of all sorts of things by means of the flashing incandescent bulbs, which have created "The Great White Way" and have made Atlantic City and Coney Island among the wonders of the land.

The committee on electrical merchandising and advertising tells the National association that the greatest advertising medium is not the electric sign, but the daily newspaper. The electric sign comes second. And the association, with its army of delegates, accept without question its committee's report.

And this is not as strange as it seems. Electric light, like the commercial use of electricity in any form, is a distinctly modern science. The people who have forged to the front as its leaders are men of the modern era. They must be men who have cast aside all prejudices, men to whom no artificial barrier is put in the way of investigation; and on exactly this same even the electric sign, the latest claims for scientific recognition.

These men know that there has never yet been devised an agency which can reach the masses of the people in a newspaper in a more effective way than the electric sign, the latest claims for scientific recognition.

And, themselves vitally interested in the important advertising medium, it is not reasonable to imagine that they could reach an unanimous verdict as to the newspaper's superiority unless their minds were free from any doubt. The newspaper press may well feel proud of such a tribute.

The Lover.

The king he reigns on a throne of gold, Fenced with walls of "right divine"; The baron he sits in his castle old, Drinking his ripe red wine;

The beggar he lurches in ragged coat, And the spinner is bound to his weary thread.

And the doctor he duns with an aching head.

So the world goes! So the stream flows! Yet there is a fellow whom nobody knows.

Who maketh all free, And forgoeth the rich like the poor to flee!

The lady lies down in her warm white lawn, And dreams of the pearly-bridged dawn.

The king sings to the wild-eyed dawn.

Sad songs on the cold hillside; And the bishop smiles, as on high he sits.

On the scholar who writes and starves by fits; And the old woman who her nightly needle plies.

Looks out for the summer of life, and dies.

So the world goes! So the stream flows! Yet there is a fellow whom nobody knows.

Who maketh all free, And forgoeth the rich like the poor to flee!

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, June 16.—(Special to The Herald).—Col. George W. Goethals, the Panama canal chief, works on the schedule, almost down to the second. Visitors to the canal who go about with Goethals find that they must reach the train or the boat right on the dot or else they get left. This hitting the schedule extends even to receptions and teas. Wives of members of congress who go down to the canal are told, for example:

"The boat goes in twenty-five minutes. This reception will last just twenty-four minutes, leaving one minute to step over to the boat."

And if they tarry over the good-bys, they simply get left out of the picture. Gradually it has been instilled into the minds of congressional visitors that here is no bluff about the rule of punctuality. They have fallen into the habit of figuring exactly how much time is needed to dress, eat and move from one place to another.

When the appropriation committee was on a trip of inspection to the canal some time ago, Chairman Fitzgerald came in from a hot, dusty tramp one morning with a great hunger. He had to eat rapidly, for it was the day they were to visit the Pacific end of the canal and he had barely time to catch the train. The committee was obliged to proceed on its way.

On their return they asked Fitzgerald how it happened.

"I had no allowance in my hand," he said, "and I had to keep on my feet. I forgot and took two more swallows of coffee than I had figured on. That upset my whole calculations."

B. F. Keith, the vaudeville magnate, who died a little while ago, was a peculiar genius. He could ask unexpected questions at unexpected times and places. Then, on the other hand, he could maintain a steady and uninterrupted silence for hours at a time, when the average person would have talked.

For example, Keith went to Cleveland to see the manager of the Cleveland Trust company. He had a conference with the manager of his bankers there. The two spent several hours together and apparently all pending business matters were disposed of. Keith left his manager about 9 o'clock in the evening to go to his hotel.

When Keith got to the hotel, he found in the morning the local manager was aroused from a sound sleep by word of Keith. Keith desired to see him immediately. Thinking that Keith must have heard of a chance to lease an other theater at a bargain, and had to act quickly, the manager hastily dressed himself and rushed over to the hotel. He found Keith sitting quietly in his lobby.

"Oh, here you are," was Keith's greeting. "I've been wondering how many vessels of various kinds there are on the Great Lakes. It just occurred to me that you might know."

The next day—or rather toward noon of the same day—Keith appeared at his manager's office and remarked that he would like to have a look at the Garfield memorial. As the monument is out some six miles from the business center of the city, Keith arranged to have a newspaper friend, who happened to be in the office, make the trip with him. Keith desired to see him immediately. Albert Lea Tribune: Col. Roosevelt, after seven months' absence from the country, without access to newspapers or other sources of information, returns home, has a conference with George W. Perkins, Boss Flinn and a few devoted friends of the people, takes his bass drum and megaphone in either hand and, not forgetting the liberal use of the personal pronoun, proceeds to get busy. He tells us that Wilson is a failure, that he disagrees with everything he has done and that the country is going to the dogs. ## THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the politics of Duluth, or any other city. Letters must be signed and written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer. These letters will be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

GOVERNMENT LAND.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Can you give me any information regarding the selling of land near Cass Lake, Minn., by the government? Thanking you for this information, I am, very truly yours, R. A. BROWN.

Ironwood, Mich., June 11.

The only land the government has for sale is disposed of through the government land office. If Mr. Brown will write to the register of the land office at Cass Lake, he will doubtless get what information he seeks. The estate land is disposed of by the state auditor, and a letter to him at the capitol building, St. Paul, will bring any information desired.—The Editor.

EXCURSION TO TWO CITY PLANTS

Duluthians Will Inspect Bread Plant and Garment Factory.

The Patrick Garment factory and Zinsmeister-Smith Bread plant are the points to be visited on the first shop excursion under the direction of the new publicity committee of the Commercial club Thursday afternoon. The party will leave the club at 1:30 sharp Thursday afternoon and will go to the plant at Twenty-ninth avenue west by street car. Preparations have been made by the management of the two plants to show the shop tourists everything of interest. They will see the making of a mackinaw from the belted cloth to the finished garment, the building of the new Mack-Knit garments, the baking of bread from the flour to the wrapped product, and other interesting processes.

Both plants have been in operation about a year and are models in construction and arrangement. The Patrick plant marks a wonderful advance in the equipment of garment factories—its ventilation, lighting, rest rooms, day nursery and other features being of interest to visitors whether their interest is in the technical features of factory arrangement, or merely in the welfare of workers. The people of Duluth, whether members of the Commercial club or not, are invited by the publicity committee to participate in the "shop excursion." The trips through Duluth industrial plants have been one of the most interesting ever conducted and a large crowd is expected to participate.

Congratulate Wilson. London, June 16.—Duluth morning papers extend congratulations to President Wilson on the signing of the Panama tolls exemption repeal bill.

ROOSEVELT ON DECK

By SAVOYARD

Washington, June 16.—(Special to The Herald).—Dr. Whewell was the master of Trinity college, Cambridge, university, in the earlier Victorian era, and of him Sidney Smith remarked: "Science is his forte and omnipotence is his hobby," and Stanford wrote of him: "Through the realm of invention wherever you travel, And the secret of worlds and of nature unravel, You will find when you have mastered the works of infinity The greatest of all is Master of Trinity."

But Whewell was not a patchin' to our Teddy, who is the boss of all the jobs going. He taught the British how to hold and to rule Egypt. He showed the pope how to regulate the conscience of mankind. He lectured the lord mayor of London about the municipal affairs of that town and all the while he was overseeing public affairs in our great republic. More nearly than anybody else, not excepting Admiral Crichton, he fills the niche where Shakespeare placed Henry V.

"Hear him reason in divinity, And all-admiring with an inward wish, You would desire the king were made a prelate. Hear him debate of commonwealth affairs, You would say it hath been all in all his study: List his discourse of war, and you shall hear."

A fearful battle rendered you in music; Turn him to any cause of policy; Familiar as his garter; that when he speaks, The air, a chartered libertine, is still, And mute wonder lurketh in men's ears."

And he is much more than Prince Hal, for he is a mighty warrior, an explorer, a discoverer, a statesman, a diplomat, and a discoverer to astonish the scientists of both hemispheres.

No sooner had he returned from the expedition to Brazil that he plunged into politics and proceeded to regulate some of the affairs of state that plague the public mind. He had been eagerly awaited. Scores of Republican senators and members hoped that he would fetch the pipe of peace and bring about harmony and amalgamation of the standstillers and the Progressives. They had found Woodrow Wilson the ugliest of them, whom they hated with the hatred of fear and whom they had slandered with the slander of malice. They fondly hoped that one blast from Teddy's bugle would stampede the Democrats and cause the president and his cabinet to hide out with the little ones.

Well, he came, he saw, and declined to fight, much less to conquer. He disappointed the straight Republicans from Denmore to Bristol, from Smoot to Cummins, from Gallinger to Boies. As for La Follette, he would not touch the colonel with the tongue. If Teddy should be formidable in 1916 La Follette's book will be a very popular Democratic campaign document. Much advice was volunteered the colonel. It was proposed that he turn Warwick—name his man for the succession, nominate and elect him, or half a dozen of 'em were hoping they would be his choice. No doubt he has a choice, just one choice—himself.

We were told that as soon as Roosevelt got home he would read the riot act to the United States senate and order a defeat of the Sims bill to repeal the ship subsidy. But he was as mute as a fish on that question. What is this about the colonel? He is a consummate politician. He held some consultations and found out that 80 per cent of the Democrats and 50 per cent of the Republicans are opposed to free trade for the ship trust and so he dropped the thing as an issue like a hot potato. Lodge, Root, Burton and McCumber, all veterans and the cream of the Republican party, have made speeches against the subsidy. They represent that political thought without the approval of which Teddy knows he cannot be elected president in 1916, and so he had not a word to say about tolls.

Indeed, he has no choice. He spoke in general terms of the tariff that is only eight months old and has had no chance, and he did not condemn that tariff that it supplanted. He was never strong on tariff, except in his books in which he preached as advanced free traders old Bill Morrissey or John G. Carlisle, ever advocated in congress, and during the ninety months he was president he was absolutely neglectful of the thing, but let it be a legacy to Tart, who handed it over to old Granny Payne and Senator Aldrich, who botched it.

The colonel does have something to say about the tariff, which attained such enormous proportions between the retirement of Cleveland and the administration had just introduced the trust program it was a little premature for Teddy to criticize or to alter the outcome, and all of us are impatient for him to come back and open the campaign of 1914, when he will build his fences for the future. He is a genius for making politics lively.

GREELEY IS THE CHOICE

Will Be Supported By West Enders for School Board.

Dr. L. Q. Greeley, 317 North Twenty-third avenue west, was chosen as the West end candidate for membership on the school board at a mass meeting of residents of this end of the city last evening attended by nearly 100 citizens. The decision was made unanimously following a heated discussion of the subject in which those present urged the need of having the West end represented on the board. During the last three years it has been without such representation.

To decide on one candidate and to boost of this one man was the aim of those present. Several other prominent business men and professional men were spoken of but Dr. Greeley was chosen because he had so far never taken part in politics although he had taken an active interest in civic affairs in this end of the city.

The meeting was held in Simonson's hall. The hall was packed to the doors with both men and women. The meeting was presided over by George M. Jensen, secretary of the West End Commercial club. A petition was circulated at once in order to place Dr. Greeley's name on the ballot.

PAVING JOB WILL SOON BE DONE

Brick on West Superior Street Is Being Rapidly Laid.

Brick is being rapidly laid on West Superior street, and parts of the new paving will be ready for use in a short time. The brick has been put down from Twenty-fifth to Twentieth avenues, and the section up to Twenty-first avenue will be used for driving after this week.

The laying of concrete was completed on the upper side of the street last night. The big concrete mixer was moved this morning west of Twenty-fifth avenue, and the greater part of the crew working on the job will be shifted to the part between that point and Thirtieth avenue.

It is expected that before July 1 the work on the upper side of the street will begin. Material for the job is being handled with dispatch, through the use of the large flat cars of the Duluth Street Railway company, and much of the material taken off the thoroughfare is being hauled for filling of ravines in the western end of the city.

WILL NOT EAT TILL PREMIER GIVES IN

Sylvia Pankhurst on New Hunger and Thirst Strike.

London, June 16.—Sylvia Pankhurst, according to a statement made at a suffragette meeting at Caxton hall last night, has undertaken a hunger and thirst strike, whether in or out of prison, until Premier Asquith consents to receive a suffragette deputation.

At the same meeting loud cheers greeted a violent denunciation of the king by H. W. Nevinson, the war correspondent, who referred to the "tragic error" the government had made in allowing the king not to receive Mrs. Pankhurst.

INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY

That Is the Hope of Working Classes, Says Debs.

Big Audience Hears National Leader of the Socialist Party.

A plea for the reorganization of society on the plan of an industrial democracy and the combination of labor unions for protection of the working classes was made by Eugene V. Debs at the Auditorium last night when he spoke under the auspices of the Duluth Socialists. About 2,000 heard the address and Debs was given an ovation.

W. E. Towne acted as chairman of the meeting. Debs was bitter in his discussion of the labor situation in Colorado, and deplored the condition of things that permits members of one union to aid "thief murderers" to kill their working class brothers. He spoke of union railroad men manning the trains that carried the "thugs" employed by the Rockefeller interests to shoot down the striking miners.

As a remedy for such conditions the speaker advocated not only union of workers but of workers' organizations that they might present a solid front to their oppressors.

Mr. Debs roundly attacked the movement now on foot, the aim of which is to prove that the Socialist party advocates free love and is opposed to Christianity.

"Any man who says that the Socialist party would rob any man of his religion," he said, "he said that speakers were going around the country reading garbled statements from the Socialist works to prove these points and wholly misrepresenting the Socialist party. He declared that a comparison of Socialist families with the families of those outside the party would disprove the claims of those who say that the party stands for free love."

Class government also occupied some of the speaker's time. There has never been a self-governing people in the history of the world," he said. "Government has always been by the minority, which has been despotic and corrupt. The workers have always been slaves or in some class of servitude."

The freedom of the working class must come through the workers themselves and they must work out their own salvation," he said. "This, he said, would come about through organization regardless of nationality, color or creed."

Mr. Debs left this morning for Dubuque, Iowa.

VOTE AT PRIMARY MAY EXCEED THE FIRST TWO DAYS' REGISTRATION

municipal election, for instance. That time some of the precincts didn't report for so long that the parties were sent out to see if the officials were lost. It is not believed that there will be a great deal of second choice voting, for the reason that in most instances on the state ticket only two men are running, and the lines are so definitely drawn that there is little, if any, chance for a second choice to exist in the mind of the voter.

In the case of governor, on the Republican ticket there are three—Eberhart, Lee and Nash. The latter is not looked on as a serious contender, and as between Eberhart and Lee the two sides have reached such a state of bitterness that there is no chance of reconciliation. In the Democracy only two—Hammond and Lawler are candidates, and the supporters of neither side will give the other a chance. The Progressives have only two—Halbert and Westerlund—and a similar condition exists there.

There are three candidates for the state auditorship—Rines, Preus and Block. The fight is really between Rines and Preus, but in this case Block may be presented with the second choice votes of each side, for in counting the ballots they may help. Under the state system of counting the ballots, if any candidate has a majority of first choice votes he is declared elected. If no candidate has a majority, the lowest man is dropped and his second choice votes are added to the first choice votes of the others; the high man then will be the nominee.

The battle for the Republican nomination for railroad and warehouse commissioner may also be used for the casting of second choice votes. There are four candidates—"Jim" Arneson, O. P. B. Jacobson, J. F. Rosen and George Smith.

FIGHT ON EBERHART PRIMARY FEATURE.

St. Paul, Minn., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the Republican gubernatorial nomination between Governor A. O. Eberhart and W. E. Lee the outstanding feature of Minnesota held a state-wide primary election today to nominate a full Republican state ticket, several members of congress, a Democratic and Progressive candidate for governor, and several members of the legislature.

Selected by Republicans opposed to Governor Eberhart, too, was active in his fight for a fourth term, and both sides were confident of victory.

In the contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, Congressman W. S. Hammond was opposed by Daniel Lawler, and H. T. Halbert, the party convention's nominee, had for his opponent E. N. Westland in the race for the Progressive gubernatorial nomination.

Manahan vs. Smith. Congressman James Manahan's efforts to win the attorney general's office were opposed by L. A. Smith, incumbent, was an interesting feature of the campaign.

Of the nine congressional contests, seven were in the Republican party and two in the Democratic. Congressman C. R. Davis in the Third district, C. Stevens in the Fourth and R. Volstead in the Fifth, all Republicans, were unopposed for re-nomination.

The retirement of Congressman Hammond of the Second district resulted in a heated campaign for the Republican nomination. State Senator E. Haycraft and F. E. Ellsworth being the principals.

In the Eighth, State Senator Boyle conducted an active campaign against Congressman Miller of Duluth, and in the Fifth Ernest Lundeen waged a strong fight against Congressman Stearns.

Congressional Contests. Other Republican congressional contests were:

Sixth district, Congressman Lindbergh opposed by H. J. Maxfield. Ninth, Luther Osborn opposed Congressman Stearns.

Tenth, L. E. Johnson, L. E. Johnson and J. Adam Bede, former Eighth district congressman, were candidates. First district, Congressman Anderson opposed by his one-time secretary, Ole M. Evensen.

The Democratic congressional contests were in the Fifth and Tenth districts. M. E. Bowser and John Long of the latter district were the principals. Early weather conditions favored the Democrats, and the lines are so definitely drawn that there is little, if any, chance for a second choice to exist in the mind of the voter.

threat to cancel the rest of the season's social engagements, showed themselves more determined than ever to obtain publicity for their cause by attacking the king.

Stricter Regulations. The arrangements for guarding the entrance to the royal enclosure on the race course were more stringent than ever. Every applicant for a ticket had to be vouched for by some responsible official.

The track was closely guarded, and there were triple rails to prevent any unauthorized persons from reaching it. For several days, through the day and night, men accompanied by watch-dogs have patrolled the course, and alarm guns have been placed in position around the stands and lawns.

A large contingent of British and American soldiers were among those invited to the royal enclosure. ## The Home Beauty Parlor

By Betty Dean

It is the quickest way to remove dust and oil from hair is by shampooing occasionally with a teaspoonful of cantharox (which, like all the simple things I recommend, can be bought at any good drug store), dissolved in a cup of hot water. This makes a thick, white lather that instantly stops irritation and dissolves every particle of dust, dandruff and excess oil. Rinsing leaves scalp and hair wonderfully sweet and clean, the hair will dry quickly and evenly. I find cantharox shampoo is splendid for correcting the dull "stringy," brittle condition of the hair and inducing a luxuriant growth, which is brilliant and fluffy.

A. P.: Your weak, languid feeling is undoubtedly caused by impure blood, a sluggish condition of the organs of elimination. In either case, a tonic and body-builder will prove effective in restoring full health and energy. A tonic is made by dissolving 1 ounce of kardenia in 1/2 pint alcohol (not whiskey), then adding 1/2 pint of water and hot water to make a full quart. Take of this 1 tablespoonful 3 times each day. The kardenia tonic purifies the blood and restores health and strength. It is also splendid for ridding the skin of pimples, discolorations and sallowness.

Ada: I would remove those wrinkles and bring back the youth tint to my complexion by using the following greenish cream: Into 1/2 pint of cold water put 1 ounce of alcohol and 2 tablespoonfuls of glycerine. Let stand over night. Apply this cream jelly plentifully after cleansing and drying the skin. For wrinkles, put the cream thickly upon the creases. This stimulates in a way the stunted tissues of the creases and after a few treatments the furrows will have entirely vanished. For renewing the complexion a light rotary movement should be employed, using plenty of the alcohol cream jelly. This will banish pimples, blackheads, oiliness and other complexion upsets, and leave the skin soft, clear and velvety.

Josie: You will always have a poor complexion as long as you use face powder. Make up this formula at home and your complexion troubles will be at an end. Into 1/2 pint of hot water put 4 ounces of spumax and 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. Apply sparingly and rub lightly until dry. This imparts a dainty tint and exquisite loveliness to the skin and is actually invulnerable when on and seems part of the skin. Neither wind nor perspiration will affect the spumax lotion and one application in the morning will last throughout the day.

Worried: You need not suffer with over-fatness if this simple, harmless treatment is used. Into 1/2 pint of water put 4 ounces of parotis. When it cools, strain, and take a tablespoonful before each meal. This treatment gradually dissolves fatty tissues and restores the symmetrical lines to the figure without leaving the flesh flabby or the skin wrinkled. When the weight is sufficiently reduced, the treatment can be discontinued.

Belle: I think singeing the hair is working at the wrong end, because the trouble is at the roots. Make up at home and use this hair tonic: In 1/2 pint of alcohol put 1 ounce of quinine (from druggist), then add 1 pint of water. Use this 2 or 3 times each week, massaging it into the scalp, and you will not be further troubled with brittle, falling hair. The quinine tonic is excellent for overcoming dandruff and excess oiliness and soon puts the scalp and hair-roots in healthy condition.

Mrs. P. C.: You may not realize glasses for the hair, but the only way to get rid of a once creased, then put 2 or 3 drops in the creases and the creases will be gone. The creases are valuable for tired, sore eyes. The strain is excellent for inflamed or granulated skin. It also gives to dull, lusterless eyes a delightful sparkle and lustre.

M. L.: Here is an inexpensive home treatment for removing hair from the face. With water and powdered alum mix enough paste to cover the objectionable hairs. Apply and in about two minutes remove, wash the skin and it will be free from hair or blunish. Be sure you get delicate. Buy Dean's Beauty Book, $5.—Advertisement.

Girls and Bank Accounts

If we could see into the future we could plan accordingly, but not being able to do so we should guard against eventualities as much as possible.

Many a young girl has been unexpectedly thrown on her own resources through the death of her parents; many a woman has been left a widow without a cent; others with some means, but no experience of money matters.

It is neglectful—yes, cruel—of parents not to bring up their daughters as well as their sons in habits of thrift and teach them the uses and advantages of a bank account.

It is never too soon to teach them the value of money, never too soon to open bank accounts in their names.

We pay 3% Compound Interest on Savings Accounts.

We issue A. B. A. Travelers' Checks; Letters of Credit and Drafts on all foreign countries.

RISE OF LEHMANN, PEACE DELEGATE

Duluthian Recalls Him as a Barefoot and Penniless Boy.

"From a barefoot, penniless, homeless boy to a leading railroad lawyer, solicitor general of the United States and now peace delegate to the Niagara Falls conference, is the life story of Frederick W. Lehmann," said John L. Morrison to The Herald.

"I am not sure if Lehmann was born in Germany but my recollection is that he lived in Ohio when a very small boy. Later on, when only 12 years old, a runaway I think, dressed only in a shirt and trousers with an undershirt, the German boy was taken in by old Dr. Blanchard at Civil Bend, now Port Huron, about thirty miles south of Council Bluffs.

In return for a home and some schooling, young Lehmann herded sheep and did farm work. Late in the 40's, he entered the college and, so great was his native ability, that he not only paid all his expenses by manual labor, but made a four-year's course in three years.

At the time of the Franco-Prussian war, Lehmann was working for his board with my grandfather, Dr. F. P. Gardner. Only a small boy, I was greatly fascinated with diagrams he drew on a slate and writing he did."

"TIZ" PUTS JOY IN SORE, ACHING FEET

"My, how 'TIZ' Gladdens Tired, Swollen, Sweaty Feet—It's Glorious!"

"Happy! Happy! Use 'TIZ'!"

"TIZ" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. Away go the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters, bunions and chills.

"TIZ" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how hard you work, how long you dance, how far you walk or how long you remain on your feet, "TIZ" brings restful foot comfort. "TIZ" is magical, grand, wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Ah! how comfortable, how happy they feel. Your feet just tingle for joy, so never hurt or seem tight.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now from any drugstore or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy. "TIZ" is a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents.

ITALIAN REVOLTS

"ONLY A REHEARSAL"

Rome, June 16.—The press generally, reviewing the risings which have occurred throughout Italy, concludes that these were not due merely to the excitement of the movement, but constituted a regularly planned political revolution which succeeded for forty-eight hours, in a somewhat grotesque manner, but was sufficiently grave to cause not only very considerable material damage, but enormous moral injury, as it resulted in overthrowing the authority of the state.

Those responsible for the revolutionary movement in Rome, which includes the provinces of Bologna, Ferrara, Ravenna, and Forlì, now declare that the events of the past week have only been a general rehearsal, and that the first presentation of the revolutionary drama will be given soon and will "go" better.

MINNESOTA GOES TO PRINCETON "U."

CITY AUDITOR GETS SOME NEW IDEAS AT NATIONAL CONVENTION

City purchasing system, coupled with standardization of supplies, and a universal accounting system for all cities in the United States, were strongly endorsed at the convention of the National Association of City Comptrollers, according to City Auditor B. J. Campbell.

The city auditor returned yesterday from Milwaukee, where he attended the three days' session of the association, which closed Saturday. Although it was the first comptrollers' convention which he has attended he was signally honored by being elected one of the vice presidents, being chosen for reappointment to the next session of the association, Wisconsin and the two Dakotas.

City Auditor Campbell said this morning that several papers were read relative to purchasing methods, standardization of supplies and the adoption of a common bookkeeping system, all of which were followed by instructive discussions by men who are intimately acquainted with the administration of their respective cities. The general way the auditor said that Duluth is following or planning to follow, lines favored by the men at the convention.

He explained that the men who are purchasing supplies for their cities much larger than Duluth but that without exception all of them reported that their cities had been able to expedite business and save money by their adoption. In this connection they emphatically held that supplies should be standardized to get the best results. The universal accounting system was favored largely because it would enable more intelligent comparisons to be made between cities, putting them in a better position to profit from the experience of one another.

B. J. CAMPBELL.

CHOOSING QUEEN OF CARNIVAL

Contest Is Opened By Duluth Shriners—All Shrine Girls Entered—Girls Will Have Charge of Country Store.

Tickets to the country store, one of the principal features of the Shrine carnival to be held at the Thirtieth avenue west grounds during the week of June 29, and which entitle the holders to participate in the contest for the $1,000 Studebaker automobile, are being sold. The automobile will be given away on the evening of Saturday, July 4, the last day of the carnival.

The country store will be in charge of the Shrine girls of Duluth and the fifty young women will sell refreshments during the week of the carnival. They are now being organized and will be called to attend a general meeting within a few days.

The tickets will admit the buyers to the country store any time during the week of the carnival. The car has already arrived in the city and is now being used by the executive committee in charge of the arrangements.

Yesterday afternoon the first entrants were received in the queen's contest to decide on the most popular woman or girl in Duluth. Mrs. F. A. Hamon and Mrs. Milton Lewis were the first entered with 500 votes each, after which the executive committee entered all the Shrine girls and gave them each 500 votes as an appreciation for the work they have done for the local Shrine the last few years. This contest is open to the women of the city, daughter of any Shrine or Mason in Duluth. Names may be entered at the Shrine headquarters at the St. Louis hotel, where an information booth is in charge of William Jarvis, promoter of the Tom W. Allen show, which will furnish the amusement features for the Shrine carnival. The contest for the queen's contest is being assisted by Mrs. Jarvis, who will have charge of the queen's contest.

Ballot boxes are today being placed throughout the city and a penny counts as a vote. A contest will be made every evening and the results published each day. The woman or girl receiving the largest number of votes will be crowned the queen of the carnival on the evening of July 4 and will also receive a $200 diamond ring as a gift from the Shriners. The one receiving the second largest number of votes will receive a gold watch and the third, a gold mesh bag.

The Shrine girls entered in the contest are:

SENATORS EXPLAINING

Overman and Chilton Talk of Mine Boosting Affair.

Senate Stationery Used for Letters About Gold Stock.

Washington, June 16.—Senator Overman yesterday introduced a resolution on an investigation into the use of senate letter paper in connection with the promotion of a gold mining property at Gold Hill, N. C.

The resolution was referred to a committee without a vote. It also provided for an investigation into whether government employees have been used to inspect the property.

Published reports that letter paper of the senate rules and census committee had been used in this connection brought calls for investigation from several senators, whose names appeared on the letter paper as committee members. Senator Overman of North Carolina, chairman of the rules committee, and Senator Chilton of West Virginia is chairman of the census committee.

The call for an investigation came as a result of a report published yesterday declaring that there had appeared in the offices of New York City the Gold Hill Consolidated company, written on stationery of the senate committee on rules and of the committee on census.

Signed by J. C. Williams.

The letter of the census committee stationery was addressed to Senator Chilton, and signed by J. C. Williams, a clerk of the United States Senate. The other letter was said to be identical.

According to the published reports the chief expert of the United States assay office was sent to investigate the mine at Gold Hill, N. C., under the name of John Skelton Williams several months ago.

The mine at Gold Hill was introduced later by Mr. Overman, announcing it was new information, he would. Senator Overman and Chilton made no knowledge of any use of the senate stationery to boost it. Senator Overman said a young man, his office had made the copy of letters on the request of Walter George Newman, said to be a promoter of the mine.

"There have been just four copies of this letter made in my office by a lady clerk," said Senator Overman. "One made while I was absent. Newman asked her to make some copies of the letters and believing that there was no harm in her doing so, she made the copies. Just she had done typewriting for others that had come in and asked for the favor."

Overman asserted ignorance. "I know nothing more in the world about the investigation into the use of senate letter paper in connection with the promotion of a gold mining property at Gold Hill, N. C. I have done nothing on God's earth to promote it in any way. All that has been done in my office was done by a poor woman who was in my office temporarily and asked for the favor."

Senator Chilton addressed the senate yesterday when he introduced a resolution. Some time ago my attention was called to a wonderful gold discovery in North Carolina. I yield second honor on the letter paper having money invested in gold mines in Washington, California, Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, and probably several other states," said he. "I felt interested in the statement, and after consulting with some of my friends in West Virginia, who knew something about the mine, I sent this mining engineer, J. C. Williams down there. When he returned he told me about the mine and later wrote me a letter. One day Mr. Williams came to my office and he was very excited. That is all I heard of it. Recently I heard that some one had a copy of the letter on census committee paper. My

Schlitz The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous.

PLAN GOVERNMENT FOR SPITZBERGEN.

Washington, June 16.—An international conference, unique in history, convened in Christiania, Norway, yesterday when delegates from the United States, Russia, Norway and other Northern European countries met to frame a government for the world's "one country without a flag"—the Spitzbergen islands, commonly called No Man's Land.

William Collier of New York and Frank Kleisen, assistant solicitor of the state department, are the American delegates.

Although No Man's Land, lying on the edge of the Arctic circle north of Norway, has been known to the rest of the world for centuries, it was not until the memory of men still living that it was found to hold valuable coal deposits. It is devoid of vegetation and has little or no animal life. During three months of the year foreign coal miners work the rich deposits. Throughout the rest of the year silence reigns over the frozen rock-bound wastes.

Discovered By Americans.

American explorers were among the first to discover the coal deposits, and they, with other venturesome spirits from Norway and Russia, staked out for themselves generous claims, taking possession as individuals and not in the name of their countries. The main interests are now controlled by a Boston corporation and are said to have some $750,000 invested there.

With no government, the only means of settling differences has been that resorted to by primitive man; so only the strongest survive in No Man's Land. If the commissioners now assembled in the Norwegian capital erect a government for this remote corner of creation, they will have accomplished a feat without parallel. State department officials said there was no precedent for the assembly of an international congress to formulate a government for a land over which none claims sovereignty.

The conferees have before them a plan drawn up by Norwegian diplomatists, which was submitted to the American state department for suggestions several months ago.

SABOTAGE IN THE NEW JERSEY MILLS

I. W. W. Officer Says Another Strike Is Planned.

Paterson, N. J., June 15.—The establishment by the United States commission on industrial relations of a uniform scale wages for workers in the silk mills throughout the United States as a panacea for labor troubles and excessive competition, was today urged upon the commission by Henry Doherty, Jr., of Henry Doherty & Son, one of the largest silk manufacturing concerns in the world. The commission came here from New York to investigate the silk business in general and the strike of 1913 in particular.

From Adolph Lessig, secretary of the National Industrial Union of Textile Workers, an organization affiliated with the Industrial Workers of the World, came the statement that the men workers in the New Jersey mills went back to their machines only to keep from starving to death; that they would strike again as soon as they were able, and that, in the meantime, they were doing everything in their power to lessen the production and turn out a poor quality of goods.

Asked whether he agreed with the statements made before the commission in New York by Vice President John D. Rockefeller, the secretary-treasurer of the Industrial Workers of the World, relative to the destruction of property during a strike, Lessig said that if it came to a point where blowing up a mill meant the winning of a strike and not blowing it up meant that the strike would be lost, he might favor the blowing up. "Lessig explained, however, that he was no advocate of violence.

COMMONS AGAIN VOTE FOR REFORM.

London, June 16.—The plural voting bill passed its third reading in the house of commons last night by a vote of 320 to 342.

This bill was first introduced in April, 1913, and after passing its third reading was rejected in the house of lords by a majority of 124. The bill passed the first reading for the second time last March. It embodies the principle of "one man one vote," and provides that before a general election, a plural voter must select which of his votes he wishes to register.

CHILD DROWNED IN WATER TROUGH.

Sentinel Butte, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The 2-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hogesth was drowned in the watering trough during the absence of its parents. The little one had been running around in the yard while the hired man was watering the horses. He had returned to the barn with another when he found the child floating in the water tank and was unable to resuscitate it.

CROPS DROWNED OUT.

Considerable Damage in Cass County, N. D., From Heavy Rains.
Fargo, N. D., June 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—About 3 per cent of the grain crops in Cass county were drowned out by the three-inch precipitation which fell here Sunday night and the other rains since then. An investigation has been made of conditions in this county which indicates that from 25,000 to 40,000 acres have been either partially or totally damaged. The part totally damaged is probably about half the former figures. The water, standing in some fields sufficiently long to ruin the grain. The damage is much more than offset by the beneficial effects of the moisture on the balance of the crops.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Whereas, default has been made in the conditions of certain mortgage, which was duly executed and delivered to the First National Bank of Duluth, a corporation under the laws of the State of Minnesota, mortgagee, to Edward G. Walton, mortgagee, bearing date the 4th day of November, 1912, and duly filed in the office of the Register of Titles in and for the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota on the 15th day of November, 1912, at 9 o'clock a. m., and duly registered in said office in Book 52 of Register of Titles, on mortgage being docketed in file number 1907, which said mortgage, with the debt assigned, was thereafter duly assigned by the said Edward G. Walton to W. T. Bray by an instrument of assignment dated the 3rd day of December, 1913, and filed in the office of the Register of Titles in and for the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota, on the 11th day of December, 1913, at 6 o'clock p. m., and duly registered in said office in Book 52 of Register of Titles, on mortgage being docketed in file number 13525, said default consisting in the non-payment of the interest due on said mortgage, which interest was due and payable on the 4th day of May, 1914, amounting to the sum of $26.00, to part of which has been paid, by reason whereof said assigned mortgage and note thereon described, with all accrued interest thereon, to be now due and payable.

And, whereas, there is, therefore, claimed to be due, and there is actually due upon said mortgage debt, at the date of this notice, the sum of $238.10, principal and interest; and

Whereas, said mortgage contains a power of sale, and there is, therefore, become operative by reason of the default above mentioned, and no action or proceeding in law or equity has been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of

EBERHART IS DEFEATED BY LEE FOR GOVERNOR

EBERHART IS WINNER
IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY BY COMFORTABLE MARGIN

By 2,272.

Lieutenant Governor Burnquist Well Supported—

EASY WINNER

CONGRESSMAN C. B. MILLER,
Who Was Renominated to Succeed
Himself in the Eighth District.

KAISER WILHELM II
IN COLLISION IN FOG

Southampton, June 17.—The steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II returned here this evening, having apparently suffered damage below the water line in a collision during a fog with the steamer Incomore.

Spithead, Eng., June 17.—The steamer Incomore from Liverpool for Southampton reports having been in collision with the North German Lloyd steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II. The bow of the Incomore was badly damaged above the water line. The extent of the damage to the Kaiser Wilhelm II has not yet been ascertained.

AGREE WITH PRESIDENT

Business Men Write That Depression Is Psychological.

Senate May Speed Up and Finish Work in July.

Washington, June 17.—As one result of President Wilson's denunciation of what he characterized as a deliberate campaign to spread abroad the idea that business is in the doldrums, the White House has begun to receive letters from the manufacturers and others throughout the country taking the president's view that a "psychological depression" has been created.

One letter circulated by a St. Louis hardware company declared:
"Our sales up to date this year are just three-fifths of 1 per cent less than the same period last year, and if June business continues to increase as it has done so far we will gain this three-fifths and probably finish the first half of the year with a gain."

With adjournment of congress in about six weeks as their goal, senate Democratic leaders were today expected to continue their "speed up" work on the annual appropriation bills so as to take up as early as possible and push to conclusion the administration's program of anti-trust measures. The progress made on the supply measures led to the belief today that all of them would be disposed of by about July 1. With these bills out of the way the senate would then be in a position to take up the anti-trust bills.

Only three of the appropriation bills now remain to be passed. They are the Indian, the sundry civil and the rivers and harbors bills. The senate yesterday passed the diplomatic and pension appropriation bills and took up the Indian bill. Consideration of the latter measure was expected to be continued today.

Want to See Pence.
There is general anxiety in congress for adjournment as early as possible. Members want to return home and enter actively into the congressional campaign this fall, and with prospects that the Republicans will not violently oppose the antitrust bills, Democratic leaders in the senate were hopeful of adjournment the latter part of July.

MILLER IS EASY VICTOR OVER BOYLE

Duluth Congressman Carries Both the City and the Ranges.

Adams and McKnight Are Nominated in Fifty-Seventh.

Wheeler and North Have Close Race in Same District.

If he can avoid defeat at the hands of Andrew Nelson, the Democratic candidate for congress, Congressman Clarence B. Miller will remain the representative of the Eighth Minnesota congressional district in Washington for two years more.

Complete returns from all over the district have not yet been completed, but everything points to an overwhelming defeat of State Senator James P. Boyle of Eveleth, who has been loyally supported by the newspapers of the range against the Duluth man, but, as it turned out, was not so loyally supported by those whom he regarded as his constituents as was expected. The range turned against him, compared to what was looked for and with support swept away from him at home, defeat was certain. His home town turned him down to the tune of 389 votes for Congressman Miller to 248 for its resident senator.
Even though some of the over-enthusiastic supporters of the young and brilliant senator announced several days ago that Mr. Boyle would carry

STEENERSON IS RENOMINATED

Indications He Has Won in Ninth District Three to One.

Crookston, Minn., June 17.—Special to The Herald.—In seventy-six precincts in Polk and adjoining counties,
the vote is as follows:
Eberhart, 3,018; Lee, 2,766; Lawler,
1,372; Hammond, 1,296; Steenerson,
510; Burnquist, 528; Preus, 2,126;
Rines, 2,346; Block, 1,118; Johnson,
2,332; Walter Smith, 2,796; Manahan,
2,467; Lyndon Smith, 2,882.

The race between Buckler and Sagstad for the state senate is very close, and it looks like Boyd and Morken for the legislature, but rural returns may yet defeat Boyd and give the nomination to Clementson or Aker. Waits carried the district 3 to 1 for the supreme court.

Rural returns not available till late this afternoon may change the vote materially.

ANTI-MACHINE CANDIDATE WHO DEFEATED EBERHART

WILLIAM E. LEE.

WILLIAM E. LEE ON HIS VICTORY.

Long Prairie, Minn., June 17.—To the Editor of The Herald: Reports indicate my nomination by a decided majority. It is indicative of the public demand for an improvement in the business administration of public affairs, and an assurance that the people will stand by me in a policy that will insure economy and efficiency in the administration of our state government. The vote also makes the fact certain that the brewers and other special interests must keep out of our state politics.
I am deeply appreciative of the endorsement given my candidacy, but I, of course, know better the things I stood for than were endorsed rather than myself personally. At this time I wish to assure the people of Minnesota that, if elected, I shall stand loyally by my every promise to assist them in securing a better government.

WILLIAM E. LEE.

BLIND SOPRANO MAY HAVE TAKEN POISON

"Helen Keller of the West" Found Dead on Couch.

Oakland, Cal., June 17.—Miss Helen Mesow, a blind soprano known as the "Helen Keller of the West" was found dead on a couch in her apartment here last night. The cause of death is not known. A spoon found in an empty glass in the bathroom is to be examined to ascertain if it had contained poison.

A physician worked over the body for an hour trying to restore life. The spoon in the bathroom, he said, smelled strongly of a quick acting poison.

Miss Mesow was known as a singer, and for her struggle against her infirmity to achieve rank as a vocalist.
She was educated in the California institute for the deaf and blind and at the University of California. Afterward she continued her vocal studies in Paris. She was about 30 years old.

SAYS PRETORIA WAS ON PROPER COURSE.

New York, June 17.—Capt. Dugge of the Hamburg-American steamer Pretoria places upon the steamer New York of the American line the blame for the collision between the two vessels in the fog about 400 miles east of Nantucket early Saturday morning, asserting that the Pretoria was on her proper course.

OH, THINGS AREN'T SO BAD, AFTER ALL.

MAJORITY OF 15,000
FOR LEE INDICATED

Contest Between Hammond and Lawler for Democratic Nomination Is Reported Very Close.

Preus and Rines Are Running Neck and Neck Race for the State Auditorship.

PROBABLE WINNERS AT THE PRIMARY.

Governor (Rep.)—William E. Lee.
Governor (Dem.)—Winfield S. Hammond.
Governor (Prog.)—Hugh T. Halbert.
Lieut. Governor—J. A. A. Burnquist.
State Auditor—Jacob A. O. Preus or Henry Rines.
State Treasurer—Walter J. Smith.
Attorney General—Lyndon A. Smith.
Clerk of the Supreme Court—Irving A. Caswell.
Railroad Commissioner—O. P. B. Jacobson.
Supreme Court Justices—George L. Bunn and Albert Johnson.
CONGRESSMEN.
First District—Sydney Anderson (Rep.).
Second District—
Fifth District—George R. Smith.
Sixth District—
Eighth District—Clarence B. Miller.
Ninth District—Halvor Steenerson.
Tenth District—L. E. Jepson or Victor Johnson.

St. Paul, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald)—Indications of a possibility that Congressman W. S. Hammond had failed to receive the Democratic nomination for governor, and that J. A. A.
Burnquist of St. Paul had failed of renomination for lieutenant governor, were features of yesterday's primary election returns today.
Late figures did not change the standing of the two candidates for the Republican nomination for governor, indications still being that Lee will have a net majority of 15,000 over Governor Eberhart.

Eberhart carried Ramsey county by about 4,000, and Lee has carried Hennepin county by about the same figures. The Lee headquarters in Minneapolis is claiming the state for Lee by 25,000, and the St. Paul Pioneer Press, which favored Eberhart, has issued an extra conceding the state to Lee by 17,000.

LEE LEADS IN COUNTRY.

Duluth gave Eberhart about 1,600 plurality, but Lee is running ahead in the country precincts outside the three large counties.
Returns from 283 precincts outside the Twin Cities showed 11,973 for Eberhart, and 14,689 for Lee. While this represents only about one-eighth of the precincts outside St. Paul and Minneapolis, the precincts heard from are from all parts of the state and the proportion runs about the same in all sections. At this ratio Lee would get a lead of 20,000 outside the Twin Cities.

Walter Smith for treasurer, Lyndon A. Smith for attorney general, Caswell for clerk of supreme court, and Preus for state auditor, appear to be the nominees. One of the surprises was the large vote cast for Block for state auditor, and it is possible the second choice votes may be necessary to settle the fight between Preus, Rines and Block, and there is still a possibility that Rines has been nominated.

Justice Bunn and Albert Johnson appear to be the nominees for the supreme court. The fight for railroad and warehouse commissioner is so close as to make things uncertain, although it is believed that O. P. B.

LAKE COUNTY IS FOR EBERHART

Two Harbors, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald).—Following is a complete list of the votes cast in the city of Two Harbors.
The returns from Kramer, Crystal Lake, Beaver Bay, Silver Creek, Waldo, town of Two Harbors and Fall Lake are not in.
Halbert, 6; Westerlund, 19; Eberhart, 28; Lee, 136; Raab, 17; Hammond, 28; Lawler, 7; Burnquist, 237;
Steenerson, 141; Block, 99; Preus, 142;
Rines, 164; Johnson, 146; Walter Smith,
257; Manahan, 104; Lyndon Smith,
234; Caswell, 253; McCubrey, 114; Arneson, 50; Jacobson, 226; Rosewald, 69;
White, 17; Boyle, 118; Miller, 34;
Dede, 177; McKnight, 76; Adams, 285.
For county superintendent of schools

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.
Debate was resumed on the indian appropriation bill.
Senator Jones presented petitions from the Seattle chamber of commerce and other Washington state organizations requesting the conference report proposed for construction of four new revenue cutters was adopted.
Bill to cut mileage allowances of senators from 20 cents a mile to 5. Attempts to sidetrack it, in committee were voted down.
HOUSE.
Consideration of the judiciary code revision bill was resumed.
The foreign affairs committee voted favorably to report the resolution inviting foreign nations to participate in the international dry farming congress at Wichita, Kan., Oct. 7.

BUNN AHEAD IN BELTRAMI COUNTY

Wilson Has Large Plurality for State Senator.

Beltrami, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald).—With the state ticket still to be heard from, the vote at 9 o'clock this morning in Beltrami county was:

Associate justice—Bunn, 107; Elliott,
60; Hunt, 24; Johnson, 95; Morrison,
83; Watts, 158.
Senator—Wilson, 229; Nord, 137; Hayden, 133; Andrews, 81; A. P. Roberts, 70.

Erickson, 87; Norris, 54; Pendergast,
362; Williams, 110.
County treasurer—Alsop, 132; Gell, 291; Morris, 77; Tagley, 143.
Sheriff—Hazen, 146; Johnson, 419;
Peterson, 89.
Register of deeds—Harris, 221; Mc-
Cusick, 177; Moon, 226; Olson, 36.
Probate judge—Clark, 276; Harris,
187; Slocum, 176.
Commissioner—First district—Bell,
111; Lahr, 363; Rako, 236.

MISS WILSON IS IN CHICAGO

President's Daughter Will Address Club Women's Meeting.

Chicago, June 17.—"My father likes to have me interest myself in civic and all kinds of social betterment work," said Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, here today.
"He is greatly interested himself in improving the condition of the poor."
Miss Wilson is here to speak tonight before the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.
Her subject is "What the Federation
Can Do for Young Women of America." She will attend the conference to be held in a few days in Madison,
Wis., on social settlement work.

The sessions of the federation today were largely devoted to discussing and planning the work of the organization.
The report on its endowment fund, the legislative committee conference and reports on industrial and social conditions, education, library extension and civics were scheduled for the day.
Formal announcement of elections and introduction of newly elected officers was to be a feature of the evening session.

Hold Last Sessions.
Closing sessions of the twelfth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs were held here today. Invitations for the convention of 1916 were received. Resolutions were adopted and formal announcement

Contest Between Hammond and Lawler for Democratic Nomination Is Reported Very Close.

Preus and Rines Are Running Neck and Neck Race for the State Auditorship.

PROBABLE WINNERS AT THE PRIMARY.

Governor (Rep.)—William E. Lee.
Governor (Dem.)—Winfield S. Hammond.
Governor (Prog.)—Hugh T. Halbert.
Lieut. Governor—J. A. A. Burnquist.
State Auditor—Jacob A. O. Preus or Henry Rines.
State Treasurer—Walter J. Smith.
Attorney General—Lyndon A. Smith.
Clerk of the Supreme Court—Irving A. Caswell.
Railroad Commissioner—O. P. E. Jacobson.
Supreme Court Justices—George L. Bunn and Albert Johnson.

CONGRESSMEN
First District—Sydney Anderson (Rep.)
Second District—
Fifth District—George R. Smith.
Sixth District—
Eighth District—Clarence B. Miller.
Ninth District—Halvor Steenerson.
Tenth District—L. E. Jepson or Victor Johnson.

St. Paul, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald)—Indications of a possibility that Congressman W. S. Hammond had failed to receive the Democratic nomination for governor, and that J. A. A. Burnquist of St. Paul had failed of renomination for lieutenant governor, were features of yesterday's primary election returns today. Late figures did not change the standing of the two candidates for the Republican nomination for governor, indications still being that Lee will have a net majority of 15,000 over Governor Eberhart.

Eberhart carried Ramsey county by about 4,000, and Lee has carried Hennepin county by about the same figures. The Lee headquarters in Minneapolis is claiming the state for Lee by 25,000, and the St. Paul Pioneer Press, which favored Eberhart, has issued an extra conceding the state to Lee by 17,000.

LEE LEADS IN COUNTRY.

Duluth gave Eberhart about 1,500 plurality, but Lee is running ahead in the country precincts outside the three large counties. Returns from 283 precincts outside the Twin Cities showed 11,973 for Eberhart, and 14,589 for Lee. While this represents only about one-eighth of the precincts outside St. Paul and Minneapolis, the precincts heard from are from all parts of the state and the proportion runs about the same in all sections. At this ratio Lee would get a lead of 20,000 outside the Twin Cities.

Walter Smith for treasurer, Lyndon A. Smith for attorney general, Caswell for clerk of supreme court, and Preus for state auditor, appear to be the nominees. One of the surprises was the large vote cast for Block for state auditor, and it is possible the second choice votes may be necessary to settle the fight between Preus, Rines and Block. There is still a possibility that Rines has been nominated.

Justice Bunn and Albert Johnson appear to be the nominees for the supreme court. The remaining two Republican contest were the first and second in the Sixth district, leading Congressman C. A. Lindbergh by a slight margin. The remaining two Republican contest were the first and second in the Tenth and Fifth districts.

LAKE COUNTY IS FOR EBERHART

Two Harbors, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald).—Following is a complete list of the votes cast in the city of Two Harbors.

The returns from Kramer, Crystal Bay, Beaver Bay, Silver Creek, Waldo, and town of Two Harbors and Full Lake are not in.

Halbert, 6; Westerlund, 19; Eberhart, 28; Lee, 136; Rines, 17; Hammond, 23; Lawler, 7; Burnquist, 237; Steenerson, 141; Block, 95; Preus, 142; Rines, 154; Johnson, 146; Walter Smith, 257; Manahan, 164; Lydon Smith, 236; Caswell, 253; McGibrey, 114; Arneson, 50; Jacobson, 225; Rosewald, 59; White, 73; Boyle, 119; Miller, 24; Eides, 17; McKnight, 75; Adams, 285.

For county superintendent of schools

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.
Debate was resumed on the Indian appropriation bill.
Senator Jones presented petitions from the Seattle chamber of commerce and other Washington state organizations reconstituting against anti-trust legislation.
The conference report providing for construction of four new revenue cutters was adopted.
Senator Sheppard introduced a bill to cut mileage allowances of senators from 20 cents a mile to 15 cents, and the committee was voted down.

HOUSE.
Consideration of the judiciary code revision bill was resumed.
The foreign affairs committee voted favorably to report the resolution inviting foreign nations to participate in the International Dry Farming congress at Wichita, Kan., Oct. 7.

Mrs. D. H. Lawrence had a walk-away. Either Mrs. Odric LeClair or George VanValkenburgh will be the next highest. For county attorney, J. Gilbert Jelle received the greater number of votes. In the entire city he received 370 votes. Tracy was the next highest with 266, beating Fowler by only 8 votes. The fate of either Fowler or Tracy lies in the returns from the surrounding country.

Martin, for judge of probate, leads in the city by nearly 100 votes. It is expected that Enss will beat Doerr for the nomination. John Kline for judge of probate was almost forgotten by the voters. He ran very poorly. He is the present judge of probate.

BUNN AHEAD IN BELTRAMI COUNTY

Wilson Has Large Plurality for State Senator.

Remidji, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald).—With the state ticket still to be heard from, the vote at 9 o'clock this morning in Beltrami county was:

Associate justice—Bunn, 107; Elliott, 66; Hunt, 24; Johnson, 55; Morrison, 83; Watts, 159.
Senator—Wilson, 229; Nord, 127; Hayden, 133; Andrews, 81; A. P. Roberts, 70.
Representative—Clementson, 16; Erickson, 87; Norris, 64; Pendergast, 262; Williams, 110.
County treasurer—Alsop, 132; Gell, 291; Morris, 77; Tagley, 143.
Sheriff—Hazen, 145; Johnson, 419; Peterson, 89.
Register of deeds—Harris, 221; McCraig, 177; Moon, 225; Olson, 36.
Probate Judge—Clark, 276; Harris, 137; Slocum, 176.
Commissioner, First District—Bell, 111; Lahr, 353; Rako, 226.

KAISER WILHELM II IN COLLISION IN FOG

Southampton, June 17.—The steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II returned here this evening, having apparently suffered damage below the water line in a collision during a fog with the steamer Incisor.

Spithead, Eng., June 17.—The steamer Incisor, from Liverpool, for Southampton reports having been in collision with the North German Lloyd steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II. The bows of the Incisor were badly damaged above the water line. The extent of the damage to the Kaiser Wilhelm II has not yet been ascertained.

AGREE WITH PRESIDENT

Business Men Write That Depression Is Psychological.

Senate May Speed Up and Finish Work in July.

Washington, June 17.—As one result of President Wilson's denunciation of what he characterized as a deliberate campaign to spread abroad the idea that business is in the doldrums, the White House has begun to receive letters from the manufacturers and others throughout the country taking the president's view that a "psychological depression" has been created.

One letter circulated by a St. Louis hardware company declared: "Our sales up to date this year are just three-fifths of 1 per cent less than the same period last year, and if June business continues to increase as it has done so far, we will gain this three-fifths and probably finish the first half of the year with a gain."

Speed up in Senate.
With adjournment of congress in about six weeks as their goal, senate Democratic leaders were today expected to continue their "speed up" work on the annual appropriation bills so as to take up as early as possible and push to conclusion the administration's program of anti-trust measures. The progress made on the supply measures led to the belief today that all of them would be disposed of by about July 1. With these bills out of the way the senate would then be in a position to take up the anti-trust bills.

Want to See Fence.
There is general anxiety in congress for adjournment as early as possible. Members want to return home and enter actively into the congressional campaign this fall, and with prospects that the Republicans will not violently oppose the anti-trust bills, Democratic leaders in the senate were hopeful of adjournment the latter part of July.

STEENERSON IS RENOMINATED

Indications He Has Won in Ninth District Three to One.

Crookston, Minn., June 17.—Special to The Herald.—In seventy-six precincts in Polk and adjoining counties, the vote is as follows: Eberhart, 3,018; Lee, 2,766; Lawler, 1,372; Hammond, 1,291; Steenerson, 3,109; Burnquist, 1,628; Preus, 2,126; Rines, 2,346; Block, 1,116; Johnson, 2,328; Walter Smith, 2,758; Manahan, 2,467; Lyndon Smith, 2,862.

Steenerson wins the congress 6 to 1. The race between Buckler and Saugstad for the state senate is very close, and it looks like Buckler will win. The legislature, but rural returns may yet defeat Boyd and give the nomination to Clementson or Aker. Waite carried the district 3 to 1 for the supreme court.

Rural returns not available till late this afternoon may change the vote materially.

BLIND SOPRANO MAY HAVE TAKEN POISON

"Helen Keller of the West" Found Dead on Couch.

Oakland, Cal., June 17.—Miss Helen Mesow, a blind soprano known as the "Helen Keller of the West," was found dead on a couch in her apartment here late last night. The cause of death is not known. A spoon found in an empty glass in the bathroom is to be examined to ascertain if it had contained any poison.

A physician worked over the body for an hour trying to restore life. The spoon in the bathroom, he said, smelled strongly of a quick acting poison.

Miss Mesow was known as a singer, and for her struggle against her inability to achieve rank as a vocalist. She was educated in the California institute for the deaf and blind and at the University of California. Afterward she continued her vocal studies in Paris. She was about 30 years old.

SAYS PRETORIA WAS ON PROPER COURSE.

New York, June 17.—Capt. Dugge of the Hamburg-American steamer Pretoria places upon the steamer New York of the American line the blame for the collision between the two vessels in the fog about 400 miles east of Nantucket early Saturday morning, asserting that the Pretoria was on her proper course.

OH, THINGS AREN'T SO BAD, AFTER ALL.

MISS WILSON IS IN CHICAGO

President's Daughter Will Address Club Women's Meeting.

Chicago, June 17.—"My father likes to have me interest myself in civic and all kinds of social betterment work," said Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, here today. "He is greatly interested himself in improving the condition of the poor."

Miss Wilson is here to speak tonight before the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Her subject is "What the Federation Can Do for Young Women of America."

She will attend the conference to be held in a few days in Madison, Wis. on social settlement work.

The sessions of the federation today were largely devoted to discussing and planning the work of the organization. The report on its endowment fund, the legislative committee conference and reports on industrial and social conditions, education, library extension and civics were scheduled for the day.

Formal announcement of elections and introduction of new elected officers was to be a feature of the evening session.

Closing sessions of the twelfth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs were held here today. Invitations for the convention of 1916 were received, resolutions were adopted and formal announcement (Continued on page 4, second column.)

WEATHER—Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; local showers; light, southerly winds.

They are making a large tabernacle building used a month ago for revival meetings.

WISCONSIN GIVES OVER 800 DEGREES

Platteville and Racine Men Get Special Thesis Honors.

Madison, Wis., June 17.—The University of Wisconsin conferred about 750 degrees besides 135 advanced degrees at the annual commencement exercises today. Of the latter number, seventy are for the degrees of master of arts, forty-four master of science, twenty-five for doctors of philosophy, and one for master of philosophy. Twenty-five persons have received special university honors in fellowships conferred.

George E. Cleary, Platteville, receives special honor for the thesis in the law school, and Walker of Racine was awarded the Science club medal for the best baccalaureate thesis in the science.

University teachers' certificates were granted to 176 of the class of 1914, and six were granted in the advanced course in the training of teachers.

A sum of money was granted to Prof. B. H. Meyer of the interstate commerce commission, and that of doctor of science to Edwin Frank Smith, Washington, D. C.

FORMAL OPENING OF DESMOND PARK

Recreation Place on Minnesota Point Will Be Opened Thursday.

The formal opening of the Desmond park swimming pool and club rooms for the season of 1914 will take place tomorrow afternoon. Everything is in perfect condition. New sheet piling has been put in where torn out by the big storm. The pool has been pumped out and is now in fine shape.

Desmond park swimming pool, situated at Fifteenth street and Minnesota avenue, only seven blocks south of the city bridge, is the only institution of the kind in all the city of Duluth. During the first season, last year, not a single accident occurred. A competent swimming instructor was in constant attendance giving lessons and guarding against accidents.

During the season of 1914, Mr. Whitely will serve as instructor. He is a clean-cut, competent man and will prove a valuable addition to the staff of Desmond park. Mrs. John J. Desmond again will serve as matron. Her popularity with the boys is exceeded only by her fine moral influence over them.

Patrons may bring their own swimming suits or they can be supplied at the office of Desmond park.

OFFICER SHOTS AT GERMAN AMBASSADOR

Champaign, Ill., June 17.—Count Johann von Bernstorff, ambassador from Germany to the United States, narrowly escaped death today when a special policeman fired point blank at the ambassador in which the ambassador was being driven to the commencement exercises of the University of Illinois. The shot went wild and was not repeated.

Count von Bernstorff was riding to the campus from the railroad station the guest of Arthur Meeker of Chicago, in the Meeker automobile. Dr. David Kinney, vice president of the university, and Dr. Ewart Boutelle Green were also in the machine.

As the automobile neared First and University avenues, Michael Murphy, a merchant was employed by neighborhood business men, held up his hand as a warning signal.

Murphy was not in uniform and the chauffeur paid no attention to him. Apparently angered at the institution, Murphy fired one shot at the automobile.

Count von Bernstorff was the orator of the day at the commencement exercises, at which degrees were given

BOYS "TOO OBLIGING."

Insist on Carrying "Grips" at Station; Stopped By Police.

Harry Lovenson, 14 years old, and Bennie Zlatkovsky, 12 years old, have been so anxious to make nickels and dimes by carrying satchels for passengers at the Union station that they made nuisances of themselves, according to police reports. It is claimed that they would insist upon doing the luggage whether the passengers desired their services or not. Yesterday they were sent to police headquarters. There they were given a serious lecture by Capt. Fiskett and allowed to go to their homes.

DROWNS AT DOCK.

Mrs. Coppens Steps Off Dock; Body Is Recovered.

Mrs. Voltina Coppens, 37 years old, a widow, stepped off the Marine Supply company's dock at Allouez at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was drowned. Mrs. Coppens was sawing a piece of ice at the time. She resided at 270 East Itasca street and leaves five children in destitute circumstances, who range in age from 16 months to 14 years.

The body was recovered after it had been in the water a half hour and attempts on the part of the fire department to resuscitate the woman with a lungmotor proved fruitless.

The body was removed to undertaking rooms and arrangements will be made today for the funeral.

Our Complete Stock of Gas Ranges and Plates at Rare Reductions This Month!

Any Style or Size You Wish

In all other gas stove ovens there are ventilating openings in the top or back where the heat passes out. In the Double Action oven there are none of these openings in the top or back and the result is that when the heat reaches the top of the oven instead of passing out at this point, as in other ovens, it has to turn around and travel all the way down through the oven to the bottom before passing out at the point of ventilation, which is directly below the center of the oven bottom plate. In other words, in all other stoves the heat enters the oven through the bottom or sides and passes to the top or back and then out; in the Double Action the heat enters the oven through the sides and goes to the top, where it is forced to turn around and go all the way to the bottom. This is the reason why it is necessary to have only two rows of fire in the Double Action oven to do the same work that other gas range ovens require three or four rows of fire to do. You can't help but bake evenly.

ADOPT RULES FOR GARDEN CONTEST

The four special prizes offered in the gardening contest of the West End Commercial club will be in the nature of a "free-for-all" for the residents of the West end. James Maghan, chairman of the committee in charge, announced this decision today.

Every resident of the West end whose hobby may be flowers and who wishes to beautify his home in such a manner may communicate the fact to Mr. Maghan and he will enter his name in the open contest. The same will be true of those raising strawberries. The prize offered by the Patrick Knitting mills and that raised by employees of the Scott-Graft Lumber company will be used for this contest.

The special prize offered by Mr. Maghan will be open for all of the eight schools of the West end to compete for. These schools are: Emerson, Madison, Adams, Ensign, Lincoln, Munroe, Bryant and Merritt.

At the meeting of the club Thursday evening at Simonson's hall the committee will present a plan for an open contest for the Herald prize amounting to $15. The nature of this contest has not as yet been given out. Mr. Maghan said this morning that the plan would be announced following the meeting.

Nearly 1,000 children are entered in the contest. From the Ensign school 300 names were turned over to the committee as participants in the contest, and a similar number has been secured from the Lincoln school. From the Monroe and the Adams schools nearly 400 names were turned in.

STEEL MAKERS MORE HOPEFUL

Car Orders for Last Week Exceeded Total for May.

Steel manufacturers in the Chicago district comment upon a decidedly better feeling and a considerable revival in the industry during the past week especially in the railroad department.

Car orders for last week are said to have exceeded the total for May, so that manufacturers are feeling greatly encouraged. It is expected that in the event of the railway rate decision being favorable, the country's steel operations, which are now around 50 per cent of capacity, will reach 75 per cent by the end of July.

It is a subject of comment that all classes of steel consumers are in great need of materials and that once the rate case is settled, there will be a rush of orders that will tax the capacity of the plants.

The Sharon works of the American Steel Foundries company are reported to be operating at full capacity with every prospect of continuing along on that basis as a good volume of orders has been booked recently.

New orders of the United States Steel corporation are estimated to be running at a basis of 25,000 tons a day, or about 7,000 tons better than the low point set a short time ago. Reports from Pittsburgh are to the effect that inquiry has so broadened in many lines that there is now a disposition to contract for third quarter for prompt shipment at the present low prices. Bookings of the Steel corporation have increased to such an extent that they are now estimated to be equal to shipments as compared with the decreases that have been regularly shown since early in the year.

CHICAGO MAY HIRE INEFFICIENT SQUAD.

Chicago, June 17.—Plans to aid superannuated and disabled employees of the city have been announced. The project involves the creation of two classes of civil service employees, one group for those who are disabled by age, sickness or injury. This group would be paid less than the members of the group of efficient employees.

SENATOR GRONNA ATTACKS MILLER

Alleges Rival Has Made His Peace With Alex McKenzie.

Lakota, N. D., June 17.—(Special to The Herald).—To personally direct his campaign for re-election during the last seven days of the primary campaign, United States Senator Gronna has arrived here. He replies to charges recently made, that his clerks, while drawing money from the government, never performed any services.

This Gronna denies flatly, maintaining that such clerks as he has employed were appointed in the legal manner, in accordance with the rules of the senate, and that nobody ever received any salaries from the government without performing duties assigned. He also attacks Andy Miller, his most active opposing candidate.

Senator Gronna insists that Miller has made his peace with Alexander McKenzie, despite the fact that Miller has for years been posing in the role of a progressive Republican. That Gronna's enmity to the railroads and to the Harvester trust are the basis for the combination that he alleges has been made against him, is the gist of his charge.

CONFERENCE DIVIDED.

Lutheran Brethren of America Make Changes in Districts.

Mayville, N. D., June 17.—(Special to The Herald).—The division of the Lutheran Brethren of America conference, which ended here yesterday, into three districts, was the most important action taken.

The Eastern district was placed under the presidency of Rev. M. A. Dorumgard, Minneapolis; the Central district under Rev. E. H. Gunhus of Grand Forks, and the Western district under Rev. L. C. Peterson of Mohall, N. D.

The selection of the next meeting place was delegated to a committee, of which M. J. Quarren of Grand Forks is chairman.

The officers follow: President, Rev. E. H. Gunhus, Grand Forks; vice president, Rev. M. A. Dorumgard, Minneapolis; secretary, Rev. P. O. P. Tungsteth, Hawley, Minn.; board of missions, Rev. A. J. J. Einfeld, N. D.; Rev. J. I. Peterson, Colfax, Wis.; Rev. C. J. Brun, Pergus Falls, Minn.; members of board of trustees, Thore Huss, Moorport, N. D.; Halmer Dahlen, Pergus Falls; August Hanson, Wahpeton, and Fred Borgen, Moorport.

AT NORTH DAKOTA U.

Annual Commencement Held and Prize Winners Announced.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 17.—Commencement exercises at the University of North Dakota were held this morning when 124 graduates received diplomas. Prof. F. L. McVey of the university conferred the degrees.

One of the features of the commencement was the final oratorical contest, in which five students participated.

The announcement of several prizes also were made today, including the following:

Bennett prize, Clemens Kelsch, Lincoln, N. D.

Scholarships—Lizzie M. Brown, history; George St. John Perrott, physics and chemistry; William B. Stevenson, civil engineering.

Fellowship—William J. Leenhouts, chemistry; Gordon P. Paxman, biology; Theodore Roy, mining engineering; William C. Whitford, history.

Thomas scholarship—Bertha Brainard and Rudolph Glejness.

Honors in English—Audrey Vera Kelsey.

Gansloup scholarship—George Perrott.

PLAN TO SELL TWO WARSHIPS BLOCKED.

Washington, June 17.—Plans of the navy department to sell the battleships Idaho and Mississippi to some European power and build a modern dreadnought with the money, were blocked last night in the house. Such formidable opposition to the proposal developed that Chairman Padgett of the naval committee conferred with department officials and announced it would not be pressed.

VAN HISE TALKS OF MENTAL RESOURCES

Wisconsin University Graduates Hear Address By Prexy.

Madison, Wis., June 17.—President Charles R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin, in his commencement address today, told the senior class of the need of intellectual resources in their future work.

"Whatever your work you will find yourselves among others who are equally able and active," he said. "There will be pursuing you a group of strenuous youths starting later than yourselves, with better equipment, with greater energy, and the time will come when one of these youths will press you close and finally thrust you aside. If at that time you have not other intellectual resources than your work, you are indeed to be pitied."

"I urge upon each of you that a part of every day be reserved for things other than your vocation, that at the same time you perform efficient service in the world, you live the life of one whose head rises above the incidents of the day and tries to see the great complex organism of the world."

MUST CLAIM BEQUEST WITHIN YEAR OR LOSE.

Unless Ole Ouse, son of Lars Ouse, who died June 9 last, puts in his claim for the bequest of $100 which was left him in his father's will within a period of one year, he will be deprived of the inheritance. The will directs that the estate valued at $5,000 shall be divided equally among eight children. The only provision for Ole Ouse, however, is $100 and with the stipulation that he must claim it within a year. His present whereabouts are unknown to the members of his family.

Ouse was a pioneer mail clerk in this city and at the time of his death was transfer clerk at the union depot. His son, John Martin Ouse, filed his will for probate yesterday afternoon.

Balfour, N. D., Golden Wedding. Balfour, N. D., June 17.—(Special to The Herald).—Seventy-five friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Reed, assembled in a local hall and participated in the celebration of the golden wedding of the popular couple. Congratulations were sent by a large number of others. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reed are enjoying fine health.

MILLER IS EASY VICTOR OVER BOYLE

Duluth, the older and more conservative felt that they knew better, and yesterday's result proved their wisdom. Senator Boyle was beaten in Duluth by a majority in favor of Congressman Miller of 2,383, the latter getting 4,236 votes to 2,012 for the senator.

With fifty-seven precincts still missing, the figures show that outside of Duluth, the county turned down Senator Boyle by a majority in favor of Congressman Miller of 1,878 votes against about 972 for Mr. McNamara and 311 for Mr. Edes, who "also ran." For representative of the same district, Bert N. Wheeler and W. J. North are the nominees. The former wins by 1,232 votes, against 1,150 for Mr. North. E. J. Kenney gets 338 but is beaten.

In the Fifty-eighth district Senator T. M. Pugh, that veteran of many political battles, came very nearly making his third thrust to get as many votes as his two opponents combined. Some of the country districts are still to be heard from and may do it for him. Senator Pugh received 1,773 votes against Richard Jones 153 and Capt. Randall's 741. It looks as though Senator Pugh's opponent in November will be Richard Jones, but the difference between him and Capt. Randall is so close that the three missing precincts may change it.

In the Fifty-ninth district William Bernard and E. N. Nelson appear to be the nominees. Mr. Bernard making the stronger run.

MISS WILSON IS IN CHICAGO

made of the result of yesterday's election. Invitations were received from New York city, Atlantic City, Dallas, Texas and Jacksonville, Fla.

The resolutions endorsed social organizations of women as outlined by the agricultural department, urged the opening of public schools and other public buildings to the people as social centers for popular debate; deplored any further impairment of Niagara Falls by power companies; increased efforts being made to prevent fire waste, and went on record in opposition to the liquor traffic.

Head of Department Talk.

George J. Kneeland did some very plain and unvarnished talking to delegates of the federation in convention, and left them witted but enlightened. Mr. Kneeland is director of the department of investigation of the American Social Hygiene association. His remarks were based on statistics gathered by his department and on the reports of investigators.

He found that a prolific source of supply to commercialized vice comes from girls between the ages of 15 and 18 years, the dangerous age of the development of the racial instinct, and that a startling minority of these comes from homes other than those of poverty and ignorance.

Mr. Kneeland's agents, in the last year, have gathered complete histories of 300 girls not yet professionally immoral, but well started on the downward path.

Contrary to the general impression and the reports of some investigators, the majority of these girls are feeble-minded or sub-normal. Mr. Kneeland said that majority of the girls were quite intelligent.

Where They Come From.

"Some of them," he asserted, "facing the delegates squarely, 'come from their homes and their parents, real estate agents, managers of large enterprises, and one the daughter of a minister. Others are storekeepers, shop girls, ticket sellers. Some live at home in idleness and ease; their fathers own yachts and automobiles. We have letters from them showing marked intelligence and facility of expression. We have photographs of others, and you will agree with me that they are typical American girls, daughters of respectable and prosperous parents."

"But it is only fair to say that the majority are poor, coarse and ignorant, with little knowledge of evil, little conception of good."

All through the reports of agents the speaker found certain characteristics among the girls. They were rebellious toward home and parents; they are suspicious and scornful of boy friends, whom they prefer to meet strangers and married men. They are suspicious of exposure, and while they present an innocent, demure front to their friends, they show themselves in their true colors to strangers," said the speaker. "Strangers come and go as married men are, and people living in glass houses, so they say."

What Women Can Do.

Mr. Kneeland said that dancing and impassioned love scenes and the like, introduced the sex appeal. He told the women they could help save these misguided girls, and made the following suggestions.

First—You can make some effort to find those girls in your own town. They are there. Then, having found them, you can catch yourself to them with bands of love and understanding. But you say, 'I don't know how to do it. I don't know how to act toward them, or what to say.' Yes you do. The way to know them is to know them as your own youth; remember the days of your own youth. The influences that protected you will, in the end, save them.

Second—You can give them healthy and sane instruction as to the mystery of life. You can warn them of disease and the crime of abortion. Knowledge must drive out ignorance. The evil must be supplanted by the good.

Third—Each one of you can have powerful influence in providing amusements in your own community where the sex appeal is eliminated.

Fourth—You can use your influence to bring about better economic and industrial conditions so that fathers can be masters in their own home; so that young men can marry early in life.

Fifth—You can teach ignorant mothers and fathers so that they will love and understand their children more than they do.

Sixth—You can teach boys and young men to honor womanhood. You can make them realize that young girls represent more than half of all future generations, that upon them depends the health and power of the race; that to injure a girl, take advantage of her racial instinct at a critical moment, is a crime against unborn generations. Men must learn to sacrifice themselves, if need be, for the good of the race.

IF SKIN ITCHES AND BREAKS OUT APPLY SULPHUR

Get Ounce of Bold-Sulphur Cream and Heal Eczema Eruptions Right Up.

For years, common bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections, by reason of its parasite-destroying property. It is not only parasiticide, but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin.

The moment you apply it to an itching or broken out skin the itching stops and the healing begins, says a noted dermatologist. Just common bold-sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt and remarkable results, even in aggravated Eczema that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to subdue the angry itching and irritation and heal the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

Any good pharmacist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur cream which should be applied to the irritated or inflamed parts, like the ordinary cold creams. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the eruption is accompanied with itching.

Your influence to restore to the home the simple, yet powerful, protection which grows out of the belief in the religion of our fathers. The most complete solution of a man or woman's sex problem lies in vital, personal relationship to the infinite and eternal God. This must be taught our sons and daughters.

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Texas was elected president and the entire ticket of the nominating committee was elected without opposition.

Miss Margaret W. Wilson, daughter of the president, led the delegates in the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner." When Mrs. Pennybacker introduced Miss Wilson, the throng of delegates rose and waved and cheered her for fully ten minutes.

EBERHART IS WINNER IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY BY COMFORTABLE MARGIN

Julius Block of Duluth, Mr. Preus is said to be without a doubt the Republican nominee.

Walter Smith naturally had no difficulty in distancing his opponent in this part of the state and so far as has been learned carried off the victory throughout the commonwealth.

Jim Manahan proved beaten by almost 2,000 votes by Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith and "Shy" Caswell, got 1,500 more votes for the office of clerk of the supreme court than did Mr. McCubrey.

The contest for the Republican nomination for the office of clerk of the supreme court is a tangle. O. P. B. Jacobson, the incumbent, leads on first votes in this county. J. C. White is second, J. P. Rosenwald third and Jim Arneson fourth. It is believed that Mr. Jacobson is the nominee. Justice Bunn was given a heavy vote for renomination, and if the state at large acts as St. Louis county has done, Justice Brown will be opposed in November by Judge Johnson, who received the second largest vote here.

Aside from the county commissioner's offices, which are more or less local, the only county contests were for the office of register of deeds and for sheriff. The results, without the missing districts, show that Register of Deeds Calligan is renominated by a vote of 6,621, that E. P. Smith of Duluth, who was his opponent at the November election, having received 3,695 votes, and that E. P. Smith is probably out of it, although he received 3,475 votes.

For the office of sheriff, Sheriff John Mainville got 5,443 votes, and Frank Magie got 3,410, so they will be the nominees to oppose each other for election in the fall.

The fight for the nominations in the Second commissioner's district was a very exciting one, being a thirteen-cornered affair. "Shy" Caswell, who all means the largest vote, almost two to one over his nearest opponent, who was Bert Krieback, the two are therefore the nominees and will be in at the death in November.

CROW WING GOES FOR EBERHART

Preus Is Also Ahead in Returns So Far Available.

CLARKE NOMINATED IN IOWA PRIMARIES

Cummins Also Wins Over His Opponent at the Polls.

Des Moines, Ia., June 17.—Practically complete returns on the primary election now in the hands of the state board of canvassers, show that Governor Clarke was nominated over both his opponents by a majority of 29,586. His plurality was 48,948.

Senator Cummins defeated A. C. Savage by 40,967 votes. W. L. Harding won the lieutenant governorship by 26,718 votes over W. C. Barber.

The Progressive nomination for senator, which has been in doubt, went to Casper Schenk of Des Moines, with a majority of 553 votes. The anti-overseership on the Democratic ticket was won by O. P. Meyers of Newton, with a majority of 1,445.

The returns from Polk and Wright counties are unofficial.

CATTLE BREEDERS' PROGRAM

Members of Two Societies Will Meet Here Next Week; Interesting Program Prepared.

The agricultural committee of the Commercial club is issuing the official program of the second agricultural festival to be held in Duluth a week from Thursday and Friday, and the club's secretary is sending out a large number of them to farmers in this part of the state and in Northern Wisconsin and to residents of the city who are interested in agriculture.

The occasion will be the annual meeting of the Minnesota Livestock Breeders' association and of the Guernsey Breeders' association of Northern Wisconsin and Northern Minnesota. The former will meet on Friday and the latter on the following day. Following is the program for the Minnesota Livestock Breeders' association:

Address of welcome—C. P. Craig, Duluth.
Response—John B. Irwin, Minneapolis, president Minnesota Livestock Breeders' association.

Address—Land and Livestock—Henry Wallace, Des Moines, Iowa, editor Wallace's Farmer.
Address—Seedling and Pasturing Out-over Lands—C. W. Giffeller, Waterville, Minn., president Minnesota Crop Improvement association.

Discussion—"The Making of a Farm." Prof. Andrew Ross, head of division of agronomy and farm management, University farm, St. Paul.

Address—"The Dairy Cow and Agricultural Development," C. A. Nelson, Waverly, Iowa.
Address—"Uniformity in Dairy Type," A. J. Glover, Fort Atkinson, Wis., editor Horard's Dairyman.

Discussion—"Sheep Raising," Joseph E. Wing, Mechanicsburg, Ohio, special writer for the Breeders' Gazette.

5:15 p. m.—Reception and dinner for visitors and business men of Duluth. Addresses will be given by Henry Wallace of Des Moines, Iowa; Joseph E. Wing of Mechanicsburg, Ohio; Prof. T. L. Haacker, University of Minnesota; Dean A. F. Woods of the Agricultural college, University of Minnesota; Prof. A. J. McGuire of Grand Rapids and other visitors. John G. Williams of Duluth will preside and several five-minute talks.

This meeting will be a sequel to one held at the Duluth Commercial club seven years ago, at which time the development of the dairy industry in Northeastern Minnesota was predicted.

The story of seven years' development will be told at this meeting. Some of the other men who will be present are Prof. Van Pelt of Kimball's Dairy Farmer, Waterloo, Iowa; D. Wallace of the Farmer, St. Paul; Hugh J. Hughes of Farm, Stock and Home, Minneapolis; and Prof. H. R. Smith of the College of Agriculture, University of Minnesota.

The following plan is that of the Guernsey breeders for Friday: The farmers' clubs of the surrounding country will gather at a picnic at the Jean Du Luth farm.

Members of the Guernsey Breeders' association and other visitors and Duluth business men will gather at the Commercial club at 9 a. m. and leave in automobiles for the farm. En route they will visit the new Northeastern Minnesota demonstration farm of the Jean Du Luth farm.

On arrival at the Jean Du Luth farm a picnic dinner will be served. The principal address of the day will be made by William H. Caldwell of Peterboro, N. H., general secretary of the American Guernsey Cattle club.

ANAESTHETIC GUN CONQUERS MANIAC.

Paris, June 17.—The "anaesthetic pistol" devised by the city chemists at the time of the siege of the notorious automobile bandits, was used successfully last night in the capture of a madman, Edouard, an artist, in a fit of mania, shut herself in her apartment in the Avenue de Neuilly and threatened her neighbors from a window with a revolver. The police officers were summoned, fired several shots at the woman, but without effect. The anaesthetic pistol was then brought into service and the woman was stupefied with gas and removed to an infirmary.

Keep Your Baby Cool in Summer

KEEP him cool and he will be well. Your baby's body may grow weary and his head grow hot as he fights the heavy cow's milk that may bring sickness.

When you know that one cow in three has the germs of consumption—when you know that it is these cows that may bring summer complaint to your baby—when you know that there is a safe food for your baby that cannot bring disease; that will bring bone and blood and strength—when you know that three generations of mothers have found the nearest thing to mother's milk in

Nestlé's Food

then you must use it, too. You don't have to purify Nestlé's. It's always ready—in its clean, airtight can. As long as you have fresh, clean water—your baby can have Nestlé's in safety. Nestlé's is made from the purified milk of healthy cows. All the heavy parts are modified—all your baby needs are added—Nestlé's has the same effect as healthy mother's milk—so light any baby can digest it—so good that babies grow strong and big on it. Send the coupon for sample can of Nestlé's (enough for 12 feedings) and the Special's book full of things you must know to keep your baby well and strong.

CIRCULATION MEN GUESTS

Party of 250 Arrive on Noronic and Are Entertained.

Mayor Prince and Charles S. Mitchell Laud Men in "Business Office."

An automobile drive about the city and a luncheon at the Spalding hotel marked the entertainment given by Duluth yesterday afternoon to the 250 delegates of the National Association of Circulation Managers, who arrived with their wives on the new steamer Noronic. The annual convention of the organization is being held on board the vessel and the visit to this city was in charge of the local newspapers.

Program is Changed.

Because of the late arrival of the Noronic, which did not dock until 2 o'clock, the original program for the entertainment of the visitors was changed. It was expected that the boat would reach Duluth at 11 o'clock, thus giving the visitors an hour for an automobile drive over the boulevard and a luncheon at the Spalding hotel. Because of the late arrival the luncheon was not served until 4 o'clock and for this reason the Northern Navigation company held the Noronic an hour especially for the delegates.

Immediately upon their arrival in Duluth the delegates were taken to the lawn in the rear of the Federal building, where a group photograph was taken. Automobiles then drove up and they were all taken on a drive around the city, at which the luncheon was served at the Spalding hotel.

SIDNEY D. LONG

Following this Edward Armstrong of the Duluth Herald introduced Mayor Prince, who welcomed the delegates and Sidney D. Long of the Wichita Eagle, president of the association, who responded to the mayor. Charles S. Mitchell of The News-Tribune was the next speaker and he gave a short talk, in which he lauded the work of the circulation manager.

Work of Circulation Managers.
"My hat is off to the circulation man on a newspaper," said Mr. Mitchell, "any man who can carry the detail in his head that they do can successfully manage any business proposition on earth. Nobody sees your work, and many people never know there is such a thing as a circulation department on a paper."

"I submit that the proposition which our two Duluth managers have on their hands, namely to get a paper on the steps of the house in every block of the forty-seven square miles comprising the city of Duluth, without delay, every day in the week is one which ought to command the attention of every thinking man."

Although the Noronic was scheduled to sail at 8 o'clock, the big steamer was held an hour overtime, to allow the visitors to converse with the program that has been prepared for them.

ROOSEVELT TELLS ABOUT NEW RIVER

Lectures Before Royal Geographical Society at London.

London, June 17.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt appeared before the Royal Geographical society last night to tell the members and many of the most conspicuous men in London's public life how he put the "David river" on the map of Brazil. The society's theater in Burlington gardens was packed to suffocation. The doors were closed and the sign "theater full" posted half an hour before the colonel's appearance.

Large forces of police were waiting to shelter Col. Roosevelt against a possible suffragette attack, but none was attempted. The colonel waved his hand when he alighted from his motor, but the crowd was too decorous for cheering. The heartiest applause, however, greeted his appearance on the stage.

"My River."
The lecture was mainly a repetition of that delivered at Washington in May. Col. Roosevelt expressed his pleasure at appearing before the foremost geographical body of the world. He paid a tribute to Brazilian explorers, and raised a laugh by saying "there are still plenty of other things shore besides my river to be put on the map."

He had been requested to give the members of the society personal details of his adventures, and he talked much of heros bats, fish which catch monkeys, and snakes which made life miserable for him. He suggested that the Royal Geographical society send a man to survey the river, and promised all assistance from himself and the Brazilian government.

Promises Critical Review.
New York, June 17.—A critical review of Col. Roosevelt's expedition of the River of Doubt, prepared by the American Geographical Society of New York, will appear in the society's bulletin for July, it is announced. Full credit is given to the colonel's contribution to our knowledge of a little-known section of the earth's surface.

Madness Governor Thrown.
Madison, Wis., June 16.—Governor Francis McGovern was injured yesterday when a horse on which he was riding his daily ride stumbled, throwing its rider to the pavement. One of the governor's legs was injured.

HOW THE TWO CAMPS VIEW THE CONGRESSIONAL RESULT

Before Congressman Miller left for Washington this afternoon to resume his duties there he gave out the following statement concerning the result of yesterday's primary election: "The victory is certainly both splendid and complete. There was not a weak spot in the entire district. My many friends were never more loyal nor more active and I certainly feel under lasting obligations to them all. This continued confidence, so emphatically expressed by the good people of this district calls for continued labor for the interests of this great region, a response I shall be pleased to give."

Ray M. Hughes, manager for Congressman Miller in this and other campaigns, was brief in his statement. All he had to say was: "The results are as I expected."

There was nothing wrong with Mr. Miller's record and we won out on the merits of the case," Senator Boyle was in Eveleth, and could not be reached, but his brother and manager, John Boyle, made the following statement: "I can't speak for Senator Boyle. I have not been in touch with him today. From indications at this hour we are defeated. I am a good loser and hold malice towards none. It is unnecessary to outline the cause of our defeat. Every intelligent man knows the forces and influences that were against us. It is practically a hopeless task in this day and age for a single man to successfully oppose the elements lined up with the opposition. It is a repetition of clouding the issue. History has repeated itself."

to be between the Cornell and Columbia crews," said Coach Jim Rice of Columbia. "I have seen all the crews and I firmly believe the struggle in the big event is going to be between Cornell and Columbia."

Yesterday was another day of unfavorable conditions with a strong wind out of the north making the water exceptionally rough, but all the crews were sent out for practice. The Wisconsin varsity crew narrowly escaped injury from a shower of rock hurled by a blast set off on a private estate. The missiles fell only a short distance behind their shell.

the actors were especially pleased to find the advance sale of tickets, at a quarter each, insured a full house and a snug sum in the box office. The evening of the performance saw the house packed. The audience waited patiently for nearly an hour and then the malus present lost patience and commenced to stamp and whistle. After a long delay the scared-looking proprietor of the hall appeared and announced that the troupe had vanished with the box office receipts into the darkness and night, leaving behind them a placard on which was written "This is How the World is Cheated."

PAT'S TESTIMONY.

The Glasworker: Terence Murphy had been accused of selling liquor illicitly, and the prosecuting attorney was endeavoring to make Pat a teamster, admit that he delivered liquor to the defendant. He stated that he had once delivered freight to Murphy and that part of the freight was in a barrel, but when asked what the barrel contained he replied that he did not know.

"Don't know! Wasn't the barrel marked?" asked the attorney.

"Yes, sir."

"Then how dare you tell the court you don't know what was in it?"

"Because, sir, the barrel was marked 'Terence Murphy' on one end and 'Bourbon whiskey' on the other. How the devil did I know what was in it?"

CHARITY SOCIETY RUNS ITS OWN GROCERY.

The Survey: For years the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the poor, like nearly every relief body the country over, has been buying food for its needy families at the corner grocery store. Last year the association spent $53,200 on food at corner grocery and chain stores.

Since November 20, 1913, it has been following an entirely different method and during the ten weeks ended Jan.

THE PRIMARY RESULTS.

Well, the statewide primary election is over, and all that is left before beginning the real campaign for the offices is an accounting of casualties and triumphs.

At this writing it looks decidedly as though the chief and most eminent victim were Governor Eberhart.

Elimination did not cease with Ellwell and Iverson and Peterson. It extended into the primaries and caught Governor Eberhart in its fell swoop, with the result that the Republicans present their candidate for governor William E. Lee of Long Prairie.

The fight between these two has come fully up to advance notices. The governor was on the defensive throughout, and nothing has been plainer than the truth of the remark frequently heard that it was "not so much pro-Lee, as anti-Eberhart," that was doing the business. To this feeling the Lee forces contributed heavily. They made a hard and aggressive and often vicious fight upon the governor's personality and environments, and while manifestly this kind of fight hurt the governor, no doubt it also contributed considerably to the very manifest lack of enthusiasm for Mr. Lee. Those who wage a hard personal fight often suffer, by reaction, as much as those whom they assail.

It has been a memorable fight, not paralleled since the famous battle between the late Judge Collins and Robert C. Dunn just ten years ago; and Governor Eberhart, after serving two terms and more than half of another term, goes down to defeat as a result of it. He and his friends made a gallant and stubborn fight, but so much poison was spread by the fight of two years ago, when the opposition was divided among five candidates, that it was uphill work and, as the result shows, futile work.

Anyway, the battle is over, and if it leaves wounds slow to heal, and a bitter taste that does not quickly pass away, that is only what is to be expected from a fight of that character.

The Democrats seem not to have furnished surprises. They appear to have nominated as their candidate for governor Congressman Winfield Scott Hammond of St. James, despite the fact that he was not in the state at any time during the campaign, as he deemed it his duty to remain in Washington upholding the hands of President Wilson in his splendid fight for social and economic justice and for fair play for great and small. Mr. Hammond's conduct during this campaign should be a complete assurance to every citizen that if he is elected governor he will apply himself to the duties of that office as zealously and with as conspicuous ability as he has applied himself to the duties of a congressman.

Chief interest rested in the Republican contests, so returns from the Democratic primaries are slow. However, the indications are that Mr. Hammond has been nominated, and if he has been the Democracy of Minnesota presents a candidate of whom it may well be proud, and a man of whom, as governor, the entire state of Minnesota will be proud.

Congressman Miller has been renominated for congress by a substantial majority, though Senator James P. Boyle put up a plucky and vigorous fight against him. Mr. Miller's victory is unquestionably due to the fact that he has been wise enough to vote with the Democratic administration on many of its policies, and thus in accord with the sentiment of his district.

There was little interest in the Republican contests for minor state offices, but the incumbents have won where there is an incumbent. The three-cornered fight for the state auditorship and the four-cornered contest for railroad and warehouse commissioner are not decided at this writing.

Definite results on the legislative and county offices, though they will be clear by the time this appears, are not now available. However, wherever there is a fight for one of these offices two men are nominated, leaving the real fight to be waged before the November election.

The primary fight over, we believe that the people will be grateful for a rest before the election campaign is taken up.

At last the pessimists have found a weak place in the crop report. They figure there will be only enough wheat to give every man, woman and child two loaves of bread a day for the next year. So now we can go ahead and worry.

THE SCHOOL BOARD AND SOCIAL CENTERS.

The school board has the laugh on those who have been worrying for fear it would prove hostile to the social center movement.

It approves the movement, and last night showed its earnest disposition to forward it in every practical way.

This is no surprise to The Herald. From the first, it found it impossible to believe that the school board was opposed to social centers, or to feel any doubt whatever that its attitude would be friendly and its action helpful.

Anyway, congratulations to the school board on its breadth and public spirit and progressiveness.

Meanwhile, where is the June bride?

DULUTH AS A HOST.

Duluth enjoys having visitors. There's no possible doubt about that.

It likes to see conventions and delegations come to town, and it revels in the thought of visitors singly, in couples or in droves.

But does it go beyond mere passive enjoyment? Does it warm up and extend the glad hand and let its callers realize the warmth of its feelings? On the whole, it does pretty well at that—officially.

But there is a growing impression that individually its citizens are inclined to leave greetings to official hands, and to content themselves with mere static enjoyment when they really ought to make their pleasure dynamic, in a way that will impress visitors with the character of Duluth's hospitality. The visitors won't know we're glad to see them unless we get out and say so and show it.

For instance, Saturday Duluth is going to entertain the members of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce. Preparations for an official welcome are prospering finely. What are individuals planning to do about it?

There's a chance for them, especially for those of them who own automobiles. The reception committee wants to give the visitors an auto ride, and of course that ought to be done because that's the best way to show them the city.

One pretty reliable test of Duluth's hospitality will be the number of automobiles that will be offered for use on this occasion. A good many are needed, and the committee has issued a call for volunteers.

It will be interesting to watch the returns.

Illinois' banking laws are getting some more advertising.

STATE ARBITRATION.

The Massachusetts state board of arbitration has settled two protracted and disastrous strikes.

It did this by submitting a plan of settlement on which the parties to these two conflicts could agree.

It has no power to enforce its rulings. All it can do is to investigate the controversy, and to find if it can a possible common ground on which the parties can stand together in peace. If the board's findings appeal to the public sense of justice and fair play, public opinion helps to give weight and authority to those findings.

It is interesting to note this successful operation of public arbitration, and to hear that this is by no means its first triumph in Massachusetts.

Minnesota has a state board of arbitration and conciliation, too.

Did anybody ever hear of any triumphs of its making?

Not long ago Duluth was paralyzed for days by a street railway strike. Surely there was a chance for the state board of arbitration to perform a great service for the public. The Herald called attention to the existence of such a board, hoping that it might act. It didn't. It never does act.

It is this because it was appointed by the same governor who a year ago vetoed bills providing for the public regulation of public utility corporations?

The man with nothing else to do can amuse himself by reducing the candidates' declarations to statements of fact.

Historic Lies Nailed

From the Chicago Record-Herald.

If all the historic lies of the world were to be corrected and all the liars put in the pillory, who would be sufficient for the job?

Our American lies are numerous and rampant. From the cherry tree and hatchet story may be reckoned primus inter pares; but there are lots more that crowd it closely. There is the Connecticut blue laws horror; it, too, like the other, was started by a dominie. It is sheer falsehood, yet it has probably done more harm than any other lie for all time, though it does not deserve it any more than Virginia. Then there is the yarn about Thomas Jefferson's "democratic similitude" in riding on horseback all alone to the capital to be installed as president, trying to get the mud to the door of the capitol. There is not a word of truth in it, nor the slightest excuse for its existence. Yet there it is in history, as chipper as a bluejay on the top rail of the mythical fence, and likely to be believed by uncounted generations of the faithful.

Talking about cherry trees, there's that Appomattox apple tree, one of the biggest taken on record. "Miles O'Reilly" laid it out, though without malice aforethought, in a lying and haunting campaign ballad in 1865, and Roscoe Conkling carried it over into 1880, when he quoted the ballad in his speech nominating Grant for a third cup of presidential office. Then a few years ago it was supposed to glorify and apotheosize it, when Woodrow Wilson, then governor of New Jersey, was invited to make the address at the planting of a new apple tree on the east side of the old one. The old one having been cut down and manufactured into relics. It is said that there are enough such relics in existence, all these apples, to make a bushel under which Lee surrendered to Grant, to make the biggest tree that ever towered in a California grove.

But with plain truth is there never was any such tree. There was an apple orchard at Appomattox Court House, and Lee and his staff were camped in or near it when Col. Babcock went to escort the Confederate commander to his meeting place with Grant. The truth is that there never was any such tree. The American flag has likewise been the object of many misstatements. The worst of these, of course, is the discreditable and insulting tale about its having been designed from the coat of arms of the Washington family. When, as a matter of fact, it was the direct descendant, in the second generation, of the British ensign. More anachronisms. There is, for example, the widely known painting of "Washington Crossing the Delaware" in which the flag is shown with thirteen stars. There was no such flag at the time. The flag displayed on that night, and on Christmas, 1776, and the flag of the Stars and Stripes are displayed on the walls of the White House. The river was crossed at Christmas, 1776, and the flag of the Stars and Stripes are displayed on the walls of the White House.

There are other historic paintings, too, which misrepresent the flag. There is the famous painting of the "Battle of New Orleans," in which the flag is shown with thirteen stars. There was no such flag at the time. The flag displayed on that night, and on Christmas, 1776, and the flag of the Stars and Stripes are displayed on the walls of the White House.

Doubt About Dreadnaughts

Editorial in the New York Evening Post.

From England comes the gratifying news that a foremost British naval authority, Admiral Sir Percy Scott, has come out against the building of battleships, 18,000 tons, on the Pacific grounds, but because in his judgment their day is over. It is the victory of the submarine which he reluctantly proclaims, for this is the officer who has long been the champion of the British navy, and given the heavy gun advantage in the duel between surface and submerged vessels. He declares that armor and gun alike have given way before the submarine, and that every type of craft must eventually be given way before the underwater boat. Airships, aeroplanes and submarines will constitute the fleets of the future, and his opinion has been even as far as to say that the admiralty was wasting the country's money if it continued to expend the money on battleship construction.

It is devoutly to be hoped that naval experts in other countries will bring out the same conclusion. The navy is an accepted naval theory, or to the profession. In naval matters experts are much like sheep. When a leader is followed, he is followed. The world was ready to imperish itself to follow suit. When she produced a turbine battleship, turbines became the rage; her battleship-cruisers were at once imitated by all of Europe, if not by the United States. Now, we admit that to produce a Diesel engine battleship tomorrow every designer in every navy department would have to be a genius. But what is the use of that? We are not averse to a Diesel engine battleship. Now, we admit that to produce a Diesel engine battleship tomorrow every designer in every navy department would have to be a genius. ## Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—William J. Spillman is the father confessor of the R. F. D. He has a bigger acquaintance on rural free delivery routes than any man in the United States. And those who know him look on him as a sort of helping hand society, so that he is both well and popularly known. He dispenses more advice each week than all the mothers' clubs and Ladies' Home Journal department editors combined.

Spillman is the chief of the office of farm management in the bureau of agriculture. It all sounds inconspicuous enough. But Spillman gets more mail than the president of the United States. His province is to answer questions. He knows more than any man in the country about how to make the Farm Pay. And so he doesn't run a farm, but tells others how. There may be others who know just as much as Spillman about how to run a farm in a given locality, but Spillman knows just what to do in any part of the whole country, shut your eyes, and jab a pin into any place on the map, and you happen to be in a rural free delivery territory. Spillman could go there, take charge of the place, and make it pay a profit.

From every state of the Union thousands of questions pour in on Spillman. He has a staff of about 300 assistants to help him get out the answers. A man reads some where that if he gets a few acres and cultivates the ground "intensively" and raises squabs and mushrooms in the cellar, he will become extremely rich in about two years. He follows the directions on the package, so to speak, and at the end of two years he hasn't even enough money to buy a limousine car to take his produce to market in. The thing to do then is to write to Spillman and ask what is wrong with his system. If he gives reasonably complete data, Spillman can set him right.

No matter what the question is, whether it's about crop rotation, arid soil, or how to muffle a hydraulic ram, how to rearrange fields to save the maximum number of footsteps, or marketing guinea pigs, Spillman has an answer ready. About the only proposition he hasn't been able to unravel right off the reel came in the other day. A man in the Middle West wrote this picture:

"My son has returned from the Philippines after an absence of two years and while there he got married and also bought a small-sized monkey. His wife seems like an estimable young woman, and the monkey is a right cute little thing. It knows a number of amusing tricks, too, but we have very little use for a monkey. Where can I exchange the monkey for a nice young pig?"

It is a dull one at Spillman's office when he doesn't have a dozen or a score of callers who have come in person to grasp his hand and thank him for advice that turned the trick. A couple of years ago Spillman received a letter from a man out in Indiana who wanted to dispose of his eighty-acre farm and move to town to take charge of a dry lake, because he was anxious to make more money. He told all about the farming operations over a period of a great many years and said he didn't seem able to profit by the business. Spillman quickly perceived that practically everything the man had been doing was wrong. He planted the wrong things in the right place, sold his crops at the wrong time, and so on. Spillman mapped out a course of action for the farmer, and sent it to him, at the same time advising him to stick to the farm. That was two years ago.

The other day the man dropped into Spillman on a visit. He called up Spillman from the highest priced hotel in town and asked him to have lunch with him. Spillman found him in comfortable rooms, accompanied by his wife and daughter. All three were neat, almost fashionably dressed, and he had a prosperous-to-the-menu-bour air. "You don't look like a man dependent on draying for a living," remarked Spillman.

"No, and thanks to your advice I'm not," replied the man. "I've still got the farm, and I've made more money in the last two years than I made in all the rest of my life. We're doing a little sight-seeing now, and you're one of the sights we all wanted to see most. Because if it hadn't been for you we wouldn't be here."

"Likes Them Both." Ely Miner: Among the good Democrats, Harris Bennett of Duluth stands among the best, and the Miner begs leave to congratulate him on his appointment as collector of customs at his home port. He succeeds a very able man in the person of Lee Willcuts, whom political exigencies have displaced.

An Excellent Wish. Princeton Union: L. M. Willcuts, for seventeen years collector of customs at Duluth, has turned over the office to his successor, Harris Bennett. Mr. Willcuts was easily the most popular federal official in Minnesota. The best we can wish Mr. Bennett is that he will leave the office with as good a record as the man he succeeded.

It's Cool in Duluth. Cokate Enterprise: Duluth minister Sunday declared from his pulpit that the old idea of punishment had passed away and that, in his opinion, "hell fire" was only a superstition. Thinking thought with summer coming on.

Let's Hope So, Anyway. Hibbing Tribune: The Duluth Herald calls attention to the proposed amendment to the state constitution providing for the recall of appointive officers, labels it preposterous and very sensibly declares that the governor should be made responsible for his appointees. If he does not appoint the proper kind of officials, recall the governor.

The Herald's call to the electorate of the state to vote down this proposed amendment to the constitution will doubtless meet with a ready response.

Something to Bust About. Hibbing Mesaba Ore: Duluth has put the kibosh on the brewery outfit of mission, and it is at least one thing to the credit of Hickie.

A Hope Realized. Tower News: Dr. Hovis, a Duluth divine, is quoted as saying that "Hell fire is not literal." Many of the eminent divine has placed himself in line for a medal and a monument.

Better Business Outlook

Railway Age Gazette: Everybody in news has been as blue as indigo for many months regarding the business situation. The Railway Age Gazette has been as blue as anybody else. It is our opinion, however, that the time has arrived when reason suggests that optimism should supplant pessimism in these two great lines of industry. A combination of conditions is developing which, if nothing happens to interfere with the development, will make inevitable a great improvement in the situation of both the railway companies and the railway supply companies. The conditions referred to are: 1. The government crop report for June, which is the most favorable that has been made in years.

2. The fact that a promise of a large increase in railway traffic, but there is also a promise of an improvement in the situation with respect to railway rates. 3. Finally, it would seem that the railways of the entire country are bound to have a decision rendered by the supreme court of the United States on June 8 in the Shreveport case. In this decision the court will hold that where state rates are so fixed by any state authority as to work a discrimination against interstate commerce, the interstate commerce commission may remove the discrimination even by increasing the state rates. The prospects of a large increase in railway traffic, and of the harmonizing of state and interstate regulation under the control of the interstate commerce commission, can hardly fail to have an early and beneficial effect on the railway and the railway supply business.

On Going Back. It is far wiser never to return. But store within the heart the pictured happiness.

Of long days gone, when Youth a glimmer shrew. On all it met and galled with, and knew.

To hold as treasure rate and gloat and crye. The radiant past, and ever to refrain From the vain hope to live those days again.

Of winging o'er the world such dreams are sped. But better longing heart than memories forfeited.

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest. Letters must not exceed 150 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

CHANCE TO RECOGNIZE HENRY TRUELSEN'S SERVICES.

To the Editor of The Herald: The parking of the city grounds at the Lakewood pumping station and the proposed erection therein of a public fountain, alike suggests and presents an opportunity for the people of Duluth to give, in tangible form, and in a very appropriate manner, deserving recognition of the services of their former mayor, Henry Truelsen, in relation to the establishment of our present water system.

A statue of this sturdy pioneer emblematic of conveying "pure and wholesome" water from the Great Lakes to the inhabitants of the city, would give substantial expression to a gratitude now resting only, though generously, in the heart of the individual.

No reward could be more fittingly or deservedly given to our former citizen and none would be him by more highly cherished than this beautiful tribute of remembrance.

And it is with your kind indulgence that I embrace this opportunity to direct the attention of the people to the propriety in time and occasion, for paying, in a public manner this token of their gratitude. Yours very truly,

Duluth, June 15. S. F. SNIVELY.

GATHOLICS SHOW LARGE INCREASE

Prussia May Have Catholic Majority in a Few Generations.

Berlin, June 17.—That Prussia will have a Catholic majority in two or three generations is the conclusion of two writers, who separately have been studying the statistics of population. In 1875 out of every 1,000 children born in wedlock, 603 had Protestant parents, but by 1911 this number had sunk to 515. On the other hand, the number of children of pure Catholic parents rose in the same years from 329 to 408. The conclusion is drawn that if the movement of the past thirty-six years continues unbroken for another period of equal length, the purely Catholic births will then be 478, as compared with only 438 Protestant. These figures leave out of account the children of mixed marriages and those of Jewish parentage.

It is interesting to note that the percentage of Jewish births has fallen more sharply than that of the Protestants; where there were 11.1 Jewish births per 1,000 in 1875 there are only 6.2 in 1911. The school statistics of Prussia strikingly confirm the movement described above. From 1886 to 1911 the gain of Protestant pupils in the common schools was 809,000, whereas the Catholic pupils gained 820,000.

In explaining the cause of this movement described above, from 1886 to 1911 the gain of Protestant pupils in the common schools was 809,000, whereas the Catholic pupils gained 820,000.

HEALTH TALKS

William Brady, M.D.

The Last of the Molars

OUR teeth are crumbling away even faster than we may imagine. Dr. Eugene S. Talbot, a noted stomach atologist, which in plain English means a combination medical man and dental expert—has tabulated the reports of thousands of examinations of the mouth and discovered that 47 per cent of adults over 25 years of age are shy from one to all four third molars, or "wisdom teeth." In other words the human jaw is undergoing a rapid process of evolution.

If one compares the facial angle—the angle made by the line of the face with that of the jaw—in profiles of the different races, the gradual recession of the lower jaw in the profiles becomes apparent as the scale of racial standard is followed upward from the lowest human type, the Malay, to the pre-eminent white man. The Apollo Belvidere profile, deemed the perfect face, shows a right angle. Some faces recede still more, so that the weak chin is completely overshadowed by the bulging frontal eminence—and these are the very people who have a struggle cutting their wisdom teeth.

Mongolians live almost exclusively on vegetarian diet, principally rice. This requires thorough mastication, hence the Mongolian jaw remains prominent. Negroes in Africa live on a natural diet; in America they partake of the artificialities and refinements in our national diet, and the negro type of facial angle varies little from the average white man's profile.

Evolution of the jaw, therefore, explains why we experience such difficulty in cutting wisdom teeth. There is scarcely room in the jaw for the third molars to erupt; indeed, many of these useless teeth remain buried in the jaw bone—impacted, as the dentists say—and cause all sorts of inveterate movement it is pointed out that Protestant population of Prussia is much smaller than the Catholic, and it is also much more largely represented in the big cities—and it is precisely among the wealthier classes and in the urban population that the birth rate has declined most sharply.

ATHLETICS AMONG GERMAN STUDENTS

Rapid Growth of Interest Ascribed to Influence of Emperor.

Berlin, June 17.—The growing interest in athletic sports in Germany finds a fresh illustration in the opening by the emperor on May 26 of an extensive field for sports, to be used solely by the 14,000 students of Berlin university, the Charlottenburg Technical university, and the other educational institutions of Berlin. The emperor and neuralgia, which defies diagnosis and treatment until the X-ray discloses the entombed molar, and the surgeon's chisel removes it.

"The strength of an organ is determined by its use." Our molar teeth get too little exercise. We deputize the great mills to grind our food for us instead of doing the work with our own grinders. And the mills remove a very vital portion of the staff of life, namely, the outer mineral layer of the wheat kernel, offering us the denatured, refined, colorless substitute, which neither needs nor is worth the trouble of masticating, since it furnishes no lime phosphate for the teeth themselves. No wonder we are anemic, dyspeptic, nervous. Could we hope to be anything else on our molycoddle diet?

Questions and Answers.

X. Y. Z. inquires: Is there any cure for goiter and what is the result of it, also can it be inherited? Would it be advisable to use iodine?

ANSWER.

(1) Yes. (2) One kind of goiter (exophthalmic) seriously affects the general health; the other kind (cystic or simple) is merely unsightly and locally troublesome. (3) The tendency to disease of the thyroid seems to run in some families. (4) Don't use iodine without the advice of your doctor.

C. E. K. writes: Which is the more nutritious and healthful, white bread or brown bread?

ANSWER.

White bread contains a slightly larger proportion of available energy, and is more digestible for some persons. Brown bread—or better, whole wheat bread—is more healthful for the average person, in my opinion. Let your own individual medical adviser be the judge in your own case.

the emperor attended the dedication, and the Prussian minister of education and public worship delivered the principal address. He described the rapid growth of interest in athletics among German students, which he attributed to the impulse given by the emperor himself. A great change, he said, had come over the students; sports and games, walking and rowing had become universal. The grounds, he added, had been given by the Prussian state, which also bore the expense of clearing them and erecting the necessary house. The grounds are in the Grunewald, the large forest lying half an hour's ride to the west of Berlin.

FAVOR SOCIAL CENTER WORK

Board of Education Indorses Continuation of Activity.

City Survey Left to a Committee; Await Legal Advice.

The social center work in Duluth is now a permanent factor in the educational system of the city, at least as far as the board of education is concerned.

At a meeting at the Central high school last night, all lines of discord were apparently smoothed out and the members of the board smilingly and happily indorsed the work and decided to have it continued. The board expressed the belief that its members had been misunderstood and that the public was wrong in its impression that social center work had been severely criticized by them.

Another revelation was that Principal Foster and Miss Cullin agree in almost every particular on social center work, and after the former had read a paper giving his views on the work Miss Cullin said that she was endeavoring to work along the lines set forth in his communication.

Foster makes suggestions. Mr. Foster suggested that the principal, under the direction of the superintendent of the board of education, should have charge of the building and be responsible for the discipline, thus leaving the social center director free to devote herself to organizing the various activities.

Organization he said should be prerequisite to use of the building, and night school work should be a prominent feature. Classes on manual training, domestic science, commercial work and other activities that require the use of the school equipment, should be conducted by some of the teachers of these departments in the school so that they could be held responsible for the care and use of the equipment. These teachers should be paid either by the city or board of education, thus putting it upon a business basis.

The Dance Question.

"It is thought necessary or advisable," said Mr. Foster, "to make dancing a feature of the recreation, and other activities that require the use of the school equipment, should be conducted by some of the teachers of these departments in the school so that they could be held responsible for the care and use of the equipment. These teachers should be paid either by the city or board of education, thus putting it upon a business basis."

The matter of the city survey was discussed and referred to a committee. Wm. Leche finance committee was instructed to find out if it has a legal right to appropriate $5 for that purpose. Police lieutenants, Dr. John W. Hoffman, pastor of the First M. E. church, and Dr. J. H. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church, were asked to conduct the survey and that if the schools were to be included in the work that the board would have to make an appropriation of at least $400.

GOVERNMENT SUES FOR $50,000,000 LAND

Southern Pacific and Standard Oil Are Among Defendants.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 17.—Suit was filed by the Federal government in the United States district court here yesterday to recover oil lands valued at more than $50,000,000 in Kern county, California, from the Southern Pacific Railroad company, the Standard Oil company and fifty other corporations and individuals. The area is 107,999 acres.

This is one of the series of suits in equity instituted by the government to recover lands which it maintains were fraudulently obtained by the railroad company in violation of the provisions of an act of congress, which was amended by a joint resolution adopted in 1870. The act of congress in 1868 granted large tracts of agricultural lands to aid the building of transcontinental railroads, but withheld mineral-bearing lands.

The government alleges that fraud was perpetrated by the railroad agents, knowing that the land involved was mineral-bearing and therefore exempted by the act of congress.

SOO HEAD SAYS OUTLOOK IS GOOD

Pennington Is Encouraged After Trip Over the West.

Edmund Pennington, president of the Soo Line, is optimistic regarding the drop outlook and the business prospects for next fall.

In the course of an interview given out at Minneapolis on his return from a trip over the West, he said: "We have the finest crop prospects in my experience. It means big business for us in the fall if it holds up, and there is less shoddy farming. Good soil cultivation and crop rotation has done wonders. The big crop is going to make the farmers buy heavily in the fall, if they get the grain in safely, and general business should consequently be very lively in the Northwest."

INSULT POPULAR CRIME IN GERMANY

Total of More Than 224,000 Cases During Last Year.

Berlin, June 17.—Insult, or belittling, as it is termed in Germany, is the most popular crime in the Fatherland. This is strikingly shown by statistics of such cases for 1913, just issued. The report is that of the so-called "Schiedsrichter," official peace-maker before whom such cases must be brought in order to effect a compromise before recourse to the courts is had. The report shows a total of more than 224,000 cases for the year. Thousands of these cases were undoubtedly due to most trivial causes. Newspaper reports of insult proceedings show cases like the following: Man fined because, when a policeman in citizen's clothing declared himself to be an officer, the culprit replied: "You look like it."

Woman, wife of a striker, imprisoned because, as a group of strikers were passing, she "spat contemptuously."

Striker, fined for saying "Pew," as a strike-breaker, after passing a policeman. Police lieutenant, fined for saying to a young man in the station house: "Keep still, green youth."

Socialist, fined for sending Socialist campaign literature to a Prussian policeman.

Landrat (a local official of great power in Prussia), fined for insulting a young magistrate by declaring that he would not give his testimony "to such a youth."

Public authorities, fined for insulting a man, time convicted panditer and petty thief as "the crown witness," in allusion to the fact that a brother editor had been convicted in another case upon this man's testimony.

SPENCER'S DEATH SENTENCE AFFIRMED.

Springfield, Ill., June 17.—The judgment of the lower court in sentencing Harry Spencer to death for the murder of Mrs. Mildred Rexroat, has been affirmed by the supreme court.

Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, a dancing teacher in Chicago from whom Spencer had taken lessons in tango steps, was lured by him to a lonely road near Wayne, Du Page county, and there killed by a blow of a hammer. At the trial in the courthouse in Wheaton, Ill., Spencer acted in a manner which led the prosecution to insist that he was feigning insanity.

He repeatedly declared that he wanted to be hanged, and objected to the formality of a trial. After the verdict of death had been read and he was locked in the county jail, Spencer became a model prisoner.

Spencer was sentenced to be hanged last December, but the execution was stayed to permit an appeal to the supreme court.

Shortly after his arrest Spencer talked freely to the Chicago police and confessed that he had murdered more than twenty persons. Two days were spent by the police in taking him in an automobile to the places where he said he had killed different persons. Some of his confessions were shown to the jury before he was turned over to the Du Page county authorities on the charge of having killed Mrs. Rexroat.

Since the trial and his subsequence to a model prisoner, court officials have declared their belief that his confessions were part of an attempt to evade punishment by feigning insanity.

"MEN AND WOMEN."

Dr. W. T. Sherman Culp Gives First of Three Lectures.

Dr. W. T. Sherman Culp lectured on "Men and Women" at Memorial hall in the courthouse last evening. It was the first of a series of three lectures to be given in Duluth by Dr. Culp. He will speak at 8:30 this afternoon on "The Happy Child" and on "Those Who Win" at 8:15 this evening at Memorial hall.

At last night's meeting the address of welcome was made by Mayor W. I. Prince and two vocal numbers were given by Charles Young.

"Matter, force and mind," said Dr. Culp, "constitute man's inheritance. Our thought is valuable in proportion to the readiness and effectiveness with which it transforms things as they are to things as they should be for the service of mankind. In this age of science, men and women are measured by their thinking—one's living is never higher than his thinking."

"Thought is the expression of the human soul in the various forms of art, tone, color and rhythm. Art is education in action, and education the evolution of knowledge into experience. Our own lives are transformed or deformed by our own thinking and civilization is what thought makes it."

GIVE DIVISION OF MASTER

Two Chief Officers of Stordstad Dispute Kendall's Story.

Take Issue With Skipper of Lost Empress of Ireland.

Quebec, June 17.—The captain and the first officer of the collier Stordstad testified today at the Empress of Ireland wreck inquiry, and contradicted in several particulars the statements made on the stand yesterday by Capt. Kendall of the lost liner.

The first officer, Alfred Tuffeneau, who was in command of the Collier when the accident occurred, insisted that there was no explosion and no sheet of flame from the side of the Empress when she was struck, as Capt. Kendall had described. Tuffeneau swore that all he saw were sparks such as might have been expected from the impact of steel on steel.

The first officer admitted he had not obeyed instructions in failing to call his captain below when the fog shut down just before the collision. He said he believed that the Stordstad had the right of way, and that he was entitled to keep his course at reduced speed, even though he had signalled previously to the Empress that he had stopped. He blamed the current for swinging the ship, it was the speed of the Empress, which caused the Stordstad's bow to strike the side of the passenger vessel.

Tuffeneau said he did not know whether the master of the Stordstad was a bonus for speed with coal for the Dominion Coal company. He said that he saw the ship Anderson of the Stordstad was sitting in the rear of the court, was asked about it and he replied that the ship was unloaded at night at Montreal.

Time Was Important. "Time was apparently important," commented the attorney Tuffeneau, "that the Stordstad was navigating in the fog for one hour and half prior to first seeing the masthead lights of the Empress. When the lights came into view, he said, the Empress was about six miles away and one hour and half prior to the collision the Stordstad was pursuing a course across the collier's bow."

WASHINGTON POLICY TOWARD MEXICO MAY CHANGE, SAYS RUMOR

News Received at Niagara Falls Causes Belief to Grow.

Rebel Gunboat Tampico Sunk—Villa Denies Clash With Chief.

PREDICT PEACE.
Mexico City, June 17.—High officers of the Mexican government stated today that matters of great importance for the republic would be discussed at the extra session of the chamber of deputies, which would result in a complete restoration of peace.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 17.—On word from the Washington government depends the next move in mediation. Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann telegraphed early today a 2,000 word report of their conference yesterday at Buffalo with Rafael Zubizaran and Luis Cabrera, authorized representatives of Gen. Carranza in the United States.

The rebels lost ten killed and ten wounded, the Federalists none. In despair at the outcome, Capt. Malpico and his chief engineer, after fighting with great bravery against heavy odds, committed suicide.

A general feeling here that the United States may inaugurate a distinct change of policy has been produced by the uncompromising attitude of Messrs. Zubizaran and Cabrera, dispatches telling of friction between Generals Carranza and Villa, reports of a rupture in Concord between Governor Maytorena and Gen. Obregon and of Constitutionalists reversing on land and sea.

Huertistas Are Eager.
While mediation thus far has accomplished little, no agreement on personnel for a new provisional government having been reached, the Huertista delegates showed great anxiety today to have the conference continued. The serious situation in Northern Mexico has stimulated the mediators to renewed efforts to have the American government reach some understanding with the Huertista delegates by which at least the international differences could be settled.

Emilio Rabasa, head of the Huertista delegation, suggested that a neutral be proposed for the provisional presidency and that the United States accord recognition to him. Mr. Rabasa declared that a person of capacity and honesty would be chosen, and that as soon as the United States accorded the new president recognition, funds and arms could be obtained.

Rebel Gunboat Sunk.
On Board U. S. S. California, Mazatlan, Mex., June 16, by wireless via San Diego, Cal., June 17.—The Constitutionist gunboat Tampico was sunk today by the Federal gunboat Guerrero in twenty-two fathoms of water, leaving the Guerrero the sole surviving warship representing either faction on the west coast of Mexico. The battle began at 8:20 a. m. and lasted until noon.

The Guerrero is nearly twice the size of the Tampico and her ordnance is at least 50 per cent more powerful.

It is believed that the victorious Guerrero, now that she has destroyed the naval strength of the Constitutionallists on the west coast, will be able to greatly interfere with their siege operations against Mazatlan and even as far north as Guaymas.

Villa Denies Clash.
El Paso, Tex., June 17.—Gen. Villa, through his agents here, issued today a general denial that there had been any split between himself and Gen. Carranza. He said that the arrest of the Carranza officials at Juarez had been the result of a misinterpretation of orders on the part of Col. Thomas Ornelas, in charge of the Juarez garrison.

The bureau of information and telegraph office at Juarez, in control of Carranza, was forcibly taken over yesterday by the soldiers under Col. Thomas Ornelas, military commander of Juarez, and Villa supporter.

Just after the bureau of information announced to the American press the receipt of a message from the front above Zacatecas, Ornelas' soldiers entered the telegraph office and the bureau and ordered that no papers be touched.

An American was seated in the information bureau when the soldiers burst into the room. They ordered Perez Abreu, in charge of the bureau, not to touch a paper. The same soldiers, in person, command of the Juarez commander, shortly before had taken over supervision of the telegraph office adjoining.

OLD RESIDENT DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Martha Olund Is Summoned; Was Seemingly in Good Health.

Mrs. Martha Lisa Olund, 73 years old, a resident of Duluth for the past sixteen years, died suddenly last evening at her residence, 315 South Fifteenth avenue. She had been in apparently good health and her death came unexpectedly.

The deceased was born in Frantia, Sweden, on July 25, 1840, and she came to this country with her husband in 1880. The latter died here several years ago. She is survived by five sons and three daughters, who are: Mrs. C. B. Nimmo, Duluth; Mrs. M. J. Mankato; Miss Anna J. Olund, Duluth; Charles A. Olund, Long Prairie, Minn.; and Peter, Otto, Robert and Emil Olund, all of Duluth.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the residence and interment will be at the Forest Hill cemetery.

Property Owners Must Co-operate.
The co-operation of all property owners will be necessary if the low ground on the lower side of Michigan street between Seventeenth and Twenty-first avenues west is to be filled, according to Dr. H. E. Webster, director of public health. He states that the bottom of the depression is about two feet lower than the sewer and that a fill of at least that depth will have to be made before drainage facilities can be effective. He has looked over the situation with several of the property owners and they have expressed their willingness to make the improvement, if it will save others in a short time. He says that the complaints against the place are well founded and that he hopes it will not be long before the condition is improved.

Low Bidders at State Land Sale.
Primary Election Defracts Interest From June Auction of School Lands.

Owing to the fact that yesterday was primary election day, the monthly sale of school and other state lands in St. Louis county was a rather small one. Only a few bidders showed up and little interest was taken. About 500 acres were disposed of at prices ranging from $5 to $10 an acre. The average price was $6 an acre. Theodore Nelson of St. Paul, manager of the land department was in charge of the sale.

Wholesale Grocers Are in Session.
Duluth Houses Well Represented at Annual Convention at Minneapolis.

Duluth wholesalers are well represented at the annual convention of the National Wholesale Grocers' association, which began at Minneapolis today and will continue tomorrow and Friday.

A number of important questions will be brought up for discussion so that deep interest is expected to be infused into the proceedings.

Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Chicago is the program to deliver an address tomorrow and Robert J. Roussin, chairman of the purchase and discount committee, will present his report.

Addresses will also be delivered by Franklin MacVeagh, former secretary of the United States treasury department, and by Forrest Clissey, a Chicago author.

The following representatives of Duluth houses left for Minneapolis last evening to attend the convention: R. A. Hoar and E. Granger of the Stone-Ordean-Wells company, R. H. Redman and J. L. Leming of the Gowen-Lanning-Brown company, Peter Elmon of the Twohy-Elmon Mercantile company and C. E. Rust of the Rust-Parker-Martin company.

Ballots Ready for Contest.
More Than Sixty Contestants Enter for the Shriner Event.

Ballot boxes for the Shrine contest, one of the principal features of the Shrine's midsummer carnival, to be held at the Thirtieth avenue west grounds during the week of June 29, are being placed about the city today and votes can now be cast for the sixty odd contestants that have already entered.

Votes cost one penny each and the money must be placed in envelopes bearing the contestant's name. These envelopes are being given out by Leon Elberhardt, grand chairman of William B. Jarvis, promoter for the Tom W. Allen show, which is to furnish the amusement for the evening.

The contestants may also be entered there. Tickets for the country store, where the $1,000 automobile is to be given away free on July 4, the last day of the carnival, will be on sale today and are reported as selling very fast.

ALL QUIET AGAIN IN BUTTE TROUBLE

Opposing Factions of Miners Hold Separate Meetings.

Washington, June 17.—Senator Myers and representatives Stout and Evans of Montana told President Wilson today that they had received word from Governor Stewart and others in touch with the Butte, Mont., mine situation, saying that there was no immediate prospect of any more fighting, or present need for Federal troops.

Opposing Factions Meet.
Butte, Mont., June 17.—Opposing factions of the Butte local No. 1, Western Federation of Miners, held separate meetings here last night. The meeting of the conservatives, now referred to here as the "remnant of the Western Federation," was attended by twenty-one men. The seceders from the union had in the neighborhood of 400 at their meeting, according to the committee. The meeting place of the conservatives, a blacksmith shop of one of the local mines, had been announced to the miners.

The seceders announced that the polls would be opened from 10 a. m. to midnight today to vote on the question of showing cards before miners can enter the mines. The refusal of the miners to show their cards was one of the causes of the riots on Saturday last.

Although the streets were crowded, the city was quiet.

FLYER WRECK UNUSUAL ONE

Northern Pacific Winnipeg Train's Close Call West of Crookston.

Refrigerator Car and Six Coaches Leave Track; One Person Hurt.

Crookston, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The wreck of Northern Pacific Train No. 13, the Twin City Winnipeg flyer, at 5 o'clock last evening, one mile east of Davidson, a small town twelve miles west of Crookston, was the most spectacular as well as the most remarkable that has happened in this section in years. The special refrigerator car left the track first, just behind the engine, as did all of the six coaches behind it, and were crumpled up, with the exception of the diner, only the first trucks of which left the rails, and the Edmonton special coach of the Grand Trunk, which held to the rails.

The only man seriously injured was Brakeman Hagel of Staples, who was hurled against the back of a seat and had three ribs broken, the balance of the passengers and train crew escaping with a few minor bruises. Conductor Clark of St. Paul, one of the oldest conductors of the Northern Pacific service, in charge of the train, was bruised, but not seriously, and many passengers received a bad shaking up, some of the women going into hysterics, but order was soon restored, and fortunately there did not break out. The fruit car was completely demolished, and the rails for forty rods twisted up like rope. The tender of the engine turned completely over, and the engine turned half over. Engineer Gavin sticking to his post till the train came to a standstill. Within half an hour 100 automobiles were on the ground from Grand Forks and Crookston, a dozen physicians having rushed out expecting to find scores dead and injured, but there was little need of their services. Wrecking crews are at work on both ends of the train, but the tracks will not be cleared till some time tonight, all Northern Pacific trains running over the Great Northern tracks. The wreck is pronounced the most remarkable, in that there were no

WILLISTON, N. D., TO ENTERTAIN BANKERS

Duluth and Twin City Financiers Expected to Attend Meet.

Williston, N. D., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Arrangements are being perfected for entertaining the North Dakota Bankers' association which meets here July 1 and 2. In addition to the North Dakotans there will be several representatives from Twin City and Duluth, banks and one from Chicago and New York. There will also be a number of women in attendance and special entertainment will be provided for them.

Trip Over Irrigated Section. After the business sessions of the organization are completed a tour will be made through the irrigated section of Williams county and the larger coal mines will be inspected. The visitors will also be given a ride on the Missouri. The secretary sends word these promises of the largest meeting ever held in the state. This is the first meeting for this part of North Dakota.

Woman Chief Speaker.

Wimbleton, N. D., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Belle M. Spurr, one of first county school superintendents, will be the chief speaker at the meeting of old settlers of this county at Valley City, June 20. Arrangements have been completed for a big program and ample entertainment. The exercises will be held in the Valley City park on the Sheyenne river.

SELLS TIMBER HOLDINGS

Contact Copper Company Sells to Dollar Bay Lumber Company. Calumet, Mich., June 17.—F. W. Nichols, agent for the Contact Copper company, announce the sale to the Dollar Bay Lumber company of all of the timber holdings of the mining company. The tract includes fifty-nine acres, or 2,380 acres. It is estimated the land will cut about 14,000,000 feet of lumber.

The lumber company makes this purchase largely for the purpose of alling orders for mine timber. It is the biggest timber deal recorded since the beginning of the copper mine strike nearly a year ago and it is looked upon as a very healthy indication. The mining companies naturally shut off all orders for timber at the beginning of the strike and seem to have been working since that time with accumulated stocks. Now they are in the market for more timber and the fact not only shows that the mines are working at top production but that the

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT BY YOUNG BROTHER

Young Man Living Near Plummer Gets Bullet Through Stomach.

Thief River Falls, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clarence Folsom, aged 20, son of Martin Folsom, living about ten miles east of Plummer, on Clearwater river, has been taken to the hospital at Warren to be treated for a bullet wound through the hand and stomach. The shot was fired at noon, when a revolver went off in the hands of his 6-year-old brother. The boy's condition is reported quite serious.

Was Firing Revolver.

Clarence Folsom was firing the revolver in the farm granary and his brother, hearing the shot, rushed into the granary, and recognizing his son's injury, hurried for a doctor. The doctor said an operation was necessary and the boy was rushed to Warren in an automobile, where reports are that he will probably recover.

CATTLE-DESTROYING WOLF IS CAPTURED

"Club Foot" Terror to Stockmen, Roped and Killed in Bad Lands. Marmarth, N. D., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is joy among the cattlemen of both North Dakota and Montana over the capture of the "Club Foot," the deformed wolf that has probably killed hundreds of calves during the past ten years. The local stockmen had offered a reward of $100 to the man who would capture a wolf of this kind. Oscar Wood and Lee Gilmore captured the "Club Foot" near the corner of the Bad Lands. They were riding that section and coming through a draw found the wolf crouched on a recent kill.

Animal Is Roped.

The animal started to run and Gilmore finally turned him toward Woods, who succeeded in roping the animal. Gilmore got another half hitch on the animal and they succeeded in killing it. Neither man was armed. The wolf weighed 225 pounds and about two-thirds of one front foot was gone. It was probably out of a trap. The animal was at least ten or twelve years old.

BELTRAMI COUNTY IS PETITIONING

Asks Federal Authorities to Wait Pending Rehearing of Case. Bemidji, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Petitions asking Franklin E. Kane, secretary of the Interior and Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs, to take no action in the enforcement of the treaty of 1855, which prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors within a territory of 160,000 acres, of which this is a part, have been circulated here. The petitions ask that a chance be given for a rehearing before the supreme court of the United States.

It is understood that the rehearing argument will be that there are 7,000 Indians now living in the territory in the territory in which there are 400,000 white persons. When the original treaty was made, it is rumored that it will be argued, there were 90 per cent of the people of the territory Indians. Now there are not 2 per cent of the residents Indians, yet the non-Indian treaty acts are and do affect persons of free born American blood.

The Petition.

"We the undersigned citizens of Beltrami county do most earnestly request that the enforcement of the non-Indian treaty of 1855 be suspended until the personal rights of citizenship, which are enjoyed and which we have the right to enjoy in this territory and that the conditions of the territory do not warrant any such enforcement."

We, therefore, respectfully petition that no action be taken by the department of the interior or the commissioner of Indian affairs or other Federal department, until persons whose interest and rights of citizen-

CORNERSTONE LAID JUNE 13 FOR BISMARCK'S NEW HOSPITAL

ST. ALEXIUS HOSPITAL WHEN COMPLETED.

Bismarck, N. D., June 17.—Last Sunday Bishop Wiche and other clergymen with the usual ceremony laid the cornerstones of St. Alexius hospital which will be built here this year and which when completed will be one of the finest buildings of the kind in the Northwest. It will be of chocolate colored Hebron brick, trimmed in Bedford granite, and located on the old William property, which comprises the whole block of ground, bounded by Ninth, Tenth, Thayer and Rosser streets. It will cost about $100,000.

The building will consist of three wings, the central wing being five stories in height, and the two lateral wings four stories; construction is to be of brick and strictly fire-proof, and will be arranged to accommodate 100 patients, besides the many employees.

The most modern ideas of hospital construction and equipment are called for in the specifications and when completed this will be one of the finest institutions of its kind in the Northwest.

The front elevation with north and south wings is 185 feet and will face west, and extending back 128 feet, will be the east wing, this wing to be forty-eight feet in width. Sun porches will be off of each wing and each floor.

Ship are affected may have an opportunity to be heard.

CHARGE IS DISMISSED.

DULUTH WHITE SOX WIN EIGHTH STRAIGHT GAME

Cunningham Holds Fargo to Four Hits and Duluth Wins 4 to 2.

The Sturgeon Lake Lad Is Master of the Visitors
All the Way.

BY BRUCE.

Looking back over the path of our performances from the watchtower of yesterday's achievement it will be observed that the White Sox have won eight straight games and have worked from the lowly and odious cellar position to sixth place. Yesterday with Sturgeon Lake's first citizen in the pitching thill we won from Col. Bob Unglaub's men by the score of 4 to 2.

At all times was Sturgeon Lake's future mayor the master of the situation. During the sultry afternoon
George Austin Cunningham yielded but four hits. One of these blows was of the order of the scratch. Nine of the Fargo-Moorhead combination were retired by the whiff whiff route, and outside of the two rounds when the scores were counted not one of the visitors reached the promised land of third base. Citizens of Sturgeon Lake please read and rejoice.

During the days that yored George Austin Cunningham had speed and lots of hope. The hope of time has brought wisdom to George and a splitter and also a break on his fast
one. Yesterday George had his splitter breaking nicely and his fast one zipping. As the result of the aforementioned zipping and the energetic breaking of the spit ball, the enemy were rather fortunate in securing the two runs that were accumulated between three and five.

The game started with the first man up, a Mr. Wertz, of German extraction.
We take it was hit by George Austin Cunningham. Dennis Sullivan, of big brawny frame, came down and a throw wild on the offering. Weidel promptly sacrificed and the bases were loaded and only one more. Unglaub flew to Daddy Ford. A past ball permitted Teuton Wertz to come across with the first score. Doyle ended the round by whiffing. Pershing this round one lumps the obvious fact that the score of the visitors was accumulated without the aid of prodigious bludgeon labor.

Henry Brackett doubled in the domestic half and was forced at second by Edmunds. George Austin Cunningham hit an ineffective perfectly harmless offering down to Anderson and that diminutive gent in the paroxysm of enthusiasm heaved the pill so far over the venerable onion of Col. Unglaub that before the militia had rounded up the ball George was tying his shoe strings. Henry Brackett doubled to left center and two runs were in.

Collins singled to right field with one gone in the following round, stole second, went to third on Ford's infield out and then with Rockies absent stole home while Mr. De Rose calmly held the ball. She was a great afternoon.

Fargo's Last Stand.
Dr. Dennis Sullivan singled through the box in the seventh. The ball hit the glove of George Austin Cunningham and bounced out and then carried over to Daddy Ford. In the excitement of the moment Mr. Ford threw the ball over the clipped head of Mr. Croake and the runner rounded up at second. An infield out advanced the venerable Sullivan and then the venerable Unglaub singled to left field and the last run of the afternoon was in.

Thus do we see that the visitors earned but one of their runs and that we earned all of ours. During the last game the White Sox have been the busy workers in the mine of baseball.

Winona Defeats Red Sox
12 to 5; Five Pitchers
Are Used.

Winona defeated the Superior Red Sox by the score of 12 to 5 at Hlop park yesterday. Cummings started for the Sox and was speedily succeeded by Cyrus Augustus Dahlgren. Peggy Rhodes was called upon to finish the slugging party. Keller started for the champions and later gave way to Myers. The game was a slugfest which all the way through and the Winona aggregation proved vastly the better sluggers.

DULUTH vs. FARGO
Last Game Until June 22.

TAYLOR IS CHASED;
TEAM PLAYS HORSE.

Port William, Ont. June 17.—Manager
Kid Taylor of the Virginia team disputed the decisions of Umpire Claude Elliott so persistently in the game of last evening that he was chased from the field. Tony Faeth was also chased along with the manager.
After the Virginia players had a face of the game and the locals won by the score of 16 to 5. While Kramer for the home team was hit hard he kept the hits fairly well scattered. Wise and Freeman for home runs and Breckenridge hit the longest blow of the season into deep left.

GAME FROM FLICKERS.

Winnipeg, Man. June 17.—Before a crowd of 4,000 fans Winnipeg took yesterday's game from the Grand Forks team by the score of 3 to 1.
Dougan pitched great baseball and was given some brilliant support.
Snow made his first appearance of the season with the visitors and pitched effectively. The home team find-

YALE VARSITY CREW THAT WILL MEET HARVARD SOON

YALE VARSITY AND NICKALLS.
The Yale varsity crew will meet Harvard soon. Guy Nickalls, the English coach, is standing at the right. The young man in the dark sweater just in front of Nickalls is the son of Robert Appleton, who was a member of the Yale crew a good many years ago.

night Sweeney was the guest of honor at a reception in Cambridge. Both James and Crutcher, who pitched for Boston, were wild, but they kept the hits scattered in all but two innings.

Two Home Runs.
Brooklyn, June 17.—Cincinnati defeated Brooklyn yesterday, 7 to 4.
Clark knocked a home run to center in the fourth, and Bates, who batted for Uhl in the eighth and played center, put the ball over the right field wall with Nicheff on second. Uhl was batting in the third, and Daubert, who argued with Quigley in Smith's behalf, was put out of the game for the second time in his career.

Cutshaw was fined by Umpire
Eason for protesting the decision on Herzog's scratch hit in the third.

Phillies Win in Ninth.
Philadelphia, June 17.—Philadelphia made a rally in the ninth inning yesterday, but could not overcome the Cincinnati lead and lost 4 to 3. With one run needed to tie the score and runners on first and second, the Phillies' lead and second with two out, Peritt ended the game by striking out Burns, a pinch hitter, at first base.

Louis won the game by hitting May-Blank for Browns.

St. Louis, Mo. June 17.—With men on bases, Foster was invincible yesterday afternoon and Boston won its third successive victory over the Reds. The game was a slugfest, with both teams scoring runs. The Phil-lides, scoring three runs, three hits off Fisher in the sixth coupled with two errors gave the Tigers their tallies. Fisher was effective in every inning he pitched except the sixth, striking out eight men and displaying splendid control.

Ninth-Inning Victory.
Kansas City, Mo. June 17.—Delhi's slings won yesterday's game from the ninth inning enabled Kansas City to win 2 to 1, making it four straight for the locals. Evers, the Columbus southpaw, was wild, allowing six passes to the locals. Delhi allowed ten hits, but they

Chicago, June 17.—Philadelphia won the third straight game from Chicago yesterday 10 to 7. Too many bases on balls by Russell and Wolfgang, coupled with five errors, and opportune hitting cost the locals the game. Chicago started a belated rally in the ninth inning when they forced Shawkey to retire. The rally netted four runs,

GRAND RAPIDS HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS' WORK IN MANUAL TRAINING

FRESHMEN'S EXHIBIT.

GENERAL VIEW OF MANUAL TRAINING EXHIBITS.

VIRGINIA AWARDS BIG SEWER WORK

Lawrence McCann Company Given Contract for $66,072.56.

Virginia, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city council last night awarded the big sewer contract to the Lawrence McCann Construction company of this city for $66,072.56, the lowest of six bids.

This contract calls for sewer extensions, enlargements and some new sewers to give the city an adequate sewer system, especially storm sewers, to prevent a repetition of the damage to merchants resulting from high water, as was the case a few weeks ago.

To Build Detention Hospital. The city engineer was ordered to prepare plans for the detention hospital. This building has been discussed for some time and the council has finally decided to go ahead with the work.

The light and water board asked the council to take steps toward installing a municipal gas plant to cost about $75,000. The matter was referred and action will probably be taken at an early date. The city already owns its water and light plant.

PUBLIC LIBRARY SMOKING ROOM. Eveleth, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—A novelty in the way of public libraries is to be afforded local male patrons of the Eveleth public library in a smoking and reading room. It will be located in the basement.

Two thousand works of fiction and reference are now being placed on the shelves of the library. Miss Margaret Hickman, formerly librarian at Red Wing, has been engaged by the Eveleth library board and is in charge of the work here. Several foreign books will be the disposal of the readers. Fifty periodicals have been ordered.

The building was erected at a cost of $30,000 by Duplaine Bros. of Duluth. Fifteen thousand dollars was donated by Andrew Carnegie. Space is provided for future expansion.

PUTTING QUIETUS ON MOSQUITOES

Chisholm Health Officer Sinks Oil Into Pests' Breeding Places.

Chisholm, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The chairman of the board of health, Dr. W. R. Schmidt, has devised a very clever way of combating the mosquito nuisance.

Several small bodies of stagnant water are the breeding places for numerous mosquitoes. Dr. Schmidt constructed a box of sufficient size to suit the conditions into which is placed old clothing, waste rags and things of that character. This is saturated with kerosene and weighted and sunk in the pool of water. The oil continues to seep from the saturated clothing and constantly keeps the surface of the water covered so that no incubation can take place.

The size of the box and the size of the body of water are the factors governing the amount to be used. It is expected that a box so filled and sunk will keep the pools from permitting mosquitoes to hatch for a couple of months, at which time the same can be repeated.

MASHERS ANNOY HIBBING WOMEN.

Hibbing, Minn., June 17.—The police have received numerous complaints of women being annoyed by mashers, who hang about popular eating corners, ogling women and otherwise make themselves obnoxious. The police have orders to arrest all hoodlums who indulge in this practice in the future.

WOMAN CARRIES LAKE COUNTY BY BIG VOTE

Two Harbors, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. D. H. Lawrence of this city was nominated by lake county voters for county superintendent of schools yesterday by a large majority, getting, in the city, about 50 per cent more votes than all the other four candidates put together.

Mrs. Odric Le Clair ran second.

BURY VIRGINIA GIRL.

Last Rites for Victim of Tuberculosis Are Held.

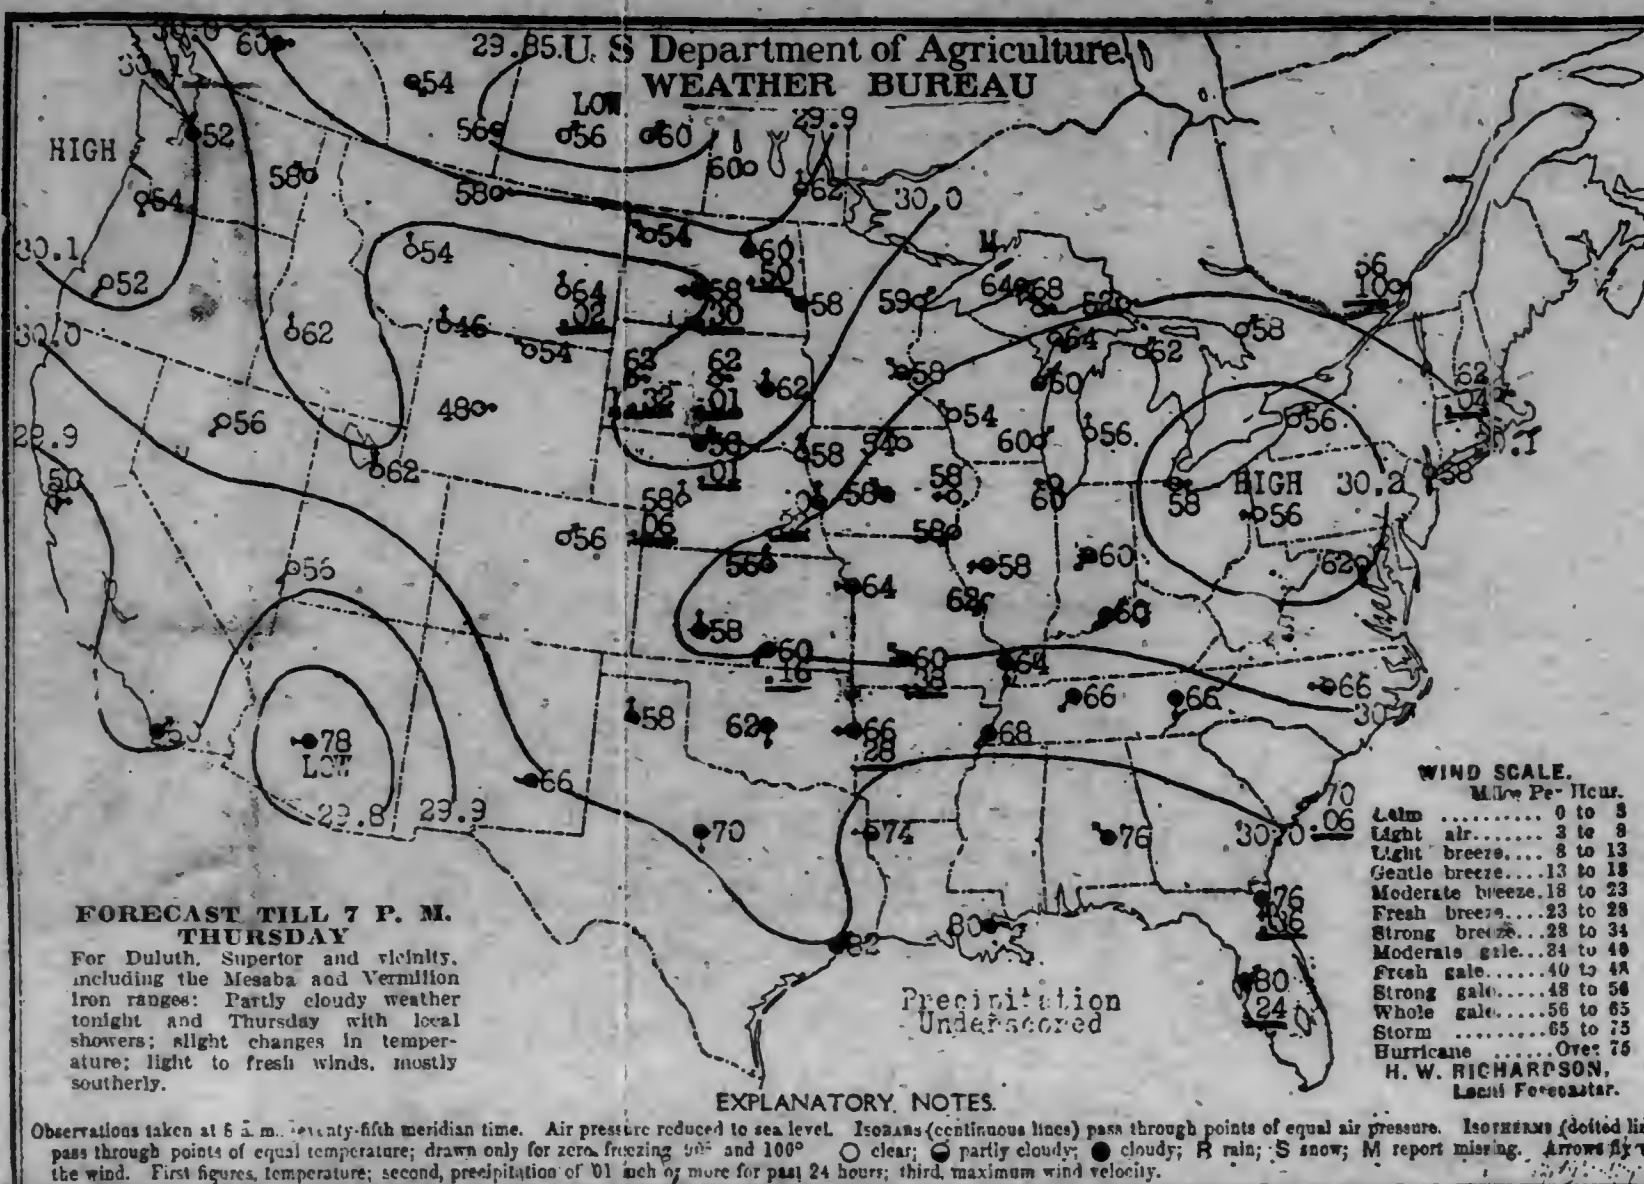

Virginia, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Finnish Lutheran church was crowded this afternoon at 2, when the last rites were held for Miss Helia Johnson, aged 19, daughter of Mrs. Sophia Johnson of the Franklin location, who died Saturday after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. She was a patient at the state sanitarium at Walker for some time. She was buried in the cemetery.

PEOPLE WITH THIN BLOOD

Some people have a tendency to become thin-blooded just as others have an inherited tendency to rheumatism, or to nervous disorders. The condition in which the blood becomes so thin that the whole body suffers comes on so gradually and stealthily that anyone with a natural disposition in that direction should watch the symptoms carefully. Bloodlessness, or anemia, as the medical term is, can be corrected much more easily in the earlier stages than later. It begins with a tired feeling that rest does not overcome, the complexion becomes pale, and breathlessness on slight exertion, such as going up the stairs, is noticed.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a home remedy that has been most successful in the treatment of diseases caused by thin blood. With pure air and wholesome food these blood-making pills afford the correct treatment when the symptoms described are noticed. A former sufferer from anemia says: "I was emaciated and did not have a particle of color. I had severe headaches, had no ambition and could just drag around." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills quickly restored appetite, flesh and health. A full statement of this case with directions regarding diet will be found in the booklet, "Building Up the Blood," sent free by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

CHAINS HERSELF TO IRON DUKE'S STATUE

Suffragette Creates Diversion in Heart of London.

London, June 17.—A militant suffragette today created a diversion in the center of the city by chaining herself to the statue of the Duke of Wellington in front of the Royal Exchange. She then shouted to the passing business men, calling on them to intervene in behalf of the imprisoned woman. She was eventually removed by the police, amid the jeers of a large crowd.

NEW PAPER MONEY WILL APPEAR SOON

Reserve Bank System Will Bring It Into Being.

Washington, June 17.—Millions of dollars worth of paper money of a new type will be put into circulation upon the establishment of the Federal reserve banks within the next few weeks.

NO PROOF FOUND OF PATMONT KIDNAPING

Detroit Police Say Theory Is Not Substantiated.

Detroit, Mich., June 17.—The police today continued their search for Rev. Louis R. Patmont of Milwaukee, who is strangely missing for the second time since he took an active part in the Illinois local option campaign in March. The minister's latest disappearance Monday night is surrounded by the same mysterious circumstances that confronted the authorities when he dropped out of his office and hid in the "dry" movement.

$40,000,000 TO GO TO ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY

James Campbell's Will Is Surprise to School Officials.

St. Louis, Mo., June 17.—The foundation for one of the greatest hospitals and medical schools in the world was laid for St. Louis university in the will of the late James Campbell, railroad financier, which was filed for probate here yesterday. The entire estate, valued at approximately $40,000,000, eventually goes to the university for the establishment of a hospital and medical school.

POSAM MAKES COMPLEXIONS YOUNG AND FAIR

Poslam works quickly. An overnight application will clear a red nose or an inflamed complexion. Pimples, eruptions and blemishes are soon eradicated.

Serious and stubborn skin diseases, such as eczema, psoriasis, etc., are quickly healed by Poslam, its effect being immediately noticeable. An exhibit of drawing complexions was given in the afternoon and evening. The program with the exception of a very dainty

GRAND RAPIDS, MINN., JUNE 17.

This village went strong yesterday for Associate Justice Bunn of the supreme court who received 155 to 23 for Watts, 51 for Johnson, 48 for Hunt and 47 for Elliott. The voters were: The Three Bears, and a very pretty cantata. The Garden of Flowers. The latest organized orchestra gave several numbers very acceptably.

ELY MINN., JUNE 17.

The total vote cast here yesterday was about 100 under the ordinary and was only about half of the total vote cast at the last city election. At the city election last April there were 521 votes cast, while yesterday there were only 322. The April vote was extra large. Yesterday but very few made use of the first and second choice.

EVERETT, MINN., JUNE 17.

The voters yesterday turned down the proposition of bonding the city for $50,000 to $25,000. Boylan has assurance that there will be a big attendance of all interested in the range committee pulling together.

EVERETT, MINN., JUNE 17.

SUEA MINING COMPANY.

Virginia, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The case of Samuel Hoar vs. the Suea Mining company has been filed at the office of the clerk of court. It is an action for money and is based on a contract between the plaintiff to the company in June and September, 1913.

DETROIT POLICE SAY THEORY IS NOT SUBSTANTIATED.

Detroit, Mich., June 17.—The police today continued their search for Rev. Louis R. Patmont of Milwaukee, who is strangely missing for the second time since he took an active part in the Illinois local option campaign in March. The minister's latest disappearance Monday night is surrounded by the same mysterious circumstances that confronted the authorities when he dropped out of his office and hid in the "dry" movement.

PETITIONER ALSO DIES

Before Request to Administer Son's Estate Is Granted.

Bemidji, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—N. K. Bastines of Wheeler township petitioned for the estate of his son, who died before the petition was heard in the court.

HOLD UP DITCH WARRANT.

Bemidji, Minn., June 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Attorney Graham M. Torrance has served on County Auditor James George, papers of appeal restraining him from issuing a warrant for $4,000.47, paying the National Drainage Co. on its contract to build a ditch No. 6 in Zippie and Children townships. The action came about a petition from the farmers of those two townships.

GIVES QUICK HOME CURE FOR CORNS, CALLOUSES AND ALL SORE FEET

This information will be welcomed by the thousands of victims of daily foot-torture. Don't waste time. Get it at once. No matter how many patent medicines you have tried in vain this treatment, which was formerly known only to doctors, will do the work. Dissolve two table-spoonsful of Calocide compound in a half of warm water. Soak the feet in this for fifteen minutes. Then rub the feet with a soft cloth. The effect is marvelous. All pain goes instantly away. The feet are soft and comfortable. Corns and calluses can be peeled right off; bunions, aching feet, sweaty smelly feet, get immediate relief. Use this treatment a week and your feet will be as good as new. Get a twenty-five cent box from any drug store. Calocide works through the pores and removes the cause. Get a twenty-five cent box from any drug store. Calocide compound prepared only by Medical Formula Co., of Dayton, Ohio.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES ARE PLANNING BAZAR.

The congregation of the St. James Catholic church, assisted by the A. O. H., auxiliary of the C. O. F. E. and Sodality have planned to entertain at a bazar which will last during the week of July 26. It will be held in the church's hall, Central avenue and Ramsey street.

Plans for the affair was made at a meeting of the joint committees held last night at the home of Mrs. Thomas Sinnott, 206 North Fifty-sixth avenue west. The executive committee in charge consists of Mrs. E. W. Funk, president; Mrs. Albert Brotherton, vice president; Mrs. Edward Madden, treasurer, and Mrs. John Flaherty, secretary.

Pupils' Recital.

A splendid program was given last evening by the piano pupils of the Florence Mattson in a recital at the Elm Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-sixth avenue west and Elinor street. A large audience, many of whom were relatives of the young pupils taking part in the program, were present. Miss Mabel Fulton gave two solo selections and encores. She was accompanied by Miss Mattson.

The pupils taking part were: Margaret Kuchembeck, Mabel Gould, Florence Berghult, Emma Branskalla, Marie Mattson, Agnes Jorgensen, Mildred Nyström, Emily Peterson, Ethel Mattson, Myrtle Gillen, Edith Sundstrom, Ellen Sundstrom, Cora Gould, Victoria Certe, Esther Jorgensen, Agnes Henry, Ruth Davidson and Beatrice Owen.

Ladies' Aid Picnic.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Plymouth Congregational church is spending this afternoon at Fairmont park. This evening at 8 o'clock they will be joined by their husbands and a family supper will be served.

Club Plans Banquet.

Plans for the entertainment of the members as well as women who assisted in giving the annual banquet in April will be made at the meeting of the West Duluth Commercial club Friday evening. The committee which had charge of the recent banquet, will have charge of the proposed affair.

The entertainment will be in the nature of a banquet to be served at the club rooms. It is planned to make arrangements for entertaining about 150 members and their wives.

Alumni Banquet.

The Fairmont Alumni association held its annual banquet last night at the school. Albert Moldahl, president and treasurer, presided.

The banquet was served at 7 o'clock by the Mothers' association.

NEW BOAT SERVICE IS MAKING DULUTH A BIG SHIPPER OF PRODUCE

Problem Now Is to Get Butter and Eggs to Fill Orders.

Shipments By Boat Are Arriving in Excellent Condition.

Better Time Made—Daily Boat Will Soon Be Needed.

Just as had been foreseen by those in the trade, the installing of refrigerating facilities by the package freight steamers to enable the handling of butter and eggs consigned to eastern points has already resulted in a remarkable increase in the volume of shipments from Duluth and the problem now is to get the produce for which the east is calling.

The service was installed on June 2 with one steamer of each line, Western Transit, Mutual and Anchor line, equipped for the trade. With the round trip occupying ten days, a service of three boats during that period is thus available. The capacity of the storage installed admits the shipment of twenty-five cars of eggs or twenty cars of butter on each steamer, and the demand for space has been so good that the boats have been offered all the tonnage they would take on each of the four sailings made so far.

"We cannot say how gratified we feel over the way the service is working out. It is perfect, and it is now up to the shippers of the northwest to take advantage of it," said B. M. Ruse, sales manager of the Western Transit company this morning. "The rapidity of the service is shown in the fact that delivery at Buffalo is made on the fourth morning after clearing from here. Last week, for example, we shipped a car of eggs all right that were unable to get away on the boat, and it did not arrive there till two days later, although forwarded on the same day. We are now able to land produce at Boston in great quantities before the night of the day. Our goods furthermore are arriving at their destinations in a better condition attributable to the maintenance of an even temperature of 35 degrees in the steamers as against between 50

IRISH NATIONALISTS GET AMERICAN GUNS

Large Quantities of Rifles Landed on Connemara Coast.

Dublin, Ireland, June 18.—Large quantities of rifles and ammunition were landed during the night on the Connemara coast in the west of Ireland by the Nationalist volunteers. The volunteers are reported to have been brought by mysterious vessels which had been sighted cruising along the coast for a week past, but had refused to reply to any signals. The rifles are said to be of the latest American pattern.

Torpedo boats have been ordered to patrol the coast to prevent further gun running.

STEAMER ASHORE NEAR MYRTLEDENE.

Weymouth, Eng., June 18.—The steamship Buelow of the China line of the North German Lloyd went ashore today during a fog near Myrledene, to the west of Portland.

The Buelow, a vessel of 5,661 tons net, sailed from Yokohama May 2 for Hamburg. A steamer was sent at once from Portland to bring ashore the Buelow's passengers, numbering 38 first class, 32 second class and 100 third class. The Buelow went ashore on the rocks at the foot of the long perpendicular cliffs dominating Blacknor bay to the west of Portland Bill.

The sea was very rough at the time of the accident and plenty of vessels were in the vicinity so that there was no danger to the passengers and the crew. The salvage steamer Switzer later in the day was ordered to go to the assistance of the Buelow.

SHANGHAIES NORWEGIAN AND SENDS HIM TO PRISON CELL

Peter Grimes, Forger, Provides Substitute at San Quentin.

San Francisco, Cal., June 18.—Peter A. Grimes, convicted of forgery in Shanghai and on his way to San Quentin penitentiary, California, shanghaied Alfred Johansen, a Norwegian sailor, in Nagasaki, Japan, substituted the sailor for himself, and escaped, according to information developed today in a searching investigation by Federal officers.

Not until Johansen, in a cell at San Quentin, told his story to a fellow Norwegian was it discovered an innocent man was probably serving the three years term of Grimes. Johansen does not speak English.

"Ashore from my ship at Nagasaki I was in a saloon and drank with three men who approached me. After two drinks I remembered nothing until I woke between decks on a ship. I tried to go to the assistance of the Buelow.

NEW CHIEF JUSTICE OF DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

J. H. COVINGTON.

Washington, June 18.—Representative J. H. Covington of Maryland has been appointed by President Wilson chief justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

HAT NOT IN STATE RING

Roosevelt Will Not Seek Governorship—Starts for Home.

Colonel Has Chill While on Way to His Steamer.

Southampton, June 18.—"I will make just one reference to politics. I will not run for governor of New York," said Col. Roosevelt as he was about to embark on the Imperator for New York.

Col. Roosevelt suffered from a sharp attack of chill while on board the tender. It was the first occasion on which he felt the chill since he left New York, and he explained that it was merely a recurrence of the effects of the jungle fever which was to be expected. His cousin, Philip, Roosevelt, announced that the colonel was not suffering from any disease of the larynx, but from a weakness which would prevent him from speaking from the platform of trains and similar exposed places. He said, however, that the colonel expected to fill in an engagement in Pittsburg in July.

CUTS AGE LIMIT FOR UNSKILLED LABOR

President Issues Order as to Civil Service Tests.

Washington, June 18.—President Wilson today issued an executive order reducing from 60 to 50 years the maximum age limit for admission to the civil service examinations for appointment of unskilled laborers in Federal offices outside of Washington, D. C. Veterans, however, may continue to be examined without regard to their age.

SEEK LOAN TO GET BENEFIT OF LEGACY

Jesuit College Would Anticipate on Campbell Estate.

St. Louis, Mo., June 18.—Plan for negotiating a long term loan with which to begin the building of one of the greatest medical colleges in the world are being considered by the faculty of St. Louis university. Jesuit college which ultimately will come into possession of the estate of the late Dr. Campbell, the value of which is estimated at from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000.

By the terms of the Campbell will, the entire estate passes to the university for the building of a hospital and for the advancement of medical science. As Campbell's widow and only daughter die, or, if the daughter has children, may continue to years after the death of the daughter,

LAWLER AND HAMMOND IN CLOSE RACE

Both Sides Claiming Victory, But Present Returns Favor Lawler.

Frank Ellsworth Wins for Congress in the Second District.

Lee's Plurality Over Eberhart Increased By the Late Returns.

St. Paul, Minn., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—Related returns today from Minnesota's state-wide primary election swelled Daniel Lawler's lead over Congressman W. S. Hammond to nearly 1,500 votes in the contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Both sides were claiming victory, confident that complete returns from the country districts would greatly change present figures.

Lawler late today had 19,065 votes as compared with 17,528 for Hammond, 1,537 precincts having been heard from.

W. E. Lee's majority over Governor Eberhart was increased by late returns and most of Governor Eberhart's friends and supporters had conceded his defeat. The latest figures give Lee 80,277 and Eberhart 69,805.

J. A. O. Freus has increased his lead over Henry Rines, in the race for the Republican nomination for state auditor. In 2,011 precincts out of the 2,900 in the state the vote stood as follows: Freus, 63,678; Rines, 51,035; Block, 35,284.

It is now a certainty that J. A. A. Burnquist has been renominated for lieutenant governor. In precincts outside of the Twin Cities the vote was Burnquist, 61,016; Stegerson, 49,362.

Contents Settled. The three Republican congressional contests in doubt were taken from the doubtful column by returns last night today. The nominations in these districts are:

Sixth—C. A. Lindbergh, Little Falls. Second—Frank Ellsworth, Manhattan.

Tenth—L. E. Jepson, Minneapolis. John H. Long won the Democratic nomination for congress in the Fifth or Minneapolis district, and Harry S. Burnquist, 61,016; Stegerson, 49,362.

JAIL GETS COOK AND BURGLAR IS PLEADED

Ben Black's Profession Has Big Influence on His Life.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 18.—Ben Black pleaded guilty in the criminal court today to burglary. His loot had been only a few cents.

"What is your occupation?" asked the court.

"I am a cook," said Black.

He had been in the kitchen of the jail to prepare the meals for the prisoners, he whispered to Judge Ryan.

"Well, we will just change the charge to petty larceny and give you 'year in jail,'" said the court. "That will keep you out of the penitentiary and give you a cook in the bargain."

Black wept for joy.

THE MAN BEHIND.

Constantinople, June 18.—Henry Morganthau, United States ambassador to Turkey, today sent Hoffman Phillips, secretary of the embassy, to Smyrna to ascertain the position there of American citizens who might be placed in danger by the threatened anti-Christian rising in Asia minor.

Turkish papers from Macedonia, who assert that they have been driven out by the Greeks, have arrived in considerable numbers on the Asiatic coast, where they have taken possession of entire villages deserted by their former Greek inhabitants, who have crossed over to the islands of Chios and Mytilene.

Some Pillaging. There has been some pillaging in the district along the coast of Asia minor, and altogether the position there is generally regarded as a dangerous one, although Turkish officials are using great efforts to keep the people in check.

At the same time preparations are being made by the Turkish authorities to meet any possible Greek attack. The Turkish and the Turkish troops have planted mines at the entrance to the gulf.

SOME CLOSE FIGHTS STILL UNDECIDED

Outcome in Several Election Battles Depends on Missing Precincts.

Thirteen Voting Districts Have Not Yet Been Heard From.

Commissionership and Legislative Nominees Not All Determined.

Returns continue to come in slowly from the outlying districts of the county, and the result is that there are several contests in the county still in doubt. For the most part the contests are settled, but a few remain "in the air" because of the close running. In these the few precincts still missing may turn results, and therefore some candidates are still on the anxious seat.

One of these cases is in the matter of representative from the Fifty-ninth district. There is no doubt but that William Bernard and E. N. Nelson are nominees because of the size of the vote given them. However, it is uncertain as to who the other two will be. It looks now as though Foubister and Dr. Triplett of Floodwood will be the other two, but Dr. Triplett is being crowded by T. F. Olson, who is not many votes behind, and the six missing precincts might change the complexion of things.

In the Sixtieth district the fight for representative is exceedingly close. Nelson, Scott, Collins and Besette are the high men in the order named, but Woods is not far behind and there are several precincts missing in the district.

DETROIT MEN START ON TRIP TO DULUTH

Nelson O'Shaughnessy and Governor Eberhart Among Their Guests.

Detroit, Mich., June 18.—More than 500 members of the Detroit board of commerce and their guests, including Nelson O'Shaughnessy and Governor Eberhart of Minnesota, left here today on an excursion steamer for their annual cruise. Their destination is Duluth, where the business men will spend several hours Saturday. The party expected to arrive back in Detroit Monday.

Governor Eberhart had no comment to make concerning the recent primary election in Minnesota.

HARVARD DEGREE FOR A. B. C. MEDIATOR.

Cambridge, Mass., June 18.—Romulo S. Naon, Argentine minister to the United States, and David Franklin Houston, secretary of agriculture, were among those who received degrees of doctor of laws from Harvard university at its commencement exercises today.

At the same time the government recently authorized his elevation to the rank of ambassador, received the same degree from Yale yesterday.

STEAMER IMPERATOR HAS NOT STRANDED.

Southampton, June 18.—There is no truth in the report from Benbridge that the Hamburg-American liner Imperator has gone ashore on the Isle of Wight.

The Imperator reached Southampton yesterday afternoon and prepared to embark her passengers for the United States, among them Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

SEVEN BIG STEAMERS GET IN TROUBLE OWING TO FOG

Accidents Vary From Sharp Collisions to Simple Grounding.

New York, June 18.—Seven large steamships have in the last two days reported difficulties varying in seriousness from sharp collision to the comparatively mild accident of running ashore. This wave of accidents, which comes as a sort of aftermath of the Empress of Ireland disaster, has been due, generally speaking, to fog.

The first accident reported yesterday was the running aground of the hospital ship Maine on the Firth of Lorne, on the west coast of Scotland; the ship was seriously damaged and her crew and passengers, including a large number of patients, were removed.

On the heels of this misadventure came the report of a collision between the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm II and the Liverpool steamer Weymouth in the English channel. Wilhelm II, carrying a thousand passengers, was seriously damaged.

VILLA ULTIMATUM SENT TO CARRANZA; MEDIATION FAILERS

Mutual Recognition and Division of Power Is Demanded.

Refusal Will Mean Villa's Retirement From the Army.

Americans Will Answer Charge Made By Senor Rabasa.

Eagle Pass, Tex., June 18.—That Gen. Villa has presented an ultimatum to Gen. Carranza, demanding the absolute separation of the civil and military branches of the Constitutional government, was the substance of dispatches received at Constitutional headquarters in Piedras Negras today.

A committee of three officers, said now to be in conference with Gen. Carranza at Saltillo, presented Gen. Villa's plan.

According to Constitutional officials at Piedras Negras, Gen. Villa's plan is as follows:

First—Villa to have complete control of the army and to direct the military policy without interference, while Carranza is to have control of the civil government and foreign relations.

Second—Villa agrees to recognize Carranza as his superior provided Carranza accords him recognition as supreme military chief.

Third—The promotion of officers and the disposition of their commands to be in Villa's hands.

Constitutionalists expressed their belief that if these demands were granted, Gen. Villa would proceed with the campaign and take personal command of the forces in the field. Otherwise, they said, they thought he would persist in his resignation and retire to Chihuahua to await such time as he could serve the Constitutional cause without friction.

The third clause of Villa's alleged ultimatum was accepted here as a direct answer to Gen. Carranza's promotion of Gen. Natera to command the division of the center, and the resulting disastrous attack on Zacatecas.

Officers of the Piedras Negras garrison expressed sympathy with Gen. Villa and the opinion that his demands would be met.

Mediation Endangered. Washington, June 18.—While administration officials said today they still had hopes for a successful outcome of the Carranza-Villa dispute, they said they were not sure that the mediation efforts of the United States would be successful.

Plot Officially Denied. St. Petersburg, June 18.—It was officially stated today that the wreck of the post train preceding the imperial train was due to a defect in the locomotive. The report of an attempt on the lives of the imperial family was officially declared unfounded.

FAIL TO EXTEND PITTSBURG STRIKE.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 18.—Westinghouse strikers today made another ineffectual effort to extend the strike to the Trafford foundries, only a few of the molten iron to the scores of pickets, who lined every street leading to the works.

Deputy sheriffs appeared in East Pittsburg today, but there was no disorder, although a great crowd assembled at the electric plant.

PRISONERS RISK LIVES AMID FIRE

Fifty-Three Go on Honor Roll at Milwaukee Institution.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 18.—Fifty-three prisoners of the Milwaukee institution today were placed on the honor roll today when they placed their lives in jeopardy in fighting a fire which destroyed the big barn in connection with the prison farm at North Milwaukee.

Nineteen head of Holstein cattle, fourteen horses and a large amount of machinery were saved by the prisoners, while the burning valued at $12,000 was destroyed.

"The prisoners did a noble service," said Supt. E. Harko. "I believe that some of the cattle might have perished had the men not pitched in the way they did. The prisoners also saved some machinery, but we could not get it all."

$100,000 FIRE AT MT. PLEASANT, IOWA.

Burlington, Iowa, June 18.—Mount Pleasant, Iowa, is recovering slowly today from the effects of a disastrous fire that last night destroyed an entire business block, lumber yard and church and for a time threatened the entire town. It is estimated that the loss will amount to about $100,000, partially covered by insurance.

TWELVE PICTURES FROM FAMOUS WALKER GALLERY LOANED TO DULUTH CLUB

Thanks to the efforts of G. G. Hartley and W. W. Walker, the Kitchi Gammi club has been loaned twelve original paintings from the famous collection of T. B. Walker of Minneapolis.

When the new club building was occupied the interior finishing and decorations were not complete, the members wishing to take more time to study the effects they desired. An art committee was appointed, and this committee delegated G. G. Hartley and W. W. Walker to visit T. B. Walker of Minneapolis and see if he would not be willing to place some of his paintings with the club. Mr. Walker's collection is famous all over the world. He has a collection which is surpassed by but very few private collections, and which equals most public art galleries. He has taken a most generous stand with the citizens of Minneapolis, and the public has been free to visit his art gallery on certain days of the week and inspect the pictures. Knowing the feeling of Mr. Walker and his desire to permit as many people as possible to enjoy his pictures, the members of the club believed that he would be willing to send a few of his pictures to Duluth. Accordingly Mr. Walker and Mr. Hartley called on him, and their request was promptly granted. Twelve of the choicest pictures were chosen, and they are being packed today for shipment to Duluth. The list of the pictures has not yet been received, but among them are two original Gainsboroughs and one Corot. As soon as the pictures have been received and properly hung, the public will be invited to visit the club and inspect them.

Duluth at present has no public art gallery, with the exception of the small one in the Orpheum theater, which is composed of part of the private collection of G. G. Hartley. Several citizens have a few choice pictures in their homes, but there is no public gallery yet.

While the Walker pictures are just a loan, the loan is for an indefinite time, and art lovers in the city are hoping that the pictures will arouse enough interest here to result in the beginning of some public collection. The citizens of Minneapolis have long had cause to be grateful to Mr. Walker for the manner in which he regards his superb collection rather as a public trust than a private hobby, and the fact that he now intends to include residents of other parts of the state in his plan will be good news to Duluthians who have had few opportunities to study the finest works of art at home.

NATIONAL SECRETARY OF LETTER CARRIERS WILL SPEAK AT BANQUET

E. J. CANTWELL.

E. J. Cantwell of Washington, D. C., secretary of the National Association of Letter Carriers, who is on a tour of the country attending state and local conventions, is a guest today of the Duluth branch, No. 114, and he will be one of the principal speakers at the banquet to be given at the St. Louis hotel this evening in honor of Postmaster A. P. Cook, who is retiring July 1, and his successor, William E. McDowell.

Robert G. Malcolm, chairman of the committee on arrangements, this morning announced the program for the evening. The dinner will be served in the Woodland cafe at 8 o'clock to the members of the branch, their families and a number of business men. The dinner will be entertained by the Magnolia quintet. Following the banquet J. F. McDonald, president of the Duluth branch, will introduce Mr. Cook and Mr. McDowell in whose honor the banquet is to be given. Homer B. Fulton will give a short talk, after which Mr. Cantwell will make an address in behalf of the national association.

The committee on arrangements consists of Mr. Malcolm, Arthur Kleopfel and Fred Hjornstad.

Mr. Cantwell was married at Washington last week and he is combining his trip to the various branch organizations with his honeymoon. He and Mrs. Cantwell arrived on the Octarora this morning, and after a boulevard drive, were the guests at luncheon of the officers of the Duluth branch. Mr. Cantwell has been secretary of the National Association of Letter Carriers for the past sixteen years.

DR. SHERMAN CULP ENDS COURSE OF THREE LECTURES IN DULUTH

With an address in the afternoon and one last evening at Memorial hall, Dr. Sherman Culp of New York concluded his lecture engagement in Duluth, given under the auspices of the Women's Relief corps, No. 69.

A large number of school teachers and Normal school students, who are still in the city, heard the afternoon lecture on "The Happy Child."

"The happy child," said Dr. Culp, "is the normal child, but unfortunately too often taken for granted, without adequate provision on the part of the parents for either." Dr. Culp expressed himself as being definitely opposed to repression in regard to children. "Will power," he said, "may be constant thwarting become a won't power."

"Along with the broader training of women, child psychology has been developed. Women are studying intelligently all phases of their part of the world's work. They are intelligently supervising play. The child's impulse for making and pulling apart can be anticipated and sacrificed by a passive toy, a garden or set of tools, thus saving the furniture and the peace of mind of the household."

The concluding lecture was on "Who Wins, or the Building of the Symmetrical Life," and in it Dr. Culp explained the proper development of one's faculties. He said in part:

"Man is the only animal that has the power of self-direction. Education develops self-control or self-direction. Man is the only animal who possesses education. It consists of three things, namely, self-mastery, self-assertion and self-sacrifice. The end of all education is service."

The speaker developed the power to appreciate what we know. It cultivates the whole nature. You can force him to learn, but you can't force him to feel."

Dr. Culp began his course of three lectures on Tuesday evening.

farewell. They placed him on the train with many admonitions to keep his head inside the windows, and not to stand on the platform, and with many messages to his grandparents in Duluth, whom he evidently was going to visit.

At 8:30 the train pulled out of the station, and after looking around the coach, the lad opened the bag and fished out a large bun sandwich, about as big around as a dinner plate and so thick the boy had to struggle to get a tooth around it. He consumed the bun.

At 8:45 the train was passing the state fair grounds. The boy had been restless for several minutes, and he pulled out another bun, which lasted him until the train reached the Minneapolis station. Here his thirst got the better of him, and he visited the water tank.

As the train pulled out of Minneapolis the boy saw another bus of the same size and general consistency. He was at 8:55 and the bus lasted a little longer than the other two, but by 9:05 the boy was outside of it, and he saw a scene as different as another visit to the water tank, and refreshed and encouraged he returned to the bus.

At 9:10, as the train was leaving Northtown he decided to have a bun. This time he waited in vain, and it was full fifteen minutes before the last crumb was consumed. The boy began to feel hungry and thirsty, and he seemed to be losing interest, but he dragged himself to the water tank again, and seemed cheerful and quiet when he returned.

Anoka he aroused himself from his study of the scenery, and after taking a long breath he decided to try a bun. The Duluthian stared him on this one, and he was just twenty minutes making it. Then he took a drink. At this juncture the Duluthian went to the smoking car, leaving the boy with the brown paper sack still half full of buns.

He remained in the smoking car until the train reached Superior, where he returned to his seat. The brown paper sack lay torn and empty on the seat beside the boy, and he lay sleeping the sleep of the just, with the buns inside.

"I hope his grandmother gave the boy a good meal," said the Duluthian.

SEVENTY ALREADY IN SHRINE CONTEST

Two Hundred Expected to Compete for "Most Popular Lady" Prize.

Who is the most popular Shrine girl in Duluth?

This is the vital question of the day and already seventy girls have been entered in the contest, which is to decide on the woman or girl, who is to be crowned on the evening of July 4, the last day of the Shriners' carnival. The contest is one of the principal features of the entertainment to be given during the week of June 29 and it is expected that more than 200 women and girls will be entered during the next week. The winner of the contest will receive a $200 diamond ring as a gift of Ask temple.

Votes are coming in fast for the Shrine girls, who compose an organization of young women singing at all the local Shrine affairs under the direction of Prof. A. F. M. Custance, and their friends. They were all entered Monday and given 500 votes each. At the close of the voting yesterday, the leading girl was but forty-two votes ahead of the last on the list.

The contest will close at 9 o'clock the evening of the Fourth of July, when the winner will be announced and crowned by Totenate H. W. Richardson. Ballot boxes have been distributed throughout the city and votes may be cast for the contestants already entered or new names may be entered at any time by registering with Leon Eberhart, general chairman, or William B. Jarvis at the Shriners' headquarters, which have been established at the St. Louis hotel. The ballot boxes are located in drug stores, candy stores and cigar stands in every part of the city and envelopes may be obtained for the asking. In these are placed one penny for every vote cast and the name of the contestant is then written on the envelope. The vote cast each day is to be counted in the evening and published the following day.

SAYS ZAPATA'S MEN ARE BEING PURSUED.

Mexico City, Mex., June 18.—Questions concerning the situation in the State of Morelos, which was reported here as growing worse, Minister of War Blanquet said the Federals there were pursuing the followers of Emiliano Zapata, and that railway and telegraphic communication in the state was being rapidly repaired. The government is taking steps to prevent Constitutional agents continuing their propaganda in Lower California. It is reported that Constitutional emissaries are attempting to bring about a revolt of the Federal authorities, but their efforts failed and both the officials and people of Lower California are loyal to Huerta.

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS

LYCEUM — BALDWIN PLAYERS in "The Man From Home."

EMPIRE — Vaudeville.

ECHO — Musical comedy.

New laurels stand to the credit of the Baldwin Players for their excellent presentation of that great American play, "The Man From Home," which is the current attraction at the Lyceum theater. The entire cast of the company is seen in this delightful drama, and the large attendance goes to prove Duluthians' appreciation of the thing worth while. The stage settings call forth all sorts of enthusiastic comments, and well they may, for they are masterpieces of scenic art.

In the role of Daniel Vorhees Pike, the "Man From Home," Homer Barton, the new leading man, has won instant recognition for his histrionic ability which has already made him a favorite on the New York stage and firmly entrenched him in the front rank of the younger stars of the New York stage.

Miss Lola May, as charming and beautiful as ever, gives further evidence of her mastery of her art which has won for her a host of friends among local play-goers.

Next week Manager Baldwin announces another great production in "Broadway Jones" from the pen of that famous "Yankee Doodle" comedian, author and manager, George M. Cohan. "Broadway Jones" was written for Mr. Cohan by himself for his farwell to the stage and for two seasons it enjoyed the greatest popularity and only by the payment of an exceedingly high royalty was Manager Baldwin able to secure this great play for Duluth.

There will be a matinee of "The Man From Home" Saturday at 2:30.

Announced as a big, breezy musical comedy, "The Girl From Luxemburg," with Arthur Clamage as the star, will be seen at the Empress for four days, beginning with a matinee today. The play is produced by Izzy Weingarten, under whose management the piece has been embellished. The five scenes are said to be rich in color and design, representing the deck of the U. S. S. Texas in the New York harbor at night when everything is all ablaze with electrical lights, the bathing beach at America's famous resort, Coney Island, and the most wonderful of all parks, Luna park.

The chorus of pretty girls is introduced in every scene from bathing girls to grand dames. In the fourth scene is introduced a tango dance, in which all the members of the company participate and many styles and forms of this favorite and attractive dance are depicted.

The music is melodious and of the popular variety. "Comedy Comedy Maid," "Don't Go Into the Water," "My Luxemburg," "My Rose of Kildare," "Sweetheart," "My Love You," and many other numbers are among the songs hits. All the music was especially written and composed for "The Girl From Luxemburg."

Besting the funny comedian, Arthur Clamage, there is Don Clark, Duluth's own light comedian, Miss Fields, the prima donna, and Miss Trixie Ayers.

Miss Marie Russell and her chorus girls are making a big hit at the Echo theater this week and large audiences are present at every performance. Tunes and good comedy are interesting features of the show. Miss Blanche Carr, who has been introducing a song specialty this week, has made a big hit both because of her excellent voice and her manner of "putting over" her act. An addition to the chorus is being arranged for by Manager Mischkin.

Many to Conclude. Calumet, Mich., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—Grand Commander Gordon R. Campbell of the Knights Templar of Michigan, who resides here, has been assured by commanderies of the lower peninsula that $600 to $1,000 knights will attend the grand convocation of the order here next June, "Copper Country" clubs, boosting the grand convocation, are organizing throughout the lower part of the state.

BETTER FISH PRICES.

One-Cent Raise Given to Fishermen; Goldfish Brings Cargo.

Fishermen on Lake Superior are getting more money for their fish this year than last according to Sam Goldfish, who just returned to this port with a cargo on the boat L. Goldfish. The price has been boosted 1 cent a pound.

The L. Goldfish, although a small boat, carried ten tons of fish on her return trip and also two cows, which were put on board at Grand Marais.

COPPER COUNTRY AFTER ARMOR PLANT.

Hancock, Mich., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Copper Country has not yet given up hope of landing one of the big United States steel armor plants, which it is proposed to establish during the next four or five years. The Copper Country Commercial club has procured a site, which will be offered for the plant, on Fort Snare lake with a clear water frontage and good depth of water. The special advantages offered are that the plant will be located on the deepest navigable water on the Great Lakes, is also reached by half a dozen large railroads and is right in the copper region and within fifty miles of the iron mines and big steel plant.

CLUB WOMEN END SESSION

Greatest Biennial Federation Ever Held; Is the Decision.

Margaret Wilson's Presence Helps Jam Hall at Close.

Chicago, June 18.—The greatest convention ever held by the General Federation of Women's Clubs ended here this morning with a session of the board of directors. Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, re-elected president of the organization, was authority for the statement that this biennial was the largest and most important in its history.

More than 670 clubs have come into the Federation in the two years since the last biennial convention. Mrs. Pennybacker said, and a new system of representation probably would have to be evolved.

Several hundred women inspected torn gowns here today, and not a few of them had bruises to treat, as a result of the crush last night to get into the auditorium for the closing general meeting, at which Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, was the orator who attracted most attention. Thousands failed to obtain admission to the hall. Police reserves were called out to control the crowd, a number of women fainted in the press and some of the spectators could not get in.

Miss Wilson's Talk. Miss Wilson was the first of half a dozen three-minute speeches scheduled to be delivered by young women.

MISS MARGARET WILSON.

She urged use of the public school buildings as community centers. "Every town should have a salaried civic secretary employed to promote the organization of citizens," said Miss Wilson. The principals of the schools should receive additional pay for acting as the secretaries of neighborhood organizations. People must work together, and they can't work together if they don't get together.

Features of the last day of the biennial were a protest against the endorsement of suffrage for women and a veritable storm of giving which poured $20,000 in comparatively small gifts into the treasury of the Federation and completed the endowment fund of $100,000.

When the women started out to get the fund they evolved a plan whereby $500 but never may name some person or organization to be listed on the honor membership roll. $100 admits to the roll of honor, and $500 on the founders' list.

Mrs. V. Pennybacker, the president, started things with an eloquent plea for funds, and New York and New Jersey responded with the women of that state had completed their share of the endowment suit, and then the honor rolls began to fill up.

Even Honored Husbands. The supply of women whom it was desired to honor at this time, apparently became exhausted, and several women paid for the distinction for their husbands. Every time there was a lull Mrs. Frederick A. Dow of Chicago, president of the Illinois federation, was on her feet with the announcement of gifts from her delegation.

Miss Stearns is fond of joking about her spinsterhood. "So far as I could catch them, there is $538 on this account."

A paper which purported to be a minority report caused some disturbance before its origin was discovered. It came to Mrs. Pennybacker unsigned, and declared that suffrage should not have been endorsed. It quoted the late question. Miss Stearns protested that it was unfair to quote a woman who could not be called upon for affirmation. This developed the fact that the paper had been written by Mrs. J. C. Terrell of Dallas, Tex., expressing the sentiment of herself and certain friends. It was not the result of any formal action, and after Mrs. Terrell had withdrawn the reference to Mrs. Decker, the statement, signed by the "minority report," was made part of the record.

Adjournment was taken subject to call by the president.

Greeks Rename Cruiser. Philadelphia, June 18.—Prominent Greeks from all sections of this country were present at the ceremonies here yesterday when the cruiser Pellagoras, built for Greece, was renamed the Hellas. Two Greek army officers officiated.

VETERAN RAILROAD CONDUCTOR SUCGUMBS TO PARALYSIS

EDWARD B. RYAN.

Edward B. Ryan, 73 years of age, veteran of the Civil war and honored pensioner of the Northwestern road, succumbed at 10:36 last night at his residence, 16 West Second street, to a stroke of paralysis which he suffered about a year ago. Mr. Ryan had been a resident of Duluth for the last nineteen years and was one of the best known men in the city and along the Northwestern line.

About two years ago, when Mr. Ryan retired from active service on the railroad, he was given a pension by the executive board for his faithful services. He had been with the road fifty-seven years. He had been a conductor on the line running from Duluth to Elroy, Wis., and was one of the best known railroad men in this part of the country. He had worked in almost every department on the road. Nineteen years ago he was made conductor

TEST METHODS FOR CLEARING LAND

Experiment Farm Is Making Comparisons on Various Tracts.

In accordance with recommendations made at the land clearing convention held in Duluth last summer an interesting experiment is being conducted by the Northeastern Minnesota Experiment farm to determine the best methods of clearing land based upon different soil and vegetation in this part of the state.

This recommendation was similar to a plan already developed for clearing operations at the experiment farm. A twenty-acre tract was laid out last fall. This has been divided into four five-acre tracts. One of these has been plowed to grass seed, principally clover and blue grass. It will be pastured and then turned up at the end of five years. Another five-acre tract has been blasted green. It costs more to do this, but it will probably yield a larger return. At the end of five years the cost of clearing each tract and the returns from each will be tabulated to determine which is the better method.

Other ten acres of the tract will be used in conjunction with dynamite. On land where the dynamite will go before and on the other it will follow the stump puller. Two machines will be used, and this work will be completed by the end of the season.

Boys' department trips are proving to be a great success. Mr. McLeod and Mr. Batchelor left last Monday for a trip to Perry Point. They will spend the week. CLAN STEWART IS THIRD IN COUNTRY. Local Fraternity Wins Membership Prize Given By Royal Clan.

As a result of a membership campaign since Jan. 1 and the initiation of forty members into the organization last evening, Clan Stewart is now the third largest Scot clan in this country. The $60 prize offered by the royal clan for the largest gain during the first six months of this year will be received by the local fraternity.

The initiation of the forty new members last evening came at the conclusion of an interesting program given under the direction of Chief Angus Macneil. His address was "The Clan." He said that the clan is the largest clan in America by July 1 of this year, with the exception of two lodges in the New England states.

Announcement was made last evening that the local clan will then Wednesday evening celebrate the 600th anniversary of Bruce's victory over King Edward of England and the famous battle of Bannockburn. Scotch organizations throughout the north celebrate this victory each year and "You are at liberty to use my picture and testimony if you think it will help any one who has stomach trouble."

MR. ROBERT FOWLER, Of Okarche, Oklahoma.

Mr. Robert Fowler, Okarche, Oklahoma, writes: "To any sufferer of catarrh of the stomach, I am glad to tell my friends or sufferers of catarrh that seventeen years ago I was past work of any kind, due to stomach troubles. I tried almost every known remedy without any result."

"Finally I tried Peruna, and am happy to say I was benefited by the first bottle, and after using a full treatment I was entirely cured."

"I am now seventy years old, and am in good health, due to always having Peruna at my command. I would not think of going away from home for any length of time without taking a bottle of Peruna along for emergency."

Girls and Bank Accounts

If we could see into the future we could plan accordingly, but not being able to do so we should guard against eventualities as much as possible.

Many a young girl has been unexpectedly thrown on her own resources through the death of her parents; many a woman has been left a widow without cent; others with some means but no experience of money matters.

It is neglectful—yes, cruel—of parents not to bring up their daughters as well as their sons in habits of thrift and teach them the uses and advantages of a bank account.

It is never too soon to teach them the value of money, never too soon to open bank accounts in their names.

Bishop McGolrick Presents Diplomas to Big Class at St. Anthony's.

Graduation exercises for the Catholic schools in Duluth began last evening, when a large class was graduated from the St. Anthony's school at the large Cathedral high school auditorium. This evening twenty-nine students will receive their diplomas from the Cathedral high school, while eleven will complete their work at the Cathedral high school.

Bishop James McGolrick presided at the exercises last evening, and he presented the diplomas at the close of the commencement program. About 600 parents and friends of the young people attended the exercises. The program follows: Welcome song, Little ones; recitations, Little ones; "Jucube," Little ones; "Fun on the Potomac Limited," class; "Hans Kalk and die Sprock," Henry Landolt; "Guess Who," boys; "The Maypole," girls; farewell song, graduates; address and distribution of diplomas, Bishop McGolrick, and "Das Wunderland," pupils.

Stops Stomach Pains

In Two Minutes. The recent discovery by a leading specialist that pure bisulphate of magnesia will almost instantly relieve pains in the stomach resulting from indigestion, dyspepsia or acidity, is of the greatest importance to thousands of people suffering from various forms of stomach trouble. As is well-known, nine-tenths of all the stomach disorders are directly traceable to stomach acidity. One to two teaspoonfuls taken in a little water after meals not only neutralizes the acid and stops the pain but quickly overcomes the cause of the trouble, soothes the inflamed lining of the stomach and in a short time corrects the cause. Be sure to ask your druggist to supply you with bisulphate of magnesia. Advertisement.

CAUSES BIG SENSATION

Gen. Tom Poole Makes Public Letters From Governor Hanna.

Alleges Intimate Connection With Forces Working Against Prohibition.

Dismarck, N. D., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The biggest sensation in the governorship campaign broke today when Gen. Tom Poole, in reply to a sarcastic editorial in the Fargo Forum, made public correspondence between himself and Governor Hanna during the campaign of two years ago.

The Forum charged Poole with "bottling," blind pigging, and law violators behind Wasek in the present campaign. Poole states he should likewise have credit for organizing the same elements two years ago.

Four letters are quoted in the open letter sent to the Forum by Poole. The letters are dated Feb. 19, 1912, May 18, 1912, July 9, 1912, and Aug. 6, 1912. The most sensational letter quoted is that of Aug. 6, 1912, in which Hanna asks for information as to the movement on foot to contest his nomination two years ago.

What Hanna Says.
In this letter, Hanna says: "I am more than pleased at the election of Henry Sagehorn, member of the county committee, and Fred Krause, member of the state committee. Sagehorn is the candidate of the German Alliance for lieutenant governor and stands for prohibition. Hanna's organization has within the past ten days attempted to secure the prohibition vote in the eastern and northern section of the state. This intimate connection with the forces working against prohibition will undoubtedly create the most startling sensation in North Dakota politics in years. Two years ago Poole was one of the most active Hanna supporters and has been prominent in state politics for years."

Sues Boller Works.
The Duluth Boller Works was today made defendant in a personal injury action filed in district court by George Christenson, an employee who was injured July 14 last. Christenson, while working as a boiler-maker's helper, had his right hand crushed during the operation of a moving crane. He is suing for $2,000 general and $400 special damages.

Bring Suit for Services.
Suit to recover $1,828.75 claimed to be due for services rendered in the sale of brick was started in district court today by the Paine & Saxton company against the Hydraulic Pressed Brick company and the Standard Brick & Cement company. An account was stated between the plaintiffs and defendants on Nov. 13, 1913, but payment was refused, it is alleged.

Contractor Held for Assault.
William MacKay, a local contractor, was arrested this morning on a warrant sworn out by Charles Stenholm charging him with assault. Stenholm was in MacKay's employ and the warrant was the outcome of trouble between them. MacKay pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for tomorrow morning.

POLICE "ARREST" EIGHT "VAG" COWS

Sergeant Dave Butcher made a wholesale arrest this morning. He gathered in eight vagrant cows which were wandering through the downtown streets about 4:30 o'clock without visible means of support. According to the report left at headquarters, Lieut. Barber nobly came to his assistance in helping him tie them up. When the day crew arrived the cows had disappeared. It was not known whether they had been turned over to a poundmaster or whether an anxious owner had claimed his wayward bovines.

Among the prizes which have been hung up for the various competitions are a pair of lady's moccasins, three pounds of coffee, a quart of grape juice, jack knives, cigars, baseball glove and a number of other valuable articles. Individuals or parties will arrange for their own lunches. Ice cream and soft coffee will be served free by the association, but individuals must furnish cups. The grounds are in excellent shape, and seating accommodations have been provided for 100 people. If the weather be unfavorable, the picnic will be postponed to July 11.

OBITUARY

Former United States Senator Frank Hiseock died suddenly at Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 6, 1914. He was educated at the Pompey academy and was admitted to the bar in 1856. He was district attorney of Onondaga county of the Rock Island, is stopping at the New York constitutional convention in 1887; member of the Forty-fifth to the Forty-ninth congresses, and Republican United States senator from New York from 1887 to 1893.

John Cleggitt, 74 years old, for more than forty years one of Iowa's prominent lawyers, is dead at his home in Mason City. He had been Democratic candidate for governor and supreme court judge.

Arrangements have been practically completed for the big picnic and jollification to be given by the Merritt Public Utility association, composed of employees of the water and light department, at the grounds of the Lake-wood pumping station Saturday afternoon, June 27.

The announcement of the arrangements was made this morning by President George L. Gross. Transportation facilities have been provided and an excellent program of sports outlined. Street cars will be taken to Lester Park between 1:15 and 2:30, and automobiles will be found waiting at the end of the line to carry parties to Lakewood. After 2:30 the train can be taken from Lester to the pumping station.

The sports include a ball game between the mechanical and accounting departments in 300-yard race for married men and another for the bachelors, a 50-yard race for married women, and one for young women, a 50-yard boys' sack race, a tug-of-war between the married and single men, races for boys and girls under 15 years of age and a race for girls under 10 years of age.

People who read the results of an election within a few hours after the polls close can hardly imagine the tremendous amount of detail work involved in compiling the returns from all parts of the city, county and state. The adding machine is one of the most valuable aids in this battle with figures.

A page and a half of figures, such as was contained in The Herald yesterday, does not look very formidable when viewed in neat compact rows, and can be scanned in a short time at the dinner table. But the arranging and collecting of these figures is a different matter and involves endless detail. It means the preparation of a great number of return blanks and their filling in with figures received from various city precincts or received over the long distance telephone from county, village and township.

The returns published in The Herald involved the work of from two to six men from Tuesday evening until Thursday afternoon.

Two adding machines were valuable allies in the service and their "blinding" accuracy and fast computation made big cuts in the time required. One of the machines is the property of The Herald, but the other was kindly loaned by Charles E. Fale of the Burroughs Adding Machine company. Some of the city precincts returns did not reach the city clerk's office until 12 o'clock yesterday, but the complete returns for the city were contained in The Herald last night, and comparison with the official figures showed but seven minor errors, due to the haste in transcribing.

COPPER MAGNATE IS DYING, SAYS LAWYER

New York, June 18.—F. Augustus Heinze, the copper magnate, is dying at his home in this city, according to a statement made in court today by his counsel, William Travers Jerome. Mr. Jerome appeared in an attempt to reopen the case in which a judgment for $275,000 was obtained against his client.

NEW FOUNTAIN FOR TRIANGLE

G. G. and C. K. Dickerman Make City a Handsome Present.

The city triangle at the intersection of Twelfth avenue east, Fourth street and Woodland avenue will shortly be beautified by an attractive fountain.

The main fountain will be similar to that at Ninth avenue east and London road and will be a gift to the city by G. G. and C. K. Dickerman, well known business men of the city. The announcement was made this morning by Mayor W. J. Prince.

The mayor said that the exact style of the fountain has not yet been decided but that sketches are now being prepared. He said that in addition to a big fountain for horses a bubbling fountain will be piped from it for the use of pedestrians. The fountain will be so located that teams stopping at it will not interfere with traffic on the intersecting thoroughfares.

The city has done some work on the triangle this year and when Woodland avenue is paved the grade will be raised and the grounds further improved. When the fountain has been installed and the other work completed the triangle will be one of the prettiest small breathing spots in the city.

"GOVERING" AN ELECTION

Herald Published Complete Tabulated City Returns Three Hours After Last Precinct Came in—Adding Machines Helped.

People who read the results of an election within a few hours after the polls close can hardly imagine the tremendous amount of detail work involved in compiling the returns from all parts of the city, county and state. The adding machine is one of the most valuable aids in this battle with figures.

A page and a half of figures, such as was contained in The Herald yesterday, does not look very formidable when viewed in neat compact rows, and can be scanned in a short time at the dinner table. But the arranging and collecting of these figures is a different matter and involves endless detail. It means the preparation of a great number of return blanks and their filling in with figures received from various city precincts or received over the long distance telephone from county, village and township.

The returns published in The Herald involved the work of from two to six men from Tuesday evening until Thursday afternoon.

Two adding machines were valuable allies in the service and their "blinding" accuracy and fast computation made big cuts in the time required. One of the machines is the property of The Herald, but the other was kindly loaned by Charles E. Fale of the Burroughs Adding Machine company. Some of the city precincts returns did not reach the city clerk's office until 12 o'clock yesterday, but the complete returns for the city were contained in The Herald last night, and comparison with the official figures showed but seven minor errors, due to the haste in transcribing.

CITY EMPLOYEES PLANNING PICNIC

Arrangements have been practically completed for the big picnic and jollification to be given by the Merritt Public Utility association, composed of employees of the water and light department, at the grounds of the Lake-wood pumping station Saturday afternoon, June 27.

The announcement of the arrangements was made this morning by President George L. Gross. Transportation facilities have been provided and an excellent program of sports outlined. Street cars will be taken to Lester Park between 1:15 and 2:30, and automobiles will be found waiting at the end of the line to carry parties to Lakewood. After 2:30 the train can be taken from Lester to the pumping station.

The sports include a ball game between the mechanical and accounting departments in 300-yard race for married men and another for the bachelors, a 50-yard race for married women, and one for young women, a 50-yard boys' sack race, a tug-of-war between the married and single men, races for boys and girls under 15 years of age and a race for girls under 10 years of age.

Patrick and Zinsmaster-Smith Factories Thoroughly Inspected.

The shop excursion conducted to the Patrick-Duluth knitting and garment factory, and to the Zinsmaster-Smith Bread company at Twenty-ninth avenue west under the auspices of the publicity committee today was an unqualified success.

About 150 Duluthians visited these two interesting manufacturing establishments. A number of women accompanied the excursionists.

Pleasant for Employees. There are rest rooms, toilet rooms and bath rooms for the women employees, smoking room, shower and toilet rooms for the men, and a large and handsomely equipped restaurant. The building is one of absolute fireproof construction, ventilated by a system which takes out the exhausted air and forces in fresh air at all times into the work rooms. Every work room is equipped with sanitary drinking fountains and is lighted by large Fenestra windows on all four sides, and is equipped with the indirect lighting system for dark days.

As the party of visitors passed from the garment factory side of the building across to the new Patrick-Duluth Knitting mill, they had a glimpse of the day nursery, which is conducted in this building by the King's Daughters organization. Here about fifteen attractive little children were playing about under the care of a competent nurse. The play room is a large, well lighted room with dowering plants at the windows, bright pictures on the walls and the floor covered with toys. Half a dozen of the younger children were seen sleeping peacefully in the white dormitory of the nursery.

At the bread factory the visitors saw the entire process of bread making.

COL. ROOSEVELT'S TROAT.

Col. Roosevelt has visited a specialist in London, who tells him that his South American hardships played havoc with his throat, and that he must not make any speeches for some time to come.

This means the Colonel's withdrawal from the 1914 campaign.

He cannot go to Pennsylvania to help Pinchot against Penrose.

He cannot go to California to help Johnson against his reactionary Republican enemies.

He cannot do anything for Mordock in Kansas, for Beveridge in Indiana or for anybody anywhere.

The Bull Moose party must fight its battles alone.

If the Bull Moose party puts up a candidate for president in 1916, that candidate will have to contend with a Republican candidate for president named Theodore Roosevelt.

For bosses may come and bosses may go, and occasionally even an Ed Smith gets bumped.

VOTING ON NATIONAL PROHIBITION.

It looks very much as though the house of representatives would be forced to vote on national prohibition within a few weeks.

And right in the teeth of a campaign, too!

It puts the average congressman in a pretty pickle.

There are many in his district who favor national prohibition. But how many?

There are many in this district who are against national prohibition. But how many?

How do the two forces balance? Which is it more dangerous to offend?

Since he must offend somebody in any event, obviously the wise course if he is doubtful is to use his own judgment. If he can give reason for it and convince the public that he is honest in his belief, nothing very serious will happen to him. Most people—except a rabid few extremists—must not be numerous enough to count much—respect an honest judgment even when they do not agree with it.

There can be no question of the right of every self-governing unit to pass upon the saloon question for itself. Everybody agrees to that, even those financially interested in the liquor business.

But what about the right of a larger governing unit to force its ideas of personal conduct upon a community that thinks otherwise?

That's the real issue in prohibition. If Duluth wants to vote out the saloon, its right to do so cannot be challenged; though if it did such a thing the election requirements ought to be so there would be no possible doubt about the community sentiment.

But has Lac Qui Parle county a right to say to Duluth: You shall not drink liquor, and you shall have no drinking places? We think it has no such right.

The problem of the congressman who is wondering what his district thinks about national prohibition ought not to be a difficult one. Let him take the Prohibition party vote in his district and add as many as he pleases for good measure. He can add a good many without reaching a majority in most districts. In very few districts will he find a majority for national prohibition.

Legislation of this character is peculiarly a subject for state and local action. National prohibition would infringe state rights. State

WHY NOT A TRUCE UNTIL SEPTEMBER?

Every party, and every candidate for public office in this state, should be willing to agree to a political truce until September first. We venture the prediction that those who do not will be sorry they didn't.

Election day is nearly five months off. That's too long a campaign for the candidates. It's too long a campaign for the public.

July and August are the hot months and the vacation season, when it will be practically impossible for candidates to interest the voters in themselves or their ambitions. Indeed, attempts to interest the public during those months are more likely to result in resentment and irritation than in political gain.

Why should there not be a general agreement that open campaigning will not be begun before September first?

Candidate and committees may lay their wires, make their plans, and so far as possible perfect their organizations in the interim. They can do that without annoying the public.

But speeches, the distribution of literature, all attempts to attract public interest and appeal to public sympathy, may as well be held in abeyance for three months; otherwise most of it would be wasted anyway.

This is the first trial of the June primary in Minnesota. It will not be surprising if it is the last. Certainly if candidates persist in thrusting themselves in during the dog-days there will be a widespread demand for the restoration of the old September primary.

The June primary was adopted for the sake of farmers. They said they were too busy to vote in September, because that is harvest time.

When it came to a discussion of the project, after it had failed to get that far in several sessions of the legislature, it developed that there was a division of opinion even among farmers. In the grain country, where planting is all done in June and haying is not yet begun, there was a good deal of sentiment in favor of the June primary. In the corn country, on the other hand, it was declared that June was a bad time for the primary, and that September was better.

The cities, dreading a long and expensive campaign, were always against the June primary and for the September primary. The grain farmers prevailed over the corn farmers, however, and the rural interests prevailed over the city interests; so this year the primary election was in June.

Now the primary election is over, and election day is nearly five months away.

So far as the candidates are concerned, let them remember that the old primary came in the middle of September, only six weeks before election day. Let them remember what campaigning for six weeks cost, and then let them do a little figuring about the probable cost of campaigning for TWENTY WEEKS. That ought to help convert them to the plan of a political truce.

So far as the public is concerned, no referendum need be held. The public will favor a short campaign and resent a long one. If the fight starts now and continues till November, people will get so tired of political importunities that in all probability the candidate who makes the most noise and attracts the most attention—in other words, who makes the most effectual campaign—will get the least votes.

The Herald proposes this political truce in good faith. It would be glad to hear what candidates, committees, newspapers and citizens think about it.

prohibition infringes local rights so long as there are communities opposed to prohibition.

The liquor problem is first a personal problem. Next it is a municipal problem, which each municipality should solve for itself. But when state or nation overrides local sentiment on questions of personal conduct, liberty and home rule cease to be facts.

For the average citizen there probably is more real satisfaction in killing a mosquito than there would be in the slaughter of a white rhinoceros.

A PUBLIC DEFENDER.

Every county has a public prosecutor, whose duty it is to see that offenders against the law are punished.

But why not a public defender, also, to see that those who are accused but are innocent are not unjustly punished?

Los Angeles county has a public defender, and the plan is working well there.

And now a committee of the New York county lawyers' association is considering the idea of having a public defender for New York.

And why not?

The state's interest is only that justice shall be done.

It isn't only that somebody shall be hanged or jailed, but that the right man shall get what is coming to him. The state is just as much concerned in seeing that no innocent man is punished as it is in seeing that every guilty man is punished.

Why, then, should it have a public prosecutor and no public defender?

Mrs. Lucretia Blankenburg urged the woman's club delegates to "have stirs wide enough to walk to the polls." Then they can widen them enough more to kick out the grafters.

"HE GOT THE WRONG BOTTLE."

The coroner of Cook county, Illinois, reports that last year 148 people died in Chicago from accidental poisoning.

They picked the wrong bottle; that's all. In the dark, or in daylight without looking, they reached for a bottle of cough medicine and got carboic acid, they reached for a packet of throat tablets and got bichloride of mercury, or did some other fatal thing of the sort.

And still people buy liquid poisons in bottles like those that hold harmless stuff, and poison tablets of the same shape and size as harmless ones; and still dealers are allowed to sell such dangerous commodities.

Army No Longer Faces Specter of Typhoid

Jack London in Collier's.

The United States was the first country to inoculate its soldiers and sailors against typhoid, and it is safe to assume, no matter in what other ways its soldiers may lose their lives in Mexico, that none will die from typhoid.

This inoculation is a fairly simple matter. The serum is hypodermically injected into the arm in a series of three injections, the intervals between injections being ten days.

In a way the injectee becomes a sort of peripatetic graveyard. The first injection puts into his blood the nicely dead carcasses of some 600,000,000 micro-organisms along with all their virtues of deadness, which bring about a change in the constitution of the blood that makes it resistant to future invasions of full-powered, malignant typhoid micro-organisms. With the first injection, theoretically, the man has had reduced the 100 per cent. non-immunity to typhoid to 32 per cent.

The second injection, ten days later, consists of 100,000,000 dead carcasses of the disease. Also, it reduces his non-immunity to 8 per cent.

The third injection introduces another 1,000,000,000 of the same ably efficient carcasses and reduces his non-immunity to zero. In short, when his blood has been inoculated with a cemetery of half a billion more dead bodies than are live humans in all the world, he is no longer susceptible to the particularly noxious and infective typhoid that he may be classed as a positive immune.

It is very interesting to see the actual process of inoculation. I have had the pleasure of reducing my non-immunity of typhoid to zero. The first inoculation was performed in a transport hospital, the second in a captured academy turned into a field hospital. The stab of the hypodermic syringe, different from administering morphine, is not so pleasant. It is a straight down and squarely down into the meat of the arm for half an inch, but the pang of the stab is only momentary. The needle is over the instant the skin is punctured. It is only the nerves of the skin that protest in either case.

After an inoculation there is no disposition. The arm is a trifle sore for several days, and that is all. Some inoculations even make the patient feel better. The first night's sleep with a dark brown taste in their mouths. In the morning the temperature of the body is noted, reaching its height some six hours after the inoculation and fading quickly away. I have taken a man during one who took the total quantity at one time, and who stated that the impact was equivalent to a man's fist being driven over his head.

But the big thing about the whole affair is the statistics. It has been noted that the inoculation of thousands of men in the army hospitals, the reduction to nothing of typhoid cases in the army hospitals. What counts is the reduction to nothing of the army hospitals due to typhoid.

Hitting Below the Belt

San Francisco Bulletin: For a period of which his name is a friend of liberal causes Collier's Weekly is strangely liberal in its treatment of Villa and the agrarian-revolt now going on in Mexico.

It is not least, however, even he is accused of insincerity and a desire, which no Progressive ought to feel, to discredit President Wilson's administration by a daring one who took the total quantity at one time, and who stated that the impact was equivalent to a man's fist being driven over his head.

Mark Sullivan, its editor-in-chief, characterizes the situation thus: "For Americans to understand Villa and his fight, transfer the analogy to any part of the United States where negroes are in the majority. Imagine in Mississippi, let us say, a bold and brutal negro, who has spent his lifetime as a criminal, taking advantage of a period of disturbed peace to lead a negro rebellion with the ostensible purpose of confiscating the large plantations and dividing them into forty-acre plots for his followers, the process being accompanied by the murder of such owners as have failed to surrender, and the real motive being plain loot."

Any fairly unprejudiced man who has read the current news and has followed the matter carefully for the past few months knows that such an analogy as this is either willfully or ignorantly untrue. Villa is not a bandit, and his rebellion is more than a servile insurrection. It is a struggle for the freedom of the Mexican people, a struggle for a period of disturbed peace to lead a negro rebellion with the ostensible purpose of confiscating the large plantations and dividing them into forty-acre plots for his followers, the process being accompanied by the murder of such owners as have failed to surrender, and the real motive being plain loot."

Without the support of the Southern Democracy, which belongs to the haughty and belated wing of his party, President Wilson could not retain his control of congress. If the instinctive race prejudices of the South could be aroused against his liberal policy in Mexico he might be seriously embarrassed. But it is not fair, even in men who sincerely believe his policy wrong, to go about proving it by hitting below the belt.

Castles Got $22,000 a Week.

New York Evening Mail: When Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle closed their four weeks' dancing carnival in Madison square garden, they were reported to have added just $25,000 to their fortune, making the one biggest haul of the trip in Boston, which is said to have been $15,000 for two performances in a single day. Topping at the rate of $22,000 a week is considered a record for modern dancing, and managers admit a serious menace to the theatrical business, which depends on the patronage of the tangos to fill the theaters.

Coming into the great of the newest dance wave, the Castles have been enriched through their dancing, and have been reported to have "indorsed" everything from a pair of shoes to a family cook-stove.

They have been beautifully remunerated for their dancing, and have been reported to have been "indorsed" everything from a pair of shoes to a family cook-stove.

One report from London says Roosevelt offered to settle the home rule squabble. Heretofore it has been supposed that T. R.'s only interest in home rule concerned the number of subjects,

Statesmen, Real and Near

By Fred C. Kelly.

Washington, June 18.—(Special to The Herald).—One of the things Champ Clark would like to know is the reason why the male persons living in and about Fort Dodge, Iowa, have small necks.

And it should be understood right here that his ideas and beliefs about the size of necks that should be worn in Fort Dodge, Iowa, are not predicated just on seeing Senator William S. Kenyon, the only representative in congress from that thriving city. Kenyon is a fairly slender person and doubtless can get into a 15 1/2 collar, but to judge the necks of a big city full of assorted people by the neck of one man would be to act superficially and to base a hypothesis on an altogether too hasty review of the situation. Champ Clark does not have Senator Kenyon in mind at all when he desires to know why the men of Fort Dodge have small necks.

To fully appreciate the speaker's point of view, it is necessary to go back a little. A few years ago Champ Clark and former Representative Grosvenor of Ohio used to go about the chautauqua circuits holding joint lectures on the subject of the tariff. They had excellent team work and command about the best headliner act the chautauqua had to offer.

One night they spoke at a lake town in Michigan and from there their billing took them to Chicago. They were thinking to escape the heat of one of the Pullman company's ill-ventilated cars, they arranged to go as far as Chicago by boat. They had their baggage placed aboard and then, while waiting for the vessel to be on its way, they stood near the gang plank conversing freely with other passengers.

"And by the way," inquired Grosvenor, "what time do we reach Chicago?"

"Chicago," repeated the captain. "Yes," says Grosvenor—and almost his exact language is quoted here—"Chicago."

"Why, we don't go to Chicago at all," replied the captain. "This boat runs to Milwaukee. The Chicago boat went about half an hour ago."

So Champ Clark and his speaking mate had to take a train to Fort Dodge, Iowa, and their baggage went by water to Milwaukee, Wis.

On reaching Fort Dodge, after their hot, humid journey, they were practically agreed that it would be necessary to go forth to the stores of their baggage and purchase fresh linen. That was easy enough for Grosvenor, but Champ Clark wears a 17 1/2 shirt and an 18 collar of an upstart, and he had to go to the stores to get a 17 1/2 shirt and an 18 collar.

There weren't any 17 1/2 shirts or 18 collars in all of Fort Dodge, Champ Clark was pestered, but he finally ran down a pink shirt, size 17, that he thought he could crowd himself into; also a 17 collar. It is not easy to get a 17 collar to a 17 shirt or an 18 neck, but there was no other way. For an hour Champ Clark experimented with scissors and pieces of string. By cutting the flaps off the collar and cleverly fastening the ends to his collar button with cotton cord, Champ made himself reasonably presentable to the people of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

A year or so ago the speaker again found himself in Fort Dodge, and he had his baggage with him, but recalling his adventure there, he set out to ransack the place for an 18 collar, at least a 17 1/2 one, just for the sport of the thing.

This time he could not find a collar larger than 18 1/2. Champ talked to the proprietor of one haberdashery and asked him, as man to man, why they didn't have full grown collars in stock.

"There's never been any demand for such a thing," the man told him. "A few years ago, as I remember, a lecturer came here to talk at a chautauqua, and he wanted to buy an 18 collar. We talked some after that of putting in one or two of the larger sizes, but we decided that it wouldn't pay. Our people don't seem to care for them."

Representative "Jimmy" Burke of Pennsylvania got to talking with his seat mate in the smoking compartment on the way across that state the other day. Looking that Burke was from Washington, the stranger began to ask questions about Bryan and Champ Clark and their abilities as lecturers—also their charges for speaking.

"And," went on the man, "what about that fellow James F. Burke? I understand he's a fair speaker, too."

"Oh, but I never speak for money except in a courtroom," said Burke. "You're Burke?"

"Yes."

"Hum, well, I'm glad to meet you, and considering your terms, maybe we'll have you for our next lecture. We never have our lectures in the courtroom."

Senator Kenyon got a letter from an old friend, who has a little country place and wanted fish to put in a cute little pond.

"Send me a school of bass," requested the friend.

"I'm not sure about getting you an entire school," Kenyon wrote back, "but I'll try to send you a few grades."

Unexpected Prescription.

National Monthly: Mr. Norton was a very patient man and a long-suffering one. Mrs. Norton prepared a continuous flow of conversation, and was known as a nag. Finally, the nerves of the poor man gave way and the physician was called.

"He must have complete rest and undisturbed sleep," said the doctor, as he looked thoughtfully at the woman. "I will send you some sleeping powders which must be used exactly as written on the box. Will you promise to do this, madam, or must I order him to the hospital?"

"Indeed, I promise," cried Mrs. Norton, cheerfully. "I'll give them just as you direct, doctor."

"When the box came from the druggist the label read: 'Sleeping powders to be taken night and morning—by Mrs. Norton.'"

The Republican Faith.

San Francisco Bulletin: At an Illinois "reunion of Republicans and Progressives" former Attorney General Wickham made an address in which he wanted to know if it did not "seem the duty of every elector who professes the Republican faith to help run the Democrats out of Washington and restore that party which alone has demonstrated capacity for constructive statesmanship."

But Wickham did not define what he meant by the "Republican faith," and nobody else knows what it is except ex-President Taft, who won't tell.

The Republican faith is a genuine "Republican faith" in anything save the almighty dollar and the desirability of getting back into office if it can be got back into office.

It is a faith in a president upon the country.

Keeping Up With Minnesota Editors

Press Comments on Current Events.

Nipping at His Heels.

Virginia Enterprise: This is the age of the jingo, and of course he must have his day, but there is one form of his activities particularly aggravated that is more of an injustice than is generally realized. It is that which results in petty criticism of big men.

Perhaps no one has suffered more from this recently than Secretary of State Bryan. In his case the prompting motive has been much the same as that behind the "river of doubt" incident with Col. Roosevelt. It is largely the result of narrow personal malice.

We have heard a good deal of the dignity of the office of secretary of state. We have heard Mr. Bryan ridiculed for going on the lecture platform and belittled for sins of omission and commission. As a matter of fact, Mr. Bryan is one of the biggest men at Washington or in the United States. It is rather to his credit than otherwise that he should condescend to appear on the lecture platform and give to the people the knowledge on public affairs which other statesmen would not.

We have heard of the "river of doubt" incident with Col. Roosevelt. It is largely the result of narrow personal malice.

Another "Dry" Treaty.

Madison Independent-Press: The supreme court of the United States has decided certain territory in Northern Minnesota to be "dry territory" as per treaty with the Indians in 1855.

Well, what about the treaty of Traverse des Sioux? That treaty was a "dry" one and if it should be enforced would cause a "dry" law to go up from towns such as New Ulm. It would also put all of Lac qui Parle county in "dry" territory.

What Requirement?

Little Falls Transcript: The claim has been made by some that women are not ready for the ballot. Taking into consideration the status of some of the male voters, one cannot but speculate as to what state or condition of preparedness is required of women.

In Uncle Joe Seeking an Annapolis Club Membership.

Albert Lee, Standard: Uncle Joe Cannon threatens to publish some of the intimate personal correspondence he had with Teddy Roosevelt in days gone by and intimates that the letters would not be of great benefit or comfort to the colonel. What would be the use of the many men who have been the colonel's enemies in argument or made statements not to the president's liking, he would be wiped out of the reading in the past as to understand its present and future drift.

Chicago Tribune: Statistics on the reading of the world compiled recently show a remarkable drift towards serious reading on the part of the working classes of all countries, and more especially of Germany. The workers of the Fatherland read much, and most of this reading is in economics, sociology and philosophy. While the wealthier classes content themselves with reading novels with "tendencious" titles, the workers study the why and wherefore of social progress. They study the march of civilization in the past so as to understand its present and future drift.

To a smaller, but still significant extent, the same tendency is manifest in the United States. Our enlightened workmen take their reading more seriously than the class immediately above them financially. You often find much more sound thinking on politics and events at a labor convention than at a meeting of business men. The drift of real culture the world over seems to be away from the comfortable middle class, and even the rich, to the more harassed and precarious sphere of the wage-earner.

A Matter of Initials.

Boston Advertiser: An engineer who was repairing a railway line in South Africa found a cozy farmhouse, which he proceeded to occupy.

Promptly came a telegram which read: "G. T. M. wants house."

The engineer wondered who "G. T. M." might be. On inquiry he found it referred to the general traffic manager.

"All right," he murmured. So he wired back: "G. T. M. can G. T. H."

Two days later there came a very indignant and self-important gentleman. It was the general traffic manager. In coldly polite tones he asked the engineer what he meant by sending such an insolent message.

The engineer said innocently: "Why it wasn't insolent."

"What do you mean, then, by saying I can G. T. H?"

"Simply an abbreviation," explained the engineer. "I wired that the G. T. M.—the general traffic manager—can G. T. H.—get the house."

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest. Letters should be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

A GENEROUS OFFER.

To the Editor of The Herald:
I have read with interest and sorrow the case of Mrs. Volina Coppens of Itasca, Wis.
This poor woman was drowned the other day. She had been working hard night and day to keep her children together, as the father met the same fate one year ago. Now my sympathy goes out to this family, and we want to make this proposition to the general public that we will give $5 each month to help keep these children together and we ask the public to contribute their share. This plan will be under the supervision of the probate of the humane society of Superior, Wis. The intent can readily be seen. It keeps the young children together, which the mother strived to do, and the little amounts we all contribute will not be felt by any one of us. Thanking you for the space and for publishing the same, I am, respectfully yours,
A. A. KING.
Duluth, June 17.

THE FIRST RAILROAD.

To the Editor of The Herald:
Through your most valuable paper we wish to learn which country was the proud possessor of the first steam engine and railroad. Trusting that this will meet with a ready answer, I remain, yours truly,
ONE WHO WISHES TO KNOW.
Cloquet, Minn., June 17.

The first railroad was laid in England in 1801 and the first steam locomotive hauled loads over it in 1804. Previous to this horse power was used on the line.—The Editor.

"BIG SIX."

To the Editor of The Herald:
Will you please tell me, through the Open Court, why Christy Mathewson is called "The Big Six"? And also tell me how old George Dauss, now pitching for Detroit, is. Yours
L. ROE.
Coeleatine, Minn., June 16.

"Big Six" is a nick name from the automobile world. It signifies a big, powerful, six-cylindered car, with plenty of speed and power. A "big six" is a common phrase with motorists, and it is not difficult to see how it came to be applied to Mathewson. The Editor has no record of the age of Dauss.—The Editor.

THE GOVERNOR AND LAW VIOLATION.

To the Editor of The Herald:
"Beer Flows and Dice Rattle While Governor Speaks."—Herald, June 14. "Chisholm Pastor Defends the Eagles."—Herald, June 15.

Such was the large bold-faced headline in the range news of The Herald of June 15.

In 1 Cor. 4-2, we read: "Moreover, it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful." Think of the chief steward of the state mixed up with such a wholesale violation of the law for the protection of the Lord's day. Think of the effect of such a scene on the young people.

If they have a grand jury over there who stand for clean city, county, state and obedience of law, Mr. Eberhart, with the officials of Chisholm, will be mixed up in the clutches of the law and that would be what should come to pass.

Ex-Governor Folk has said and rightly: "The man who violates law is not a Democrat, nor a Republican, but a criminal."

A preacher in it, too!

Psalm 94-20, we read: "Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by law. Some chapter, splendid editorial will rise up for me against the evil doers? or, who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?" Hosea, 4-6.

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." And verse 9: "Like people like priest." Hab. 1-4: "Therefore the law is slackened, and judgment doth

MRS. WINN'S ADVICE TO WOMEN

Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be Restored to Health.

Kansas City, Mo.—"The doctors told me I would never be a mother. Every month with the pain were so bad that I could not bear my weight on one foot. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had not finished the first bottle when I felt greatly relieved and I took it until it made me sound and well, and I now have two fine baby girls. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly for what it has done for me. I always speak in favor of your medicine to other women who suffer when I have an opportunity."—Mrs. H. T. WINN, 1225 Fremont Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Read What Another Woman says: Cumming, Ga.—"I tell some suffering woman every day of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it has done for me. I could not eat or sleep, had a bad stomach and was in misery all the time. I could not do my housework or walk any distance without suffering great pain. I tried doctors' medicines and different patent medicines but failed to get relief. My husband brought home your Vegetable Compound and in two weeks I could eat anything, could sleep like a healthy baby, and walk a long distance without feeling tired. I can highly recommend your Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did, and you are at liberty to use this letter."—Mrs. CHARLIE BAGLEY, R. 3, Cumming, Ga.

WILSON AND THE OPPOSITION

By SAVOYARD

Washington, June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—Woodrow Wilson is not only the president of the United States, but he is also the leader of the Democratic party. The people commissioned him to bring about certain changes in our affairs and with resolution and diligence he set about the task. First the tariff was reformed to the confusion and dismay of monopoly. Then he extorted a banking system from a reluctant congress that promises to be of immense advantage to the business of all the people.

He was accused of all sorts of bossism and czarism, but he never wavered. He had a program and allowed no clamor to divert him from the path he had marked out.

At the beginning he served notice on business that he would not relax his efforts until there was a reform of the tariff, a reform of the currency, and further legislation concerning trusts and monopolies to the end that there should be no more scandals like the insurance rascality, or the absorption of Tennessee Coal & Iron, or the New Haven, Alton, Rock Island and Frisco high finance capers and shames. It was perfectly understood by everybody that these reforms were the president's ultimatum.

The opposition in congress sought to defeat tariff reform, and the bill that should have been the law before August 1 did not become the law until after Oct. 1. The banking bill should have been enacted before the autumnal equinox; it was postponed until after the Christmas holidays.

Filibusters were organized and successfully practiced and so effective were they that the anti-trust legislation is just now begun, whereas it should have been completed months ago. The people instructed Wilson to accomplish these things, and the president has importuned congress to deliver itself of such legislation, but the minority in the two houses insist that the people were all wrong and that Wilson is a czar for urging the representatives of the people and the states or Hamilton, Calhoun or Webster. But he is more than that. He has the strength of will shown by Andrew Jackson. There is no bluster like Roosevelt's, no violent outbursts like "Old Hickory's," but it is steady, cool, sedate, adamant, inexorable. He knows what he wants and he knows how to get it. The tariff would have been reformed and the currency reformed and the ship subsidy bill would have been passed but for the filibuster against the anti-trust bills.

Long ago congress realized that Wilson has an intellect equal in capacity to that of any man our country ever produced, not excepting Jefferson or Hamilton, Calhoun or Webster. But he is more than that. He has the strength of will shown by Andrew Jackson. There is no bluster like Roosevelt's, no violent outbursts like "Old Hickory's," but it is steady, cool, sedate, adamant, inexorable. He knows what he wants and he knows how to get it. The tariff would have been reformed and the currency reformed and the ship subsidy bill would have been passed but for the filibuster against the anti-trust bills.

He has been characterized as a dreamer; he has been stigmatized as a coward, subservient to Great Britain; never go forth." Second Thes., 2-6 and 14 and 15th verses: "Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother."

The devil can satisfy some people with some very cheap stuff, then they lose all. A SUBSCRIBER.

TAG DAY RESULTS.

To the Editor of The Herald:
The Red, White and Blue society herewith extends its thanks to you for some splendid editorials in relation to our tag day, June 13. They were encouraging and helpful in the extreme to the cause we were working for. Through it we were somewhat cool in Duluth that day, the result was gratifying, and let me say in this connection that for an undertaking of this kind the support of the entire press of the community is essential. As for the society ever asking for another tag day, "Never again!"

It may interest you as well as the general public to know that the sale of miniature silk flags amounted to $403.69. This year the expenses for the sale, including the staging of the parade of the girls, representing all the United States and territories, were necessarily heavier than last year's.

Thanks are indeed due to the mothers of those children who volunteered in costume, also to the representatives of the navy, marine corps and army, who furnished the color guard for the cortege's flag.

A delectable luncheon was served the members of the society in the Y. W. C. A. building. Mrs. H. E. Post, president, presided at the table.

The proceeds were counted in the First National bank under the supervision of the assistant cashier, William W. Wells. Our actual expenses were as follows: Flags, $65; bunting, $4.98; printing, $7; collection boxes, $3; band music, $5; luncheon, $16; typewriting, 85 cents; postage, 41 cents; car fare and miscellaneous, $2.85; amounting to $103.77.

The sum of $300 has been placed on a separate account to the credit of the proposed St. Louis County hospital. This money will be used for the equipment of a children's ward when that institution becomes a reality through the efforts of the Woman's Council. Respectfully,
MRS. JOSEPH LONGGREN,
Treasurer, Red, White and Blue Society.

$90,000 VESSEL AND CARGO LOST.

Seward, Alaska, June 18.—Forty-five men of the crew of the cannery ship Parahiba, wrecked May 23, in Los Pados, arrived here on the steamer Dora yesterday and were transferred to the steamship Northwestern, which is taking them to Seattle.

The Parahiba, which was carrying 176 men and supplies and machinery to the ship of the Bristol Bay Packing company, was caught in a gale off Biorika Island, near Unimak pass, and went on the rocks. The vessel was worked off the rocks, but was found to be sinking and was beached in Lost Harbor.

Vessel and cargo, valued at $90,000, are a total loss, but all aboard reached shore safely.

he has been denounced as a vacillating weakling in his foreign policy; but he has kept on in the path he marked out, and of him it might be writ: "Giant oaks owe half their greatness To the tempest's scathing power."

Instead of being a visionary, Lincoln himself was not more practical; instead of being a politician, Jackson himself was not more resolute; instead of being a weakling, Bismarck himself had not more vitality.

It is amusing to see the Republicans act as we Democrats used to when shouting before the election. Don't you remember when Francis Kernan, a Democrat, was elected United States senator from New York the year Wilson carried the Empire state for governor? We said that New York was sealed to the Democracy and would not again go astray, and that was only one case of scores. The Republicans are claiming majorities in both houses of the Sixty-fourth congress, and while it is quite likely that they may curtail the Democratic supremacy in the house of representatives, the chances are more than seven to one that the Democratic majority in the senate will be materially increased.

But even should we lose the house as the result of the filibusters in congress, the reforms demanded by Wilson will be the law of the land. There will be two years to try them. If they prove disastrous then there will be nobody but Teddy in it in 1916. If, on the other hand, it should turn out that business prosper under the Wilson policies, then everything political in the land will be Democratic except Teddy, and perhaps, the Mormon church.

Give the man a chance. The tariff is only eight months old and the banking bill is only five months old and not yet organized. The amendments to the Sherman anti-trust law are not yet a law of the land and the country will be fortunate if the opposition to the administration in the senate allow a vote on them by Oct. 1.

Talk about cowardice, here are your cowards, the minority of the United States senate, who fear the people and sustain the president when his program is completed and tested. Congress would be adjourned this very moment but for the moral and political poltroonery of the Republicans in the United States senate, who put the veto on the Wilson policies which the people had endorsed.

Of course business is not going to boom until the law is settled. But Republican squad in the senate knows that, and hence those filibusters; but there is a master at the helm, and will bet before they are done with him—here November, 1916—he will have them see more stars than are in the firmament and cut more and more than all the dancing masters in France.

And Vardaman! Vardaman, who thinks the people will put the knife to the throat of the Democracy, and if it does not go in for the ship subsidy—Vardaman!

O ye of little faith and enormous heresy!

CROP NEWS HELPS TRADE

Increased Sales in All Lines Are Reported By Duluth Jobbers.

Optimistic Views Held By Merchants Through This Territory.

A further quickening in trade is advised by the sales managers of the jobbing establishments at the Head of the Lake this week. This is shown by reports through the growing crop reports coming from all parts of the Northwest, and the increased confidence thus engendered.

While country merchants are, as a rule, pursuing a policy of "sit tight" till such a time as the harvest is assured, optimism is extending in all quarters. That sentiment is also shared by those who are showing a greater disposition to extend financial accommodation to customers to cover seasonal requirements.

That consumptive requirements through the territory are broadening is attested by the increased number of current orders being placed in various lines.

Sugars Are Advancing. The strong situation in sugars is a feature in the wholesale trade this week, according to the Twenty-Elmton Mercantile company of Superior. Orders for the commodity were advanced ten points yesterday, making a bulge of between thirty and forty points during the last two weeks. In view of the promised liberal yield of fruit this season, retailers are preparing for a heavy demand in sugars and they are ordering accordingly.

Coffees are firm at their advance of 1/2 cent reported last week. There is, however, a feeling of uncertainty regarding the future course of prices in view of the heavy stock at the leading primary markets and the reported difficulty being experienced by the Brazilian government in financing its valorization plan.

Dried fruits are strong all the way round, with prunes especially so. Futures in canned vegetables are inclined to be easier on expected large supplies this season and a disposition on the part of jobbers to hold back their orders.

Rolls oats and other cereals continue firm, and the market in other grocery staples is featureless.

Dry Goods Orders Increase. Current orders in dry goods are reported gratifying by F. J. Patrick & Co. Records in summer lines are featuring and taken all round reports from salesmen regarding the outlook for the fall trade are all on the optimistic order. Orders in woollens are still coming to hand in fair volume, insuring capacity operations of the company's factories throughout the balance of the season.

Furniture Trade Good. Our business in furniture is running well ahead of last year and substantial improvement has been shown since the beginning of the month," said C. E. De Witt of the De Witt-Beitz furniture company, who is picking up in the Northern Michigan Copper country was commented upon by him. That is attributed to operations by the various mining companies

TO THE PUBLIC:

THE State of New York, through its Department of Insurance, has completed the examination of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company which it is required by law to make every three years. The Chief Examiner, in concluding the report, said:

"The treatment by this Company of its policy-holders in the prompt payment of their claims, in the voluntary payment of millions of dollars in bonuses, and in its social welfare work—features of the Company's business which deserve commendation."

The Superintendent of Insurance, the Hon. William Temple Emmet, in approving the report, wrote an extended review from which we make extracts:

THE COMPANY'S GROWTH AND MANAGEMENT.

"The administrative officers of the Company * * * have so increased the assets of the Company as to make these equal the resources of many states and even nations. They have at the same time steadily cheapened the cost of insurance to policy-holders, both by direct means and by the distribution of bonuses."

[The report shows that the Company has given back $35,367,293 in bonuses to Industrial policy-holders in nineteen years.]

"They have extended the Company's business to such an extent as to bring it into contact now with approximately one-eighth of the population of the United States."

[The number of policies outstanding December 31, 1913, was 13,957,748.]

"That this notable growth has involved no sacrifice of efficiency in the handling of administrative details, but, on the contrary, has been the direct result of constantly increasing efficiency, is shown by the comparatively small losses sustained by the Company in proportion to the large investments made."

ITS POLICY-HOLDERS SATISFIED.

"The fact that the percentage of lapses due to the abandonment of their insurance by policy-holders is constantly decreasing, speaks eloquently to the same effect."

[The lapse ratio of Industrial policies has decreased 31.7 per cent in eight years.]

"This last mentioned development is perhaps the most convincing evidence which could be offered that the Company's policy-holders are, broadly speaking, very well satisfied indeed with what they get in return for the premiums they pay. A very remarkable showing altogether."

ITS SOCIAL SERVICE.

"This Company waited for no changes in existing law before striking out as a pioneer among insurance companies along the pathway of social service on a huge scale."

"For years it has maintained for its policy-holders a nursing service upon a great scale; this has latterly become a veritable marvel of efficiency and practical helpfulness."

[Metropolitan nurses made 1,127,022 visits to sick policy-holders in 1913, for which the Company paid the bills.]

"Leaving out of consideration the mere numbers of those who have been directly benefited by these activities, I think that the example which the Metropolitan has set to other great business organizations by its early recognition of the new responsibilities attaching to all business enterprises which have attained a certain size, is one of the most beneficial of recent occurrences in the field of American business. For years it has through its publications upon the question of health conservation been serving multitudes of people as a sort of University of beneficial instruction upon this most important subject."

ABREAST OF MODERN THOUGHT.

"This great institution, having so very recently been under our critical scrutiny and presenting so many admirable illustrations of what an efficient and enlightened modern business organization on a large scale can do in the way of keeping abreast of modern thought, seems to be in a position where I may properly use it as an illustration * * * that private initiative and enterprise are at their best still capable of doing the finest possible work in fields from which, latterly, all the talk has been that these agencies should be compelled to retire."

having become normal and to the fact that retailers' stocks are abnormally light.

Montana Field Broadens. F. E. Church, sales manager of the Northwest Shoe company, advised that several new accounts have been opened during the last few days by salesmen covering Western North Dakota and Montana. While June is the off month in the footwear business it is an excellent time to lead to marked expansion in the trade of Duluth jobbers.

Stationery Sales Expand. A substantial gain over last year in the volume of sales of stationery and building and roofing papers was reported by the Peyton Paper company. Outside of a few points on the railways gratifying gains are the rule throughout the territory. The development was especially marked in the western portion of this state and through Northern Wisconsin.

Hardware Quotations Steady. A remarkable expansion in shipments of general hardware is advised by the Kelley-How-Thomson company and the Marshall-Wells Hardware company. Harvesting tools and machinery continue to move out freely and a great tendency is being shown by retail merchants to anticipate their requirements by placing orders in advance.

Record Sales of Sweets. The present season is reported by Winkler Bros., candy manufacturers, to have been the best in their business history. The firm is specializing in chocolates, in which a good trade is being developed in the towns throughout this district.

ATTORNEY AFTER PLACE ON BOARD

O. J. Larson Announces Candidacy for School Director at July Election.

Oscar J. Larson, Duluth attorney, will be a candidate for a place on the school board July 18.

Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by Mr. Larson. He said that his action was the result of pressure which had been brought to bear upon him by his friends and followed careful consideration on his part.

"It is too early to make any sort of statement as to the contest," said Mr. Larson yesterday. "All that I can say now is that I intend to be in the race."

HOMICIDE MAY GO TO ASYLUM

State Must Show Cause Why Lawler Should Not Be Committed.

An order signed by Judge Bert Foster requiring the state to show cause if any there be, why Charles Patrick Lawler, who shot and killed his sister-in-law, Mary Lawler, on the night of April 10, should not be committed to the state hospital for the criminal insane at St. Peter, was served yesterday on County Attorney Warren E. Greene by Thomas J. McKeon, attorney for Lawler.

At the hearing, the court will take the testimony of physicians who have examined Lawler as to his mental and physical condition.

Whether the prisoner will be obliged to stand trial on an indictment charging him with first degree murder or he is a fit subject for the state asylum for the criminal insane.

Attorney McKeon in an affidavit filed with the court yesterday afternoon declared that he believes his client to be mentally unbalanced, that he has talked with him about the crime and that Lawler has no recollection of ever having committed the crime. The attorney also states that Doctors S. E. Boyer and J. A. McKeon have examined Lawler and will testify that in their opinion he is insane.

Lawler and his sister-in-law were alleged the same room at the Astoria hotel April 10, the night of the shooting. After Lawler had shot the woman, he turned the gun against himself, but his attempt at self-destruction was unsuccessful. He inflicted only a flesh wound. At the time of the shooting, Lawler was in a highly nervous condition brought on by excessive drinking. It is believed that his mind was upset by the affair and that he is now hopelessly insane.

M'CALL DRAWS FARM SENTENCE

Pleads Guilty to Receiving Stolen Property—Burglary Case Dropped.

Herbert McCall will spend ninety days at the county and city work farm for the connection he had with the theft of $1,500 worth of jewelry from the D. A. Miller jewelry store, 217 West Superior street, on the morning of March 15 last.

McCall, awaiting a second trial on an indictment charging him with the burglary of the Miller store, was yesterday allowed by the court to plead guilty to information prepared by Assistant County Attorney John McCall, charging the crime of having received stolen property.

McCall was arrested shortly after the Miller store had been burglarized and several articles of jewelry which were found upon him were identified by Miller as a part of the loot. The jury which tried McCall, however, could not agree that McCall was the man who had broken into the place, as charged by the indictment.

Following McCall's admission on the fact that the property which he had in his possession was stolen property, the county attorney's office decided to dismiss the burglary charge and prefer one of receiving stolen property against him. Judge Foster gave McCall a workhouse sentence. He has been in jail since his arrest.

PLAY POLO ON FLOOR OF STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, June 18.—Spectators who went to the New York exchange yesterday to see how brokers beguiled the time during the present lull in the market found eight prominent members engaged in a fierce game of polo. There was little difference in the speed of the ponies, for they consisted of long sticks with a head at the top and a smooth running wheel at the bottom.

One four, distinguished by shirt-sleeves and gray polo caps, was captained by Charles Knoblauch. The rival four wore alpaca coats and were led by J. B. Buchanan. Both sides carried long handled croquet mallets, which they swung recklessly.

As the teams took their places a soccer football was tossed into the field, and with this mixed assortment of implements the two fours fell into battle. The game lasted fifteen minutes and resulted in a draw.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

Written for The Herald By Rev. J. S. Kirtley, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: JUNE 21.
Mark x, 17-31: The Great Refusal.

CONNECTION.
The Master was on His way to Jerusalem, whether it was before He passed through Jericho or not, we cannot tell. But He had the cross before Him, and was consciously on the way thither. Though His mind was full of thoughts of the coming passion He gave Himself up to instructing, healing and encouraging people as if He thought of nothing else.

A Tragical Decision. 17-22.
"And as He was going forth into the way, there ran one to Him, and knelted to Him, and asked Him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou Me good? None is good save one, even God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor thy father and mother. And he said unto Him, Teacher, all these things have I observed from my youth, and have not sinned. And Jesus, looking upon him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest, go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me. But he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions."

I. THE MAN.—He was a most interesting man in eight respects, at least. First, he was young as we learn from Matthew's account of it, therefore with his whole life before him. Second, he was rich, which meant he had power and opportunity and great temptation. Third, he was a ruler, as we learn from Luke, which meant that he had official as well as personal influence in religious and social affairs. Fourth, he was of a good moral character, as was evident from the fact that he had made a specialty of keeping all the commandments of God, the best he knew how. Fifth, he must have had an attractive personality, from the way Jesus loved him after looking at him carefully and hearing his statements. Sixth, he was conscious of a serious defect, perhaps a lack of peace in spite of all his attempts at keeping the law of God, as Paul seems to have had a similar disquietude even after being "found blameless" in the routine of the Pharisees. Seventh, he was very much in earnest, for he came running to Jesus, with a sincere desire to learn what the one last requisite was. Eighth, he was deferential to Jesus as a true and wise teacher, for he knelt before Him as students knelt before renowned and eminent rabbis.

2. THE REQUEST.—It was in harmony with his personality and history and courage was required to confess, in the presence of the enemies of Jesus, that he thought he could answer the deep question of his soul. He must have meant by "eternal life" a place in His Messianic kingdom, here and a continued life beyond the grave, though he thought it was to be won by some specific great deed of keeping the law.

3. THE REPLY.—It was wonderful, which Jesus first, by a question, takes his mind away from the ceremonial goodness of the law and the conventional goodness of the Tabernacle for the young called Jesus. "Good" as he did the others, to real spiritual goodness, in the essence, in God. He does not raise the question as to whether He Himself is good like God, though elsewhere He claims that. Then Jesus draws him out as to his obedience to the commandments. The young man is hearing all on the law and Jesus shows him where his keeping of the law is defective. He quoted the part of the law about loving one's neighbor as oneself but Mark omits that. Jesus saw what he needed, saw he had not kept the spirit of the law at all. There was the law of love which he knew nothing about. He didn't love his neighbor as himself, Jesus knew that and put him to the test. He was unequal to it. He loved his money better than his neighbor, when came to the test, money was more than love, more than life, more than Christ. Had he chosen aright he would have had a soul sublimer than all material wealth; he would have had a love from men worth more than money he would have had close companionship with Jesus. He lost all. It was tragedy. It would the heart of Jesus. The young man was broken hearted but stuck to his money. There is always one desire deeper than all others and that controls us in crises. There is one darling sin that will stay. Jesus tests that one. He would not subject every one to the money test. He tests the desire for popularity or power or for having one's way. He tests each one's deepest passion.

II. The Peril of Wealth. 23-27.

"And Jesus looked round about, and said unto His disciples, how hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God? And the disciples were amazed at His words. But Jesus answereth again, and said unto them, children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God? It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished exceedingly, saying unto him, then who can be saved? Jesus looking upon them said, with men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God. He took up the matter of wealth after the young man went away with aching heart and said, He says it is impossible for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. The illustration is a well known figure of speech to show how difficult it is. The camel simply can't go through a needle's eye. We speak of looking up a needle in a haystack, which is the figure of exaggeration. The easiest thing to do is the impossible. When we have God to help our willing souls, but the one who loves money is not so good. Willing is to help and money has a way of getting the supreme love of its possessor. Thus one to get into the kingdom is before one gets money and then subordinate it to the King, Jesus."

Rewards of Consecration. 28-31.
Peter began to say unto Him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed Thee, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or sisters, or brothers, and shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, and in the age to come, and shall inherit life everlasting. But many that are first shall be last; and the last first."

1. DISCIPLINE.—Peter was rather plying himself for having given up his trade and home for Jesus and he was looking for material pay. Discipline was enough reward.

2. JOY.—The one who gives up earthly blessings will find the common joys multiplied here on earth and the joys of hereafter beyond number. But their way of estimating it shall change. Those who seem to deserve most come out last and those who seem to deserve the last place may stand at the head. His ways are not theirs. That was a wholesome lesson just then.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.
Someone asked Carlyle what was the greatest hindrance to genuine greatness, and he answered, "The personal pronoun I." The mental habit of putting "I" foremost blocks the way to Christ as effectively as a granite wall. Coward.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.
1. How near was this man to the kingdom?
2. Is there one thing dearer to you than human life?
3. Why and how does love of money kill the soul?
4. What sort of rewards are you seeking for your consecration to Jesus?

ENCAMPMENT AT LAKE CITY

Third Regiment, Col. Resche in Command, Begins Annual Training.

Companies Erect Tents on Their Arrival in Short Time.

Lake City, Minn., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—Under ideal weather conditions the 1914 encampment of the Third Infantry, Minnesota National Guard, began with the arrival of the first section at 8 a. m. yesterday. The special train carrying the first section left Duluth Tuesday night at 9 o'clock over the Great Northern railway and was made up of seven coaches, one sleeper and three baggage cars, which were occupied by Companies A, C and E of Duluth, Company F of Eveleth, Company M of Hibbing, the Third Regiment band, the field and staff officers of Duluth. A stop at Princeton was made where Company G was picked up and at Anoka, where Company B was attached to the special train.

The second section arrived at Camp Lakeview at 11 a. m., which consisted of Companies D, H, I, K, L and the Machine Gun company. Just as soon as the various companies left the cars it was necessary for them to erect their own tents, which was done in remarkably short time. Erected in the morning, the tents were occupied by the companies as in former years the tents were erected and ready to be occupied when the companies arrived. This year the cooking is being done outdoors on the field ranges, and the messes are being dispensed with, which is the same system followed out two years ago when the regiment was at Camp McCoy with the provisional regiment of the regular army.

Since the last encampment there have been quite a number of changes in commanding officers and in the companies. First in command of Col. F. Resche of Duluth, with Lieut. Col. H. E. Egan of Duluth second in rank. The regimental staff consists of: Capt. Roger M. West of Duluth, adjutant; Capt. Carl C. Weaver of Minneapolis, quartermaster; Capt. Roy G. H. Egan of Duluth, commissary; Capt. Claire A. Caley of Princeton, instructor.

the attack, you will say. And so they did. The "biliousness" is nine times out of ten, and is now, simply overeating. Any active cathartic, like calomel or salts or what not, cannot be used a day or two of rest for the stomach, gives relief.

It wasn't bile that caused the trouble, it was indigestion. No offense intended the liver pill industry. Nor is it our purpose to boom calomel.

Questions and Answers.
Mrs. S. C. K. writes: Can arthritis deformans be improved by medical treatment? I have been helpless with it for four years. All the joints are badly affected and out of shape.

ANSWER.
General medical treatment can always improve the condition and diminish the suffering. First it is necessary to eliminate any "deposit" of poison, such as bad teeth, inflamed gums, pus collections anywhere in the body. Next, passive motion and manipulation to prevent ankylosis or rigidity of affected joints. Finally, hot air bathing of the suffering joints. This is necessary to a simple apparatus which can be made by your tinsmith, if necessary. Your doctor must see you at least once a week and supervise the treatment.

S. J. R. inquires: Where would you advise a person who has affected lungs to go—Los Angeles, Phoenix, Ariz., San Antonio, Tex., Colorado Springs, or other point?

ANSWER.
This would depend, first, upon the stage of the disease; second, the patient's financial ability to live as he should live; third, the likelihood of his remaining a lifelong resident of the new home. No patient with tuberculosis should venture on such a journey without assurance of sufficient capital to support him. His own medical attendant is the man to recommend the best resort.

Shredded Wheat

the food that builds muscle and bone and brain—a natural, elemental food—containing no yeast, no baking powder or chemicals of any kind—just the pure whole wheat grain, steam-cooked, shredded and baked. Better than porridges for children because the crispness of the shreds compels mastication which not only develops sound teeth, but is the first process in digestion.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Deliciously nourishing when eaten in combination with baked apples, stewed prunes, sliced bananas or canned or preserved fruits. Try toasted Triscuit, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon with butter, cheese or marmalade.

Made only by The Shredded Wheat Company, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

HEALTH TALKS

William Brady, M.D.

Biliousness

WHEN the modern medical man says that there is no disease or symptom which can properly be called "biliousness," the patient is apt to smile knowingly to himself. In the first place, the patient is bilious, as anybody with half an eye could see; and in the second place, the doctor is using the word "biliousness" here just a few years ago.

The art of healing having been so recently wrested from the hands of uneducated empirics and magicians, it is only natural that the practitioner should still have to do some guessing and "biliousness" makes a good all-round guess for general purposes. The victim of a "bilious" attack, if we have learned the symptoms thoroughly, is "sick at his stomach," has a heavily furred tongue, looks bleary or yellowish about the eyes, complains of dull headache and, most important of all, in his own estimation, ejects green or yellow bile from his stomach. The appearance of bile clinches the diagnosis, so far as the sufferer is concerned—and it used to settle the question in the family doctor's mind, too.

The idea was that the liver had in some way slipped a cog and the bile was traveling against the ordinary current. The symptoms were thus due to bile absorbed into the system, and what you needed was some surefire liver regulator to bring the rebellious organ back to time.

It appears, however, that bile is normally ejected from the stomach when the act of vomiting is repeated and forcible, no matter what the cause. If bile failed to appear, there would be some ground for the suspicion that the liver was on strike.

Furthermore, so far as is known today, there isn't a drug in the materia medica which exerts any particular effect upon the function of the liver, that is, we have no drugs which really increase the flow of bile—not excepting that ancient standby, calomel. So there we are—"bilious," yet without a remedy.

But, the old remedies relieved. Dr. Brady will answer all questions pertaining to Health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through this column; if not it will be answered personally if stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Dr. Brady will not prescribe for individual cases or make diagnoses. Address all letters to Dr. William Brady, Care of The Herald.

OZARK MOB WOUNDS SUBJECT OF GOSSIP.

West Plains, Mo., June 18.—The second attempt of a mob of Ozark mountaineers to drive Mrs. Parmelee Collins from this section, culminated last night in the probably fatal shooting of Isaac Collins, the woman's cousin, the wounding of Mrs. Collins and the burning of the cabin in which they lived.

A month ago, a mob appeared at the Collins home near Horton, this county, and after administering a whipping to Mrs. Parmelee Collins, burned the home of Isaac Collins, a relative with whom she lived. Both women were ordered to leave and Parmelee Collins took refuge with her cousin in another cabin, fifteen miles distant.

Last night a mob of masked men went to the place and knocked for admission. When the door was opened the leader covered the pair with a revolver. Isaac Collins fought off the mob, and he and his cousin ran for a wooded district near the cabin. The mob fired upon them. Isaac was shot in the head. His recovery is doubtful. Mrs. Collins was not seriously wounded.

The first visit of the mob to Mrs. Collins followed gossip of an alleged midnight ride the woman was said to have taken through the settlement near her home.

NE way to get the people of the city interested in cleaning up the city and keeping it clean is to award prizes to the children of the city for essays on "Why a City Should Be Clean, and How the Girls and Boys Can Help to Make and Keep it Clean."

In one city with a population of about 70,000, a public-spirited citizen offered $30 in cash prizes. There was a first prize of $5 for school children in two different grades, a second prize of $4, third prize of $3, fourth prize of $2, and a fifth prize of $1. Over 4,000 essays were submitted. The teacher of each school was asked to pick out ten of the best essays, and the judge of awards in this way received about 100 selected essays from the schools.

SECRETARY WILSON RIDES TOO FAST.
Hyattsville, Md., June 18.—Shortly after receiving the honorary degree of doctor of laws yesterday at the Maryland agricultural college, Secretary of Labor Wilson was charged with being a violator of motor vehicle laws when his automobile was stopped at Bladensburg. Thomas H. Wildman, deputy commissioner of motor vehicles, said the secretary's machine was exceeding the speed limit, which is twelve miles an hour at Bladensburg, by running at the rate of twenty-five miles.

When the secretary established his identity and said he had important official business in Washington to attend to, Wildman apologized and permitted the chauffeur to proceed.

After 52 Weeks, What?

When you have been a "WEEKLY SAVER" for fifty-two weeks you will have acquired two excellent things: First: A cash capital, which will pay you dividends as long as you permit, and which may become the cornerstone of wealth; and second: The THRIEF HABIT, worth more than the cash capital, the governing principle of a successful life.

Contrast the achievement of the "WEEKLY SAVER" with that of the person who deposits "once in a while," withdraws occasionally, and doesn't give himself a chance to get the Thrift Habit.

STUDENT GETS PH. D. DEGREE

First Time It Has Been Given North Dakota U Student.

Some Changes in Faculty of Institution Are Also Announced.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The degree of doctor of philosophy was conferred by the University of North Dakota on George R. Davis, at the annual commencement exercises yesterday. It was the first time that such honor has been accorded a student. The conferring of the degree of doctor of science on Dean E. J. Babcock, who for twenty-five years has been a member of the faculty, was another feature of the commencement.

Announcements of several important faculty changes also were made as follows: Dr. Frank A. Taylor, assistant professor in music; Dr. E. C. Gress, assistant professor in mechanical drawing; Dr. E. H. Heath, assistant professor in chemistry; J. E. Stevens, assistant professor in electrical engineering; J. A. Taylor, assistant professor in English; Miss Alice L. Smith, head of the department of nursing; Mrs. Edna Twanley, head of nursing.

Williams, Minn., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual meeting of the Williams club of the city was held here on June 13. A large crowd was in attendance and thoroughly enjoyed the program of speaking, sports and other amusement. The home baseball team defeated the Roosevelt nine, 7 to 6.

Frank M. Eddy of Minneapolis and Leonard H. Nord of International Falls gave interesting talks on subjects of interest to the farmers.

Addresses were made by C. R. Middleton of Eau Claire and Mr. Hoffstadt of the Duluth Herald.

A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring president, John R. Norris, for the efficient manner in which he carried the club through the first year of existence. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, A. W. Atwater; vice president, Irene Krone; secretary-treasurer, John F. Clark.

The secretary's report showed twenty-three meetings held during the year and an average attendance of thirty-four.

GOOD TEMPLARS TO MEET JUNE 25-27

Annual Gathering of Scandinavian Grand Lodge at Thief River.

Thief River Falls, Minn., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual grand lodge of the Minnesota Scandinavian Independent Order of Good Templars will be held here June 25, 26 and 27 in the Auditorium.

Over 100 delegates are expected to be the guests of the city for the three days.

Last year the convention was held in Minneapolis, and at that meeting Thief River Falls was chosen as the meeting place for this year. There is no I. O. G. T. organization here, either English or Scandinavian. The only Scandinavian lodge around here is the Breidablik lodge, in the Englewood neighborhood, which has a membership of fifty-five. A few people from Thief River Falls belong to this lodge.

The Scandinavian grand lodge of Minnesota has about 100 subordinate lodges with a membership of about 4,000 scattered all over the state. The present officers of the grand lodge are: Carl Carlson, Minneapolis, grand chief; templar, and A. M. Wold, Minneapolis, grand chief secretary.

The convention here will close with a banquet on Saturday night and a picnic at Valhalla Sunday, June 28.

HENRY CLAY BLANCHE BLANKS THE FARGOITES

The Salubrious Slabbing of the Poet Beats Unglaubs, 5 to 0.

Herr Griessel Twirls Fair Ball, But Wobbles in a Pinch.

BY BRUCE.

Henry Clay Blanche, poet and student of baseball economies, yielded four scattered hits in the game of yesterday, and as a consequence of the salubrious slabbing of the bookman, Col. Bob Unglaub's Fargo and across the river aggregation, was beautifully blanked by the score of 5 to 0. While the subject is fresh let us state that the win of yesterday was the ninth straight victory.

Pray let us enter into some of the statistics of the game. One of the opposing runners reached third base. He had no more than time to take a deep breath before the side was out. But one of the Fargo and social side of the river combination reached second. One of the four hits gathered was of the order of the scratch. But though scratches didn't count down on the Rio Grande, they nevertheless count in baseball. There was more than one hit made. The visitors had about as much chance to score as Hinky Dink has of capturing a Rhoades scholarship.

Opposed to the keen intellectual flingings of Henry Clay Blanche was Herr Griessel. The German twirled a good game, but labored under a handicap. Col. Bob Unglaub has sternly forbidden his athletes to cross the turgid Red River of the North. Those of you who have been so fortunate or so unfortunate as to have been in Fargo, know what this means. Coming from Milwaukee, Griessel was unused to the water they use in Fargo and as a consequence has been somewhat off his feed.

The Visitors Wobble. At times the support of Herr Griessel wobbled, like a canvas ship in a stage storm. In the third round we have upon the part of Herr Griessel was directly responsible for two of these. Outside of this fact and the alibi of the water they are compelled to drink in Fargo, and the further fact that we hit when his meant runs, Griessel pitched a good game. Al. Bert Sweeley, the never to be forgotten third by walking. Mr. Blanche surprised that section of the world that knows him best, by cleanly singling by third. Mr. Brackett disappointed many of the ladies in the crowd by striking out. Bud Croake forced Blanche at second base, while the crowd tiling to do when Mr. Blanche gets on the bases he should be allowed the privilege of remaining there as long as possible. Paw Paw Sweeley moved to third on the force of Blanche and Croake. Bond walked and James Collins was hit on the finger, forcing Sweeley across the plate. Ford hit a wee one down the third base line and Griessel heaved the pill over the classic onion of Col. Unglaub and two runs came across the platter.

George Harlinton Hargrove doubled to right center in the fourth and across the dead line when Dye permitted the roller of Paw Paw Alumnus Sweeley to go through his limbs. One more counter came in the sixth round when Wolfe singled, advanced to third on the second double of Hargrove and scored on the infield out of Blanche. At the close of the game Mr. Blanche

TROUNCE THE CANADIANS

Virginia Team Takes Fort William Into Camp 8 to 2.

Fort William, Ont., June 18.—Fort William could collect but four scattered hits off Faeth yesterday in a game that was called in the seventh to allow the visitors to catch a train. Sunday's error robbed Faeth of a shutout. The Canucks made four errors that were mixed in with timely hitting, while the Ore. Diggers ran wild on the bases. Score: R. H. E. Fort William.....0 0 0 0 2 0 2 4 4 Batteries—Faeth and Hargrove; Weidell, Sutton, Chapman and Handchin.

TAKE THIRD STRAIGHT.

Winnipeg Wins Again Before Crowd of 2,500 Fans.

Winnipeg, Man., June 18.—Winnipeg stuck the harpoon into Eddie Wheeler's Grand Forks brigade a little deeper by taking the third straight game from the former league leaders yesterday. The contest was one of the wildest played here this year, going to the maroons in the eighth round by a count of 8 to 7. Both teams took turns in taking the lead and the game was not decided until the last man was retired in the ninth when Grand Forks had two men on the bases. Though outlit, the locals made their hits count, home runs by Jack and Wilkes figuring prominently in the scoring. Twenty-five hundred fans attended, making nearly 10,000 for the three games. Score: R. H. E. Grand Forks.....7 11 11

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Boston Takes Both.

Boston, Mass., June 18.—Boston took two games from Chicago yesterday, winning in the morning, 8 to 3, and in the afternoon, 7 to 3. Hits were extra bases by Deal and Schmidt were important factors in the morning game, played because of the observance of Bunker Hill day. Zabel's wildness, an error by Sweeney and two singles gave Boston three runs in the first inning. Three more were scored in the third when, after Connolly had walked and Maranville was safe on Corridon's error, Blanche doubled and Deal tripled. Zabel was driven from the box in this inning and Humphries relieved him. With two on bases in the fifth Deal doubled, driving in two runs. Chicago could not touch Boston. The Braves got away to a five-run lead in the first inning of the afternoon game. Pierce, who started to pitch for the Cubs, was wild, passing on a pass, a hit batter and another. Schmidt singled and Mann cracked out a triple with the bases filled before Smith was called. James held Chicago safe until the seventh, when Corridon got a home run. A pass, a single and Corridon's double gave Chicago two runs in the eighth. Score: R. H. E. Boston.....11 10 10 0 0 8 8 1
Chicago.....0 3 0 2 0 0 0 8 5

Giants Shut Out Pirates. New York, June 18.—For the second day in succession New York shut out Pittsburgh with five scattered hits, the Giants winning, 5 to 0. Mathewson, the star pitcher, pitched for the first time in five days. The New York bunched hits on McQuillan ran wild on the bases. The locals scored a run in the first inning on a passed ball, a steal of third and Burns single. Two more counted in the sixth on two passes, a sacrifice and two singles. Robertson hit driving in the runs. Another two came in the seventh on two passes, four steals, an error by Gibson and Fletcher's single. Bessler stole home in the eighth. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 5 2
New York.....5 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Batteries—McQuillan and Gibson; Mathewson and Meyers. Umpires—Klen and Emsale.

Phillies 5; Cardinals 4. Philadelphia, June 18.—Home runs and doubles were numerous in yesterday's game, which was won by Philadelphia in the tenth inning, 5 to 4. When Becker singled, Lebert stepped and Sherwood McGee drove the ball into the bleachers and was given credit for a two-bagger. It was McGee's fourth double in five times at bat. Of St. Louis' nine hits, five were doubles and one a home run by Wilcox. Philadelphia's ten safeties included a home run by Becker and four two-baggers. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia.....10 0 0 0 0 10 11 6 10 2
St. Louis.....1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 2
Batteries—Doak, Griner and Sallee; Alexander, Meyer and Burns, Kilfiter. Umpires—Hart and Rigler.

Dodgers 2; Reds 1. Brooklyn, N. Y., June 18.—Brooklyn took a ten-inning game from Cincinnati 2 to 1 yesterday after a pitchers' battle that was marked by much wrangling. Both Pfeffer and Douglas were effective, the former allowing only one run and the latter getting eleven strike-outs. Wheat hit to Groh and a double play was apparently easy, but Umpire Quigley called both runners safe. Herzog, Clarke and Coacher Mulaney were ordered off the field and Umpire Quigley was forced to produce his watch before the visitors would resume play. After Dalton scored on a passed ball by Gonzalez, who had replaced Clarke, Cincinnati tied the game in the tenth when Fletcher walked, stole second and scored on Berghammer's error. A one-handed catch by Dalton featured the game. Score: R. H. E. Cincinnati.....0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 1

AMERICAN LEAGUE

White Sox 5; Athletics 0.

Chicago, June 18.—Urban Faber held the world's champions to one hit yesterday and blanked the league leaders 5 to 0. Catcher Lapp was the only member of the world's champions to hit safely. An error of judgment by Blackburn was what cost Faber the honor of a no-hit game. Lapp grounded toward second in the ninth inning, and Blackburn, instead of coming in on the ball, ran back a few steps and Faber beat the throw by a narrow margin. Blackburn fumbled Walsh's grounder and Kopf, who ran for Lapp, reached third, the only visitor to pass second base. Chicago won the game by bunting hits off Brown and Bessler, taking advantage of the visitors' erratic fielding, and a couple of bases on balls off Brown. Eddie Collins, although charged with two errors, played a sensation.

Naps 7; Senators 2.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 18.—The Naps beat Washington yesterday 7 to 2 and made a clean sweep of the four-game series. Al Colaninno pitched well, although he was in trouble several times. Shaw was ineffective after the fourth inning. Manager Birmingham of the Naps was ejected from the field by Umpire Dineen when he objected to a decision. Pans in the bleachers threw pop bottles at Dineen as he followed Birmingham to the subway. Score: R. H. E. Cleveland.....0 1 0 0 2 0 2 7 12 0

Brewers 10; Hoosiers 6.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 18.—Milwaukee pounded the ball all over the lot yesterday and won an easy victory by a score of 10 to 6. Scharf, who started, was taken out at the end of the third after the champions had pounded out nine hits and seven runs. Hoyt pitched good ball outside of the fifth, when the visitors bunched five of their eight hits for four runs. Beal's hit, which tied the game, was a home run. Milwaukee.....3 4 0 2 0 0 1 0 10 15 3

Ex-Mudhens 4; Saints 3.

St. Paul, Minn., June 18.—St. Paul's three errors in the first inning gave Cleveland a lead that the home team could not overtake, and the visitors won 4 to 3. In the eighth, St. Paul made five hits, but a fast double play prevented more than two runs being

HAL CHASE MAY LEAD A BASEBALL REVOLUTION

HAL CHASE.

Hal Chase may be one of the leaders in the second great raid upon the stars of organized baseball. The Federal league has not made the headway in the affections of the fans that was expected. Therefore, desperate measures have been planned. Chase has been signed by the Buffalo team of the Federal league, and with the going of the former peerless first baseman will go other of the stars of organized baseball.

That was marked by much wrangling. Both Pfeffer and Douglas were effective, the former allowing only one run and the latter getting eleven strike-outs. Wheat hit to Groh and a double play was apparently easy, but Umpire Quigley called both runners safe. Herzog, Clarke and Coacher Mulaney were ordered off the field and Umpire Quigley was forced to produce his watch before the visitors would resume play. Browns 4; Red Sox 0. St. Louis, Mo., June 18.—St. Louis with Hamilton pitching in rare form, turned the tables on Boston yesterday afternoon and won the final game of the season. Two runs bunched behind in the ninth inning, Detroit started a characteristic rally. Kavanagh and Burns singled and McAlle was taken out of the box, Caldwell relieving him. New York bunched hits in the first and third innings to make runs. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis.....0 2 0 0 0 0 0 4 8 2

Colonels 3; Kaws 1. Kansas City, Mo., June 18.—Louisville defeated Kansas City, 3 to 1, yesterday in an 11-inning pitchers' battle between Loudermilk and Gallia. Loudermilk allowed only two hits and fanned sixteen men, coming within one of equaling the American association strike-out record. Gallia pitched well until the eleventh when he weakened and in a walk, a double and single, broke up the game. Loudermilk hit a home run in the third inning. The locals tied it up in the sixth when Rath walked, stole second, and in the third on Severid's low throw and scored when Osborn threw over Dodge's head. Score: R. H. E. ## NIBLACK RECEIVER FOR LORNER'S BANK; GRAND JURY MAY ACT

Official's Bond Is Fixed By Court at $2,500,000.

Director Denies Note for $169,925 Found in Assets.

"No Hurry About Criminal Prosecutions," Says Hoyne.

Chicago, June 19.—The La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank, which was closed by a state examiner last week, was placed in the hands of a receiver today. W. C. Niblack, vice president of the Chicago Title & Trust company, was named for the position by Judge Windes, who placed his bond at $2,500,000.

The closing of this bank was followed by the closing of a number of smaller institutions linked with the Lorner-Munday bank.

The petition for a receiver was filed by Patrick J. Lucey, attorney-general of Illinois. Lucey said that if developments warranted, grand jury proceedings might be looked for.

Charles E. Ward, whose name was signed to a personal unsecured note for $169,925 found among the bank's assets, asserted today that he never borrowed the money. Ward was Lorner's private secretary when the former occupied a seat in the United States senate. He was a director of the bank.

Nearly 200 After Job. Anticipating that Judge Windes would appoint a receiver for the La Salle Trust & Savings bank as a result of the hearing today, a crowd of nearly 200 persons had applied in one way or another for a receiver for the bank. Both Mr. Lucey and James J. Brady, state auditor, declared they favored no special individual for the receivership, but were content to leave that in the hands of the court. The eighteen bonding companies involved in the troubles of the Lorner-Munday string of offices claim to be the largest creditors of the bank, and wished to name the receiver.

Macley Hoyne, state's attorney for Cook county, declared that with reference to possible prosecutions he put himself at the disposal of the attorney general. A special inquiry by the attorney general, he said, was being made into the receivership, but was not yet completed. "There is no hurry about such action," he said. "The receiver will be in the best position to judge."

Lucey asserted that the La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank is hopelessly insolvent. "What are the assets?" asked the court.

"They are actually $4,000,000; with certain questionable assets they amount to $5,000,000," Ludwin M. Ashcroft, attorney for minority stockholders, requested that the receiver be appointed by the court. A special inquiry by the attorney general, he said, was being made into the receivership, but was not yet completed.

SUES HUSBAND AND TWO DOCTORS FOR $50,000

MRS. ELIZABETH CURTIS HOLMAN.

Hartford, Conn., June 19.—The hearing of the $50,000 damage suit of Mrs. Elizabeth Curtis Holman of Waterville, Me., against her former husband, Prof. Cranston Brenton, and Doctors Paul Waterman and C. C. Smith, has been resumed in the federal court. Dr. Waterman said that in his opinion Mrs. Holman, while confined in the Brattleboro, Vt., retreat for insane, suffered from two abnormal mental disorders and there was strong presumption that she was a moral imbecile. Dr. Waterman said:

"I found a woman whose sense of responsibility was markedly defective, whose sense of shame was markedly defective, whose sense of duty to her husband was defective."

Lee's Victory in Minnesota Gives Strength to the Progressives.

Bismarck, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the approach of the primary election on June 24, the gubernatorial fight is daily growing warmer. The race between Burdick, Hanna and Wishek presents a most unique situation in North Dakota politics, a situation where for the first time the stalwart forces are divided and the Progressive Republicans are strongly united. Hanna and Wishek are fighting tooth and nail for the stalwart German vote in the slope country and certain southern counties, which in times past have rolled up the big stalwart majorities which overcame the progressive vote of the north and east. H. N. Tucker of Courtenay, who managed the winning La Follette campaign in North Dakota two years ago, has issued a statement predicting Burdick's success. Tucker has been active in the work at Burdick's headquarters and is considered one of the best posted men in the state on political matters. His statement is as follows:

Says Burdick Will Win. "Burdick's nomination is certain. The Progressive forces are strongly united back of his candidacy. He will

New Fuse Is Tried Out at Allentown, Pa.

Allentown, Pa., June 19.—Allentown was shaken last night by a great blast when 30,000 sticks of dynamite buried 105 feet deep in 28 holes loosened at least 150,000 tons of slate rock. The blast was a test of a new instantaneous fuse with a speed of 18,000 feet a second. It has been used in the United States, it having been heretofore employed principally in submarine work and at Panama.

Many Steamers to Use Panama Canal

Six Established Lines Have Already Signified Their Plans.

Washington, June 19.—Six established steamship lines already have served notice upon the Panama canal management of their intention to make regular use of the waterway. One vessel from the west coast ports of South America will be at the Pacific side of the canal July 3, seeking to make her way to Liverpool by that route and initiate a fortnightly service between Liverpool and the west side of South America.

An American steamship line now operating four steamers on the Pacific side and six on the Atlantic is waiting the opening of the canal to merge all ten into a regular line between San Francisco and New York.

Present Ratio of Gains in Country May Nominate Him.

Preus Loses Steadily and Only 377 Ahead of Rines.

RINES NOW LEADS. St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Returns late this afternoon give Rines a lead of 300 over Preus.

St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two of the closest contests in the state's political history, the Hammond-Lawler fight for the Democratic nomination for governor, and the Preus-Rines race for the Republican nomination for state auditor, probably will not be decided until the canvassing board has officially passed on the votes.

In the Preus-Rines fight it will likely take the second choice, Hammond, who slowly crept up on Lawler, and there are still nearly 500 precincts to hear from. The present ratio of leads in the country precincts may give Hammond a slight lead in the totals for the state. Hammond gained 200 votes on Lawler in the 300 precincts reported today. The vote this noon stood: 2,443 precincts, Hammond, 20,627; Lawler, 21,138.

J. A. O. Preus lost slowly but steadily today. His lead of 1,200 votes last night was cut down to 377 this noon. The vote on state auditor late today was: 2,443 precincts—Block, 38,842; Preus, 67,428; Rines, 67,061.

Interest in the entire political situation outside of the Hammond-Lawler and Preus-Rines fights has subsided. The results have not been changed.

Crops in Two-Mile Strip of Territory Suffer.

New Ulm, Minn., June 19.—Much damage was done to crops by a severe hail storm that passed over this section last night. Crops in a stretch of territory in the towns of Milford, Selgel and Cottonwood, a miles wide, were ruined. In some sections accumulated to a depth of six inches.

Washington, June 19.—Business conditions and their effect upon the administration trust program were taken up today at the cabinet meeting. Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce told the president reports received from many sources indicated that business was unusually good for this time of the year, and that prospects were that it would grow better.

The president was much encouraged by the reports and it was said his determination to push the trust bills had been strengthened.

Carranza Says Clash With Villa Has Been Adjusted.

Military Leader Declares Nothing Will Hinder Their Cause.

El Paso, Tex., June 19.—Gen. Carranza has advised Lazaro de la Garza, Villa's agent here, that the difficulty between himself and Villa has been adjusted by Carranza's giving his permission for Villa to proceed south to Mexico City regardless of the appointment of Gen. Natera as head of the new central zone.

Carranza said that the forces of Gen. Obregon, in the west, and Gen. Gonzalez, in the east, would work independently of Gen. Villa's troops. The constitutionalist commander concluded by saying that the misunderstanding between himself and Villa and any future misunderstandings between any of the leaders would be left for adjustment when the three armies meet before the national capital. In the meantime Gen. Villa will conduct the military and civil offices in his territory.

Story of Felling Out. The authoritative narrative of what occurred between Carranza and Villa is as follows:

Villa proffered his resignation. Carranza asked that his successor be appointed at once. Then followed a conference of fourteen generals under Carranza, who declined to accept any new

MEDIATOR GOES TO CAPITAL

ST. PAUL, Minn.

DR. ROMULO NAON.

Washington, June 19.—Mediation stands today on the brink of failure. Only concessions by President Wilson or Huerta can save it.

While the Niagara conference halted, Minister Naon of Argentina, one of the three South American mediators, returned to Washington for a conference with Secretary Bryan, and probably to see President Wilson. He planned to start back to Niagara Falls tonight, carrying word whether the conference shall proceed or disband.

Announcement at the White House that the president stands squarely on the principles enunciated in the statement of the American delegates, seemed to make it certain that the United States would not be satisfied with anything less than the choice of a man approved by the Constitutionalists to head the new provisional government. The firm attitude of the Huerta delegates for a so-called "neutral" seemed to hold out no hope of a break in the deadlock.

Discussed By Cabinet. The situation, admittedly another crisis, was discussed in the cabinet meeting, and some sort of an official statement from the president himself informing the public fully in case mediation fails, was promised.

Officials closest to the president declared that all talk of further armed

NIBLACK RECEIVER FOR LORIMER'S BANK; GRAND JURY MAY ACT

Official's Bond Is Fixed By Court at $2,500,000.

Director Denies Note for $169,925 Found in Assets.

"No Hurry About Criminal Prosecutions," Says Hoyne.

Chicago, June 19.—The La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank, which was closed by a state examiner last week, was placed in the hands of a receiver today. W. C. Niblack, vice president of the Chicago Title & Trust company, was named for the position of receiver. Niblack, who placed his bond at $250,000.

The closing of this bank was followed by the closing of a number of other institutions linked with the La Salle-Munday bank.

The petition for a receiver was filed by Patrick J. Lucey, attorney-general of Illinois. Lucey said that if developments warranted, grand jury proceedings might be looked for.

Charles L. Ward, whose name was placed in a personal unsecured note of $169,925 found among the bank's assets, asserted today that he never received the money. Ward was Lorimer's private secretary when the former was acquired by the state in the United States senate. He was a director of the bank.

Nearly 200 After Job.

Anticipating that Judge Windes would appoint a receiver for the La Salle Trust & Savings bank as a result of the hearing today, it was said that nearly 200 persons had applied in one way or another for the position.

Both Mr. Lucey and James J. Brady, state auditor, declared they favored no special individual for the position, but were content to leave that in the hands of the court. The eighteen bonding companies involved in the troubles of the La Salle-Munday string of enterprises have been ordered to appear in court today and wished to name the receiver.

Hoyne, state's attorney for Cook county, declared that with reference to the disposal of the assets of the bank, a special grand jury or a formal grand jury would be called. He said that the receiver would be in the position to judge.

Lucey asserted that the La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank is hopelessly insolvent.

"What are the assets?" asked the judge.

The assets are actually $400,000; with various questionable assets they amount to $500,000.

William M. Ashcroft, attorney for the stockholders of the La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank, said today that he would ask for a receiver for the bank and for an injunction restraining the majority stockholders from constituting the security of the perpetual fund for the care of the stockholders for their personal profit.

Dr. Waterman said that in his opinion Mrs. Holman, while confined in the Stratford, Vt., retreat for insane, suffered from two abnormal mental disorders and there was strong presumption that she was a moral imbecile. Dr. Waterman said:

"I found a woman whose sense of truthfulness was markedly defective, whose sense of shame was markedly defective, whose sense of duty to husband, mother, her child and society, was defective."

ARSON SQUAD KEEPS BUSY

Women Fire Church in Suburb of London.

Premier Asquith Agrees to Receive Suffragettes Saturday.

London, June 19.—An attempt to burn a church at Beckenham, a southern suburb of London, was made last night by an "arson squad" of militant suffragettes. The flames were quickly extinguished and the damage was small.

Premier Asquith has capitulated to the suffragettes. He has consented to receive a deputation of East end working women in Downing street Saturday morning.

Miss Sylvia Pankhurst's attempt to carry out her threat of a hunger strike at the entrance of the house of commons until the premier yielded to the demand that he listen to a delegation of women was apparently largely responsible for the prime minister's decision. The cohort of James Keir Hardie, Socialist independent member of parliament, and George Lansbury, an ex-member, joined the militant suffragette leader to bring the premier to his knees.

PETITION TO SHOW STRENGTH OF UNION

Westinghouse Strikers Will Present Documentary Evidence.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 19.—Thousands of Westinghouse strikers assembled at the Turfway Creek playground today and signed a monster petition which later in the day the officers of the Allegheny Congregational industrial union planned to present to E. M. Ryan, president of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company.

The petition, which the strikers are members of the union and they stand for the demands made upon the company two weeks ago. The purpose of the petition was to convince the management that fully 82 per cent of the working force was affiliated with the union.

Mr. Ryan late yesterday received a committee representing the company's labor striking workmen, but declined to discuss the terms on which they might return to work when he dismissed the committee. The committee members of the union, Mr. Ryan told them to come again with a fair representation of the strikers who are not members of the union, and the committee agreed.

HAIGHT APOLOGIZES TO CANADIAN PACIFIC

Explains Remarks at Inquiry Into Sinking of Ship.

Quebec, June 19.—The Empress of Ireland wreck inquiry opened today with explanation and apologies by C. Haight, counsel for the owners of the collier Storstad which sank the Empress.

He said that he had not meant to imply yesterday that the Canadian Pacific railway, owners of the Empress, had tried to spirit witnesses away. This was the impression made by Mr. Haight yesterday when he placed on the stand James Galway, a quartermaster of the Empress, who testified that the ship's steering gear was defective. (Haight had told him, he said, that he was about to be sent to England.)

Lee's Victory in Minnesota Gives Strength to the Progressives.

Bismarck, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the approach of the primary election on June 24, the governorship fight is daily growing warmer. The race between Burdick, Hanna and Wishek presents a most unique situation in North Dakota politics, a situation where for the first time the stalwart forces are divided and the Progressive Republicans are strongly united. Hanna and Wishek are fighting tooth and nail for the stalwart German vote in the slope country and certain southern counties, which in times past have rolled up the big stalwart majorities which overcame the progressive vote of the north and east. H. N. Tucker of Courtenay, who managed the winning La Follette campaign in North Dakota two years ago, has issued a statement predicting Burdick's success. Tucker has been active in the work at Burdick's headquarters and is considered one of the best posted men in the state on political matters. His statement is as follows:

"Burdick's nomination is certain. The Progressive forces are strongly united back of his candidacy. He will (Continued on page 9, fifth column.)"

FIRE 30,000 STICKS OF DYNAMITE AS ONE

New Fuse Is Tried Out at Allentown, Pa.

Allentown, Pa., June 19.—Allentown was shaken last night by a great blast when 30,000 sticks of dynamite buried 165 feet deep in 28 holes loosened at least 150,000 tons of slate rock. The blast was a test of a new invention known as the "new fuse," which has been used by the Pennsylvania Railroad in its work on the Delaware and Potomac rivers.

MANY STEAMERS TO USE PANAMA CANAL

Six Established Lines Have Already Signified Their Plans.

Washington, June 19.—Six established steamship lines already have served notice upon the Panama canal management of their intention to make regular use of the waterway. One vessel from the west coast ports of South America will be at the Pacific entrance of the canal July 3, seeking to make her way to Liverpool by that route and thus to initiate a fortnightly service between Liverpool and the west side of South America.

An American steamship line now operating four steamers on the Pacific side and six on the Atlantic is waiting the opening of the canal to merge all ten into a regular line between San Francisco and New York.

HAMMOND IS GAINING

Present Ratio of Gains in Country May Nominate Him.

Preus Loses Steadily and Only 377 Ahead of Rines.

St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two of the closest contests in the state's political history, the Hammond-Lawler fight for the Democratic nomination for governor, and the Preus-Rines race for the Republican nomination for state auditor, probably will not be decided until the canvassing board has officially passed on the votes. In the Preus-Rines fight it will likely take the second choice votes to decide the winner.

Hammond has slowly crept up on Lawler, and this noon was only 511 votes behind. There are still nearly 500 precincts to hear from. The present ratio of leads in the country precincts may give Hammond a slight lead in the totals for the state. Hammond gained 200 votes on Lawler in the 300 precincts reported today. The vote this noon stood: 2,448 precincts, Hammond, 20,627; Lawler, 21,138.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE BY HAIL AT NEW ULM

Crops in Two-Mile Strip of Territory Suffer.

New Ulm, Minn., June 19.—Much damage done to crops by a severe hail storm that passed over this section last night. Crops in a stretch of territory in the entire political situation outside of the Hammond-Lawler and Preus-Rines fights has subsided. The results have not been changed.

BUSINESS IS GOOD, DECLARES REDFIELD

Washington, June 19.—Business conditions and their effect upon the administration trust program were taken up today at the cabinet meeting. Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce told the president report received from many sources indicated that business was unusually good for this time of the year, and that prospects were that it would grow better.

The president was much encouraged by the reports and it was said his determination to push the trust bills had been strengthened.

CHICAGO COLLECTOR RESIGNS

Washington, June 19.—John C. Ames, collector of customs at Chicago since 1896, resigned today, the resignation to take effect as soon as a successor is named.

Carranza Says Clash With Villa Has Been Adjusted.

Military Leader Declares Nothing Will Hinder Their Cause.

El Paso, Tex., June 19.—Gen. Carranza has advised Lázaro de la Garza, Villa's agent here, that the difficulty between himself and Villa has been adjusted by Carranza's giving his permission for Villa to proceed south to Mexico City regardless of the appointment of Gen. Natera as head of the new central zone.

Carranza said that the forces of Gen. Natera in the west, and Gen. Gonzalez in the east, would work independently of Gen. Villa's troops. The Constitutionalist commander concluded by saying that the misunderstanding between himself and Villa and any future misunderstandings between any of the leaders would be left for adjustment when the three armies meet before the national capital. In the meantime Gen. Villa will conduct the military and civil offices in his territory.

The authoritative narrative of what occurred between Carranza and Villa is as follows:

On Saturday Carranza ordered Villa to send 5,000 men to the assistance of Natera under command of one of Villa's generals. Gen. Villa replied that he was going to Zacatecas himself with his entire army. In reply to this, Carranza asked Villa to obey his orders, which would have placed Villa's troops under command of Natera, in whose zone Zacatecas is located.

After this exchange of telegrams, Villa proffered his resignation. Carranza asked that his successor be appointed at once. Then followed a conference of fourteen generals under Villa, who declined to accept any new (Continued on page 9, fourth column.)

MILLER THANKS HIS POLITICAL FRIENDS

Duluth Congressman Is Congratulated at the Capital.

Washington, June 19.—Representative Clarence B. Miller returned to Washington today and was generally congratulated by Republicans and Democrats alike upon his re-election. Commenting on the result in the Eighth district, Mr. Miller said:

"It was a hard fight, and needless to say the outcome was satisfactory to me. I appreciate the good work my friends did for me and extend them my thanks. I shall remain in Washington for a few days to the work that has piled up in my absence."

Buffalo Men Will Back This City in Fight to Free Lakes.

Becoming Alive to the Seriousness of Railroad Domination.

Business men in Buffalo, New York and other Eastern cities are becoming more fully alive to the seriousness of the situation created through the complete domination by the railroads of the lake and Erie canal traffic. They are now starting in to back up at Duluth in the fight for the freedom of lake and canal traffic in through package freight from shipping points on the Great Lakes to Eastern ports.

The Merchants' association of New York has laid a protest before the interstate commerce commission asking that independence of action on the part of the lake carriers be required and that through rates be restored.

The association demands: "That the interstate commerce commission should not permit a continuation of the present arrangements and affiliations between the lake package lines and the trunk line rail carriers; that independence of action on the part of the lake package carriers should be required; that independent canal or lake lines should be permitted to participate in the traffic free from the restraint now imposed; and that the canal route should be fully developed as proposed when this state assumes the burden of such expenditures on its canal system."

It is alleged that the railroads are in a position to effect a monopoly of independent water carriers of package freight by refusing to give them the benefit of their dock facilities at Buffalo for discharging and receiving cargoes, the railroads being able to load and unload their freight cars for dock purposes at that port.

The Erie canal is dominated by railroad influence as far as the railroads secured control of or organized the so-called "Great East Lines," of which there are four.

$100,000 GRAFT IN CANADA ALLEGED.

St. John, N. B., June 19.—The Boston firm of Stetson, Cutler & Co. of Boston and this city and subsidiary companies have paid $200,000 above the regular bonus for the timber lands they leased from the New Brunswick government, according to evidence before the royal commission investigating charges against Premier J. R. Fleming and others.

It is charged that about $100,000 was extorted from lumber manufacturers. Premier Fleming has denied all connection with the matter.

WILL CARRY FINAL WORD TO NIAGARA

Americans and Huerta's Agents Seem Hopelessly Deadlocked.

Question of Methods Added to That of New Leader.

Mediators Do Not Profess Optimism Over Negotiations.

Washington, June 19.—Mediation stands today on the brink of failure. Only concessions by President Wilson or Huerta can save it.

While the Niagara conference halted, Minister Naon of Argentina, one of the three South American mediators, returned to Washington for a conference with Secretary Bryan, and probably to see President Wilson. He planned to start back to Niagara Falls tonight, carrying word whether the conference shall proceed or disband.

Announcement at the White House that the president stands squarely on the principles enunciated in the statement of the American delegates, seemed to make it certain that the United States would not be satisfied with anything less than the choice of a man approved by the Constitution to head the new provisional government. The firm attitude of the Huerta delegates for a so-called "neutral" seemed to hold out no hope of a break in the deadlock.

Discussed By Cabinet.

The situation, admittedly another crisis, was discussed in the cabinet meeting, and some sort of an official statement from the president himself, informing the public fully in case mediation fails, was promised.

Officials closest to the president declared that all talk of further armed (Continued on page 9, first column.)

PLAYS DECISION ON EUGENICS LAW

Justice Marshall of Wisconsin Denounces the Statute.

Madison, Wis., June 19.—The eugenics marriage law was characterized today as an act which "unduly casts suspicion of immorality and criminality of most serious nature upon every male candidate for prospective or possible for the marriage state," by Justice R. D. Marshall of the supreme court in a dissenting opinion.

The majority of the court sustained the validity of the law in an opinion by Chief Justice J. B. Winslow, on Wednesday. Justices Timlin and Barnes filed concurring opinions, and Justice Vinje concurred with the dissenting opinion of Justice Marshall.

Justice Marshall gives nine specific reasons why he cannot agree with the majority opinion of the court, declaring that it was the duty of the court "to condemn the act in question as subversive of constitutional liberty and right."

LODGES WELL REPRESENTED

Delegates of More Than 130 Good Templar Bodies Convene Here.

Business and Entertainment Will Crowd Two-Day Meeting.

Delegates from the 130 or more Good Templar lodges in Minnesota are gathered in Duluth today for the fifty-seventh annual convention of the Grand Lodge of Minnesota, which is being held at Rowley's hall and which will terminate with a banquet tomorrow evening after a two days' business session.

Big List of Delegates.
There are about 100 delegates in attendance at the annual gathering, which was opened at 10 o'clock this morning by E. J. Christensen of Minneapolis, grand chief templar. Following the roll call by P. A. Nelson of Duluth, grand secretary, reports were made by a number of committees and the officers during the morning and afternoon sessions today.

P. A. NELSON,
Duluth, Grand Secretary.

This evening the delegates will be the guests of honor at an entertainment to be given by the Eastern Star lodge No. 26 of the West end. There will be a program of addresses and musical numbers, after which refreshments will be served by the women of the fraternity.

The business meetings will continue tomorrow morning and in the afternoon the annual election of officers will be held. The officers who served during the last year are: E. J. Christensen, Minneapolis, grand chief templar; P. A. Nelson, Duluth, grand secretary; L. A. Stinson, Duluth, grand counselor; Carl Peterson, Duluth, grand vice templar; W. B. Reed, Hastings, deputy district clerk; and George Hazzard, St. Paul, grand past chief templar. Peter Fosness of Duluth has served as chairman of the finance committee during the last year.

Election Saturday.
Following the election of officers tomorrow afternoon, the convention will adjourn until next year and the annual gathering will be brought to a formal close with the banquet in the evening. Besides the delegates there will be a large representation from all the local Good Templar lodges.

The Grand Lodge of Minnesota, according to Secretary Nelson, has a membership of nearly 100,000 men and women, while the International Order of Good Templars has about 130,000 members.

EBERHART TALKS ON HIS DEFEAT

Says It Was Result of High Taxes in Minnesota.

Port Huron, Mich., June 19.—Governor Eberhart of Minnesota, who accompanied the Detroit board of commerce excursion to Duluth as far as this point, was interviewed on his defeat in the primary election for re-nomination. The governor said:

"I attribute my defeat in the primaries to the abnormally large tax in Minnesota this year. The people found their taxes unusually high as a result of road work and educational work and naturally I had to shoulder the burden. However, I have served my state for a long time, having had several terms. My opponent on the Republican ticket did not support the last Republican administration."

QUITS HOTEL JOB TO BECOME BRIDE

OLD RESIDENT OF CITY SUMMONED

J. W. Neff, Well Known Business Man, Dies After Short Illness.

James W. Neff, 61 years old, president and general manager of the Sand & Gravel Company of Duluth, and a resident of this city for the last thirty-two years, died at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, 1228 East Fifth street, following an illness of three weeks. He had been sinking for two weeks and his death yesterday afternoon was not unexpected. Besides a widow, he leaves three children, Helen, Grace and Leslie. He is also survived by four brothers and six sisters. They are: Mrs. T. W. Dutton of Minneapolis; Mrs. F. S. Cullford, Denver; Mrs. T. W. Hooper, Chicago; Mrs. M. J. Clark, Minneapolis; Mrs. E. Catherine and Maud, Duluth; E. B. Neff, St. Paul; J. K. Neff, Butte;

C. H. Neff, St. Paul, Minn.; and B. F. Neff, Duluth. Mr. Neff was born at Hamilton, Ont., fifty-one years ago and he came to Duluth in 1882. Prior to becoming president of the Sand & Gravel company he was in the city engineering department. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence, with interment at the Forest Hill cemetery.

MAYOR KEPT BUSY MAKING SPEECHES

Mayor Prince has been busily engaged in delivering speeches this week. He spoke at five different meetings. This morning he talked to the Foresters and tomorrow the week's total will be brought to seven when he will welcome the visitors of the Detroit Board of Commerce at a luncheon at the Commercial club. The mayor says that he doesn't mind such rounds of speaking and adds that in his trips to various parts of the city he keeps in constant touch with local conditions.

TELL OF STUNTS WITH BONES AND MUSCLES

Philadelphia, June 19.—The shifting of sound muscles to replace those paralyzed by disease, the grafting of living bones from one part of the body to another and other remarkable operations by which deformities had been cured were described at the opening session of the American Orthopedic association's annual meeting in this city. Dr. C. William Nathan explained the new principles in the treatment of paralysis of the muscles by which the healthy muscles were shifted from one attachment to another and the donor muscles made to do the work of the paralyzed extensor muscles.

Dr. W. E. Gallie, who presented a report covering a long list of bone-grafting experiments, declared that a cat-bone grafted onto a dog bone grows fast and within ten weeks becomes transformed and resembles the original dog bone. The use of sections of bone taken from the patients and transplanted in the spine were described by Dr. M. P. Holloway and Dr. F. H. Albee.

AGED CARRIERS JUST DROPPED

National Secretary Raps Uncle Sam at Postmasters' Banquet.

McEwen, Cook and 200 Letter Carriers Sit at Table.

Postmaster A. P. Cook, the outgoing head of the local postoffice; his successor, William E. McEwen, and E. J. Cantwell, secretary of the National Association of Letter Carriers, were the guests at a banquet given at the St. Louis hotel last evening by the Duluth branch of the national organization. Nearly 200 guests including letter carriers, their wives and friends were present.

The banquet was primarily planned for Mr. Cook and Mr. McEwen, but when it was learned that Mr. Cantwell was making a tour of the country, waiting the various local branches an invitation was extended to him to be present. He arrived in Duluth yesterday morning on the steamer Ottomara and he was guest of the officers of the Duluth branch during the day.

J. P. McDonald, president of the Duluth branch, No. 114, presided at the gathering and he introduced the speakers following the dinner. Mr. Cantwell was the first speaker and the national secretary made an earnest plea for the pensioning of letter carriers by the government, legislation that has been desired by the organization ever since it was started in 1889.

"When a postoffice employe gives every day of his working life to the United States and completes a service replete with hazard, he receives treatment similar to that of a criminal," said Mr. Cantwell. "When a member is disabled or can no longer perform his duties, he is discarded as an old broken down piece of machinery. After he has given his life's blood in the service he is dismissed with never a word to make it easier for him in his declining years."

Following his talk, Mr. Cantwell, who was married in Washington last week and who is combining his trip to the Duluth branch with his honeymoon, was presented with a cut glass service set, as a gift of the Duluth branch. A. E. Halverson made the presentation address, to which Mr. Cantwell offered a complimentary response.

Postmaster Cook was given an ovation when he arose to address the gathering and he was deeply moved when he was presented with a beautiful clock as a gift of the local organization. Mr. McEwen, who assumes the duties of postmaster on July 1, gave a short talk in which he promised that in the time is coming when all employees of the postal department will be under the civil service and will also be included in a pension fund that must soon be established.

During the dinner several selections were rendered by the Southern Magnolia quintet. The program read congratulatory telegrams from Congressman Miller, who was nominated Tuesday for re-election, and Edward J. Gaynor, president of the national association.

REACHED COPPER COUNTRY JUST SIXTY YEARS AGO

O. W. ROBINSON.

THOMAS BEAHAN.

Houghton, Mich., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—O. W. Robinson of Chassel and Thomas Beahan of Huron, who arrived in the Copper country on the same steamer in 1854, are celebrating today, the sixtieth anniversary of their arrival. Mr. Robinson is 79 years old and Mr. Beahan, 77.

O. W. Robinson left New England when a boy of 19 to come to the Copper country. He did not take up his permanent home in the district but went West in 1856 and remained there for six years. He returned to the Copper country in 1862 and entered the employ of the Quincy Mining company, remaining for eleven years. In 1873 he organized the Sturgeon River Lumber company with mills at Hancock and later at Chassel, where after the expiration of the 30-year charter of the company he sold out to the Worcester Lumber company and retired from active business. Mr. Robinson always has been a Republican. He cast his first vote for John C. Fremont for president in 1866, helped to organize the Republican party in Houghton county in 1864 and was a delegate to the Republican national convention that nominated Harrison in 1892. He was a member of the Michigan legislature from 1896 to 1899 and in the latter year was elected lieutenant governor of Michigan, serving two terms, till 1901.

Thomas Beahan is a native of County Cork, Ireland, born there Jan. 6, 1837. He came to the Copper country as a boy of 17 and at once found employment as a miner, continuing in that trade in various Keweenaw, Ontonagon and Houghton county mines till he retired from active work twelve years ago. Mr. Beahan is one of the oldest Democrats in the Upper Peninsula.

WOULD REORGANIZE ILLINOIS AFFAIRS

Efficiency and Economy Committee Makes Its First Report.

Chicago, June 12.—Disorganization and confusion in the executive departments of the state, producing inefficiency and waste in state service, has been found by the state efficiency and economy committee appointed by the forty-eighth general assembly, which has made its first preliminary report. The committee announced that a public meeting would be held here June 23 at which the report would be discussed.

The committee recommended a reorganization of the executive body, now consisting of about 100 departments, into not more than twelve branches under department heads appointed by the governor and responsible to him. The reorganization scheme, the report stated, follows as closely as possible the general principles followed in the organization of the executive departments of the United States government.

WILSON APPROVES CHURCH UNITY PLAN

President Sends Letter to Presbyterian Official.

Philadelphia, June 18.—President Wilson, in a letter received by Rev. William H. Roberts, stated clerk of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America, expresses his sympathy with the movement for unity among all Christian churches.

In his letter, the president said: "I have been gratified to learn by your letter of the fact that a delegation representing the American churches will go to Europe next August in connection with the world conference on faith and order."

It is especially pleasing that our churches will be represented by divines so eminent as Bishops Rinder and Anderson and the other gentlemen you mention. May I not ask you to be good enough to make known to them, and through them to the world conference, my entire sympathy with the great object of the conference, which looks to unity among all Christian churches.

Sincerely yours,
WOODROW WILSON.

Dr. Roberts was a member of the first delegation which went to Europe in the interest of the proposed world conference and which visited non-conformist churches in Great Britain and Ireland last January. The second delegation expects to visit London, St. Petersburg, The Hague, Berlin, Rome and other places to interest Lutherans, Catholics and Greek orthodox churches in the conference. Among those who will be in the delegation besides Bishop Rhineland of Philadelphia and Bishop Anderson of Chicago are Bishop Browder of Connecticut and Rev. William T. Manning of Trinity Protestant Episcopal church, New York.

MAKE REPLY TO MEXICANS

Americans at Niagara Falls Deny Charges By Rabasa.

Explain Plans and Hopes Regarding Events in Mexico.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 19.—The American delegation to the mediation conference last night made public a statement, issued with the consent of the Washington government, in reply to the statement given out by the Mexican delegation, criticizing the American plan for the establishment of a provisional government in Mexico with a Constitutional president at its head.

Suggestions that President Wilson had any intent to destroy the electoral liberty of Mexico are "utterly repudiated" by the American representatives. The statement covers the whole range of criticism made by the Huerta delegates.

Coming on the eve of the next full conference of mediators and delegates there is any chance of agreement through mediation, the statement stated, the American plan is not to be altered. The statement covers the whole range of criticism made by the Huerta delegates.

Statement in Part.

The American representatives do not think it is conducive to the interests of mediation to publish the contents of the various plans or the objections to the appointment of a Constitutional president. The American representatives have given out a formal statement of their objections to the appointment of a Constitutional president, and they are convinced that your objections to the plan itself and your fear of the ill-consequences that may follow its adoption are not well founded.

American objections to the plan approved by the Mexican representatives have been based upon the profound conviction that the adoption of that plan would not stop the progress of the vicious civil war, nor bring that speedy peace which the American government always desires.

Constitutionalist Standing.

To bring that war to a close, restore peace and constitutional government, is the aim of the president, and that can only be attained by consulting the just wishes of the Constitutionalists, who are not in numerical majority, but are now the dominant force in the country.

Most of the opposition party will necessarily be long ignorant of the terms agreed on at Niagara Falls, but they do know men, and they do know for what men stand. And if the right man is elected for provisional president, they can and we hope will, accept his appointment as concrete and satisfactory evidence that the provisional government is not intended to prevent the adoption of the reforms to secure which the Mexican people have risen in arms.

Contrasted Results.

If those selected by the mediators to administer the provisional government have the confidence of the Constitutionalists, a long step will have been taken toward the pacification of Mexico without furnishing any occasion for alarm to those Mr. Rabasa represents; for if the man is supported by both Gen. Huerta and Gen. Carranza, the cessation of arms follows and to maintain order, to protect life and property, and to call an election at which every qualified voter may cast his ballot for the president of his choice; while, if the plan adopted by the Mexican representatives should be adopted and a neutral should be chosen as provisional president, we would have secured no practical results, but still be confronted with the insurmountable fact that the Constitutionalists, now almost completely triumphant, would reject the plan, repudiate the man and press forward with renewed zeal to Mexico City, with all the loss of blood and life that may involve.

As to Choice of Neutral.

In reference to the suggestion that the provisional president should be a neutral, it is said that it is manifest that in such a contest as has been waged in Mexico for years, it is not only fair but necessary to assume that every intelligent man of any prominence is at heart on one side or the other, and the country might well question the patriotism of any Mexican who has been colorless in such a contest; and as the provisional president must, to some extent, identify himself with one party or the other, it necessarily follows that to meet the requirements of the present situation, his sympathies, which really mark the man, must be with the dominant element.

"The effort, therefore, should be made to find a neutral, and to further the attitude on the controlling issues would make him acceptable to the Constitutionalists, while his character, standing and conduct would make him acceptable to the other party."

Task is Difficult.

"Such a man, and only such a man, can reasonably be expected to have the confidence and respect of the entire country. If those discussed do not possess the requisite qualifications, it is only because we have not succeeded in finding what we sought. We can quite well appreciate how difficult it is for us, under the circumstances, to do more than we have, and to further promise diligently and earnestly to continue the search."

In answer to the contention that there could be no fair elections conducted by a Constitutional government of which a Constitutional president was provisional president, the answer of the Americans called attention to the fact that in the past, the elections in Mexico have been under the supervision of a single cabinet minister representing the dominant party. By analogy the American plan seeks to avoid the just criticism against that method, and contemplates the election of the most important election in the history of Mexico, shall be supervised by a representative of both parties.

"It is wholly incorrect to assume that the supervision of both parties is fairly conducted, and you may rest assured that all the influence the United States can legitimately use will be exerted to secure an honest election."

In view of the opposite views expressed by the American and Mexican delegations in their public utterances, the next course of action is to proceed on all sides, will bring perhaps the most critical and delicate moment of the entire mediation proceeding. The disagreement on names hitherto has blocked progress.

Fear Efforts Vain.

"These consequences which President seeks to prevent through mediation, but we greatly fear that the language of the Mexican note implies that his efforts may be thwarted because of unwillingness to have a Constitutional as a president."

Hopes is expressed that the Mexican representatives will not further oppose the only plan which promises peace, when its rejection means suffering and death to so many. We are convinced that your objections to the plan itself and your fear of the ill-consequences that may follow its adoption are not well founded.

American objections to the plan approved by the Mexican representatives have been based upon the profound conviction that the adoption of that plan would not stop the progress of the vicious civil war, nor bring that speedy peace which the American government always desires.

MOTHER'S CUTICLE GRAFTED UPON SON.

Moore Lake, Minn., June 19.—At the Moore Lake hospital here, Maurice Herschler, who was injured in an automobile accident about three weeks ago, underwent an operation whereby a piece of skin as large as a silver dollar was transferred from the mother to the son. On top of his head and over the center was a rare spot and Dr. Walters thought it advisable to graft on skin to form a protection. Mrs. Herschler immediately offered herself and the doctor removed the needed amount. The operation was a success and the little fellow is improving rapidly.

SLEUTH HIRED FOR FRANK IS INDICTED.

Atlanta, Ga., June 19.—C. W. Burke, a detective employed by attorneys for Leo M. Frank, was indicted on a charge of attempted subornation of perjury, Burke is charged with having attempted to persuade Nellie Ferguson, a witness against Frank in his trial for the murder of Mary Phagan, to change her testimony.

TRAIN DISPATCHERS CHOOSE MILL CITY.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 19.—C. A. ## BUTTER IS GOING EAST

Creamery Product Advances Through Call From Eastern Buyers.

Poultry Prices Decline With Good Receipts of Live Birds Here.

A strong situation in butter is the feature of the local produce market today. While the price here has not been advanced, the market in New York is up a cent to 23 cents a pound and a similar raise is forecasted here within the next day or two. At present quotations stand at 27@28 cents a pound for creamery or 19@20 cents for the dairy product.

The make through this district is reported heavy and it is expected to reach the finish next week. The demand from Eastern points is so large that the market is being kept well cleaned up. That condition is the result of the cold storage facilities now furnished for perishables on three of the lake package freight steamers. Heavy shipments of both butter and eggs have been made on these boats since the service became effective, by the Bridgman-Russell company and the Victor Produce company. The volume of business has been so large that several times larger had the supplies from producers been available.

Egg Prices Firm Also.

Eggs are also firm at 20@21 cents a dozen with, as indicated, an Eastern call for all that can be shipped. Supplies from fanciers are showing a steady reduction as hens are not laying as freely as they were. The keeping quality of eggs is being affected by warm weather. Consumption of eggs in this territory is said to be showing a considerable increase, attributable largely to the continued high cost of meats.

The cheese market has become firm after its recent readjustment of prices. Cheese factories in this district are said to be showing substantial increases in their outputs which are being marketed without difficulty. Quotations in brick cheese are up 1/2 cent to 15¢ cents a pound on a cash basis.

Fruit Selling Cheaper.

Receipts of California fruits are reported unusually liberal by the Fitzsimmons-Palmer company and the Stacy-Merrill company. The headliner is a cantaloupe. They are now offering on a reasonable price basis, and the movement in them is heavy. Valencia oranges are also selling considerably cheaper than a year ago, and their supply is correspondingly large. Strawberry berries have been an unusually scarce article of late for the season as the potatoes are somewhat being exhausted and shipments from Wisconsin and Southern Minnesota have been held back through the heavy rains down that way this week. Vegetables are to be had on a cheaper price basis all round, with state grown articles, such as lettuce, radishes, etc., coming in more freely. Home grown carrots and wax beans are expected next week. Minnesota potatoes are somewhat cheaper with marketings of remaining stocks by growers on a larger scale. Kansas tubers are firm, and at their present basis of quotations they are necessarily commanding only a limited sale.

A Decline in Poultry.

Declines have come about in quotations in fresh dressed and live poultry. Receipts have shown a large increase during the last few days, and they are expected to expand from now on. Frozen poultry is now off the market. Meats are firm on the same basis.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots, How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength from Boyce drug store and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back, if it fails to remove freckles.

of quotations as a week ago. Receipts of livestock are reported scarce at all packing points, and no improvement in that connection is expected for several weeks yet.

ONE MAN KILLED IN CLIMBING CONTEST.

Uniontown, Pa., June 19.—J. E. Shafer of Pittsburgh, a contestant in the hill-climbing event of the Automobile club of Fayette county, was killed late yesterday at Crow's Nest, a dangerous point on the Allegheny. Shafer misunderstood the signal of the man at the bend, and in attempting to change the course of his car, drove it against the cliff.

ULTIMATUM FROM LABOR FEDERATION.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 19.—An ultimatum to journeymen soft stone cutters, the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, and the International Union of Bricklayers has been issued by the building trades department council of the American Federation of Labor. It declares that soft stone workers will be called upon to cease co-operating with carpenters and bricklayers who are charged with working in opposition to the marble workers. The 225,000 carpenters and 10,000 bricklayers withdrew from the Federation some time ago, the carpenters demanding the right to work sheet metal in buildings while bricklayers claimed the right to work in marble.

GREEK-TURKISH SITUATION BETTER.

London, June 19.—Turkish naval officers have arrived in England on a mission for the purchase of coal and transport vessels in preparation for possible war between Turkey and Greece.

The Greek-Turkey situation, however, has improved. Turkey has replied in a conciliatory spirit to the Greek note demanding that the persecution of Greek residents of Asia Minor cease and insisting upon reparation for injuries already inflicted. Turkey has further invited the powers to send agents to Asia Minor to make a thorough investigation. Germany has already agreed to this, and in the meantime a court-martial at Smyrna has sentenced twenty-seven persons to prison for pillaging the Greeks, and has dismissed several officials.

Servia Will Join Greece.

Constantinople, June 19.—Servia has warned the Porte that she would not be able to remain on friendly terms with Turkey in the event of war with Greece. It is believed this warning will have a calming effect on the extremist parties urging the government to hostilities.

A few minutes later a car driven by J. E. Kerr of Richmond, Va., skidded and dashed into the crowd along the course. Day Davis was knocked down, and suffered a broken leg. At the finish Dr. Joseph Van Kirk of Elizabeth, Pa., became so excited he was stricken with apoplexy and died within an hour.

BANKS DECLARE KUHN'S BANKRUPT.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 19.—A creditor's petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States district court here yesterday by the National Park bank, Merchants' bank and the Equitable Trust company, all of New York; the Springfield National bank of Springfield, Pa., and the Allegheny Valley bank of Pittsburgh, against James S. Kuhn and William S. Kuhn. The claims amount to $557,443. William M. Kennedy was appointed receiver for the Kuhn and gave bond in the sum of $50,000.

TO RUN TRAINS BY WASTE FUEL

Electric Power for the Big Transcontinental Roads Predicted.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 15.—Electric trains run from power obtained from burning coal mines or from waterfalls will, before long, connect the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard, in the opinion of Prof. R. H. Fernald, head of the department of dynamic engineering at the University of Pennsylvania. As consulting engineer for the bureau of mines of the department of the interior, he is conducting an investigation into the utilization of waste fuel products. Dr. Fernald has gone to Europe to obtain information on foreign fuel utilization.

"Forty-five per cent of the coal in the mines is now wasted," said Dr. Fernald. "The waste is in the mining and the discarded high-ash-producing fuels which are not mined, because the expense of transportation is greater than the value of the fuel."

"If this ash fuel is burned, it produces gas which can be utilized in the production of electricity, or the gas product itself can be used for power."

Sir William Ramsay, the English scientist, has said that the day will soon come when we will set our mines afire and control the gas produced, obtaining from it either direct gas power, or electricity, which today can be distributed over an area 500 miles square.

"The day is not far off when the steam-driven railroad trains which now cross the continent will be propelled by electric power. This could be done with a half a dozen stations across the country, located at mines or at waterfalls. Even if we do not learn the secret of controlling the gas products from the mine afire, we are learning how to produce gas from cheap fuel, and this cheap, high-ash coal can be best utilized at the mines."

Dr. Fernald has been consulting engineer for the department of the interior's mining interests since 1904. He has interested himself particularly in the problem of utilization of the low grades of coal and the use of lignite and peat in industrial plants. It is only since 1900 that low-grade fuels have been used in producing power for industries in this country.

In Europe necessity has driven the manufacturer to use cheap fuel and develop the possibilities of gas power. It is this development which leads Dr. Fernald to Europe.

"Use of peat, lignite and low-grade coal in the manufacture of gas for power in this country is steadily growing," said Dr. Fernald. "I have just completed a comparative study of the gas-driven plants of the country, so that I am prepared to go to Europe to learn where America is weak."

"This comparative study in our country will be able to tell our manufacturers where they are behind the Americans in the utilization of low-grade fuel power, and I hope to find some things in Europe which will further advance the possibilities of this new kind of power."

The work of Dr. Fernald is part of the coal conservation scheme of the government. Dr. Fernald has predicted in a government bulletin that the present rate of coal consumption will exhaust the mines in 250 years.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following decisions were rendered today by the Minnesota supreme court.

Joe Riskin, respondent, vs. Great Northern Railway company, appellant.

1. G. S. 1913, section 4314 et seq., imposing upon a common carrier a penalty of $25 for the failure to settle and adjust within sixty days a claim against it, and imposing a like penalty upon a person presenting a fraudulent claim, held not unconstitutional either as class legislation, or depriving carriers of their property without due process of law, or depriving the parties affected of the equal protection of the law.

2. The record presents no reversible error.

Order affirmed. BROWN, C. J.

Ramsay County.

Dr. A. J. Cox, appellant, vs. Marcus Lauritsen et al, defendants; Marcus Lauritsen, respondent.

1. To maintain an action for malicious prosecution, plaintiff must show that the prosecution was instituted at the instigation of defendant, without probable cause, and maliciously.

2. Where defendant placed facts tending to show violation of the postal laws before the proper officials, but such officials, instead of proceeding against defendant, proceeded to investigate by which they secured evidence new and distinct from that furnished by defendant, and without the knowledge of defendant, instituted a criminal prosecution against defendant, held not to be held liable for malicious prosecution, and is not liable in damages for the same.

3. Whether the undisputed facts are sufficient to constitute probable cause for a criminal prosecution is a question exclusively for the courts, and, upon appeal, will be weighed in this court as if the case had been heard here.

4. The existence of probable cause for a criminal prosecution is a complete defense to an action for damages for instituting the same, notwithstanding the fact that the prosecutor may have been motivated by malice.

5. Evidence examined and held to establish probable cause for the criminal prosecution.

Judgment affirmed. TAYLOR, C.

Ramsay County.

Margery McCall, administratrix, respondent, vs. Hannah Cameron, appellant.

The question whether the plaintiff's intestate was rightfully in the defendant's building when it occurred therein which caused her death, so that the law afforded her the same protection against the negligence of the defendant that the latter's tenants had, was properly for the jury. Although the fire was not occasioned by defendant's negligence and no responsibility could attach because of the existence of a chute leading from the top to the bottom of the four-story building, which chute the tenants were permitted to deposit waste paper or trash.

2. A proper question for the jury whether plaintiff, who by her janitor undertook to keep this chute clean, negligently suffered it to become so filled and congested with inflammable material that it fell on the lower floor, by reason of this congested condition of the chute, with such result as to cause the death of plaintiff's intestate who occupied a room therein which was directly above the chute, and whether the chute had not been in that condition, she would have had time to save herself.

The evidence sustains the verdict that a congested condition of the chute was due to defendant's negligence, and that it was the proximate cause of the death of plaintiff's intestate. Order affirmed. HOLT, J.

Ramsay County.

Mrs. M. E. Wardwell, respondent, vs. Hannah Cameron, appellant.

In this action for injuries, claimed to have been received when a fire in the building in which plaintiff was a guest of an occupant, drove her upon an outside fire escape which was through defendant's alleged negligence so inadequately constructed that there was no safe way of getting down therefrom, it is held.

1. The evidence justified the jury in finding that the building was lawfully in the building as a subtenant, and that plaintiff, her guest, was also lawfully there when the fire happened.

2. Also in finding that the building was one, to defendant's knowledge, which came under Section 5108 G. S. 1913, requiring non-combustible fire escape ladders on the outside.

3. Plaintiff was within the protection of the statute, and the fact that the ladder upon the building did not come within twenty feet of the ground justified a finding that the statute was violated by defendant. A ladder within the contemplation of the statute must be such that it affords a reasonably safe escape from a burning building when other ways are closed or cut off.

4. Plaintiff in attempting to descend from the ladder, and in so doing, was not guilty of negligence as a matter of law.

Judgment affirmed. HOLT, J.

Ramsay County.

National Council of the Knights and Ladies of Security, appellant, vs. Jacob Ruder, respondent.

An action cannot be maintained to set aside a judgment claimed to have been procured by means of perjury upon issues of fact so defined that each party must have known what the other party intended to prove.

Where the complaint in an action to restrain the enforcement of a judgment is within this rule, an order, purporting to have been made upon the merits, and the application for a temporary injunction, must be sustained, regardless of the truth of the reasons in the premises, and the question whether, upon a sufficient complaint, the trial court would have held jurisdiction to grant the temporary writ at the time it was requested, is not.

Order affirmed. PHILIP E. BROWN, J.

Ramsay County.

Oliver G. Wondra, respondent, vs. National Life Insurance company, appellant.

1. Hand vs. Insurance Co., 57 Minn. 519, to the effect that a stipulation in an insurance contract granting the company a certain time after loss within which to make payment, and prior to the expiration of such time, may be waived, followed and applied.

2. Evidence tending to show the fact of agency, though incompetent, held sufficient to justify a finding of agency, since it was received on the trial without objection.

Order affirmed. BROWN, C. J.

Stearns County.

Martha G. Whitman, respondent, vs. P. E. Gorman, et al, appellant.

The evidence sustains the finding of the trial court that a deed purporting to convey certain land to the plaintiff defendant judgment debtor was in fraud of creditors of the judgment debtor, and that plaintiff, one of such creditors, is entitled to subject the land to the payment of her claim.

Order affirmed. HALL, J.

Stearns County.

Julia A. Wright, respondent, vs. Clarke Waite, appellant.

1. The owner may revoke the authority of a broker, with whom he has listed his lands. In this case the evidence supports the finding of the jury that there was no revocation.

2. The owner, who has thus listed his property, may himself sell it. In this case it is held that under the evidence and the finding of the jury he did not sell.

3. The parties voluntarily litigated the question whether the plaintiff procured a purchaser under a contract not pleaded.

4. In an action to recover an agreed commission it is in general error to exclude evidence of efforts made to sell, but where there is a controversy as to the existence of a listing agreement at the time, and the fact that such efforts were being made was communicated to the owner, such evidence is competent; and when it conclusively appears that the broker found a purchaser the error is in general without prejudice.

Order affirmed. DIBELL, C.

Stearns County.

Nicholas Stein, appellant, vs. Clarke Waite, et al, respondents.

An agreement in writing between the owner of lands and a real estate broker authorizing him to find a purchaser upon stated terms, and agreeing upon the commissions to be paid, does not authorize the broker to enter into a contract of sale binding upon the owner, and the contract involved is construed to be a contract to find a purchaser.

Judgment affirmed. DIBELL, C.

Stearns County.

Mel Elled, appellant, vs. George F. Barnard, respondent.

1. Where, on an exchange of merchandise owned by the plaintiff for land owned by the defendant, the latter gave a bond secured by a chattel mortgage upon the merchandise to perfect the title within thirty days, or, not doing so, to give such bond to perfect the title within a year, and failed to perfect the title or give such bond within thirty days, the issue in an action of replevin then brought to recover the merchandise included the chattel mortgage was whether the defendant furnished the required bond, and not whether he perfected the title afterwards; and whether he did so perfect title within the time specified.

2. The bond tendered by the defendant was sufficient in form and substance, but whether it was one which under his agreement with the defendant should have been accepted by the plaintiff as satisfactory was for the jury.

There was error in instructing the jury, in substance, that certain evidence as to the value of the property replevied should be disregarded.

Affirmed on condition. DIBELL, C.

Le Sueur County.

John Sheehy, administrator, appellant, vs. Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad company, respondent.

Allegations of the complaint in an action to recover damages for the wrongful death of defendant's employee, a highway crossing flagman, held sufficient to show negligence on the part of the defendant, a car, left standing near the crossing without brakes being set, was propelled over the same without notice or warning to deceased, causing his death.

Allegations of the pleadings held not to justify an inference that deceased was guilty of contributory negligence.

Order reversed. PHILIP E. BROWN, J.

Hennepin County.

Clifton A. Clark, et al, respondents, vs. A. D. Clarke, et al, defendants; A. D. Clarke, et al, appellants.

The evidence justifies a finding that all of the defendants are liable for fraudulent acts in connection with the sale of the property, and that the plaintiffs were induced to purchase certain lands.

Order affirmed. DIBELL, C.

Washington County.

Jacob R. Kollner, respondent, vs. Western Union Telegraph company, appellant.

Plaintiff, who was in Minnesota, was requested by a telegram from a business associate in Spokane, Wash., to be in that city at a time stated, and made the trip. Plaintiff telegraphed his associate: "Will arrive Saturday night, 8:45 p. m. N. Y. train." His message was not delivered until after plaintiff's arrival in Spokane.

Plaintiff, with whom plaintiff and his associate expected to transact the business, was the last of the party to leave the city, and thereby the trip was valueless. It is held:

1. The contract being made in Montana, the measure of recovery for its breach is not governed by the statute of this state (G. S. 1905, sec. 2331, G. S. 1913, sec. 6280) and in the absence of pleading and proof of a Montana statute, the common law rule governs.

2. Under the common law rule, there being nothing in the language of the message to apprise the plaintiff that a failure to deliver it might result in plaintiff's trip being valueless, and no special circumstances communicated to the company, its breach of contract was not the proximate cause of plaintiff's loss of time and of the expense of his trip.

Judgment reversed. BUNN, J.

SUPPLIES A MOTIVE FOR MAGNATES' ACTS

Coloradoan Says Strike Is Helping Eliminate Independents.

Washington, June 15.—J. A. Ownby, representing independent coal operators in Colorado, told President Wilson that the Rockefeller and other large interests in the state were not attempting to settle the strike because small concerns were being driven out of business. He told the president the federal troops were being used to assist the large operators.

Ownby, who was taken to the White House by Senator Owen, declared that most of the small mines were forced to close at the beginning of the strike riots, and that federal troops had prevented any miners from being re-opened, and kept new miners from coming into the field. While such measures were intended to restore peace, he said, they were resulting to the detriment of the small operators.

Mr. Ownby did not suggest any remedy for the conditions he outlined, but stated that the president confirm his statements by the military commanders in Colorado, and find some means for settling the difficulty.

L'Anse, Mich., Trial of Moyer May Again Be Postponed.

L'Anse, Mich., June 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Further postponement of the trial of Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and of Vice President C. E. Mahoney and other members of the governing council of that organization, with leaders and members to the number of thirty-seven, on the charge of conspiracy, brought by the grand jury, is possible.

SURETY COMPANIES ARE SCRUTINIZED.

Springfield, Ill., June 15.—Rigid investigation of the financial condition of all surety companies doing business in this state has been ordered by Rufus M. Potts, insurance superintendent. The instruction was due to the practice of issuing bonds to guarantee bank depositors, many large bonds having been issued to depositors in the Loring-Munday banks. As many of the surety companies are Eastern concerns, the New York insurance department has been asked to participate in the investigation.

SINGER KILLED BY HEADACHE MEDICINE.

Oakland, Cal., June 15.—Death by accident from taking too large a dose of a headache medicine containing a heart depressant, is the theory accepted by the police and coroner in explanation of the mysterious death Tuesday night of Miss Helen Messer, the blind singer known as the "Helen Keller of the West."

THE question sometimes is asked, "Why don't you perfume Ivory Soap for bath and toilet purposes?"

Our reply is this: "We think that the delightful, natural odor of the high grade materials we use should not be concealed by a stronger, artificial perfume. We think Ivory's natural odor is more pleasing than any perfume. It is a fragrance that suggests purity and cleanliness, a

DETROIT'S PASSENGER LIST READS LIKE "WHO'S WHO"

An "All Star Cast" in the Play "Visiting Duluth."

Mayor Mitchel, Job Hedges, Nelson O'Shaughnessy and Governor Ferris.

Bankers, Statesmen and Leading Business Men of Michigan Coming.

The list of those who will arrive tomorrow morning on the Detroit III, bears a close resemblance to an advance publication of "Who's Who in America."

Some of the most noted men in the United States will come on the visit to Duluth of the members of the Detroit board of commerce. They will spend tomorrow in the city, arriving at 6 o'clock in the morning and leaving at 6 in the evening. It will be nearly an all-star cast in the visit of the steamer Detroit III. The steamer itself, will be a good deal of an attraction for she is undoubtedly possessed of the widest beam of any steamer that has ever entered the Duluth harbor. The actual beam is 58 feet, but with her paddle boxes and all—for she is a side-wheel—her beam, over all, is 95 feet 6 inches. When one comes to consider that the waterline, the longest ship in the world, 350 feet over all, has a beam of only 100 feet, it can be realized, to some extent, at least, what a monster the Detroit III will appear to be.

The Commercial club is making every preparation to give the 400 or more guests a royal reception. When they arrive they will be given an auto ride over the boulevard and through the various parts of the city. A reception and buffet luncheon will be served at the club at 12:30 and from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon the visitors will hold a reception on the steamer. The Detroit III, which will dock at No. 4, Northern Pacific, will be met by many business men, and a call for Rotarians of Duluth has been issued by the entertainment committee of the Duluth Rotary club, consisting of V. R. Culbertson, chairman, E. W. Russell, George W. Sherwood, and A. A. Michaud, to meet the boat and greet about thirty Rotarians who are on board.

Among those who are on board is Rev. M. S. Rice, pastor of the Woodward Avenue Methodist church, and formerly pastor of the First Methodist church of Duluth.

Others notable are: Mayor John Purroy Mitchel of New York city; Job Hedges, former chairman of the Republican state central committee of New York, and recently candidate for governor of the empire state on the Republican ticket; Nelson O'Shaughnessy, until recently charge d'affaires of the United States in Mexico; Frank Fellows, attorney general of Michigan; J. S. Hagerty, good roads commissioner of Michigan.

Governor W. H. Ferris of Michigan. Fred Postel, president of the Michigan State Fair association and head of the Detroit Driving club.

William Nagle, the new postmaster of Detroit. Walter E. Campbell, president of the Detroit Belle Isle and Windsor Ferry company, who suggested to The Herald on a visit here last fall that the Detroit board of commerce be extended an invitation to visit here this summer.

E. H. Doyle, banking commissioner of Michigan.

Harry M. Jewett, president of the Page Motor company and the first human being to run 100 yards in 5 1/2 seconds.

Dr. Charles E. Chadsey, superintendent of Detroit schools.

Charles W. Kotcher, president of the Ketchikan Lumber company and also head of the Detroit Motor Boat club.

George E. Lawson, vice president of the People's State Bank of Detroit.

Walter I. Russell, secretary-treasurer of the Great Lakes Engineering works.

Robert B. Tannahill, vice president of the J. L. Hudson company.

George H. Worley, manager of the Pontchartrain hotel, Detroit.

W. J. Benton, ex-president of the Detroit common council.

James Craig, Jr., father of Ralph Craig, the Olympic track star.

John Gillespie, police commissioner of Detroit.

Thomas A. Conlin, member of the Detroit school board.

Edgar Guest, feature writer of the Detroit Evening News.

Judge N. S. Hulbert, juvenile judge of Detroit.

Lawton T. Hemans, railroad commissioner of Michigan.

H. P. Joy, president of the Packard Motor company, and Richard P. Joy, president of the National Bank of Commerce of Detroit, sons of James P. Joy, who made the speech which nominated U. S. Grant at the famous Chicago convention.

Harold Jarvis, author of "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and other noted songs, well known here, having sung at a celebration of Clan Stewart.

Walter N. Kelly, assistant prosecuting attorney of Wayne county.

John Kelsay, ex-president of the Detroit Athletic club.

John Lodge, John C. Garvey, Robert Grandley and Henry J. Guthard, Detroit aldermen.

Mayor Oscar Marks of Detroit.

T. J. Lynn, president of the public lighting commission of Detroit.

Robert Oakman, former tax commissioner of Michigan and formerly secretary and political manager of Governor "Potatoes" Pingree.

STEEL PLANT SUBURBS WILL ASK CITY TO TAKE INITIATIVE

Club Eager to Get Paving for Commonwealth and Grand Avenues.

At the meeting of the New Duluth Commercial club to be held next Tuesday evening a formal request that the city take the initiative in ordering the paving of Commonwealth avenue and Grand avenue from Eighteenth avenue to its connection with Commonwealth avenue will be drawn up. Members of the club aver that it will be next to an impossibility to secure the signatures of one-fourth of the property owners along the route, saying that there are 1,325 persons and that it would require the signatures of 332 of these to the petition.

Ordering the work done by the city commission by the initiative is in the opinion of L. R. Taylor, secretary of the club, the only way in which the city will ever accomplish the paving of the street.

Members of the club will also bring up the question of what steps the city has taken in the subway for the highway at Smithville. The New Duluth Commercial club was given until June 15 to make known its intention in the matter and this date having passed, residents of New Duluth are interested in what step it is proposed to take.

HOT CONTEST EXPECTED.

Suburb Ball Fans Put Up Some Real Money.

The New Duluth and Gary baseball teams will clash again on the New Duluth grounds on Sunday afternoon. Gary boosters expect their team to "come back" after the defeat recently given the team by the New Duluth aggregation, and it is said that many small wagers have been made on the result of the game.

Manager Warren of the Gary team and Manager Wacha of the New Duluths both feel confident of victory for their teams. The latter aggregation has been putting up a good game of ball and has so far suffered no defeat. The Gary team has strengthened its lineup considerably and expects to put up its strongest battle.

WILL GIVE PLAYLET.

Gary Athletic Association Will Raise Funds for Club.

"A Handsome Homestead" is the title of a playlet to be given Monday evening under the auspices of the Gary Athletic association at the Gary theater, for the purpose of raising funds for the club. The program for the evening will include three reels of motion pictures as well as the playlet and other features.

GRADUATES GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Dr. John A. Ryan Speaks at Cathedral Auditorium—
Orations and Musical Selections.

Eleven graduates of the Boys' Cathedral high school received diplomas last night at the third annual commencement exercises held in the Cathedral auditorium, Second avenue west and Fourth street. The principal address was delivered by Dr. John A. Ryan, who has been brought into prominence by his recent debate with the Socialist, Hillquist. His subject was "Education and Citizenship," which he discussed in an able and interesting manner. The diplomas were presented by Bishop McGolrick, assisted by the principal, Brother Paul. The rest of the program consisted of orations by the graduates and a number of musical selections. Matthew Ahern spoke on "Self Culture," Raphael Graves on "The Heritage of the Young American," Paul E. Corcoran on "Our Country's Boast," and Fred J. Ouellette on "Confederation of the World." All the essays showed careful study and preparation and were well delivered. Edward Dillon rendered a violin solo and several numbers were given by the Cathedral quarter and the Catholic Clee club. The graduates were: Literary—Clarence Killen, Paul Corcoran, Fred Ouellette and Edward P. White; commercial department—Edward Ahern, Edward Anderson, Raphael Graves, Peter Helewski and Joseph McDermott. The gold medal in scholarship in the literary-scientific course was awarded to Fred J. Ouellette, Paul Corcoran, being second and Matthew Ahern, third. In the commercial department the gold medal for scholarship was won by Raphael Graves, next in merit being Edward Anderson, and third, Edward Ahern. Other honors awarded senior students were: For English essays, gold medal, Matthew J. Ahern; second, Fred Ouellette and Paul Corcoran; for essay on religion, gold medal, Paul Corcoran; second, Fred Ouellette; for elocution, decided at a public contest, gold medal, Fred Ouellette; second, Raphael Graves and Edward White; for oratory, decided on the results of five contests, gold medal, Raphael Graves; second, Fred Ouellette; third, Paul Corcoran.

To Dedicate Courthouse.
Wahpeton, N. D., June 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Richland county courthouse will be dedicated next Monday. It is one of the finest in the state. It was erected at a cost of $100,000, and Wahpeton people expect that it will become an anchor by which the county seat will remain here for all time.

IS KILLED IN BREITUNG MINE.

Negaunee, Minn., June 13.—William Kranitz, aged 35, a pipe man at the Breitung mine, was fatally injured Wednesday afternoon when an iron pipe, thirty-five feet long, which was being lowered to him, slipped from the clamps and knocked him down. Part of the pipe passed through the left arm.

He also suffered bruises about the head, body and legs. He is survived by his wife and two small children. Kranitz was well known and once was a pitcher for the Negaunee ball nine.

You Are Most Cordially Invited to attend a Reception to be given by the ## Duluth Real Estate Exchange

at Waverly Park,

Saturday, June 20th, 1914, from 3 to 8 p. m.

It is the desire of the Exchange that Duluth people see the natural beauties of this new addition to Duluth's high grade residence district—that they may hereafter watch its development, growth and the advance in values accruing to purchasers of lots there. Therefore, the invitation is general and not restricted to those considering buying lots. There will be a reception committee to look after those not buying, as well as salesmen for those who do. Members of the Third Regiment Band will play between 5:30 and 7:30 p. m., and coffee and sandwiches will be served from 6 to 7 to all who attend as guests of the Exchange.

Take either Hunter's Park or Woodland cars to Hardy street, walk one block toward the lake.

high state taxes in his own district would become too great to be compensated by the little spoil he brought back from the legislature.

There is nothing wrong in being loyal to your district. There is much that is wrong in being disloyal to the state's general interests; and that is what it is to raid the treasury for spoils for one's district.

The worst flaw in the present legislative system is that while each one of the one hundred and thirty legislative districts may be well and zealously represented in the legislature, there is nobody there to represent the state's interest. In practice, most of them are there to advertise themselves by running their fists as deeply into the state treasury as they can for the home district.

A single legislative body of ten or twelve, one from each congressional district to avoid congesting representation but all elected at large to insure loyalty to the state's interests, would beat the present legislative system all hollow.

It would cost less than the biennial gathering of two hundred men, yet it would be on the job all the time instead of only three and a half months every other year. It would be able to guard the interests of the whole state, and the fact that each member represented a state district would assure that that district's interests would be fairly cared for, while the fact that each member is responsible to the state at large would insure that no district would be unfairly profited at the general expense.

Is that polo cup business to be taken as a sample of what is going to happen to the America's trophy?

VACATIONS AND DRINKING WATER.

In a few desultory remarks recently on vacations, The Herald suggested as one good piece of advice that pleasure-seekers be suspicious of strange drinking water.

Many a vacationer has come home worn with dysentery or ready for a sickbed with typhoid fever because he neglected this precaution.

Dr. W. A. Evans in the Chicago Tribune gives a practical addition to this hint that is worth passing along. To make water safe to drink, he offers the following recipe:

Take a level teaspoonful of chloride of lime and rub it up, until there are no lumps, in one cup of water. Dilute this with three cups of water, and keep this quantity in a stoppered bottle for use. A teaspoonful of this stock solution, added to two-gallon pail of water and well stirred up, will destroy all typhoid or dysentery germs, and will make the water safe to drink. If this quantity makes the water taste, use a little less, otherwise not. Let the chloride of lime in metallic cases.

It's a good hint. Cut it out and keep it until vacation time.

Maybe the Rev. Patmont went to Mexico to teach Huerta how to get away without anybody's knowing it.

REGULATED MONOPOLY.

Amos Pinchot wants to read George W. Perkins out of the Bull Moose party because he favors "regulated monopoly."

Thereby, if he does anything, Mr. Pinchot reads himself out of the Bull Moose party; for the party, not Perkins, is responsible for this doctrine, though it may be the doctrine that attracted Perkins to the party.

Perkins is no warmer advocate of the doctrine of regulated monopoly than Roosevelt is. Roosevelt's messages, speeches and published works are full of it. The theory is that centralization is a logical working out of economic law, that it can't be stopped, that attempts to stop it are a waste of time, and that what ought to be done is to put centralized industry under regulation that will give the public its share of the benefits.

Perkins believes in that theory, and so Pinchot would drive him from the party. But so does Roosevelt believe in it, and what would the earnest and zealous Pinchot do about him?

The situation raises a question whether Mr. Pinchot has not by accident gotten himself into the wrong party. The New York World, which thinks he has, says:

He belongs with Woodrow Wilson and the Progressive Democrats, not with Theodore Roosevelt and the regulated monopolists. He can never make the Progressive party over to conform with his ideas of right and justice, but he could become a Woodrow Wilson Democrat without sacrificing any of his essential beliefs. It ought to be plain to Mr. Pinchot by this time that the political purpose except the exploitation of personal ambition, and that the one true hope of all true progressives is the Wilson Democracy. Why waste time on George W. Perkins when he could be aiding Woodrow Wilson in a fight for social and economic justice?

Others besides Perkins and Roosevelt believe in what is called regulated monopoly, or rather in regulation as opposed to repression. Thought on this most important subject is divided between two schools: those who hold the above belief, and those who, with Wilson, favor regulated competition rather than regulated monopoly.

Beyond any doubt whatever, the overwhelming judgment of the nation is that competition is too valuable to be lightly dispensed with, and that it should be preserved by regulating out of it the practices that foster monopoly. Beyond any doubt, too, the country put the Democrats in power and made Woodrow Wilson president to carry out that plan.

It is very plain, then, that Mr. Amos Pinchot has misguidedly wandered into the wrong political pew, and that his quarrel should be not with Perkins, or with Roosevelt, but with his own choice of a party.

Baseball, tennis and golf are reported to be rapidly multiplying in favor in the Philippines. Don't know about the last two, but if the first one ever really takes hold there'll never be any getting rid of the islands.

Two Opinions

Boston Globe: Commenting on the general business situation in the United States, one of the leading business publications says editorially: "The general business and industrial conditions are more optimistic and the improved sentiment is reflected in some expansion in the volume of trade."

Another weekly review puts it this way:

Sentimentally and fundamentally, trade conditions are better.

These two like opinions from well-informed sources that business is picking up everywhere are doubly welcome at this "psychological" moment and should serve to encourage everybody, including the so-called mental mourners.

Were They Scared?

Leavenworth, Kan., Times: In his column in the Topeka Capital Tom McNeal quotes a veteran as saying: "The man who went through a battle and says he wasn't scared is a damned liar. I used to tell about how we marched and fought the enemy, but I got so scared that I haven't been able to sleep since. I have been telling the truth. The fact is that on my first battle my teeth chattered so that I could hardly hear the orders of the officers, but the other fellows were saying, and as I heard, and I was too big to be scared to run. It would have helped a good deal if I had known that the rebels who were shooting at us were just as scared as we were. But I didn't find that out till after when a captain confessed to me that he was the worst scared man in the conference. The reason he was scared was the same as I was: I was scared; the other fellows weren't scared enough to run, and so he stayed with them."

There it was in a nutshell. The reason the one didn't run was because he didn't know fear. The reason the other didn't run was because his duty to his country held him in line. It requires no courage to face the thing you have no fear of. It is no disgrace to acknowledge fear in battle. The disgraced man is he who allows his fear to control him.

The Stone-Scow Sloop.

New York World: Captain Shamrock, a freak will not alter the fact that she was built under rules designed to bar freaks, and that practically her whole crew has been used in the past few years and is used in the defense. Only the manner differs.

Shamrock's square stern attracts attention. A yacht on the water, the prow of the new hope of the "Admiral Peary of sport" is not so seasonally 110 feet. But the designer concluded she had run long enough and cut her off square where she is still some feet wide.

A four-foot shipshape cutter might not be worth what it costs in length. She is a big boat within the limit, willing to pay with time allowance for her size.

All the cup yachts are alike in principle. They are meant to measure speed, and they are built to catch the wind and never again. Under any breeze heavy enough to save the time limit they will sail on an immediate length of 100 feet or more. If they dip to the rail, so much the better. Shamrock simply has the longest, straightest, most seaworthy hull in the fleet. It is like the boy's apple-core: "There ain't none" at least where one expects it, nor is it moved in a false or deceptive pronounced tumble-home, as if she had started to be a whaleback and changed her mind.

To beat Shamrock, many experts have fancied Resolute, which most resembles her. Yet Vanitie has twice beaten Resolute in three close races. The British scow looks formidable but may not prove invincible.

What Do You Know About Sleep?

Frederick Peterson in the Atlantic: What is "sleep"? A commonplace notion of it is that it is a mysterious condition in which we are compelled to pass a full third of our earthly life—sleep. It is a mystery, but it has been little studied or written about in all our compendiums of learning.

In the 20,000 pages of the encyclopedia, which may be looked upon as in a sense a microcosm, an epitome of all the accumulated knowledge of the world, there are but two pages devoted to sleep. This measures the general interest of humanity in the subject. One would think that psychologists would find a special field in the study of the mind for eight hours every day, yet these huge tomes of Baldwin—the dictionary of psychology—devote half a page to sleep.

The practical interest of medical men is in the disorders of sleep, but they tell of it in their medical books almost wholly from the standpoint of therapeutics, seldom or never from that of etiology. The chief literature of sleep seems to be found among the poets, religious devotees and mystics.

It is not surprising, therefore, that his innumerable references to sleep and dreams and the disorders of sleep prove him to have been an extraordinary observer. An incomparable clinician was spoiled in him when he became a poet.

An Enticing Proposition.

National Food Magazine: A stalwart young German applied for a position on a farm. As he walked into the barn he addressed the farmer. "Hey, mister, will you job me?"

"Will you job me? Make me work yet?"

"I see; you want a job," said the farmer. "Well, how much do you want a month?"

"I tell you, if you eat me on der farm, I come for $5, but for $25 I eat myself at Schmid's."

The Roots of Public Ownership Sentiment

Editorial in the Kansas City Star.

A week or so ago Charles Mallen, former president of the New Haven railroad, gave it as his positive opinion that public ownership of the railways of the United States was bound to come. Mr. Mallen believed this inevitable because of the financial methods of the railroad promoters and financiers.

Now appears in the Saturday Evening Post a strong paper by former Governor Stubbs of Kansas predicating the same belief upon the same grounds and that he has his advocacy of public ownership.

"No people less abundantly endowed with natural resources than ours could ever have withstood the enormous waste, plunder and larceny involved in the financial methods of the railways of the United States," writes the former Kansas governor. After enumerating some of the waste and plunder, he says: "The public sentiment is now turning toward public ownership of the railways."

At that stage of the proceedings, one of the minor treasury officials brought to the attention of the Assistant Secretary Byron R. Newton, a formal inquiry asking if it would not be entirely practicable to conduct the history of the department had an assistant secretary or any other high official issued an order in any such informal language as that.

Newton scrawled on the corner of the note of inquiry these few simple words: "Go to it."

That immediately threw one whole wing of the treasury department into consternation. For never before in the history of the department had an assistant secretary or any other high official issued an order in any such informal language as that.

Another read the words and tried to figure out their meaning. "Go to it." It was like something from a foreign tongue. You see, the point is that government officials become so accustomed to and so bound up with formal procedure that they are unable to make a sudden shift of viewpoint.

The assistant secretary of the treasury feels that it would be perfectly proper and according to law and order as in such cases made and provided to direct the issue of 40 cents to the voucher of John Smith, coal dealer, etc.

If he had expressed himself like that all might have been well. But no one at the department had the remotest idea what he meant by "Go to it." They had no idea whether he was trying to say yes or no. And what was more, no one had the nerve to go and ask him. It was feared that a confession of failure to comprehend an assistant secretary's meaning might be construed as a lack of official respect.

One sentence spoken by Webster in 1835, "Go to it," more than any other thing crystallized the North into thinking the slaves could be freed and the South into thinking the North could be better learned to esteem the value of phrases. Van derbilt's "the public be damned" made a name for his railroad and the full book of logic could convert into friends.

"All the traffic will bear" was the most deadly boomerang for the railroads, for while it lays down a perfectly sound principle, it makes people believe that the railroads are justified in their greed.

That was a genius among railroad workmen who thought of calling it the "traffic will bear" rule. It was a trick that has been used in the past and is used in the future. The disgraced man is he who allows his fear to control him.

Lawson's "system" was a powerful argument and Col. Roosevelt's phrases about "predatory pricing" swung more people to his way of thinking than a volume of solid argument.

THE OPEN COURT

THE "ASHLAND PLAN."

To the Editor of The Herald: Would you kindly give me the particulars of the "Ashland plan"? I saw it in your paper some time ago. It was an association that loaned money out to farmers to buy cattle with. There were certain conditions, though. If you cannot give me the particulars, will you kindly let me know where I can find out? ED. PEITOR, Stevenson, Minn., June 15.

The so-called "Ashland plan," as adopted here, provides that farmers who desire to increase their herds shall file an application with trustees appointed for the purpose. E. G. Church, in the Lyceum building, being the proper man here. The applicant must tell how many cows he already has, how many more he can take care of and furnish proper references to establish his credit. The matter is investigated and if, in the judgment of the trustees, the applicant can take care of the number he asks for, and care for them properly, he is found to be a practical man, and has good credit, the cows are purchased for him and added to his herd. He will have ample time to pay back the money at a nominal rate of interest, but his handling of the herd is kept under surveillance, and it is seen to that he has a proper regard for sanitation and the keeping of his cattle. The cattle supplied are either Guernsey or Holstein.—The Editor.

PLAN REFORMS IN MISSOURI COURTS.

St. Louis, Mo., June 19.—Detailed suggestions of the Kansas City Bar association for a reform of the judicial procedure of the state will be considered by the committees on constitutional amendment and civil appellate procedure of the Missouri code commission at the next meeting of the commission tomorrow night. Tomorrow the commission will inaugurate a hearing to which the entire membership of the St. Louis Bar association has been invited. The commission is to adopt the next state legislature the adoption of such laws as it believes will relieve unnecessary delay from the workings of city, county and state judiciaries.

MASTER PLUMBERS TO MEET IN FRISCO

Atlantic City, N. J., June 19.—The National Association of Master Plumbers, at the closing session of its convention here, adopted a resolution directing the newly elected president and board of directors to provide for the defense of the thirty-six members of the association who are being held in Federal grand jury at Des Moines on charges of conspiring to evade the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law. San Francisco was chosen as the next meeting place and S. Louis

WHAT OTHER CITIES ARE DOING

A practical machine has been invented and made, and put into operation for several months with marked success for the most satisfactory way to clean streets by a power driven machine. Several cities have been experimenting with this machine with marked success. Two men with one of these machines can sweep a street eight feet wide anywhere from two and one-half to eight miles per hour, depending upon the amount of dirt on the roadway. This machine cleans streets thoroughly and gathers the dirt up; it is really a vacuum cleaner. The sweeper is driven by gasoline, and consumes one gallon of fuel to two acres of half mile, and one gallon of lubricating oil for 150 miles. It does away with the dirt, and the cost of sweeping, sweeping and gathering the dirt in the streets, which heretofore has been considered the most effective way, but which has now turned out to be the most expensive.

The National Bureau of Municipal Research will be glad to furnish further particulars concerning this machinery, and give statistics and data as to the cost of operation in the various cities that are using it. Experts say that sprinkling the streets shortens the life of the street, no matter what material is used. With this vacuum-cleaning process no moisture is used and the dust and dirt are gathered without having some of it blown into the air by the wind. As has been previously stated the works division has been investigating such machines. None will be purchased this season but the claims which are being made for them are so strong that it would appear that they would prove a decided economy, saving both in maintenance expense and increasing the life of pavements. It is not unlikely that one or more of them will be secured for use in Duluth next season.

SHANGHAIED MAN IS FREED FROM PRISON

Grimes, Former Y. M. C. A. Treasurer, Caught in Japan.

San Francisco, Cal., June 19.—Albert Johansen, serving a three-year term in San Quentin penitentiary through a strange mistake in his identity, has been released by Judge Dooling of the United States district court on a writ of habeas corpus. James Rogers, alias Peter Grimes, convicted forger who is believed to have drugged Johansen in a Nagasaki saloon and substituted the Norwegian sailor for himself just before his transfer under guard to the transport ship, has been apprehended near Nagasaki by the Japanese authorities, and is now in custody, according to information received from Washington by United States District Attorney John Preston late last night. Information was received here that Rogers, or Grimes, was a former newspaper man of Pittsburg, and before that was treasurer of the athletic committee of the Y. M. C. A. of Scranton, Pa.

MENTAL SANITATION NEEDED, HE THINKS.

Baltimore, Md., June 19.—"In the 350 years since Shakespeare we have progressed from dirty bodies and dirty minds to clean bodies and dirty minds, a doubtful betterment," said Dr. James H. Wood of Loyola college last night. He said that modern educators have lost sight of the fact of education, which is discipline—the training of the will and mind.

MEN TAKE PITY AND ASK NO ADVANCES.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 19.—Dreary conditions reported in the iron, steel and tin plate industries caused representatives of 15,000 workmen employed in union mills to refrain from demanding increased wages. It was stated at the close of yesterday's session here between plant owners and representatives of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Plate workers.

SOME VIEWS TAKEN TUESDAY OF WINNIPEG FLYER WRECK

Davidson, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The wreck of the Winnipeg flyer of the Northern Pacific near here late Tuesday afternoon was one of the luckiest ever recorded, as several cars left the track, yet the injuries to passengers were largely confined to bruises and a shaking up. The train was brought to a stop about 200 yards from where the refrigerator car, riding just behind the locomotive, leaped the track, and only the fact that the roadbed was of soft gravel, about five feet high, prevented disastrous results. If the wreck had been at a point where the roadbed had been hard the results would have been more serious.

day afternoon, by Capt. Charles M. Gordon, Jr., Infantry, U. S. A. In the morning the field kitchen and quarters were inspected by Capt. Gordon. The regular army officers detailed as inspectors and instructors with the Third regiment are: Capt. Charles M. Gordon, Infantry, with First battalion; Capt. William S. Neilly, Infantry, with Second battalion; Lieut. Philip G. Wright, Infantry, with Third battalion; Capt. Lee R. Dunbar, medical corps, inspector and instructor of sanitary troops. In addition to his other duties, Private T. J. Bernhardt of the band has been detailed as regimental postmaster. There are two deliveries of mail a day to Lake City, and on the return trips the mail sacks are always filled. A bountiful supply of daily papers are received as usual. The Herald is over-present, and its arrival is looked forward to with great pleasure.

WITH THIRD REGIMENT

Visitors From Duluth in the Camp at Lake City.

Annual Inspection Is Being Made By Regular Army Officers.

Lake City, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The First battalion which began rifle practice on the range Tuesday afternoon expects to be through with its work today. The record course only is being fired. Marking in the pit is done by company, a company from the battalion firing being detailed for that purpose, the detail lasting half a day. The daily routine began yesterday as usual with the band falling in line and playing a march going up and down the regimental street 8 a. m. This seems rather early to get the band out, but the men are always ahead of time waiting for the first call, as First Sgt. "Knockie" of the band is on duty. At 4:45 a. m. immediately after roll call at 5:15 a. m. each company executes a five-minute drill in setting up exercises.

There are quite a number of visitors in camp who arrived with the regiment. Some of the officers were accompanied by their wives. The ladies are quartered in the city, but spend most of the day at camp. Among those visiting the Third are the following: Mr. H. V. Egan, Victor and Taylor of Duluth, Mrs. Roger M. Weaver and Marion Weaver of Duluth, Kenneth McCulloch and Wilbur Taylor of Duluth, Mrs. F. W. Matson and Mrs. M. A. Gallup of St. Paul, Mrs. Carl C. Weaver of Minneapolis. Principal musician A. Groh is supervising the instruction of the buglers, who hold daily practice at 9 a. m., in the woods near the rifle range. In addition to his other duties Lieut. Colonel H. V. Egan will supervise the guard.

Second Lieut. Neville P. Movatt has been appointed first lieutenant and battalion adjutant of the Third battalion. Battalion Sgt. Maj. Fred H. Wood of Duluth, who is again with the Third, is also acting as assistant exchange officer. Musician H. H. Wilson of Company H has been detailed as regimental clerk.

The following changes were made in this regiment: In non-commissioned staff, Private Rudolph A. Westberg, hospital corps, is appointed color sergeant. In Company A, Privates Robert K. Lee, Leo G. Marlow, Anthony Perry and Joseph Gibson are promoted to the grade of sergeant. Privates John F. Furrer, William Beatty, Perry Becker and Cliff Dahl are appointed corporals. In Company B, Sgt. L. N. La Pant and Privates Leeds E. Coulter, Elmo L. Cutler, George H. Hall, Joseph T. Kennedy, Arthur Nelson, F. H. Sullivan and Gerard R. Spencer are discharged on account of permanent removal from company station. Corporal John Dahlgren is promoted to the grade of sergeant. Private Edwin A. Lee is appointed corporal. Private Carl Eyerla is appointed corporal. In Company C, Corporal William H. Tischer is promoted to sergeant. Corporal William H. Brodie and Benjamin M. Wasson are appointed corporals. In Company I, Sergeant James E. Ergeson and Corporal Otto Nelson are reduced to the grade of private to date from June 1. Corporal Roy Jensen is promoted to sergeant and Private Jim Hill is appointed corporal. In Company H, Corporal M. A. Matson is reduced to the grade of corporal. Privates Howard V. Reusswig and Lawrence McCabe are appointed corporals. In Machine Gun company, Private Clarence L. Stewart is discharged for disability.

Annual Inspection. As the war division requires an inspection of the National Guard by one of the regular army officers, the annual inspection of the Second battalion was made by companies yesterday.

REACH AGREEMENT IN KANAWHA STRIKE

Miners and Operators Brought Together By Mediators.

Washington, June 19.—An agreement that will end the strike of about 15,000 men in the Kanawha coal fields of West Virginia, was reached here late yesterday when representatives of the operators and the mine workers accepted proposals offered by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

The principal demand of the men was for the adoption of the "check-off" system, by which union dues would be deducted from their pay envelopes each month by the companies, and to this the representatives of the Kanawha Coal Operators' association agreed, with the understanding that not more than $1.10 is to be taken from each man's envelope per month. Certain minor points are to be settled, according to the agreement, by a special commission of three to be named within ten days. The terms of the agreement will be presented to the operators' association and the miners' organization for ratification. The executive board of the miners' union will receive it at Charleston, W. Va., today, and it is expected that the men who struck June 1 will return to work Monday morning.

The table was decorated with violets and a luncheon of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and other delicacies was served. Each woman was given a flag like those sold by the Red, White and Blue society last Saturday. The following program was given:

Violin solo, Alice Gow; recitation,

Just Being Happy

recitation: "Beautiful Things," Hulda Halvorsen; recitation, "Little Nan," Marian Gow; songs, Rosalie Haddad; vocal duet, Florence and Frances Weatherhead.

The entertainment was enjoyed by the women of the ward, one of whom said, "How can we ever thank you for so much pleasure, we that have nothing to give in return." The member to whom this was said replied, "I am poor too, but we can give of our love when that is appreciated, and make ourselves happy too."

At 4 o'clock Mrs. Weatherhead, the matron, served coffee to the women of the farm and to their guests. For the return trip Dr. Woolway put the covered bus of the institution at the service of the young guests whose light frocks had suffered from the rain on their way out to the farm.

The members of the Red, White and Blue society who made the trip yesterday were:

CONVENTION CLOSES

Government of Federation to Be Decided By State Divisions

Chicago, June 19.—With the convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs concluded the general council of that body met, and as a result state federations will be allowed to vote on two important questions.

The first is whether to amend the constitution to divide the governing body of the federation into an upper and a lower house; the second, looking to a more equitable distribution of directors, suggests that the country be divided into eight districts, each of which shall elect a director. At present there are six districts, four of whom reside in the Middle West.

Amusements

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS

LYCEUM — BALDWIN PLAYERS in "The Man From Home."
EMPIRE — "The Girl From Luxembourg."
ECHO — Musical comedy.

Amusement Notes

"The Man From Home" has three more performances at the Lyceum, tonight, tomorrow, matinee and tomorrow night.

Those who have seen it are loud in their praise not only for the merits of this great American play, but for the excellent manner in which it is presented by the Baldwin Players. Broadway Jones' will begin the sixth week of this popular company's summer season in Duluth. George M. Cohen, that genius of American playwrights, wrote "Broadway Jones" for his own vehicle in what he has termed his farewell to the stage. Into it he has put all that was in him in order to make his farewell to the stage a remembered one that he succeeded was attested by the tremendous enthusiasm with which it was received in New York and Chicago. In his own verbiage, "it was a riot."

It is by special arrangement with Mr. Cohen that Duluth will be able to see "Broadway Jones" for the first time at popular prices in this country and the advance sale indicates a record-breaking attendance.

"The Girl From Luxembourg," which began a four-day engagement at the Empire yesterday afternoon, is a musical comedy composed of entertaining ingredients that could hardly fail to suit any class of theater-goers. The light comedy is frothy, the music is cheering and tuneful and in part contains some genuine sentiment, the dances are numerous and clever, and the scenic effects are elaborate and effective. Taken all in all it is a good show well put on, and its merit was attested by the tremendous success of the large audiences.

There is a goodly collection of chorus girls to augment the efforts of the principals and the numerous and effective changes of costumes are not the least interesting feature of the show. The scene in which the "Kaleidoscope" girls were seen in the surf is probably the most artistic bit of scenic work done at the Lyceum this season. The song number, "Don't Go in the Water," by Frank and Gladys, was well sung and the appearance of ten members of the "Kaleidoscope" bathing suit girls was pleasing. A presentation of the "Texas Tommy" by Andy Davis, Florrie Germaine, Frank Carey and Jess Weiss, was clever and got a hearty laugh.

The principals are first-class performers. Arthur Clamage, under whose direction the play is put on, is a good comedian. Miss Grace Fields as the girl from Luxembourg, is at a voice and is the center of attraction in the specialty. The song number, "The Girl From Luxembourg," by Ayers, the soubrette, is probably the best singer in the cast and appears in several stunning costumes. The cast is too large to be given individual comment, but all appear to good advantage.

The new show at the Echo, which began yesterday, was attended by large audiences. "Fun in a District School" is what it might be called, and the audiences were kept in good humor by the various stunts of the performers. Nearly every member of the chorus introduced a song specialty and Miss Marie Russell served in the lead capacity. Several reels of excellent pictures were shown. The present show will be continued for the remainder of the week.

Another case comes to mind which is different though somewhat similar. It has to do with the aged mother of some friends of mine. She is becoming a serious case. No babe in arms requires more attention. Her children number several sons and one daughter.

Just as long as the mother could mend and make over little garments and was a help and not a hindrance, she was welcome. When she became a care the sons were asked to take her—the sons' wives to wait on her. They don't complain, but as the wife of one of them remarked it is hardly natural that she should be ministered to in her old age by the wife of one of her sons when he has a daughter who should enjoy the privilege.

Relationship takes many an unfortunate turn for those left to assume burdensome responsibilities. All are bound to grow old and the longer we live the more surely we shall need care.

None of us know at what moment health may depart or injury befall, rendering us dependent. So it behooves us to do our full duty by those with claims of blood upon us who are unable to do for themselves and to make up for that alone by doing what ever kindness we can for the poor, the sick, the aged and the orphaned and all who are unfortunate.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Helpless Blood Less Thick Than Water.

It is a strange thing that so many people can entirely forget or entirely ignore those to whom they owe the allegiance and responsibility that comes of kinship—of being of the same blood.

A middle-aged woman desirous of marrying again told me why she hesitated. It seems hardly fair. As a young woman she married a widower with four children, one of whom has been helpless since infancy. For more than twenty-five years she has been her constant charge and care. Eventually she had several children of her own, all grown to maturity now.

Her difficulty today is the care of this invalid old woman as old as herself. Either she must assume it herself or else one of her own daughters must do so, as the blood sisters and brothers of this dependent one have no more thought of her than as though she did not exist. Naturally the mother does not want to impose such a charge upon her own children. To anyone who knows the truth of the story it seems but fair and quite time that they share in her care and support, instead of shirking a duty that is very plain they should assume.

Another case comes to mind which is different though somewhat similar. It has to do with the aged mother of some friends of mine. She is becoming a serious case. No babe in arms requires more attention. Her children number several sons and one daughter.

Just as long as the mother could mend and make over little garments and was a help and not a hindrance, she was welcome. ## STEINWAY

Its Tone Won Fame for the Steinway Piano

UNEXCELLED sweetness and strength of tone have made the Steinway the world's standard piano. Its reputation rests upon its superiority—it is the piano by which all others are measured. This should influence you to purchase a Steinway as the only piano for the home. It is not a question of price—but of knowing that money can buy no better piano. The Steinway is the ideal piano.

TO ALL GROCERS

FREE! FREE!

Absolutely FREE

Open OVENGOLD package at top. Lift out paraffin paper measuring cup and bag of OVENGOLD.

Pour all the OVENGOLD from the bag into your mixing bowl.

Fill paraffin cup with lukewarm water. Pour into the OVENGOLD.

Stir thoroughly and beat about one minute, till you have a smooth mixture.

Grease your layer cake tins and put equal portions of OVENGOLD cake dough in each tin.

Have your oven same heat as usual for baking cake. A rather hot oven is best. OVENGOLD bakes very quickly. Watch it closely, and make your test to tell when done.

To Every Grocer in Duluth!

Because the OVENGOLD way to make cake is so wonderful, many housewives can hardly believe it is true. But it is true. And here is the proof. We are giving a full-sized package of OVENGOLD absolutely FREE to every grocer in the city. Your grocer takes his package of OVENGOLD home and his wife makes an OVENGOLD cake. Then your own grocer will tell you that he knows OVENGOLD makes mighty good cake—easily, simply and surely. Nearly every grocer in Duluth has already received his package of OVENGOLD and his wife has made OVENGOLD cake. Ask your grocer how he liked his OVENGOLD cake.

THE OVENGOLD way to make cake is the new way that's so easy and sure. You just add water to OVENGOLD, stir it about one minute, put it in your cake tins and bake it.

Use no eggs, no butter, no sugar, no milk—for OVENGOLD contains all the necessary ingredients for making a good cake. And because all these ingredients are the highest quality that can be bought and are scientifically weighed and mixed by machinery, every OVENGOLD cake bakes up successfully.

No recipe to follow! No mistakes can be made. Every OVENGOLD cake is a successful cake—for OVENGOLD itself contains all the ingredients of a good cake, accurately measured and mixed by sanitary machinery.

Use No Eggs—No Butter—No Sugar—No Milk—Just Water—and You Will Have a GOOD CAKE

Make This GOOD Cake In 3 Minutes With Water Only

See these pictures here at the side of this page! Just open the package—pour the OVENGOLD into your mixing bowl—add the water—stir one minute—put into your cake tins—and bake your cake. So easy. A half hour of work saved! No disappointments! for every OVENGOLD cake is a good cake for certain.

Besides having good cake by using OVENGOLD you avoid the work and save the time spent in making your cake in the ordinary way. You know it requires probably half an hour—sometimes longer—to mix the flour and the sugar and the butter and the milk—before you are ready to bake.

With OVENGOLD you save all that time and work.

Actually, your OVENGOLD cake can be in the oven three minutes after you open your OVENGOLD package.

To make OVENGOLD cake costs no more than making cake at home in the old way. And you save the work and time. You are always sure of a successful baking, and you will appreciate this great convenience of making a good cake so quickly.

OVENGOLD cake is not a "cheap" cake. It is an extra good cake at a reasonable cost. You could not buy the materials to make a cake as good as OVENGOLD cake for less than 25c. And with OVENGOLD you save the work and time—and have good cake sure.

Ask Your Grocer for

And Try It At Our Risk

We invite you to make an OVENGOLD cake at our risk.

When you cut your OVENGOLD cake—if it does not come up to your every requirement for a GOOD cake—just send us back the empty package with your name and address, and we will at once refund to you the money you paid your grocer for your package of OVENGOLD, including the postage used in writing us.

Allmade Bakeries, Inc., Detroit, Mich. — Stone Ordean Wells Co., Duluth, Minn., Distributors.

—FREE TO— GROCERS! GROCERS!

DURING the last 15 days our representatives have been calling on the Duluth grocers, to explain OVENGOLD. And we have given to every grocer a full sized package of OVENGOLD so he could take it home and have his wife make an OVENGOLD cake. We have done this because we want all grocers to be able to tell their customers that OVENGOLD is exactly as we say: and does make mighty good cake. Possibly we have missed calling on some few of the grocers. If that is the case, any grocer who has not received his FREE package of OVENGOLD, is requested to mail this coupon at once. Any grocer in Duluth who has not received his FREE package of OVENGOLD, be sure to mail this coupon TODAY.

DULUTH COUPLE ARE ATTENDANTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hughes Assist in Aitkin Wedding.

Aitkin, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Ruth Poloy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Poloy, and Dr. W. G. Courtney, formerly of Aitkin, but now of East Grand Forks, were married Wednesday morning in St. James Catholic church, Rev. Father Turblax performing the ceremony. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hughes of Duluth. After wedding breakfast, Dr. and Mrs. Courtney departed for a trip to Iowa and will make their home in East Grand Forks where he has established a practice in dentistry. Both are popular young people in Aitkin, the bride being a graduate of the high school in the class of 1914.

Roswell Lee Stowe and Miss Helen Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Allen, were married Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. A. L. Richardson reading the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kathryn Allen, and Chester Allen was host man. Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Stowe will make their home here in the house they recently purchased.

Ervin H. Walker and Miss Augusta Katherine Baumgarten both of Aitkin were married Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Baumgarten, Rev. A. L. Richardson performing the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few friends. The bride couple was attended by Miss Ella Johnson and Mrs. Baumgarten. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left over the Soo for a trip, and will reside here.

DROWNS SWIMMING IN LONG PRAIRIE.

Long Prairie, Minn., June 19.—So far as known here, the body of Joseph Viner, Jr., 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Viner of Long Prairie, was drawn in the Long Prairie river last Saturday, has not been recovered. He perished while swimming in the river opposite Jacob Goodman's farm. He was in swimming with two of his boy friends and dove off the high bank into the river, which was higher than usual because of the recent heavy rains. He was sucked into a whirlpool and was unable to get out. His terror-

CHICAGO PAIR FINED.

Mulcted $800 at Madison for Obtaining Goods Falsely.

Madison, Wis., June 19.—Mrs. Fannie Epstein and Mrs. Jennie Isaacson of Chicago entered pleas of nolo contendere in municipal court yesterday on a charge of obtaining by false pretenses $1,500 worth of diamonds from a local jewelry store on Feb. 26 last, and fines of $500 and $300 respectively were imposed.

The charge was changed from grand larceny to one of obtaining goods by false pretenses.

ESCAPES WITH FINE.

Doctor Accused at Jamestown, N. D., of Violating Law Pleads Guilty.

Jamestown, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The charge against Dr. G. H. LaBarge of Pingree, N. D., of violating the state law, was disposed of in the district court when he pleaded guilty. On the charge of violating the state law, he was fined $100 and costs.

Jacob Schauer, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and Lawrence Beach, accused of blind-pigging, pleaded not guilty when first arraigned, but he afterwards changed the plea to guilty.

Jacob Schuler, charged with assault, was acquitted.

William Jamison, arrested at Cleveland, Stutsman county, recently charged with the state medical law, was sentenced to the state penitentiary yesterday to serve a year's sentence. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

He realized only $24 on the forgery, and his sentence is at the rate of a month for every $25 secured.

MUCH RAIN HAS INJURED POTATOES.

Fargo, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—On the Red river potato men report losses as a result of the excessive precipitation in the past few days. The heavy rains have injured the potato crops, and the water has been so high that the plants have been drowned.

Some low fields where the plants were several inches high were entirely drowned out. Corn on the lower fields was also badly damaged.

HOTEL MANAGER DRAGGED BY COW.

Baudette, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. H. Hackett, one of the managers of the Rex hotel here, was hurt on Wednesday afternoon while untiring his cow. The cow became so bad that he went out to release her, and in some way the rope became tangled around Mr. Hackett and the cow dragged him sixty feet before she stopped. It was necessary to take several stitches on both sides of his mouth.

Just Between You and Me

By BRUCE

F PAL BROWN gets away with a decisive win in the twenty-round game. Some of us are inclined to believe that it would be the life for P. Lawrence Brown.

In the Hudson tilt Brown began to come in the latter stages of the fight. The final session found the weak fighting Tillman crowded into a neutral corner and Brown on top of him, pumping short punches into the mid-section of the Minneapolisian. Gone was the smile from the gray countenance of Tillman and he was a tired and weary battler as the going ended the short battle.

Naturally the bout was for ten rounds and there is not the least use in the world in saying "if it had been longer." The argument that enters at this point is that if Brown had Tillman over the twenty-round route, the fact is certain that the range boy would annihilate him.

In many ways it is a pity that the Wisconsin law prohibits fighting in the clinches. Many spectators would like clean exchanges and clean open boxing; but it is a fact that the boxers of the present day lead and clinch. Many of them don't counter and many more don't take advantage of a swing. Boys like Gans would knock the head of an opponent who swings.

One of the reasons for this failure to take advantage of the stand off style of boxing is precisely because during the past years boxers have been cultivating the battling in the clinches.

Battling Nelson was a furious fiend at the one-arm-fist style of going. Ad Wolgast could battle with desperate effectiveness while he held an adversary locked in the embrace of one hairy arm. The same is true of scores of the modern boxers. Then along comes the Wisconsin law, decreeing that there shall be no hitting in the clinches. The result has been rather tame contests all over the sister state.

Brown is but one of the many boys to find the new method of boxing against his acquired method of mauling. Few boys could stand against the vicious in-fighting of the range lad. It was while fighting away with one of those mallet-like fists of his, and holding his opponent in with one arm, that Pal inflicted a lot of punishment.

If Frankie Whitney is the slugger that his record indicates, the contest that will be waged on the evening of the Fourth of July will be a real contest. The show will be the final one of the summer months and will be about the last start Brown will make in these diggings for some time.

Lehto Is Training.
KARL LEHTO is doing some quiet yet thorough training during the summer months. The Finnish light heavyweight nurses the sincere belief that he can conquer Fred Beell. Lehto is but 25 years of age and is bigger and stronger now than when he was wrestling Ordehnann, Hackenschmidt and the largest wrestlers in the world. The Lehto one wants to try Beell at any rate, and he will never be satisfied until he tries.

James' Dilemma.
WITH the return of Walter Glass and Art Osman from the classical environs of Syracuse there will be some puzzling over the part of James E. Ten Eyck.

Osman is one of the greatest oarsmen ever turned out by the Duluth Boat club. He will be needed some place in one of the senior boats. Glass is at the present time stroking the Syracuse varsity eight—the two possibly add strength to one of the boats. The question is where to put the Duluth-Syracuse oarsman. Leave it to James.

The Ultimate End.
IT is getting harder to amuse the people every year. This applies to sporting affairs as well as all angles of the amusement game. Whether it is that the people are becoming blasé or whether they have seen everything, Bill is a question that some college debating team might look into with the idea of shedding interesting facts thereon.

Like other amusement enterprises baseball is suffering from over exploitation or lack of stars, or something subtle and intangible.

Vaudeville is combing the earth for new features and new stars; the scouts of the big leagues are zealously combing the bushes for new stars and they can't find them.

Frank Farrell of the New York Americans would give barrels of gold for just one hitter—and he can't get him.

The owners of the Chicago Nationals don't give a small fortune for one dependable pitcher—and the owners, whoever they may be, can't find the pitcher.

There is hardly a team in this broad and effulgent land of ours, large or small, whose owners or board of directors would not dig down in the dough bag and produce large and copious kale for players—and the players can't be found.

Economists have declared that demand creates supply; there has never in the history of the game been the demand for baseball players as there is at the present time—and the players don't appear in answer to the summons.

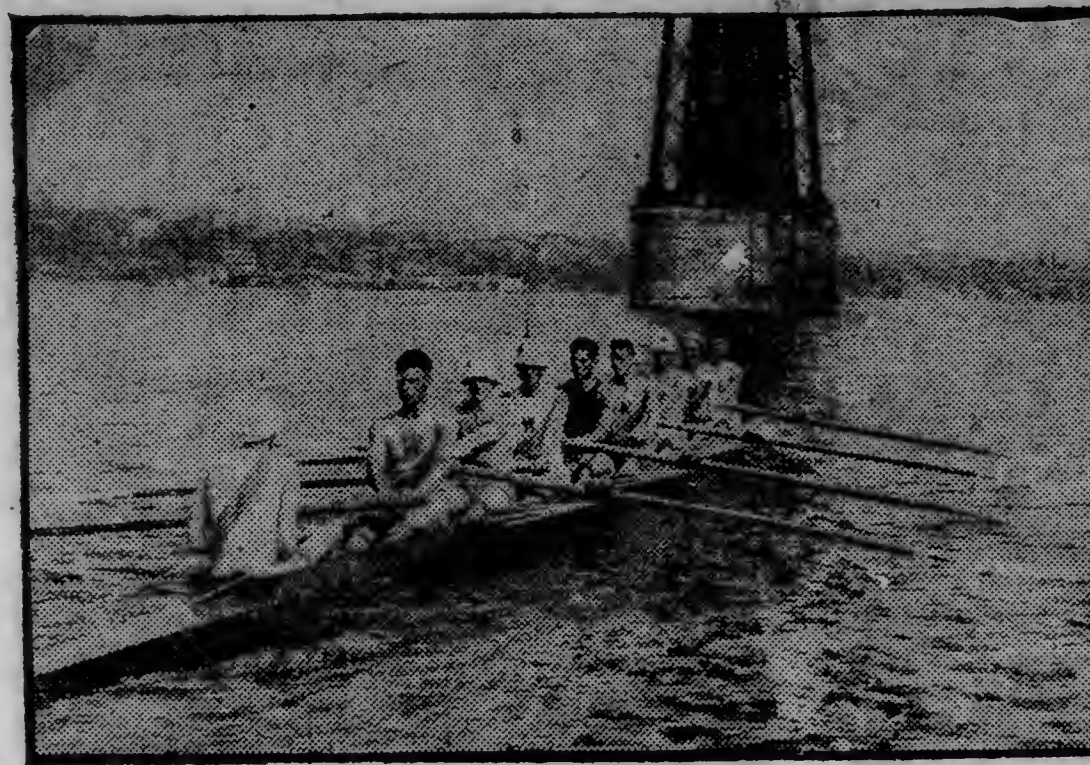

One speculates dimly and without definite or logical conclusions as to the ultimate end. With the Federal league making players believe that they are worth in the neighborhood of $25,000 per year, and with the magnates of the majors losing money because of poor attendance, the outcome of the present agitation seems certain somebody is going to drop a "roll."

SUSPENSIONS AND FINES ARE FREQUENT.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 19.—Manager Bingham of the local American league baseball club, has received notice of his indefinite suspension by President Ban Johnson for his run-in during Wednesday's game, with Umpire Dineen. Bingham protested a called strike on Chapman and was put off the field, after which fans threw poor bottles at Dineen.

New York, June 19.—It is announced that Horner and Clark, respectively shortstop and catcher for the Cincinnati Reds, have been suspended for

WASHINGTON CREW AT POUCHKEEPSIE.
There is a very lively interest in the Washington crew, which is to take part in the intercollegiate race at Poughkeepsie the latter part of this month. The Western men have been reported to be rowing strongly and they are a husky lot. Their boat is of a sharp English model. Conbar, their coach, thinks they are going to take away the honors in the big race.

National Nationals, have been fined $25 each for quarrelling with the umpire in Wednesday's game with Brooklyn. President Ebbetts of the Brooklyn team stated that the suspension of Jake Daubert, first baseman, would be lifted today.

Stock. A double by Coleman, substitute catcher, drove in the winning run. New York filled the bases on two passes by Harmon in the ninth, but Beschler tied to Corey for the last out.

New York scored in the fourth inning on Doyle's pass, Merkle's infield out and Stock's second double. Doyle's triple and Merkle's sacrifice fly were good for another in the sixth, while Stock's third double and Meyer's single scored the third run in the seventh.

Wagner went through the entire series without making a hit. Manager McGraw was ordered off the field by Umpire Emslie for protesting a decision in the first inning, while Klem sent Snodgrass off the field in the seventh.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 19.—Yesterday's game between Brooklyn and Cincinnati was another battle royal with plenty of freak incidents. The Philadelphia Phillies, who were in the first and ninth innings.

Allen started the pitching for Brooklyn and lasted one inning. Schmutz held them hitless until the ninth when four singles in a row sent in two runs.

Benton was hit for two triples, a double and a single. He was passed, made a wild pitch, had three stolen bases against him on two of which three runners advanced to third on wild throws by Clarke, yet Brooklyn got only one run. Score: R. H. E. Cincinnati 4-6-2 Brooklyn 2-0-0

Batteries—Benton and Clarke; Allen, Schmutz and McCarty. Umpires—Eason and Quigley.

SIXTY-EIGHT YEARS AGO TODAY THE FIRST BASEBALL GAME WAS PLAYED

THEN—

Sixty-eight years ago today the first match game of baseball on record was played. The game was between the Knickerbocker and New York baseball clubs on the Elysian Fields at Hoboken, N. J. The players were members of the leading New York families, and engaged in the sport as a pastime. A bevy of town belles in the group of spectators made the occasion seem like a social function. The field was marked off into the baseball diamond so far apart today. None of the players wore gloves, masks or protectors. It was the custom for the batter to say where he wanted the ball thrown. The pitcher, or "giver" as he was then called, delivered it with an underhand motion when he threw the ball overhand, hence the rule. The catcher stood at a safe distance behind the batter, ready to catch the ball on the bound. The rules dictated that if he caught the ball in the first round the batter was permitted to catch hits on the first round. Three out of the side. The team that first scored twenty-one runs, or "aces," regardless of the number of innings played was accounted the winner. After the game the players resorted to one of the famous taverns of the day where the victors had a dinner at the expense of the vanquished.

NOW—

Today baseball holds the nation in its grip. Presidents, statesmen, millionaires and bankers forsake their desks to attend the games. Over 30,000,000 fans pay more than $10,000,000 every season to watch the 5,000 professional ball players making up the more than fifty major and minor leagues in the United States. These athletes combined earn salaries amounting to more than $5,000,000 a season—some of them more than $15,000 for six months' work. The outcome of games is awaited throughout the country with deeper interest than many of the grave problems that university students are "hitting" on. There is hardly a school, a university or a social club in the country that is not represented at least once on the baseball diamond during the year. There are many who play nearly as well as the professional players. In the shade of Japan's famous cherry trees, native university students are "hitting" on. Coincident with the adoption of the principles of a republic, the Chinese also adopted the American game of baseball. And now comes the news that the French Athletic association has decided to adopt baseball as a national sport. In fact, the sun never sets on baseball's kingdom.

Henderson of Illinois and Bingham of Denver, each of whom made 10 points, and the managing committee of the Big Nine is puzzled over the question of the disposition of the gold medal to which the highest point winner is entitled. It will be discussed at a meeting of the committee here Monday when the records made by Henderson in the half-mile and by Wahl of Wisconsin in the high jump will be brought up for official recognition.

DULUTH BOY MAKES GREAT ALL-ROUND RECORD.

A special wire to The Herald today states that Jim Kelly of this city has been voted the best all-around man in college. Kelly is an Exeter boy and this year is to enter West Point. While at Exeter Kelly was captain of the football team and was also one of the track stars. The Duluth youngster made one of the greatest athletic records of any student in the history of the school, and in addition was one of the best players in the state.

QUIMET MAKES POOR SHOWING

Badly Outclassed in British Open Championship Matches.

Preestwick, Scotland, June 19.—Francis Quimet, American open golf champion, again fared badly today in the British open championship. He took 85 strokes for the third round of 18 holes, bringing his total for the first three rounds to 250. With only one more round to play, this left him in a hopeless position, 24 strokes behind the leading competitor, John Henry Taylor, five times winner of the open championship title and its present holder, led the field at the end of the third round with an aggregate of 226. He did the round in 74.

Colonels 6; Kaws 0.

Kansas City, Mo., June 19.—Morgan and Richie were unable to hold Louisville yesterday and the locals lost, 6 to 0. Korthrup pitched the longest game ever made in the park. Score: R. H. E. Louisville 0-0-0 Kansas City 6-0-0

WINONA DROPS FIRST GAME TO FORT WILLIAM

Fort William, Ont., June 19.—But one game was played in the Northern league yesterday and that was between Fort William and Winona. The locals took first blood by winning, 7 to 3. Penfold, a local pitcher, pitched clever baseball, despite the fact that he was wild. But five scattered hits were secured off his delivery. Toransen was touched by lively fashion and was hit when his meant runs. Score: R. H. E. Winona 3-0-0 Fort William 7-3-0 Batteries—Toransen and Meyers; Penfold and Handschu.

Browns 6; Athletics 5.

St. Louis, Mo., June 19.—Although the world's champions fought hard, they could not overcome a lead the home club secured in the early innings, and St. Louis won from Philadelphia 6 to 5.

Place in the race for the American league pennant.

In several innings Philadelphia had men on second and third when none was out, but Baumgardner, who was out, struck knocked the ball into right field bleachers for a home run with men on second and third.

Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 6-5-0 St. Louis 5-0-0

Batteries—Plank, Brown and Lapp; Schang; Baumgardner and Evans; Agnew. Umpires—Egan and Evans.

FEDERAL LEAGUE

Brooklyn 6; Mordecais 4.

St. Louis, Mo., June 19.—Brooklyn won the third of its series with St. Louis yesterday with a score of 6 to 4. In five out of the nine innings, visitors bunched hits to take the advantage. Score: R. H. E. Brooklyn 6-4-2 St. Louis 4-2-0

Batteries—Finerman and Land; Wilt and Simon.

Tinkers 3; Pitteds 2.

Chicago, June 19.—Pittsfield held Pittsburgh to two hits yesterday and Chicago won the ten-inning game, 3 to 2. Camerlin was hit hard. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh 2-0-0 Chicago 3-2-0

Batteries—Cammie and Berry; Fisk and Wilson.

His scores for the first and second rounds were 74 and 78 respectively. Harry Vardon, also five times holder of the title, followed closely with an aggregate of 228, having taken 78 for the third round. His preceding rounds were 73 and 77.

J. L. C. Jenkins, the British amateur champion, played splendid golf today. He went the third round in 73, making his aggregate 232, or only six strokes behind the best total. His first two rounds were 70 and 80.

Outlet acknowledged before starting today that he had had too much golf since his arrival in Europe and that he did not feel in good condition. The only strong point of his game in the third round was his putting on the greens.

EXPERT MAY FIX COURSE

Tom Bendelow Asked to Prepare Northland Links for State Golf Tourney.

Tom Bendelow, one of the best golf course experts in the United States, and also one of the best golf course architects, may come to Duluth and prepare and take charge of the Northland course during the state tournament.

Negotiations to that end have been entered into. Mr. Bendelow was here some months ago and saw and gave general advice in the construction of the present 18-hole course of the Country Club. The securing of the services of Bendelow would insure the perfect condition of the Northland course.

The golf program at the Northland club for tomorrow is a mixed four-some medal play handicap affair. As the women of the club have been taking a great deal of interest in golf this season and as there are some very capable players among the women of the club, the mixed foursome is expected to bring out some classy golf.

SHARIN REPORTS READY FOR WORK

Walter Parker of Chicago Wants Place With White Sox.

Walter Parker, an outfielder of Chicago, is after a job on the Duluth team. He is there with fountain pen in the mail of today and asks that he be given a trial with the local aggregation. At the present time, the progress of the Parker one will have hard work getting on with the club.

Otto Sharin arrived yesterday. The new man is ready to take up the burden of flinging, and will probably be used during the Superior series. Sharin states that he is in good shape and ready for work. With Cunningham, Bianchi and Grina working well the new twirler, in the event of his showing anything, will prove a formidable addition to the club.

Knock-Out in Tenth.

New York, June 19.—Al Reich, former national amateur heavyweight champion, knocked out Sailor Fitts of Brooklyn in the final round of a ten-round match here last night.

HEAVYWEIGHTS PUT UP THEIR GUARANTEES.

London, June 19.—"Gunboat" Smith, the American heavyweight pugilist, and Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion, today deposited $5,000 each as a guarantee in connection with their twenty-round fight to take place at Olympia, July 10.

TENNIS OUTLOOK IS BEST IN HISTORY OF DULUTH

Tournaments Begin Monday at Oatka and on Longview Courts.

Play This Year May Develop a New Local Racquet Star.

This season promises to bring out some of the best tennis that the local courts have produced in years. The singles tournament at the Oatka courts will begin Monday. The Roman tournament of the Longview club is in progress now. All this is leading up to the Head of the Lakes championship play and the Labor day tournament.

Interest in the net game has been increased appreciably by the construction here of the new courts at Oatka and the Longview courts. Four years ago the interest in the game revived. Today Duluth vies with St. Paul and Minneapolis as one of the big tennis centers of the state.

A number of young players have entered the game this season and it is the hope of the officials of the field department of the boat club and the Longview club that a new star will be developed.

The Kennedy brothers, Mac Washburn, Davis, Gardner and Bissonnette are the representative players of the city. All of these racquet wielders have made splendid showings in the state tournaments—but the showings have not been good enough to cope successfully with stars of the order of Armstrong, Adams, Wheeler, Jayne, Stollwag or Burr. It is the hope of some new star will come up through the local tournament lists one of these days and create a stir in the tennis circles of the state.

Play In Progress.
Take it four or five years ago and the quality of net game here was considerably below the standard of today. The increase of the number of players of the city will be entered and the local increase of the number of players has resulted in a greater interest and a faster article of tennis. This season the list of players is the greatest in the history of the city and the interest in the game is the greatest it has ever seen.

In the boat club singles tournament that starts Monday practically all of the players of the city will be entered and the tourney is expected to bring out some first-class play.

Coincident with the starting of the singles tournament of the boat club will also start the play in the round robin tournament of the Longview club. The plan of the tournament is somewhat different from that usually pursued, but it amounts in the end to a round robin effect.

There will be twelve classes with five players in each class. The players will be selected promiscuously without regard to class. The winners of these twelve classes will be divided into three classes of four players each and the winners of this will play down in a round robin for the championship of the club.

The City Championship.
The city tennis championship will probably be played around the middle of August. The finals and semi-finals of this tournament will be played on the Longview courts. Players can play up to the finals and semi-finals on the courts of the boat club.

John Adams, secretary of the Northwestern Tennis association, yesterday forwarded to local tennis players an invitation to take part in the Northwestern Tennis tournament that will be played at Lake Minnetonka on the 21st and 22nd of July. It is probable that several of the local racquet wielders will take part.

With the new court at Longview in fine condition and with the four courts at Oatka in good shape the players

MUCH TROUBLE IN BASEBALL

National Commission to Fight Federals-International League.

Injunction Against Marsans Asked—Gilmore Replies to Ban Johnson.

New York, June 19.—To plan a campaign against the Federal league clubs that have recently secured the names of many players from the ranks of organized baseball is said to be the object of the meeting here today of the national commission.

The commission also has before it the ultimatum of Manager Dunn of the Baltimore International league club to waive the draft rule and class the international as a major league, or see the Baltimore team transferred by sale to Richmond, Va.

Baltimore, Md., June 19.—Before leaving last night for New York to attend the meeting of the National baseball commission, Manager Dunn of the Baltimore International league club said if the National commission decides to waive the draft and class the International with the major leagues, he will remain here a while longer and endeavor to ascertain the sentiments of baseball lovers of the city.

Richmond, (Va.), promoters have offered $25,000 for 49 per cent of the club's stock and the transfer of the club to Richmond, according to the Orioles magazine.

St. Louis, Mo., June 19.—An injunction to restrain Armando Marsans from playing with the St. Louis Federals, was asked of the Federal district court yesterday by the Cincinnati National league club. The application was set for a hearing next Monday before Circuit Judge Sanborn of St. Paul.

The petition says that Marsans on Jan. 15 last signed a three-year contract to play with Cincinnati at $4,400 a year; that he was suspended by the Cincinnati club and then served a ten-day notice on the club that he would terminate his contract. When the ten days' notice expired, he signed with the St. Louis Federals and has been playing since Saturday. He played with the Federals yesterday.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 19.—That the Cincinnati National league club, as well as every club under the protection of organized baseball, will file injunction suits against players who, after signing contracts, jumped to the Federal league, was the statement made yesterday by Chairman Hermann of the National baseball commission.

"Suits will be filed against Marsans and Davenport within a day or two," said Chairman Hermann. "Any other player who jumps a contract in organized baseball will be enjoined by the club he deserts."

Chicago, June 19.—James A. Gilmore, president of the National league, came to the defense of that league and baseball players in general yesterday in response to the statement of B. Johnson, head of the American league, that money greed may become the curse of baseball.

"The truth is," said Gilmore, "that the public realizes that money greed has held the players in a state of poignance while the club owners have amassed large fortunes. Naturally the few owners who have heretofore monopolized the profits from the absolute monopoly of a business, resent the invasion of competition and the reduction of their profits. It is the duty of the league to give some of the money to the men who earn it, but not to the owners of the profits."

Mr. Gilmore pointed to the case of the public real estate market as an example of what he termed the "iniquity of the reserve clause." He said that the reserve clause to a reduced rank had not a friend gone in to his assistance.

CONDITIONS FOR RACE PERFECT

Harvard-Yale Regatta to Be Rowed Under Ideal Circumstances.

New London, Conn., June 19.—A gray sky and a morning haze promised ideal racing conditions for the annual Harvard-Yale regatta here today. River men predicted "flat water" for the three races on the day's program.

Regatta spectators arrived by hundreds from every point of the compass. Excursion steamers, private yachts and hundreds of automobiles added their quota to the throng, which numbered about 40,000, when the long string of canvas-covered gondolas, constituting the observation train, began to pull out in the direction of the river.

Up the river the rival oarsmen had received their final instructions and were idling about the boat houses ready for the race.

The first race today was a two-mile contest of the second variety eight, followed by a two-mile race between the freshman eights. The variety eights made over the four-mile course late this afternoon.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 19.—The variety race here will be a fight between Cornell, Washington and Wisconsin. The prediction made by Coach Hiram Conibear of the Washington crew, comes true. This was a race to the prediction made by Coach Rice of Columbia.

"There is a doubt in my mind," said Conibear, "if the Columbia crew is going to have the endurance for the four miles."

East and West Meet.
New York, June 19.—The veteran lawn tennis player of the East is again lined up against the young wizard of the West in the final battle for metropolitan championship honors. J. F. Alexander, national donkey champion, and E. L. Murray of California, won in thrilling style yesterday on the courts of the West Side of Forest Hills, L. I. Alexander in his semi-final beat Robert Leroy 6-5 and Murray beat

The Sunkist Orange With the Different Flavor

Ask for "Sunkist Valencias"

The Valencia Sunkist is the California Summer Orange—a sweet, juicy, luscious fruit, ripened on the tree.

Easy to peel, and practically seedless.

Some are dark in exterior appearance, some lighter in color. But all are a deep red inside and sparkling with healthful juice.

Oranges are picked in California every day in the year, and the Late Valencia is one of the very finest ever grown.

Glove-picked, tissue-wrapped, shipped right from the tree—you get it fresh with the real tree-ripened flavor.

Don't buy merely "oranges." Buy the Sunkist.

Several Tons of Lead Taken From Shamrock to Aid in Light Winds.

Southampton, June 19.—Four or five tons of lead have been removed from the fore end of the keel of Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America's cup. This constitutes about one-sixth of the length of the lead keel.

The alteration is regarded in some quarters as drastic, but Charles F. Nicholson, the designer, says he is hopeful that it will enable the boat to find her bearings more quickly in light winds.

Good Time Now For Blood Health

The Skin is Working Hard to Cleanse the Body

When you perspire freely see that your blood is assisted by S. S. S., the famous blood purifier.

The action of S. S. S. in its rush to the surface of the body causes the process of nutrition to so prepare all those impurities in the blood that they are easily expelled. And as fast as they are removed new materials from a purified blood stream are supplied to make a clear, smooth, outer skin of fine texture.

It is in the summer time, by the aid of S. S. S. that you naturally and quickly get rid of those harmful irritants that gather to cause rheumatism, catarrhs, blood stings, eczema, boils and other forms of impure blood.

In a splendidly illustrated book "What the Mirror Tells You" you will learn about the wonders of the skin and what is required to keep it healthy. But first get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store and then write for the book to The Swift Specific Co., 104 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Beware of any attempt to sell you something in place of S. S. S.

"This station should, according to the franchise the railroad secured from the city, have been built at least three years ago. The people out here want this station and want the railroad to operate its trains through here and I understand that the road can do this at less cost than it now has in operating them over the interstate bridge. The city has 1/2 believe, the power to make the railroad live up to its franchise and the city officials should exercise this power."

It is proposed to bring the subject up before the meeting of the West Duluth Commercial club this evening.

TO WORK FARM FOR SELLING CIGARETTES.

John Blott, proprietor of a cigar store on Central avenue, was taken into custody by the police yesterday and sent to the work farm to serve a fifteen days' sentence. Blott was convicted some time ago on a charge of selling cigarettes to Dewey Delaire, Henry Davis and Phil Lyons, three boys of whom are under 18 years of age. He was fined $50 and costs, amounting in all to about $58. Judge Lannan says Blott twenty days' time to make up his mind whether or not to pay the fine. The time having expired, Judge Lannan ordered him taken to the work farm.

Forfeits Bail.

Frank Smith forfeited $10 bail in the West Duluth police court this morning. Smith was arrested last night by New Duluth officers on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He is alleged to have started a disturbance in a boarding camp near the steel plant, and to have attempted to assault the cook. The police took him to the New Duluth station where he put up the bail.

Virginia, Minn., June 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city council at its special meeting tonight is expected to go ahead with the proposition proposed by the water and light board for construction of a municipal gas plant to cost about $70,000 or $75,000. Tonight the council will also pass on the plans for the proposed detention hospital to cost $15,000 or $20,000.

Our Lady of Lourdes church has definitely decided to build a parochial school here on Spruce street to cost about $50,000, three stories, fireproof and modern in every way. The foundation of the building was laid last summer. The foundation will be put in this fall and the building finished next summer. The parish tried recently to buy the Central school from this district for parochial school purposes but the people voted down the idea of selling it to the parish for $50,000.

MORE SAY EMPRESS WAS STEERING BADLY

Men From Steamer Alden Testify at Inquiry at Quebec.

Quebec, June 19.—Odin Sabje, second mate of the steamship Alden, testified at the Empress of Ireland inquiry today that when the Empress passed his ship on the St. Lawrence shortly before her fatal collision with the collector Storaasli he noticed that the Empress was steering badly and had to port his helm to avoid her. This testimony was introduced by counsel for the Storaasli owners in corroboration of the testimony yesterday of James Galloway, the quartermaster of the Empress, who said the vessel's steering gear was defective.

"Were you afraid of a collision?" Sabje was asked.

"I was," he was going to call the captain, "said the witness, "had passed on the port side half a mile away."

Hans Olveron, another sailor on the Alden, corroborated Sabje.

Mexicans Plan Duel.

Mexico City, June 18.—A quarrel at the Jockey club, the members of which belong to the aristocratic circle here, has resulted in a challenge to duel. The participants were Maj. Lorenzo Elizam, aide to Minister of War Blanquet, and a brother-in-law of ex-President Porfirio Diaz, and Jose Lazra Landis, a wealthy young man. The police authorities are taking steps to prevent the duel.

RUSH WHITE EARTH CASES

Government Attorney Says
They Will Come Up
Next Fall.

Denies Supreme Court Decision Settled 800 Actions.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. C. Daniels, attorney in charge of White Earth Indian reservation matters for the department of justice, in a statement of importance to all the country contiguous to the reservation today announced that the government would be prepared to take up the first of the 1,300 cases involving title to Indian lands at the November term of the federal district court at Pergus Falls.

"Every effort will be made to expedite these cases," Mr. Daniels said, "and the department is in full sympathy with the desires of the business interests of Detroit and other towns near the reservation that the entire matter be cleared up as rapidly as possible."

As to Court's Decision.

Mr. Daniels said that although there is an impression that the recent supreme court decision defining the status of Indian mixed bloods under the Clapp act has cleared up 800 of the pending cases, this is not the situation.

"All cases that the government brought were started on the theory that full blood Indians made the sales, and on information to that effect obtained by the department," he said.

"While the United States supreme court decision was vitally important, and indeed no further progress towards clearing up the matter could be made until it was handed down, it does not dispose of the cases. The situation as to trial of the cases remains the same, and the government is entitled to win all cases where it can prove its contention that full blood Indians made the transfers."

Involves $1,000,000 Timber.

Mr. Daniels said that the 1,300 cases involved about 1,600 allotments and about $1,000,000 worth of timber. "We are entitled to win all cases and recover for the timber value where our contention is proved," he said.

Mr. Daniels said that the expressed sentiment of the business interests of Detroit that the land titles be cleared so that the country may be settled by farmers and industrial development, is no longer retarded, is no stronger than the desire of the government to clear away the title matter.

"It can only be cleared by trial of the cases," he added, "and now have men in the land taking depositions, and have noticed the other side of which has been served about a year and a half has been laid over by the board of pardons till the next meeting, which will be held in December."

Dr. Reilly was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of William Dwyer of London.

Superior NORMAL SCHOOL WORKMEN STRIKE

Structural iron workers at the state normal building called a strike last night on account of alleged differences in wages being paid. The men claim that contractor Hartmann paid them on a basis of 34 cents per hour while the union scale is 22 1/2 per hour.

A general strike of all the employees on the building is threatened unless an agreement can be reached. Hartmann was recently arrested on complaint made by union labor leaders, who declared that he was working the men longer than the state law provided.

Labor leaders said this morning that it was the intention to attempt to force the state to recall its contract with Hartmann. They claim that as long as he has the contract that the men will not get just dealing with him.

The strike called last night will probably delay the construction of the new building for some time. In the belief of Superior residents, Police protection around the grounds has been asked for by the contractor.

Diplomas Are Given.

The city commission ordered the laying of water, sewer and gas mains in Belknap street and West Seventh street at its meeting yesterday afternoon. The ordering of this improvement is preliminary to the paving of the thoroughfare.

OBITUARY

Brandon Thomas, actor and playwright, died in London, June 18, aged 18. He was best known as the author of "Charles's Aunt." Mr. Thomas had a successful career on the stage for twenty-eight years. He toured America in 1885 and wrote many comedies and was the author of several popular songs.

Sir John Edward Gray Hill, a nephew of the late Sir Rowland Hill, the postal reformer, was found dead in his bed at home in London, June 19. Sir John was 76 years old, and was an authority on maritime law.

FEARING INSANITY, YOUTH KILLS SELF.

Edinburg, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—S. Gudmundson, aged 23, killed himself at his father's home near Edinburg last night. Despondency because of fear of returning insanity is believed to have caused the act. About three years ago he was an inmate of the state asylum.

200 CANADIAN MINERS DEAD

Trapped in Workings By Explosion in British Columbia.

Belgian Mine Also Reports 200 Men Entombed.

Calgary, Alta., June 19.—Two hundred men are believed to have been trapped and killed as the result of an explosion in Hill Crest collieries mine at Hill Crest, near Frank, on the Crow's Nest line, this morning.

About 600 men went into the mine this morning before the explosion occurred. More than 400 men escaped, but 200 were left and it is said there is no hope for them.

Reported at Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., June 19.—A report has been received here that 200 miners were killed in an explosion at Hill Crest mine, Crow's Nest district, near Fernie, B. C. All available doctors and nurses in the locality have been rushed to the scene by special train.

Catastrophe in Belgium.

Liege, Belgium, June 19.—Two hundred coal miners were entombed in the Vieille Marthay colliery near here, when fire broke out today. Two hundred of their comrades escaped when the alarm was given.

The fire was still raging this afternoon and every effort was being made to rescue the miners left in the pits.

REGULARS CONTROL WOODMEN'S MEETING

Effort to Cut Salaries of Chief Officers Made at Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio, June 19.—With regular administration forces in control sessions of the head camp, Modern Woodmen of America, were resumed today. Election of officers was the most important business scheduled for today.

Following a caucus of the Wisconsin delegation, a campaign was begun for abolishment of some of the offices and deep cuts in salaries of head camp officers. Literature was distributed this morning advocating reduction of the salary of the head camp from $10,000 to $5,000; head clerk from $3,500 to $2,500; head banker from $2,000 to $1,500; and directors from $500 to $400.

The regulars won a notable victory when, after a stormy session, the convention adopted the report of the credentials committee, barring from the convention several contesting delegates. The Minnesota delegation was seated at last night's session.

While the convention was endeavoring to settle the question of contested delegates, the Association of State Medical Examiners of the Woodmen held its annual election. Dr. H. J. Conroy of Chrysen, Wis., was elected president; Dr. T. A. Love of Pinestone, Minn., vice president; Dr. B. Wetherspoon, Louisville, Ky., secretary; Dr. J. H. Greedy of Denver, Colo., treasurer.

ELLENDALE MAN NEW PRESIDENT

John Mattson Heads Lutheran Free Churches of America.

Brainerd, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Lutheran Free churches of America in convention here elected these officers: President, John Mattson, Ellendale, Minn.; secretary, Rev. E. Bernthsen, Fargo, N. D.; vice president, Rev. E. Berle, Duluth, Minn. The constitution was revised on one point on the motion of Dr. J. H. Greedy, secretary of the president's standing committee.

CLOQUET MAN HURT.

Secretary of Y. M. C. A. Thrown From Horse, Breaking Collar Bone.

Cloquet, Minn., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. S. Davis, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., went down to the Northern Lumber company's barn yesterday to take a saddle horse for a ride. He led the horse to the trough near his home, breaking his collar bone. Mr. Davis was hurried home and a physician called, who pronounced the injury quite serious.

GOES FROM "JUNGLE" TO THE WORK FARM.

When Joseph Saarenen was arraigned in police court yesterday afternoon he admitted that neither has he spun nor reaped for a long time past. Wherefore the police court decreed that for the next forty days he must earn his keep by laboring on the work farm. Joseph was one of the thirty-one vagrants who were caught in the police dragnet several days ago when a squad from headquarters raided the "jungle" on the waterfront. Along with the others he was given a suspended sentence upon his promise to get a job or shake the dust of Duluth from his heels. But he wasn't a "vag" of his word and the day after he was given his liberty he was again in the toils.

KELLY MURDER CASE.

International Falls, Minn., June 19.—Ex-Judge Spooner of Bemidji, counseled for Kelly, who is on trial in district court here charged with causing the death of a man named Couture at Rainer a year ago, argued at great length yesterday afternoon for a motion to instruct the jury to acquit because the state has failed to make out a case. Judge McClenahan is expected to rule on the motion today. The state has practically completed its case.

Steamer Beluew Freed.

Weymouth, England, June 19.—Drifters were made by tugs this morning to refloat the steamship Beluew, belonging to the China Firm of the German Lloyd, which went ashore yesterday in Blackpool Bay while on a voyage from Yokohama to Hamburg. Her passengers and baggage were taken ashore last night. Late in the day the tugs freed the vessel.

GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

Use kerosene emulsion for black or green aphids. Watch your plants for indications of white grub. Cultivate, rather than water. Small plants grown in the open are better for transplanting than larger ones forced in the hotbed.

The aphids, both black and green, is among the most difficult insects to combat in this locality. They multiply very rapidly and soon literally cover the young leaves and tender shoots of apple trees, rose bushes and other shrubs. Wherever the leaves of a tree or shrub are curling badly, it is almost a sure indication that aphids are present. Being sucking insects, they are immune to such poisons as heliothrine, arsenic or lead and paris green. There are two remedies, either of which will prove effective if applied in time—kerosene emulsion and nicotine. While nicotine works well in the greenhouse, kerosene emulsion is usually more effective for garden use. This spray forms a coating over the insect and smothers it. A commercial preparation of kerosene emulsion will be found at the local hardware stores, accompanied by full directions for diluting and applying.

A day or two ago my attention was called to a strawberry plant that looked sick. I at once said "white grub." Investigation revealed the fact that the roots were entirely gone. The white grub feeds on the tender roots of plants and is rarely seen above ground. For this reason, they are hard to reach, but there is an effective remedy. Both the white grub and the cut worm are fond of sweets. Take a bowl of bran and mix it up with molasses and a solution of arsenate of lead. Roll this paste into pellets about the size of a pea and place them just under the surface of the ground along the row of plants. Some of them may be left above the ground if there is no danger of children getting them. In searching for the white grub it is often necessary to dig down five or six inches below the surface. On the other hand, the cut worm never works under ground, but eats the stem of the plant just above the surface. If the stem is touched or waded, he will attack the lower leaves. Being almost the color of the soil he is sometimes hard to find, but if the work is fresh, you will usually find him within an inch from the surface and within four inches of the plant stem. Cut worms go from plant to plant along the row. If not to be found at the plant already taken he will probably be found at the next one. The constant application of water to plants and vegetables during the growing season is a serious mistake. It usually results in a hard crust of surface with the fine roots drawn up where the first hot sun scorches them. Frequent cultivation keeps the soil loose on the surface and stops evaporation of moisture from beneath. The best garden I have had since coming to Duluth was during the first summer five years ago. It was the result of hoeing and not of artificial watering. In selecting cabbage and cauliflower plants, avoid large overgrown plants from hotbeds; smaller plants grown without forcing will give far better results.

"JUNGLE" FIRES STILL BURNING

Raid By Police Does Not Scare Away the Campers.

Despite the fact that thirty-three members of the "jungle" colony along the bay front were arrested and "banished" from the city this week, the camp fires were again lighted today and a goodly number of idle men were "loosing their toes" around the fires, with their backs up against the cold wind.

Since the raid a few days ago by the police on the "jungle" there has been considerable timidity displayed by many who have been accustomed to cook, wash and bake around the camp fires. They "stop, look and listen" before going out on the old dock and are prepared to give the police a good "run for their money" if another raid is made.

The men are loath to give up their camp grounds, and the railing of the Sixth avenue bridge offers a lounging place from which they can view the city, lake and a part of the surrounding country. It is also handy to the railway tracks and the outgoing freight.

It is believed, however, that the raid has had a salutary effect on idle men in the city, and many have sought safer quarters. The Sixth avenue bridge was cleared today and no sleepers were to be seen on the lumber piles on that structure.

New North Dakota Druggists.
Fargo, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state board of pharmacy announces that nine of the sixteen applicants for certificates passed the examination held here this week, and both the applicants for papers as assistants were passed.

FORESTERS ARE MEETING

Biennial Convention of High Court Superior Being Held Here.

Banquet, Theater Party and Dance on the Program.

The high court superior of the United Order of Foresters, comprising the Eighth Minnesota congressional district, Northern Wisconsin and the Michigan peninsula, is holding its sixth biennial convention today and tomorrow at the Foresters' hall. There are eighty delegates in attendance.

The convention was called together at 10 o'clock this morning by John McMurchy of Duluth, high ranger. The address of welcome was made by Mayor Prince, who extended the keys of the city to the convention delegates. Following this the roll was called and the convention proper started.

Short business sessions were held before and after luncheon and at 3 o'clock the annual election of officers was scheduled to take place. Following the election the officers will be installed and the delegates will be taken on a boulevard drive about the city at 4 o'clock.

At 6 o'clock the annual banquet will be held at the Foresters' hall and a large representation is expected from the local lodges. Joseph Brown will be the toastmaster and the principal address will be made by Judge James Schoonmaker. Immediately after the banquet the delegates will be the guests at a theater party to be given in their honor at the Lyceum theater. This concludes the program for today.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the sessions will be resumed and continued until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the convention will come to a close, although it will not formally end until the dance is over in the evening. Joseph Brown is chairman and Mrs. Julia Wilson, secretary, of the entertainment committee that is in charge of the convention and the following sub-committees assisted them in preparing for the eighty delegates who are in the city today: Boulevard drive, I. W. Gilliland, J. Brown and A. E. Paul; banquet, Barbara Stang, Emma Hancock, Elizabeth Milnes, Grace Hyatt and Ellen K. Miller; theater, A. L. Foster and Harry Grenlund; dance, Clara E. Paul, Violet Gilliland, Ada Cole, Ray La Tour and Felix Smith; Harry French, Louise Riley, Lovina Stempson, O. T. Morris, I. W. Gilliland, Ella Merrill, Ernest Hollock, Ray La Tour and Julia Wilson; press, A. L. Foster, Ellen Miller and Ernest Hollock.

Injured By Old Musket.
Grafton, N. D., June 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The explosion of an old musket, which he found on the Theodore Kulas farm near Minto, while visiting there, resulted in the serious injury of George Rose, aged 12, of Minto. One of the lad's arms was badly torn by the charge; his chest was burned and also was bruised about the abdomen.

HICKEN PRAISES HOUSING CODE

Says Coming Generation Will Appreciate It More Than the Present.

The people of Duluth, fifteen years from now, will appreciate the framers of the recent building code for their foresight, according to Commissioner of Public Safety W. A. Hicken, who spoke on the subject last evening at the bazaar being held at the Woodmen hall by the congregation of the Swedish Methodist church. Mr. Hicken said that the code was one of the best in the country, and that while many Duluthians did not appreciate it at present, the future generation would. He touched on its various features that provided sanitation measures and certain limits and said that it had the approval of all men interested in the health of the public.

Another good program was given last night by the societies in charge. This included a number of selections by a symphony and a short talk also by Commissioner Murchison. The final program will be given this evening. The women of the church have also planned to serve supper between 5 and 8 o'clock. The program follows:

(a) "Lift Up Thine Eyes," Hawthorne
(b) "The Good Soldier," Skoog
Swedish Mission Choir, Rev. C. W. R. Wermline, Director.
Remarks: "The Good Soldier," Falconer

BIBLE CLASS BANQUET.

Grace M. E. Students Will Give Program at Church.

Members of the Allen Bible class of the Grace Methodist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, will hold a banquet this evening in the parlors of the church. Plates will be laid for eighty-five, the total membership of the class.

Rev. George E. Silloway, pastor of the church and teacher of the class, will be toastmaster. The affair will begin at 7 o'clock. The arrangements for the banquet have been made under the direction of Mrs. E. G. Bette, Mrs. J. W. Frost and Mrs. J. W. Allen. The following program has been announced: Vocal solo, Mrs. James Everington Scully; address of welcome, Mrs. E. G. Bette; response, Miss Mercy Hastings; piano solo, Miss Thirna; address, "Red and Blue," O. A. Stenborg; recitation, Mrs. J. W. Allen; vocal solo, Miss Esther Wilson; address, "Hustlers," Mrs. J. W. Allen; Our Master, Mrs. J. W. Allen; vocal solo, Mrs. Scully; reading, Mrs. Moore; toast, "Our Class," Mrs. Benjamin Hastings; piano solo, Miss Thirna.

PARTY FOR PASTOR.

Rev. Swaney Nelson Given Handsome Presents on Birthday.

The congregation of the First Swedish Baptist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, tendered Rev. Swaney Nelson, its pastor, a birthday surprise in the church parlors last night. The pastor was the recipient of a handsome engraved gold-plated umbrella, and a parlor electric lamp.

The gathering was originally held for the purpose of introducing new members to the old members of the congregation. Knowing that the Rev. Mr. Nelson's birthday fell on the same day members of the church planned the surprise to follow the reception. There were about 200 members of the church present.

DEBATE ON "RECALL"

Trinity Church Young People Have Interesting Meeting.

The recall of judges should be adopted, according to a decision made by young people of the Trinity English Lutheran church, Twenty-seventh avenue west and Third street, following an interesting debate on the subject. The debate was held during a program given by the Trinity Luther League in honor of the class of young people that was recently confirmed.

The affirmative in the debate was led by three girls and the negative was taken by three boys. The judges were unanimously in favor of the argument given by the girls and awarded them the decision.

BIG SIDE-WHEELER CITY OF DETROIT ARRIVES HOUR AHEAD OF TIME

Detroit Business Men Spend the Day Guests of Duluth.

Given Warm Reception in Spite of Their Early Arrival.

Duluthians Drop Business for Day to Welcome Guests.

The gigantic side-wheeler Detroit III arrived this morning at 8 o'clock, an hour ahead of scheduled time, bringing 567 members of the Detroit board of commerce and their guests.

Even though the reception committee of business men—practically all of the leading business men of the city—did not expect the big steamer until 9 o'clock, business was dropped for the time and when the Detroit III docked at No. 4, Northern Pacific, almost all of them were on hand to meet the visitors. The Detroiters were given a welcome, which, in point of numbers and heartiness has, perhaps, never before been equaled in Duluth. Hundreds thronged the dock and the viaduct approaches to give the Detroit men greeting. Headed by the Detroit band the visitors marched from the dock to Superior street, along that street and then west to the courthouse lawn, where they were the subjects of a battery of photographers. A moving picture machine followed the line of march and an official photographer who came along with the party took a panoramic photograph at the courthouse lawn.

Eberhart Not Here. Some of those who were expected to come did not reach Duluth. Governor Eberhart, who joined the party at Detroit, left at Fort Huron. Governor Ferris of Michigan, who was slated to come, was prevented from joining the party because of the severe illness of his wife. However, there arrived Lawton

NO DECISION TODAY IN BIG RATE CASE

Ruling May Be Delayed Fortnight Longer, It Is Said.

Washington, June 20.—The interstate commerce commission's decision in the Eastern advance rate case will not be announced today, as had been expected in some quarters, and the indications are that it will not be made public for several days at least. Some of those best informed on the commission's procedure would not be surprised if it were not announced for at least two weeks.

TO HEAD STATE REFORMATORY

Henry K. W. Scott of New Hampshire Coming to St. Cloud.

Concord N. H., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Henry K. W. Scott recently deposed as warden of the New Hampshire state prison, has accepted an offer to become superintendent of the Minnesota state reformatory at St. Cloud.

SUFFRAGISTS SEE ASQUITH

Premier Tells Them Ballot Would Not Solve Problems.

Working Women Are Received in Keeping With Promise.

London, June 20.—Premier Asquith today fulfilled his promise to receive a deputation of suffragettes, which he made to Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, the militant leader, when after her recent temporary release from Holloway jail she took up her position on the doorstep of the house of commons and threatened to carry out a hunger and thirst strike there until the promise was given.

A party of six working women, members of Mrs. Pankhurst's East end federation, today visited the prime minister at the official residence in Downing street.

"PUMPING" NELSON O'SHAUGHNESSY ON MEXICO IS HARD TASK

Former Charge d'Affaires Is Polite, Affable and Courteous.

But a Persistent Herald Reporter Gets Only Some Experience.

Learns Huerta May Die Some Day and Mexico Is Great Country.

Interviewing Nelson O'Shaughnessy on the Mexican situation is good training for a newspaper man.

An earnest-minded, hard-working Herald reporter persistently and insistently tackled the job this morning. The reporter found Mr. O'Shaughnessy in the parade, and keeping step with him piled the former charge d'affaires with questions. Mr. O'Shaughnessy was polite, courteous and affable, but here is about what the reporter got:

"What do you think of Huerta?"

"I wasn't thinking about him."

"Do you think he will lose the presidency?"

"He never told me he would."

"How about Villa? Oh yes how do you pronounce that name?"

"Vee-ya."

"How do you pronounce Huerta?"

"Huerta."

"Well how about Villa?"

"What about him?"

"Well do you think he will oppose Carranza in the event of Huerta's overthrow?"

"I don't know."

"Do you think the watchful waiting policy is a good one?"

"It isn't a bad idea."

"Would it be better to go in and overthrow Huerta and establish a temporary government?"

"Better for whom?"

"Why for Mexico?"

"I don't know."

"What do you know about the Mexican trouble?"

"Loads of things."

"For instance."

"Well, the United States government has taken Vera Cruz and is keeping that port under military supervision."

"Loads of things."

"For instance."

"Well, the United States government has taken Vera Cruz and is keeping that port under military supervision."

Interviewing Nelson O'Shaughnessy on the Mexican situation is good training for a newspaper man.

An earnest-minded, hard-working Herald reporter persistently and insistently tackled the job this morning. The reporter found Mr. O'Shaughnessy in the parade, and keeping step with him piled the former charge d'affaires with questions. Mr. O'Shaughnessy was polite, courteous and affable, but here is about what the reporter got:

"What do you think of Huerta?"

"I wasn't thinking about him."

"Do you think he will lose the presidency?"

"He never told me he would."

"How about Villa? Oh yes how do you pronounce that name?"

"Vee-ya."

"How do you pronounce Huerta?"

"Huerta."

"Well how about Villa?"

"What about him?"

"Well do you think he will oppose

HINTS FOR PROSPECTIVE BUILDERS--DIRECTORY OF DULUTH'S LEADING HOME BUILDERS, SUPPLIES AND FURNISHING CONCERNS

FIRST OF THE SERIES IN THE ITALIAN TYPE.

This beautiful Italian design with its broad overhanging eaves, and straight lines, would present a very beautiful home, if built on a lot of sufficient width. The exterior of this house is stucco on hollow tile, with tile roof. The interior is designed to meet the requirements of the average owner, with servants' quarters also provided for. This house would cost about $15,000, complete, if built in Duluth.

THE PRICE OF COAL.

The city of Duluth is advertising for bids for three thousand tons of coal—a year's supply.

Last year this was done in the hope that something might be saved through the eagerness of dealers to get a large contract.

This year it was done perfunctorily, because last year the city discovered that nobody would shade the price a nickel, and that it could buy its coal a ton at a time as cheaply as it could in thousand-ton lots.

We wonder what horrible punishment would come to a dealer who did dare to shade the price of coal a penny to get a big contract.

Nobody can tell, because apparently it never happens.

And we wonder, too, whether this universality of fixed and unalterable coal prices has no significance to those whose duty it is to enforce the laws against combinations in restraint of trade.

Who was it gave the state the primary and afterwards saved the primary to the state?

POLITICAL EQUALITY IS COMING.

While The Herald has frequently placed itself on record in favor of votes for women, it really makes little difference whether this newspaper or that, or this individual or that, favors or opposes woman suffrage.

It is coming anyway, and nothing can stop it. Here and there it may be delayed, but that's all. It's as sure as death and taxes.

A week ago today the cause of political equality had two very important triumphs. The supreme court of Illinois upheld the constitutionality of the equal suffrage law of that state, which goes as far as it can without changing the state Constitution, and the General Federation of Women's clubs passed a resolution favoring political equality with only a few faint scattering negatives.

The latter, of course, was the more important gain of the two. If the Illinois supreme court had by a change of one of its members declared against the suffrage law of that state, all that would have been appointed to would have been to make it necessary for the women of Illinois to start all over again, and direct their fight toward a constitutional amendment.

But if the General Federation of Women's clubs had declared against votes for women, opponents of political equality would have been armed with a valuable weapon for promoting further delay.

One of the stock arguments against equal suffrage has been that women don't want to vote. Sometimes it has taken one form and sometimes another. Some have said that only a few women were interested, which used to be true but is getting less true every day. Others have said that a majority of women were opposed to equal suffrage, which wasn't true and which could not be demonstrated except by a referendum if it were true.

Of course even if it were true it was no argument at all.

If equal suffrage is right, it is right no matter how few women want to vote.

If it is wrong, it is wrong no matter if every woman wants to vote. Beyond doubt there was a time, before universal manhood suffrage became the rule in any country, when only a small minority of men dared aspire to the ballot. The majority was suddenly indifferent or objectively contented with slavery. It could have been argued then, and doubtless was, that manhood suffrage was wrong because only a few men wanted it.

The action of the General Federation of Women's clubs is answer

WELCOME!

Duluth gives its warmest welcome to its impressive array of guests from Detroit, and with it goes Duluth's heartiest good will toward them and toward the splendid city they represent.

Detroit and Duluth are neighbors, in a large way, Detroit being just around the corner to the right on the great water highway of which Duluth is the western terminus. They have much in common, and both will be better for such a better understanding of mutual interests as is certain to come out of today's visit.

Today's visit was a happy thought, and the man that had it is entitled to great credit. The lake cities ought to work together more than they do. They are not rivals in any sense. Anything that benefits the lake country and the lake highway benefits one and all. The cities down the lakes, like Detroit, buy things Duluth sells and sell things Duluth buys. Duluth, for instance, buys a great many automobiles, and buys most of them in Detroit.

This mutuality of interests is highly important, and it is highly important that it should be recognized. Duluth and Detroit are blood brothers in spirit—in enterprise and aggressive public spirit, in commerce and transportation. Detroit has the lead in population and wealth, but that's only because it got started first. Duluth will be ahead presently, and Detroit need not wait for it—it'll catch up. Duluth is honored by this visit, and pleased beyond measure. It is an event that it will long remember. It hopes that today's guests will remember it, too, and that the memory will be of such a nature that the visit will be repeated—the sooner and oftener the better.

enough to the claim of fact underlying that argument. This organization represents the highest types of womanhood in this country—the thinking, forward-looking, public-spirited classes of womanhood that are laboring, the country over, for better things for humanity.

Votes for women is right because political equality is right. We shall not have true government by and for the people until it is government by and for ALL the people. None but lunatics, criminals and minors can with reason be denied the ballot.

And because it is right and just that they should, women will vote on equal terms with men in every state of the Union—and the sooner the better.

That English specialist says the weakest part of Roosevelt is his throat. Which will suffice to stamp that specialist's class in the mind of the average American.

HUMAN NATURE A BLOCK TO PROGRESS?

Every little while you hear this argument, when an idealistic economic reform is proposed:

"Oh, of course, that's very pretty, but it can never come about. Human nature is against it, and you never can have a reform that human nature is too selfish to embrace."

Is that true? Is human nature a hard and fast and fixed commodity to which all living conditions must be shaped? Or is human nature in a large measure the creation of conditions, and can it be changed and improved by changing and improving conditions of living?

A good deal depends on the answer to that question. If the argument that human nature is too selfish to make idealistic reforms possible is correct, then there can't be a great deal of progress of any kind. If humanity can never be made less selfish, if its selfishness cannot even be directed into channels of enlightenment, if its aims can never be raised from the level of the sordid and vulgar, then hope of progress may as well die.

But who really believes any such fib on humanity?

Lecky said: "Investments against nations and classes are usually very shallow. The character of large bodies of men depends in the main upon the circumstances in which they have been placed, the laws by which they have been governed, the principles they have been taught. When these are changed the character will alter, too."

Now Lecky was a very shrewd student of history. If he was right in this judgment, it is a high-power light of hope. If man is at once the creature and creator of his environment, improvements in his environment will cultivate improvements in his character. Then the argument that idealistic reforms are impossible because they are against human nature fall to the ground.

And there, we are sure, is where they belong.

Modern street paving, says a consular report, is practically unknown in Japan. Then the Japanese politicians have a whole lot ahead of them yet.

THE FEAR OF DEATH.

English men of medicine are attempting to show their countrymen that death, far from being painful, is the mildest and most natural of nature's processes. Usually there is no pain—death itself, medical men seem to agree, is not painful at all. It is only when the cause of death is an exceedingly painful ailment that the final act of life on earth—that of passing out of life—is accompanied by pain.

And even then, no doubt, when death draws down the curtain upon a bed of pain, it comes with a soothing touch of peace like the blessed hand of sleep upon a tired and fevered brow.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who was beware!—all the answer we can make to the appeal for pity for the defrauded stockholder?

Not by any means.

For the worker mulcted by mining stock sharpers we are passing "blue sky" laws.

For the investor in railroad stocks robbed by the plunderings of high finance we shall pass laws putting railroad finances under public regulation. Such measures are now pending in congress.

Caveat employer is a villainous law. It is a law that justifies cheats and thieves. The time to parade it has passed.

A Canadian has invented an explosive three times as powerful as dynamite. Break the news gently to Orville McManis.

THE REMEDY FOR BUSINESS TROUBLES.

In a notable address made recently before commercial bodies in Pittsburgh, Samuel Untermyer made a masterly arraignment of the claim that business uncertainty is due to the Democratic administration, to anything it has done or to anything it promises to do. Before he had finished, as any reasoning man who heard or has read his speech will agree, he stripped every rag of reason from that claim, and left it a pitiful skeleton of wire and sticks and dead bones.

Because any reasoning human being can perform the same feat if he will, and for lack of space, we pass over Mr. Untermyer's argument and come directly to his conclusion—his remedy:

The remedy is simple. Public confidence in corporate machinery must be restored. The existing legal machinery does not assume responsibility and punishment for the misdeeds of Big Business. The enactment of the pending bill properly strengthens and will help accomplish that result.

Our wealth is fairly well distributed, notwithstanding the many hundreds of millions that have been confiscated by these men in one way or another by way of tribute or through gross neglect. A fraction of it can still be recovered by the shareholders if they will stand together in each of these great corporations to enforce retribution and protection for the future.

If the lessons of the past have taught them to manage their own affairs hereafter it will have been worth the fearful cost. When they are able to do that as in former years, when these great properties were built up and operated by their real owners, and not until then, the investing public here and abroad will again interest itself in our enterprises. Meantime we can do our share toward restoring the civilized world that we are not a nation of freebooters and that we have sufficient capacity for self-government left to end the abuses and lawlessness of high finance so that capital will hereafter be as safe with us as in other countries.

Big Business whines and complains that investors are timid, and that it is because the government threatens to regulate Big Business.

That is a monstrous lie. Investors are timid because they have beheld the New Haven looted and wrecked, because they have beheld the "Frisco looted and wrecked, because they have seen railroads and industries made mere pawns in a great Wall street game, because they have seen the rights of stockholders and public alike ignored and trampled upon during an orgy of brigandage and commercial burglary the like of which the world has never known.

The bandit barons of feudal days were pikers compared with the modern order of financial brigands who have made the world skeptical of American securities.

The remedy is not to hush protests, to paralyze progress or to throw monkey-wrenches into the legislative wheels.

The remedy is speedily to adopt laws that will put financial brigandage out of business in this country, that will give assurance to investors at home and abroad that their savings will not be plundered by bandit kings of finance, and that will give business and industry a security and stability that will be proof against the inside work of the financial burglar and the outside attack of the demagogue.

What will Wall street guess about when the rate case is decided?

BAD FOR THE WAR IMPLEMENT MAKER.

In a recent debate in the senate on a government powder mill, Senator Reed of Missouri laid down the proposition that "any man who sells powder to a foreign nation with which we are at war is likely to be executed for treason."

That sounds reasonable, doesn't it?

Suppose Smith to be a manufacturer of powder in this country, and suppose the United States to be at war with Venezuela.

Suppose that Smith gets an order from Venezuela for powder, and being in the powder business, and commerce being coldblooded business, he fills that order.

Smith doesn't see, perhaps, but everybody else does, that what he has done was to make money out of the sale of goods that will be used to destroy the lives of his fellow-citizens.

Treason? Of course it's treason.

"Business is business," it is true, but we could scarcely sanction anything like that.

But—

Suppose Smith sold his powder to Costa Rica, with which country we were at peace. And suppose that as soon as he delivered his powder Costa Rica declared war on the United States, and began to use that powder to kill American citizens.

What sort of a fix is Smith in then? Where's the difference? Isn't that treason, too?

Of course it must be. Then it is as bad for Smith to sell powder to a country with which we MAY BE at war—and so long as countries go armed for fighting there is no country with which any other country may not be at war—as it is to sell powder to a country with which WE ARE at war.

In which case Smith—and all other manufacturers of powder, guns, swords or any other war implement or material—will have to cease selling to any but his own country.

And that would make the manufacture of war materials a much less attractive industry than it is now.

The prestige of having been in the United States senate isn't what it used to be. Even the Illinois banking laws refuse to be swayed by it.

THE TRUST BILLS.

The most questionable of the three corporation measures passed by the house and now before the senate is the Clayton bill to supplement the Sherman law.

And that bill is questionable only academically, and by those who believe that where competition ceases it is due to economic law and therefore is incurable by statute law. The Clayton bill is an attempt to revive and maintain competition by statute, and beyond any question this is the next step, which must be tried out thoroughly before any attempt to regulate acknowledged and recognized monopoly is made.

If the attempt to revive competition fails, then the experiment of recognition and regulation of monopoly will be made; and if that fails, then public ownership—Socialism—is the only recourse.

Most people hope to avoid recognition of monopoly and the specter of Socialism that lurks behind it, and so they urge legislation to revive and perpetuate competition. The administration's trust program, and especially the Clayton bill, is in response to that urging.

From this viewpoint, the Clayton bill is thoroughly sound, and promises to be effective if any attempt to galvanize competition into life can be effective. It forbids interlocking directorates and holding companies under certain conditions. It forbids combinations that "lessen competition"—and that's much stronger than the Sherman law's rule against "restraint of trade," for competition can be lessened or even abolished without restraining trade in the slightest degree.

Curiously enough, the bill relating to railroad capitalization and control takes, precisely the opposite direction. The Clayton bill is aimed against the tendency toward public ownership. The railroad securities bill, by extending government control to the point of dictating railroad capitalization, will level much opposition to the public ownership of railroads. The Clayton bill itself puts railroads in another class than industries, and practically legalizes "pooling" under the auspices of the interstate commerce commission.

The trade commission bill, which puts corporations having a greater capitalization than five million dollars under a commission analogous to the interstate commerce commission in its infancy, seems to meet general approval. Yet it is more significant because of that of which it is the germ than because of its specific provisions. If history repeats itself, this timid beginning of government control of industry will be extended gradually to complete control, as the case has been with government control of railroads.

If it is taken for granted, as it must be, that the country is committed to an attempt to revive competition—except in the case of railroads—these three bills should unquestionably be enacted into law. They are not radical; far from it. They were not radical in their original form, and they have been markedly subdued during their progress through the house. They go as far against the trust problem as it is wise to go at this time, and they proceed along the lines that public sentiment appears to have indicated.

And it is just human nature that will make a lot of people wonder why Harvard couldn't have won all three races.

It will be something else to wonder at it congress doesn't dig up some excuse to get in on that Empress of Ireland investigation.

Some senators want a searching investigation of Nicaraguan affairs. Just be the idea of a summer sea trip appeals to their imaginations.

What Shall It Profit a Man?

From the Detroit News.

(A Nocturnal Travesty in One Act.)
Place—Pocantico Hills, N. Y.
Time—Nine o'clock p. m.
(A bell rings softly. A guard appears, No. 482.)

Sir Kale—What's the hour? I stopped my watch. The ticking makes me nervous.

Guard—It's 9 o'clock, Sir Kale.

Sir Kale—I think I shall retire. I haven't slept in nineteen nights.

Guard—Yes, sir.

Sir Kale—All the 558 lights surrounding the grounds are working, are they?

Guard—Perfectly, Sir Kale.

Sir Kale—And the 574 post buttons, are they in order?

Guard—Quite correct, Sir Kale. They were inspected, tested and passed upon not two hours ago.

Sir Kale—Good for you. Here's a cigar. I've smoked only a part of it.

Sir Kale—Don't mention it.

Guard (aside)—Not to a soul, will I.

Sir Kale—Did you put the muffler on the dog?

Guard—I did.

Sir Kale—And the soft pedal on the cat?

Guard—Exactly, Sir Kale.

Sir Kale—Of course there is the usual heavy guard around Bullion Granary No. 4718, is there not?

Guard—There is. It was placed before dusk.

Sir Kale—That's right. There are 4,567,854,432 bucks in that granary and I'd hate to lose any of it, although I don't want any guards taken from the Mazum barracks and the Long Green storehouse just to protect that pin money.

Guard—The Mazum barracks, if I may be so bold to state, sir, is amply protected by the state troops. Nor need you have any fear for the safety of the Long Green storehouse, nor the Bond Annex. All the buildings are surrounded and fully protected.

Sir Kale—Well, I guess everything is O. K. Just a moment. I don't want to hear that westbound train whistle tonight. Kindly forward the word to the outmost guard to inform the engineer of the fact. The train goes to Colorado.

Guard—Very well, sir.

Sir Kale—And any man who sighs or breathes in the night like Judge Lindsey does will be fired. Peddle that around among the boys.

Guard—As you say, it shall be done.

(A dog barks.)

Sir Kale (startled)—What was that?

Guard—Only a dog, Sir Kale. He's owned by the man who has the title tract of 45,000 acres adjoining your estate.

Sir Kale—It frightened me. In the morning take Barn No. 848—it's filled with Iron Men—and roll it over to that tract and buy the property. Now I'm going to bed.

Guard—Yes, Sir Kale.

Sir Kale—And say, after you've bought that tract, choke the dog to death.

Guard—I shall do so.

Sir Kale—Good night.

Guard—GOOD NIGHT!

Concerning Stars.

Atlantic: I perhaps have more feeling for them than most; but I am quite sure that I speak at least for a large minority. It is the fatness of the fat, its very condensed and restricted content, its very lack of upstair and downstair, which prevents it from being the complete atmosphere of a home. The feet which cross the floor above my head are those of another family; the sounds which reach me from below are the noises of strangers; the life horizontal of the floor serves its convenient use but only emphasizes the independence and self-respect of the life vertical, master of the floor above, master likewise of the basement. I feel more human, less like some ingeniously constructed doll when I can take my candle in hand and go upstairs to sleep. I want no bungalow. There is something in the going to sleep even one night of stairs nearer the stars—and away from the dining room.

The Passing of a Tenant.

Buffalo Inquirer: Col. Roosevelt is not allowed to get away with his tenant that "the cost of living has not been reduced" under the Wilson regime without being called to account.

In reply to the colonel it is generally remarked that Bradstreet's last index number of commodity prices shows the average of living charges decreased 2 2/3 per cent under Democratic administration.

Another bit of evidence is the letter of a Manchester, N. H. merchant read into the Congressional Record by Senator Hollis the other day. The letter gives the prices of butter, cheese, eggs, meats and so on in the merchant's own store in April, 1913, and April, 1914, and shows marked reductions all along the line of twenty-five articles of food.

Something is reducing the cost of living.

However, the foes of the administration will doubtless nimblely shift the ground from complaining of failure to reduce the cost of living to charge that the reduction being accomplished is most deplorable.

An Explorer.

San Francisco Bulletin: Thomas Mott Osborne, an adventurous person living in Auburn, N. Y., recently spent a week exploring a part of the world of whose actual existence most people have only a vague conception.

"I have come out," he says in the book which he wrote about his experiences, "with a new conception of the inherent nobility of human nature and a new belief in the power of man to respond to the right conditions and the right appeal."

It was not in unknown South America, nor yet in congress, nor in a theological seminary that Osborne made his explorations. It was in Auburn state prison, where he spent a week as a voluntary prisoner.

Providence.

God works in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants His footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

Ye fearful souls, fresh courage take!
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust Him for His grace;
Behind a frowning Providence
He hides a smiling face.

His purpose will be swift and fast,
His promise will not fail:
He will be true, his word is true,
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan His work in vain;
God is His own interpreter,
And He will make it plain.

—William Cowper.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of this date, 1894.

Two thousand delegates attended an anti-lords conference at Leeds, Eng. today. It was organized by the National Liberal federation, and resolutions were adopted, declaring that the vested power of the lords should be abolished.

Two thousand Gogebic range miners, comprising all the forces at the Norrie, Aurora, Pant, Newport and East Norrie mines, went on strike today. The unionists assembled early, marched to the mines and persuaded the non-union men to quit work.

The new Gottwald & Hanni building at West Duluth will be completed by July 1. It has a large assembly hall on the second floor, which has been leased for five years. It has a seating capacity of 600.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mathews of Fergus Falls is in the city. Mrs. Mathews will spend the summer with her parents here.

Elmer Carrier of St. Paul, formerly a Duluth newspaper man, is in the city.

Miss Corinne Graves of Portville, N. Y., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McKinley. Miss Graves is interested in the Educator of Buffalo, N. Y.

SATURDAY NIGHT TALK

Hidden Among the Stuff.

When of old they sought Saul, son of Kish, to make him king of Israel, the young man could not be found, for he had "hid himself among the stuff."

Among the tent furniture, the harness of the camels and the household supplies the candidate lay concealed while royal honors and an opportunity of princely service awaited him; surely an ignoble position for a potential hero.

In a way quite comparable many a man of great possibilities today is hidden among the stuff. Men of kindly caliber and capable of great uses are so deeply immersed in business or in pleasure, that their diviner powers suffer. They are like Saul in his ignoble retreat, or like Achilles concealed among the girls in the court of Diomedes, playing the distaff and the needle when he should have been fighting the enemy before the walls of

EFFICIENCY OF MOTOR SHOWN

Suburb of Crescent City Saved By Firemen's Early Arrival.

The efficiency of motor-driven fire apparatus was strikingly demonstrated in New Orleans last week when, through the superior speed of horses of a Kissel Kar hose wagon, a suburb was saved from destruction.

The suburb, Bucktown, is located four miles from Crescent City, where the Kissel Kar wagon in question is quartered. When within three-quarters of a mile of its destination, the hose wagon was hit by a fire engine which it towed the rest of the way, relieving the exhausted horses. With this stop included, the four-mile run was made in fifteen minutes.

Up to the time the engine reached the fire there had been no way to pump water and the flames were making a headway that threatened the entire village.

The road over which the Kissel Kar truck hauled the big steamer was all made ground, very soft and rough, so much that the other apparatus that reached Bucktown had all they could do to pull through.

The Kissel Kar truck stood the test in fine shape, not even over-heating, and after the fire hauled the engine back home.

ORGANIZATION FOR GOOD ROADS URGED

States Should Make Ready Before Receiving Federal Funds.

"Each state should be expected to provide an adequate organization for efficient expenditure of funds made available through any Federal plan of co-operation with the several states, and before it receives its quota," asserts Chairman George C. Diehl of the American Automobile association's national good roads board.

"One suggested amendment to the measure passed by the house and resting with the senate postoffice and post roads committee provides that the several states will have not less than two years in which to make any necessary provision to enable a commonwealth to qualify for road co-operation from the central source. This is a most just provision, for the simple reason that not a few states could not at once avail themselves of Federal co-operation."

tion without amending existing road laws. A state which does not have a state highway department should remedy this deficiency, or allow its allotment of Federal money to remain unexpended until such an organization is provided. Such a requirement, coupled with Federal inspection, will insure the highest efficiency and the best results obtainable in the construction of improved roads.

"It is probable that some requirement as to maintenance of Federal-aid roads by the respective states will form one of the features of congressional good roads legislation, as it is recognized that there is a general tendency throughout the country to allow well constructed roads to rapidly deteriorate for want of attention."

"Although it is not generally known, the Federal government has, in a small measure, already embarked upon a policy of Federal aid, in addition to the great educational work which it has been doing for a number of years through the medium of the office of public roads of the United States department of agriculture. In the post-office appropriation bill for 1912-13 an appropriation of $500,000 was made for co-operating with the various states in the improvement of post roads, conditioned upon the states providing $2 per mile of road thus provided by the government. The appropriation required that the money should be expended under the direction of the secretary of agriculture in co-operation with the postmaster general. Owing to delay on the part of the states in meeting the necessary requirements, the appropriation was continued in the bill making appropriation for the fiscal year 1914, and made available until expended."

"At the present time, construction is actively under way and allotments have been made to various states, as follows: Alabama, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia. Much valuable data will be obtained from these various demonstration roads to aid the Federal government in the future conduct of its road work on a large scale."

SILENT MOTOR ADDS TO COMFORT

Buyers of High Grade Autos More Discriminating, Says Willys.

Purchasers of high-grade automobiles are becoming more exacting, according to John N. Willys, president of the Willys-Overland company of Toledo, and builder of the Willys-Knight car.

"In buying their motor cars many men are influenced by the same sense of discrimination that causes them to take seats in a Pullman in preference to an ordinary day coach," says Mr.

Willys. "Either will take them to their destination over the same rails and in the same time, but one gives the maximum of traveling comfort while the other is less luxurious. In both he gets just what he pays for."

"When a man pays his money for a car of the highest type he demands the same of luxury and motor silence in addition to the other requirements considered essential in all automobiles. The silent motor eliminates that continual strain to passengers known as 'working with the car.' Coupled with deep, luxurious upholstery such as the less expensive cars cannot afford to use, it gives the complete relaxation and driving comfort sought by the connoisseurs of today."

"It is the ever-present demand for silence and comfort that I am trying to satisfy in the new Knight-motored car which we are manufacturing at our Elkhart plant. The eleven-valve motor, which is regarded in Europe as the crowning feature of high-grade automobile construction, answers all requirements as far as silence is concerned, in addition to having proved itself thoroughly efficient, reliable and practical by exhaustive endurance tests."

"SAFETY FIRST" RULES

Here are some safety first rules for pedestrians suggested by automobile associations:

Pedestrians shall keep to the right and shall not stand on sidewalks or road crossings so as to obstruct their free use by others.

Pedestrians shall not stand or walk on or in any way occupy roads or roadways except while crossing same at indicated crossings.

Pedestrians shall not step upon a roadway from a sidewalk or at crossings or elsewhere without first looking to see all traffic approaching from either direction and that shall not cross the roadway diagonally or at any other point except at regular indicated crossings.

Section shall be prima facie evidence of gross negligence and carelessness and in case of accident resulting in injury the responsibility for said accident shall be placed upon the person so injured unless it can be proven otherwise. Nothing in this regulation, however, shall relieve drivers of vehicles from being constantly vigilant, exercising all reasonable care to avoid injury to persons and property.

Pedestrians shall have the right of way over all vehicles on designated road crossings only, but in crossing they shall not loiter and shall continue to cross the road without stopping.

No person shall jump, hang or ride upon any vehicle while standing without the consent of the owner and under no circumstances while in motion, while the vehicle is on a road or roadway.

No person shall use roller skates, coasters, tricycles or any other vehicle, toy or other article or wheels or runners (excepting bicycles) or operate the same on any road or roadway.

No one shall carry children on bicycles under the age of five years. All persons intending to enter a street car shall not leave the sidewalk until the car has arrived at the point where passengers are received. Where standards are erected, they shall enter the space behind the standards from the street crossing and not from the sidewalk. In all cases first looking both ways to see that the passage is clear.

All persons leaving street cars shall go directly from the street car to the pavement on the right hand side of the street in the direction the car is going. Where standards are erected, they shall pass from the space behind the standards to the street crossing and not to the sidewalk.

No person alighting from a street car shall pass in front of the car to the left hand side of the street until after the car has started and passed the crossing.

MOTORCYCLE NOTES

Since the appointment of Motorcycle Officer Collins by the Niagara park commission, to patrol the district surrounding Niagara Falls and Goat Island, many persons have been prevented from throwing themselves into the Niagara river. The rushing water of the rapids seems to have a peculiarly hypnotic effect on people who are depressed, and it is said that an average of two persons a month disappear there. However, since Officer Collins has been assigned to patrol the district, this average has been materially lowered. He rides all around Goat Island, and the narrow gorge route, covering many times a day the territory which it would require several men afoot or mounted on horses to patrol. Coming upon persons who seem particularly affected by the "spell" of the water, Collins engages them in conversation—the moment of temptation is past, and a tragedy has been averted by the timely appearance of the motorcycle officer.

Officer Collins has also been of material assistance to the park commission in preventing the destruction of property by thoughtless or careless tourists. He finds the motorcycle very economical for patrol work. So far, he has ridden more than 2,000 miles and has never had a puncture, and he finds the cost of operating the two-wheeler very low.

A party of a dozen or more motorcyclists of Atlanta, Ga., are planning a trip about June 26 and expect to reach the metropolis in five or six days. These cyclists will not try to break any speed records, but are merely going for the pleasure of the trip awhirl. They will be accompanied by two motorcycleists from New York who recently rode to the Southern capital.

Realizing that he would not be able to touch half of the points he wished to visit, by rail, J. Ishihara of San Francisco has chosen a motorcycle on which to make a tour of the world.

University of Yokohama, is on an educational expedition and will visit many of the chief cities of America and the continent.

Richard Strauss of Berlin, son of the composer, is an enthusiastic motorcycleist. He says that in many respects he prefers American motorcycles to those built on the Continent.

A fourth of July endurance run will be staged by the Birmingham, Ala., Motorcycle club. The route is to Atlanta and return, a total distance of 411 miles, and the trip will cover two days. In order to make a perfect score in the contest, the riders must cover each day's run in ten hours.

Heads of the police department of Buffalo, N. Y., have recommended that at least twenty more motorcycles be purchased for the use of patrolmen.

It is interesting to note that the winning car at the Indianapolis 500-mile race averaged 82.47 miles per hour on two gallons of lubricating oil, while another car which finished near the tail end used thirty-five gallons of oil. It is impossible, of course, to use such a quantity of oil effectively in a motor traveling 800 miles, but the striking contrast of the conditions shown by the race indicate clearly the importance that must be paid to the lubricating system of the car.

The theory of lubrication is that a film of oil separates the metallic surfaces and takes the wear, but if the oil becomes too thin, it is forced out of the bearing too readily, and the metallic surfaces come into intimate contact and are rapidly worn away. It is not enough to apply lubricant indiscriminately to the various chassis parts. It must be done systematically and logically to secure the best results and insure the economical use of the lubricant. The engine is but one point in the car that must be properly oiled at all times. It should be a self-evident fact that a heavier oil is required in summer than in winter.

"When the oil in the crank case becomes black and thin from the products of wear, it has lost its lubricating properties, and it is true economy to throw it away and use a supply of clean oil. Owners of Haynes cars

The Strict Maintenance of this Price is Your Guarantee of Security

THIS list price is established and maintained all over the country. It makes no difference whether you purchase your Overland in New York or New Mexico—this price never varies.

Recently, ten friends decided to each get an Overland. They went to an Overland dealer in a body—said they would take ten cars on the spot if he would give them 5% off. He refused. They argued that his neighboring competitor had already offered them 10% off on the car he represented. The Overland dealer then replied that if they would wait a few days longer the man next door would probably give them 20% off! They did wait a few days—then bought ten Overlands at the full list price.

Now—these men bought the Overlands, not because they knew so much more about the car, but because they had complete confidence in the Overland dealer who had the one fixed price and absolutely no confidence in the competing dealer who had a variety of prices.

It does not take any great amount of intelligence to see through the weaknesses, drawbacks and insecurity of a cut-price car proposition. Either the car, or the factory behind it, or the dealer, or all three cannot be relied upon.

Remember—that in purchasing an Overland you get a great deal more than just the best car for the least money; you get service that is dependable, permanent and international.

That the public has firm faith in the Overland is amply evidenced by the following record breaking figures:

Up to date we have delivered over $42,000,000.00 worth of nineteen fourteen Overlands. Right now the public is investing over $250,000.00 a day in Overlands.

If we did not out-class (both in car value and service) those who are continually cutting their price how could we continue to get the greatest volume of business?

The Overland is a larger car; a more powerful car; a more comfortable car; a more complete car and a more thoroughly made car than any other for the price.

And it costs you 30% less than any other similar car.

Why don't you have an Overland demonstration?

"THE CAR WITH A CONSCIENCE"

Three important fundamental principles are incorporated in the Oakland chassis.

The dependability of the mechanical construction comes first, because without it an automobile is not of any use.

The second great thought in accessibility because we are dealing with metals and metals require attention and lubrication.

The third great thought is exterior appearance. We want a beautiful housing for our mechanism and luxurious surroundings and comfort for the passengers. Fours and Sixes in a wide range of body designs.

The transmission case should be filled with a good grade of heavy cylinder oil at this time of the year—not heavy grease. This year axle differential housings should be filled with a light mineral grease having the consistency of vaseline. Light oil should never be used in either the transmission case or the differential housing.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE AUTOMOBILE WORLD

Charles F. Redden, general sales manager of the Maxwell Motor company, called from New York on Tuesday for Liverpool, England, and several days in that city he will go to London and carefully analyze the automobile situation in Great Britain. A number of Maxwell district managers and district supervisors will be appointed, after which Mr. Redden will successively visit France, Germany, Italy and Russia. In each of these countries the Maxwell sales manager will make an exhaustive study of the automobile situation, appointing in England, district managers and supervisors.

On their way across the continent in a Kissel car, Mrs. John F. Gray of Great Neck, L. I., accompanied by her two sons, Coleman A. Gray and J. F. Gray, Jr., passed through several Middle Western cities last week.

The Grays and Mr. Mulford are dyed-in-the-wool motor enthusiasts, spending practically all but six weeks of the year in touring. They know America and most of Europe, not as the tourist who travels by train and is restricted to the route of the rails, but with an intimacy that only leisurely exploration can cultivate.

Mr. Mulford has purchased three Kissel cars since 1910. The first one he bought in Honolulu, Hawaii, and after shipping it to San Francisco, drove to New York. The perfect behavior of that car prompted Mr. Mulford to add two more Kissel cars to his garage.

On the present tour the Gray-Mulford party have no set schedule. They have lotted down a number of localities they would like to visit in crossing the country and will be satisfied to reach the Pacific coast late in the summer.

Australia has a pedagogue who teaches a school several thousand miles in diameter. He conducts his class in a district of Queensland where a ranch of 25,000 acres is considered small. In order to gather enough pupils to fill a one-room schoolhouse it would be necessary to draw on the entire country within a radius of 500 miles.

So instead of supporting a number of struggling educational institutions in semi-populated localities the Australian government engages an itinerant schoolmaster who is an expert motorist and a hardy tourist. For his use they have purchased an Overland automobile from the Willies-Overland dealer in Queensland.

In his car the traveling teacher goes from ranch to ranch, making stops of two or three days at each, distributing books and mapping out a course of instruction by which the youngsters can easily teach themselves. The pupils are treated to lengthy vacations every year, as the school terms are curtailed by heavy rains that sweep Australia during the spring and often continue through the summer. During these seasons the streams are flooded and the roads are impassable for all vehicles.

Resides the lone tourist the car carries sixty gallons of gasoline, ten gallons of oil, thirty gallons of water and 150 pounds of school books. During his first term the schoolmaster covered more than 4,000 miles and did not see a railroad track for six months.

As a tribute to the thoroughness and efficiency of the experts at Purdue in this respect, it is asserted that the American Efficiency Survey of Motor Car Units corporation which has its ing, because they will not stay in place nor cushion the gear teeth. Trouble in having the grease working out into the brakes and other parts is due to using too thin an oil. The housing should never be filled with the heavy "dope" widely sold, which may contain wood fiber or cork particles, to promote more silent operation. It consumes much power without doing any good. If the gears are noisy, adjust them or have them replaced.

Peacha, Jr., local representative of the Kissel car.

Usually in the case of something as new and revolutionary in construction, the buyer wants to see the finished product before he makes an investment, but in this case, the dictum of approval has been passed along with uncommon rapidity, and a surprising percentage of sales are to persons who have seen only photographs of the car. Still we have yet to receive a single word from a buyer that is not highly laudatory of the two-door idea. They all say it is a surprisingly handsome car, as well as a comfortable, convenient and capable one.

An automobile race across the continent is now practically an assured event in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition to be held at San Francisco next year. W. L. Hughes, president of the Pacific Kissel car branch, who is chairman of the exposition racing committee, is authority for the statement that the most important preliminaries have already been arranged, although there of course remains a vast amount of work to be done before the race can be held and will undoubtedly enlist all the great drivers of the world.

Japan, at first slow to adopt the motor car, is now taking a decided lead to the automobile, and in fact during the past two years the industry has made very rapid progress in the countries of the Far East. Glowing reports of this advance are made by Henry W. Andrews, Yokohama agent for the Cadillac, who is visiting in California.

"Two years ago," declares Mr. Andrews, "there were not 100 motor cars in Japan. This year more than 1,500 are registered."

It is so apparent a short time ago is rapidly disappearing. Not many years ago the sight of a motor car on the streets of any but the large cities brought forth storms of protest, usually accompanied by stones hurled at the driver and occupants of the offending car. Happily this has entirely disappeared.

The Nippon Auto Club, the pioneer automobile club of Japan, is doing good work in road mapping and posting. Maps of the roads suitable for automobile traffic have been made and guide posts are rapidly being erected throughout the islands.

headquarters in Chicago. President Harry Newman says: "These engineering experts at Purdue accept one order—the request to make their tests the most comprehensive that laboratory apparatus, skill, science and application can make them. Beyond that we are silent. They will demand accuracy to the maximum of human calculation and they take their time to achieve results."

It is our purpose to have the seventy odd units of importance in the list of motor car construction parts through these scientific laboratories, to get what we think is the greatest hall-mark that scientific men could give and to make known to the world the findings of the reliable men of the best equipped laboratories in the world. Already the board of engineers has made its findings and an important adjunct of the motor industry and they are conducting the most exhaustive tests imaginable in another phase.

Honesty and truth, stamped with the Purdue University laboratory hall-mark will be sufficient guarantee for the American Efficiency Survey of Motor Car Units; it will be accepted, will this verdict of the scientific men, by the makers of the motor car units, as a badge of honor among the captains of industry. There will be weight behind the report of this Survey and the exploitation of the manufacturers who "pass highest" in this rigid test will be the subsequent pleasure of the officials of the Survey.

In my opinion this is the greatest step that has been taken to establish independent, disinterested standards in the automobile industry which, in point of capital invested is second only to the steel industry.

"Public confidence in the practicability of the Kissel car two-door body on the new 48-52" chassis," indicated by the large number of direct orders from localities where we have no representatives," says J. T.

The transmission case should be filled with a good grade of heavy cylinder oil at this time of the year—not heavy grease. This year axle differential housings should be filled with a light mineral grease having the consistency of vaseline. Light oil should never be used in either the transmission case or the differential housing.

Charles F. Redden, general sales manager of the Maxwell Motor company, called from New York on Tuesday for Liverpool, England, and several days in that city he will go to London and carefully analyze the automobile situation in Great Britain. A number of Maxwell district managers and district supervisors will be appointed, after which Mr. Redden will successively visit France, Germany, Italy and Russia. In each of these countries the Maxwell sales manager will make an exhaustive study of the automobile situation, appointing in England, district managers and supervisors.

On their way across the continent in a Kissel car, Mrs. John F. Gray of Great Neck, L. I., accompanied by her two sons, Coleman A. Gray and J. F. Gray, Jr., passed through several Middle Western cities last week.

The Grays and Mr. Mulford are dyed-in-the-wool motor enthusiasts, spending practically all but six weeks of the year in touring. They know America and most of Europe, not as the tourist who travels by train and is restricted to the route of the rails, but with an intimacy that only leisurely exploration can cultivate.

Mr. Mulford has purchased three Kissel cars since 1910. The first one he bought in Honolulu, Hawaii, and after shipping it to San Francisco, drove to New York. The perfect behavior of that car prompted Mr. Mulford to add two more Kissel cars to his garage.

On the present tour the Gray-Mulford party have no set schedule. They have lotted down a number of localities they would like to visit in crossing the country and will be satisfied to reach the Pacific coast late in the summer.

Australia has a pedagogue who teaches a school several thousand miles in diameter. He conducts his class in a district of Queensland where a ranch of 25,000 acres is considered small. In order to gather enough pupils to fill a one-room schoolhouse it would be necessary to draw on the entire country within a radius of 500 miles.

So instead of supporting a number of struggling educational institutions in semi-populated localities the Australian government engages an itinerant schoolmaster who is an expert motorist and a hardy tourist. For his use they have purchased an Overland automobile from the Willies-Overland dealer in Queensland.

In his car the traveling teacher goes from ranch to ranch, making stops of two or three days at each, distributing books and mapping out a course of instruction by which the youngsters can easily teach themselves. The pupils are treated to lengthy vacations every year, as the school terms are curtailed by heavy rains that sweep Australia during the spring and often continue through the summer. During these seasons the streams are flooded and the roads are impassable for all vehicles.

Resides the lone tourist the car carries sixty gallons of gasoline, ten gallons of oil, thirty gallons of water and 150 pounds of school books. During his first term the schoolmaster covered more than 4,000 miles and did not see a railroad track for six months.

Usually in the case of something as new and revolutionary in construction, the buyer wants to see the finished product before he makes an investment, but in this case, the dictum of approval has been passed along with uncommon rapidity, and a surprising percentage of sales are to persons who have seen only photographs of the car. Still we have yet to receive a single word from a buyer that is not highly laudatory of the two-door idea. They all say it is a surprisingly handsome car, as well as a comfortable, convenient and capable one.

An automobile race across the continent is now practically an assured event in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition to be held at San Francisco next year. W. L. Hughes, president of the Pacific Kissel car branch, who is chairman of the exposition racing committee, is authority for the statement that the most important preliminaries have already been arranged, although there of course remains a vast amount of work to be done before the race can be held and will undoubtedly enlist all the great drivers of the world.

Japan, at first slow to adopt the motor car, is now taking a decided lead to the automobile, and in fact during the past two years the industry has made very rapid progress in the countries of the Far East. Glowing reports of this advance are made by Henry W. Andrews, Yokohama agent for the Cadillac, who is visiting in California.

"Two years ago," declares Mr. Andrews, "there were not 100 motor cars in Japan. This year more than 1,500 are registered."

It is so apparent a short time ago is rapidly disappearing. Not many years ago the sight of a motor car on the streets of any but the large cities brought forth storms of protest, usually accompanied by stones hurled at the driver and occupants of the offending car. Happily this has entirely disappeared.

President Harry Newman says: "These engineering experts at Purdue accept one order—the request to make their tests the most comprehensive that laboratory apparatus, skill, science and application can make them. Beyond that we are silent. They will demand accuracy to the maximum of human calculation and they take their time to achieve results."

It is our purpose to have the seventy odd units of importance in the list of motor car construction parts through these scientific laboratories, to get what we think is the greatest hall-mark that scientific men could give and to make known to the world the findings of the reliable men of the best equipped laboratories in the world. Already the board of engineers has made its findings and an important adjunct of the motor industry and they are conducting the most exhaustive tests imaginable in another phase.

Honesty and truth, stamped with the Purdue University laboratory hall-mark will be sufficient guarantee for the American Efficiency Survey of Motor Car Units; it will be accepted, will this verdict of the scientific men, by the makers of the motor car units, as a badge of honor among the captains of industry. There will be weight behind the report of this Survey and the exploitation of the manufacturers who "pass highest" in this rigid test will be the subsequent pleasure of the officials of the Survey.

In my opinion this is the greatest step that has been taken to establish independent, disinterested standards in the automobile industry which, in point of capital invested is second only to the steel industry.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Cubs 8; Phillies 7.

Philadelphia, June 20.—A poorly played game here yesterday was won by Chicago in the tenth inning, 8 to 7. In the tenth, Leach led off with a home run into the bleachers, and Good scored on his single, and steal of second, and Ireland's fumble of Zimmerman's grounder. Three pitchers were used by each team. Zabel hurt his arm and left the contest after the first inning. Lavender was taken out after giving three passes in the sixth and Cheney finished the game in fine style. Jacobs and Rixey, the latter making his debut for the season, did poorly, while Mayer held Chicago down in the sixth and seventh. Zabel made another home run, his third in three successive games. Score: R. H. E.
Chicago—012003000—8 11 3
Philadelphia—030002100—7 12 1
Batteries—Zabel, Lavender, Cheney and Needham; Jacobs, Rixey, Mayer and Burns. Killifer, Umpire—Hart and Higley.

Giants 6; Reds 0.

New York, June 20.—Charles Herzog, former third baseman of the New York team, made his first appearance yesterday on the Polo grounds as manager of the Cincinnati team and received a great ovation, though a rain held the crowd down. His team was easily shut out by the champions, 6 to 0. Cincinnati made a poor inning in the fifth, while the Giants' runs in the fifth inning were due to an error by Miller and Bates. Ames, the old New York pitcher, twirled fairly well against his old comrades, but his own errors helped to beat him. Koenig succeeded him in the sixth and pitched well. New York's runs in the eighth being scored on a single and three errors. Marquand held the visitors to five scattered hits and not a Cincinnati player reached third. Catches by Burns, Moran and Fletcher and Robertson's hitting featured. Score: R. H. E.
Cincinnati—000000000—0 9 0
New York—01002002X—6 9 0
Batteries—Ames, Koenig and Herzog; Marquand and Meyers. Umpires—Klem and Emslie.

Boston 7; St. Louis 5.

Boston, Mass., June 20.—Boston won from St. Louis yesterday, 7 to 5, in a game lasting over two hours. The visitors developed a lead in the fourth inning, but the home team's lead in the fifth half of the inning, the home players drove in four runs on three singles. Manager Hughes of St. Louis and Second Baseman Evers of Boston were put off the field for disputing decisions. Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis—000001010—5 11 2
Boston—0001021X—7 12 2
Batteries—Griner, Salter and Snider; Rudolph, James and Halling. Umpires—Quigley and Eason.

FEDERAL LEAGUE

Kansas City 5; Baltimore 4.

Kansas City, Mo., June 20.—Kansas City made it three out of four by winning yesterday's game from Baltimore, 5 to 4. Gilmore's double with Chadbourne on second scored the winning run in the ninth. Score: R. H. E.
Baltimore—000001010—5 11 2

Batteries—Griner, Salter and Snider; Rudolph, James and Halling. Umpires—Quigley and Eason.

White Sox 3; Red Sox 2.

Chicago, June 20.—Chicago evened up the series with two runs in the fifth inning of the second game of the series, 3 to 2. The first two runs made in the fifth were scored on a single and a double. The winning run was made in the seventh. Scott and Blackburn sacrificed. Singles by J. Collins and Chase scored Weaver, Evers and the visitors to five hits, while R. Collins was hit hard. The holding of Weaver, Blackburn and Chase was a feature. Score: R. H. E.
Chicago—000100000—3 12 1
Boston—000100000—2 9 2
Batteries—Collins, Bedient and Carrigan; Thomas, Benz and Walsh. Umpires—Hildebrand and O'Loughlin.

Browns 6; Athletics 2.

St. Louis, Mo., June 20.—After Philadelphia's two runs in the opening season yesterday, St. Louis came back and by bunting five hits and scoring three runs, the home team won, making it two straight from the champions, 6 to 2. St. Louis' lead in the sixth inning when Howard doubled, took third on a single and scored on Agnew's error. After the first inning in which the visitors got half their hits, the home team was steadily in a scoring position, he was invincible. In the third inning, Oldring singled, Collins also singled and when Walker fumbled a hit, Oldring took third and Weaver scored. Score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia—00000100X—6 9 1
Batteries—Wyckoff, Bressler and Schanz; Wellman and Agnew. Umpires—Evans and Egan.

Brewers 3; Hoosiers 2.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 20.—Jim Jach, the Wisconsin-Illinois league, yesterday was put in the box seat for the arrival and pitched the champions to a 3 to 2 victory over Indianapolis. Jach was hit hard but was invincible with men on bases. Merz twirled good ball, but his support was poor. Score: R. H. E.
Milwaukee—00210000X—3 6 4
Indianapolis—00010010—2 10 6
Batteries—Jach and Hughes; Merz, Adams and Blackburn. Umpires—Westervelt and O'Brien.

Millers 4; Senators 2.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 20.—Killifer's single in the eighth inning yesterday scored two runs for Minneapolis and gave the home club a two-run lead over Columbus that was never relinquished. The score was 4 to 2. Fiene and Schenck pitched excellent ball, Fiene allowing six hits and his tional league pennants and two world's championships away from Chance, gave part of it to Evers, but took most of it for himself.

After Murphy gave out a lot of innings during the season, he carried along him "unfit," the Peerless Leader recalled his decision to quit the game and came back. He signed a three-year contract to manage New York, then the weakest team in the league. He wanted three years to make a pennant winner and prove Murphy wrong. His first year was 1913. He did not do well. He kept changing his lineup, searching for new material, signing many youngsters, trying all of them and rejecting nearly every one. He always knew there were some boneheads in baseball, but never imagined it was possible to have so many on one club," said Chance one time last year, referring to his team. He is getting rid of the "boneheads" and searching for players who can think and act. He has a new lineup now from the one he carried last year. Compare the two teams, New York a year ago and New York of today:

Year Ago. Today.
Davies, 2b. Boone, 2b.
Volter, cf. Truesdale, 2b.
Borton, 1b. Peckinpaugh, ss.
Cres, 1b. Hartzell, rf.
Sweeney, c. Cook, cf.
McConnell, 3b. Easley, lf.
Middick, 3b. Sweeney, c.
Peckinpaugh, ss. Williams, 1b.
McConnell, 3b. Childs, 3b.
The lineup today is the one Chance used to start last Sunday's game. Outside a few pitchers, Peckinpaugh, Sweeney and Hartzell are the only players of last year's team still playing under Chance. The others of the 1913 club are nearly all out of the league.

Chance has still more than a year left to turn out a winner, and Chance will keep on hauling them in from the bushes till he has some real ballplayers under him.

May Challenge Goal.

Philadelphia, June 20.—Jay Gould, court tennis champion of the world, may be called upon to defend his title next year. It is said Walter Kinsella, professional of the Squash club of New York, may challenge the champion if he can first dispose of several English contenders. Kinsella, in England recently won 14 out of 16 matches against British professionals, losing the other match only after a long and hard fight. If Gould should defend his title next year, the match would be played at the Philadelphia Racquet club, where he won the championship from George Covey of England.

Assembly of the Teams.

While rapid progress is being made in the matter of assembling the teams at these matches, the same cannot be said of the assembling of the players who will form the teams of the leading entrants, considered as nations. Australia is to date the only competitor with its team formed and practicing as a whole. In view of the formidable aggression of players like the Antipodes possess in Brooks, Wilding, Doughty and Dunlop, this advantage is not one to be disregarded. Before the Australians sail for America, early in July, both the United States and English tennis authorities have begun the assembling of their teams, but at the present time there is little definite idea of the strength or arrangement of these teams.

DULUTH TEAM CLUBS INTO THE FIRST DIVISION

The Defeat of Superior Yesterday Marks Ten Straight Victories.

Dooks Have Chance to Pass Virginia in the Coming Series.

The Dooks are today in the first division. Virginia is one full game ahead of the White Sox. A win today for the Dooks would put them in a position to tie them up for the series that starts here on Monday.

Since Crooks, Bond, Collins and Hargrove have joined the team the metamorphosis in the team has been something startling. From a sluggish team, like the gray exteriors of the gay and soaring White Sox have become like the bitheism butterfly and are at the present writing leaping over the heads of the other teams of the league.

As the result of the win yesterday the Dooks yesterday won the tenth consecutive game of the present run. This breaks the present season's league record. In the event of the White Sox copping the game that is being played this afternoon, the record will be further shattered.

called upon to face a heavier attack this summer than in any Davis cup match in years, and the expert tennis authorities are emphatic in their declarations that at best the United States team will not have better than an even chance of retaining the trophy regained at Wimbledon last summer. It is certain that Champion Maurice McLoughlin will form the foundation of the team, but beyond that all is speculation. The California delegation, including McLoughlin, William Johnston, Clarence Griffin, Thomas Bundy and possibly Elia Potrell and Roland Roberts, has been requested to come East early in July. Here they will be joined by Lindley Murray and H. L. Lahn who have been playing brilliantly in the East for some weeks. The Eastern contingent, including Williams, Wallace Johnson, Touchard, Zell, Dabney, Niles, Alexander, Leroy, Church, Hackett and others, has been playing for some weeks, and when the two squads join forces, the U. S. L. T. A. officials will immediately begin the work of trying out the players in various tournaments in order to gauge their present ability for cup defense purposes.

Somewhat similar conditions prevail in England with the first round, was a few weeks away. According to the draw the English team must meet Belgium at Folkestone July 7, 8 and winners play France at Wimbledon July 11, 12, 13, 14. England should survive these rounds even though the team selected for the matches did not represent British topnotch tennis strength. For the play in this country, however, England must have the best combination possible in order to have a fair chance against the Australians and toward this end little has been done. Beyond appointing a sub-committee of three to organize a series of doubles trials at Wimbledon, the international committee has taken no definite action in regard to the international team. One or two players have been unofficially advised that they may be selected, but that is as far as the committee has gone. What is needed, according to English writers, is that the committee should concentrate on a team which is physically sound; a team which is young enough to stand the searching strain of five sets in the hottest weather, and yet old enough to have adequate match play experience; above all, a team which is versed in modern methods of attack and has some of the strokes necessary to combat them. J. C. Parke on his part of American players instantly selection; F. G. Lowe on his form of this year deserves the same tribute, and A. Kingscott should be included.

The Harvard crew is expected to win, and the English crew is expected to lose.

DULUTH BOY "MAKES GOOD" IN MOST DECISIVE WAY

James P. Kelly, 4511 Cambridge street, Lakeside, who has won high honors in scholarship, has now entered the West Point military academy, having received his appointment last winter.

Mr. Kelly was graduated with high honors June 16 from Phillips Exeter school for about two years. Upon leaving Central he went East and entered the preparatory school, Mercersbury academy, in 1910. After one year there he went to the Phillips Exeter academy.

In addition to his high standing in his academic work, he was prominent in athletics. He made the football first team in 1912. The captain of the team was injured, forcing him to quit the game, and Kelly was chosen to take his place. He led the team in the fall was chosen to lead the team again during the 1913 season. His team defeated Andover, 49 to 0.

At that time hockey had not been played at Exeter and Kelly organized a team and was captain for two seasons.

He also received the honor of being elected president of the interscholastic athletic association, which is composed of representatives from nearly all the Eastern schools. Kelly was elected to the position and was represented at the meeting and Kelly was elected on the first ballot for the year 1913. He was succeeded by the son of ex-President Cleveland.

Kelly was appointed to West Point by United States Senator H. F. Hollis of New Hampshire.

to left, and he may slam it over second base, too.

Honus Can Run Bases.

"He is a wonder in running the bases, that is, he is and is still able to go around fast enough to hold his own. He is clever in touching men sliding into the bag and in hitting runners on second. He possesses every qualification a ball player could desire, and he never makes a mistake. He is the greatest ball player in the world, and that does not bar Cobb, Jackson, Speaker or any one else. "What would the Pittsburgh club be without Wagner? Nothing but a second division team, and if he were to be taken off the club I would be willing to wager it would drop and drop fast. He did not perform regularly last season on account of a lame ankle. What happened to the team? It appeared to be one of the weakest clubs in the league, and all due to the absence of Wagner."

Brenahan is not the only man who prides himself on his speed. Mike Mitchell, formerly with the Cubs, declares he never has seen a ball player hit him faster than Brenahan. Mitchell said about his never having seen the Pirate shortstop make a mistake. Wagner on one of his wonderful qualifications is one of the fastest runners in the league. He is liked by every one. He does not know what it is to have an enemy.

GREEN BAY SPORTS.

W-1. Team Makes Sensational Campaign for First Place.

Green Bay, Wis., June 20.—A phenomenal sport by the Green Bay team since invading the southern cities of the Wisconsin-Illinois league circuit has turned the attention of the fans of the other seven cities to Manager Lynch and his band, and with only a few more games for the team to play away from home the local admirers are predicting that the team will win the championship of the league in another week.

Seven out of eight games were won by the Bays in the series at Rockford, Madison and Racine. One game was dropped at Madison when the Bays won by superior hitting. In the other contests the Bays won by superior pitching and timely hitting.

President Frank L. Weeks of the league is optimistic in spite of the reports from some cities of poor attendance and he predicts that by the end of the season the Bays will be looking at the trophy with a bright eye. At Oshkosh the fans have no excuse for pushing the Bays, as champions have been at the top or close to it since the season opened.

MOVIES AND BALL BREED INSANITY.

Chicago, June 20.—Insanity in Cook county is increasing more rapidly than the population, according to figures announced by John E. Owens, judge of the county court.

Number of insanity cases tried since 1907.

Moving pictures and baseball have turned their parts in causing a number of cases, according to Judge Owens. Both amusements, he said, tend to excite the emotions of those interested in them.

BUT ONE PLAYER GIVEN CHANCE AT WAGNER'S MARK

Stuffy McInnes May Possibly Hit Over the Magic 300 Mark for the Next Thirteen Years.

Baseball fans who like to explore the fields of dope are wondering whether any of the present-day stars have a chance of tying or bettering Honus Wagner's world record for hitting 300 or better for seventeen consecutive seasons.

Speaker is practically eliminated from the contest owing to his age. He will be 31 years old next month, and his only five .400 averages behind him. It is also doubtful if Cobb will ever duplicate Wagner's record, as his constitution is radically different from that of the Carnegie Teuton.

Where Cobb is a high-strung athlete, and saps up much nervous energy during a season's strife for base hits, Wagner is as phlegmatic as the average German, and does not bother with nerves. His ankle causes him much more concern.

There is one young athlete, though, whom many critics will back against Cobb, Cobb, Speaker or Jackson to equal or perhaps better Wagner's record. The young man is Stuffy McInnes, first baseman of the Athletics.

Stuffy got a running start on the other sluggers by joining the Mackmen at the age of 18. He has celebrated his 23 birthday during the last world's series, he can boast of four .300 averages in his career, and he has hit 300 or better in each season.

Since he started playing regularly, in 1911, he has averaged three seasons he has only varied six points. McInnes joined the Athletics in 1908, and he hit .318, and in nineteen games he hit .239. He entered the 300 class for the first time in 1913, and he has hit 300 or better in each of the last four years. His record follows: 1910, .301; 1911, .321; 1912, .327; 1913, .328.

To duplicate Wagner's performance, McInnes must hit .300 for the next thirteen years, or he will be 36, as the average German, and does not bother with nerves. His ankle causes him much more concern.

YALE WINS BY INCHES ONLY

Closest Rowing Race of All Regatta History Gives Ellis Victory.

Cross Line Four Inches Ahead of Harvard—Crews Exhausted.

New London, Conn., June 20.—By a margin of four inches Yale won the variety four-mile eight-oared race from Harvard on the Thames river here yesterday after a struggle which will stand out in rowing history when the competing oarsmen are forgotten.

Through a four-mile lane of steam yachts and motor boats, the sixteen crew men toiled at the Crimmon and Blue, tipped bars as no gallery slaves ever labored under the lash while thousands of spectators on shore, and on observation trains shrieked hysterically.

When the knife-like prow of the racing shells had cut past the final line of flags and the oarsmen dropped with heaving chests and sweat-dimmed eyes, the new thousands knew whether victory had perched upon the bow of the Yale or Harvard racing craft.

On board the judges' boat at the finish line could be seen the arbiters of the race frantically gesticulating in conference, while first a blue flag and then a crimson one was waved at the end of a long pole. On the white canvas covered by the observation train, the clans of Yale and Harvard cheered by turn, catching hope and inspiration from the waving flags of those aboard the yachts clustered close about the finish. Slowly the Harvard colors began to sink as the judges finally resorted to the megaphone and screamed across the water that Yale had won its first variety race in seven years by less than a foot, 21 minutes 46 seconds, with Harvard crossing the line one-fifth of a second later.

Crowd Goes Mad.

Then the Yale legends lost all restraint and the Blue, so long furled at the end of the annual regatta, burst forth in a storm of celebration. Thousands of students, alumni and followers of Yale's athletic fortunes. Shore and water appeared to be buried under the mass of fluttering color, and the long-drawn-out Harvard "Aha's," Yale had come into its own again. Yale had won the variety race, and the hearts of even the most loyal.

But the victors and vanquished saw or heard little of the celebration for exhausted nature was taking her toll. Drifting slowly up-stream, the Yale team had the two shells side by side just as they had been during the twenty-one mile distance race. Exhausted to hold themselves upright, the Yale team had the two shells side by side just as they had been during the twenty-one mile distance race.

Where Cobb is a high-strung athlete, and saps up much nervous energy during a season's strife for base hits, Wagner is as phlegmatic as the average German, and does not bother with nerves. His ankle causes him much more concern.

There is one young athlete, though, whom many critics will back against Cobb, Cobb, Speaker or Jackson to equal or perhaps better Wagner's record. The young man is Stuffy McInnes, first baseman of the Athletics.

Stuffy got a running start on the other sluggers by joining the Mackmen at the age of 18. He has celebrated his 23 birthday during the last world's series, he can boast of four .300 averages in his career, and he has hit 300 or better in each season.

Since he started playing regularly, in 1911, he has averaged three seasons he has only varied six points. McInnes joined the Athletics in 1908, and he hit .318, and in nineteen games he hit .239. He entered the 300 class for the first time in 1913, and he has hit 300 or better in each of the last four years. His record follows: 1910, .301; 1911, .321; 1912, .327; 1913, .328.

To duplicate Wagner's performance, McInnes must hit .300 for the next thirteen years, or he will be 36, as the average German, and does not bother with nerves. His ankle causes him much more concern.

Benediction.....

Special attention is being given to band rehearsals, which are being held every morning from 7 to 9, under the direction of Charles Helmer. The Third Regiment band is receiving its usual number of commendations, its playing at the ceremonies and concert is a treat to all the regiment as well as the visitors, and source of complimentary remarks from Lake City people.

Sunday Night Concert.

Director Charles Helmer has arranged the following for the Sunday night band concert, which is held in front of the colonel's tent in the regimental street.

March—"The Conqueror".....

Overture—"William Tell".....

Selection—"The Swan".....

Song for horn—"The Swan".....

Henry the VIII Dances.....

Intermezzo from "Il Flauto magico".....

Selection from "Lohengrin".....

The regular army officers in charge have made out an elaborate program of instructions both for drills and schools, and the regiment will undoubtedly profit greatly by the professional supervision.

The companies of the Second and Third battalions were all out yesterday morning taking up the scheduled program, which consisted of company movements in close order, extended order in squad, and company. All these drills are held under the instruction and supervision of the regular army officers detailed to each battalion.

CAN CONTROL SEX.

Doctor Says It Is Done With Animals and Birds.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 20.—That the artificial control of sex has passed the experimental stage was the statement made last night by Dr. Oscar Riddle, in charge of the evolution station of the Carnegie institute. He was addressing the American Academy of Medicine, which opened its twenty-sixth annual meeting here yesterday.

"The station is propagating sexes at will with pigeons and doves," said Dr. Riddle. "The sex of frogs and toads is settled by means of a chemical, and, to some extent, can be regulated through fixing the mating period." As to human beings, he declared, the extent of sex control would depend upon the success of his experiments with mammals, and he would not be surprised if eventual success was achieved.

Of Interest to All Architects and Those Building Homes

AS WE have announced before, we consider ourselves fortunate in having secured the agency for the Murphy In-a-Dor-Bed—the last word in disappearing wall beds. These beds are rapidly coming in to favor with builders in general, being equally adaptable to hotels, apartments or private dwellings where economy of space is a factor.

We have installed a sample bed for demonstration and invite your inspection. Briefly the bed is all metal, easy of operation, fits into the closet when not in use and at the same time allows use of closet.

FRIDAY—Meeting of the Drama League at 2:30 p. m.

SATURDAY—Boat club dances at the main house and Oatka at 8:30 p. m.

With the opening of the boat club cafe and the light of Roger Taney at Spirit Lake this evening the attention of Duluthians is taken up even more than usual with outdoor pleasures. The main house of the boat club, the Spirit Lake and Oatka branches and the Country club offer opportunities for boating, tennis, golf and picnicking. The Saturday evening dances at Oatka and the main house and the Wednesday bridge games and dinner-dances at the Country club attract large numbers of the members.

The lawn tennis given yesterday afternoon and evening by the Glen Avon guild on the lawn of Mrs. A. R. Macfarlane was a charming affair with an attractive setting of flowering shrubbery.

The weddings of this last week were those of Miss Eva McNamara and George F. Snyder, Miss Claudia Cox and Ralph Emerson Page of Hibbing, Miss Edith Pollock and Elmer J. Nelson, Miss Helen Maude Arneson and Jacob Ottiker, Miss Ethel Erickson and Alfred H. Moe, Miss Elizabeth Kollman and Frank E. Callahan and Miss Reta Bettelle Ribbenack and William R. Cornish.

Among the social events of the week were the bridge party yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. G. Hegardt and the dancing party given at the Country club by Miss J. Lindahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lindahl, for the members of the younger set.

In addition to the usual outing attractions the calendar of next week has a list of weddings. Wednesday evening Miss Carolyn Munger and Cavour Hartley will be married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Munger, 2330 East First street. In honor of Mr. Munger and Mr. Hartley a dance will be given at the Country club Monday evening by Miss Gertrude Ellis Cleveland and Miss Elizabeth and Dorothy Olcott.

The first bride, Miss Gertrude Ellis Cleveland who will be married to Carl Fox Tronsen tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ross of 4029 East Superior street.

The wedding of the week will be that of Miss Helen Clare Kennedy and Earl E. Pattison, to take place at the home of the bride, 5830 London road, at 8:30 p. m. Another home wedding will be that of Miss Marie Wohl and Walter H. Mahne. The church wedding of the week will be those of Miss Gertrude Rellly and Warren G. Lucore, and Miss Anna Frank and Leonard J. Nelson, both at the Sacred Heart cathedral, and Miss Alverne Gilson and Arthur J. Robillard at St. James' Catholic church.

The usual Wednesday bridge party and dinner-dance will be held at the Country club and the Saturday dances at the main house and Oatka branch of the boat club.

The principal club event of the week will be the meeting of the Drama League Friday afternoon.

MME. LABADIE WILL BE HEARD IN DULUTH IN "A DOLL'S HOUSE"

MME. LABADIE.

MME. HARRIET LABADIE, whose repertoire includes plays of Ibsen, Charles Rann Kennedy, Percy Mackaye and other well-known dramatists will give "A Doll's House" when she appears at the Orpheum on July 2, under the auspices of St. Luke's hospital.

Few heroines in modern drama have been played by so many actresses of the first rank as the character of Nora Helmer, the pivotal character of this Norwegian play.

"A Doll's House" sprang into such favor that within a little more than two weeks after it was published it was produced in the Royal Theater at Copenhagen. Despite the fact that the theme aroused such heated discussion city. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out by Killarney roses and maiden hair fern. There were seven guests.

Miss Eleanor Webber of 3310 Minnesota avenue entertained six tables at five hundred Thursday evening. The first prizes were won by Mrs. A. Dunneley and Dr. E. W. ## NORTH BUTTE IS IN THE BEST CONDITION IN ITS HISTORY Million Tons Proved Up in Drifts Ahead of Production.

Snowball Vein Is Leading Producer—Edith May Recovering.

With close to 1,000,000 tons of ore proved up in the drifts ahead of production, North Butte is today better off than at any time in its history, says a special representative of the Boston News Bureau, who has been visiting Butte this month. Since the low-water mark of late 1911, when only 711,000 tons of developed ore was in sight, North Butte has today 1,125,000 tons of first and second class ore, and has put into sight during the past two years a half no less than 1,400,000 tons of ore.

The Snowball vein is today the leading producer, and is also responsible for between a third and half the total tonnage of ore blocked out, and the Adirondack and the Edith May, contributing about equally. The two Crows and the two Gem veins, in the order named, also contribute appreciable tonnage.

The conspicuously silver-rich Snowball vein has swelled the average silver content of North Butte's blocked-out tonnage to between five and six ounces per ton, as compared with four ounces per ton a year and a half ago. The copper content is still figured by management at 4 1/2 per cent. The grade of ore recently coming out is far below that. The recovery of copper per dry ton was only 52.2 pounds during the first quarter of 1914, as compared with 62.2 pounds in 1913 and in 1912, and as compared with a theoretical 60 pounds per ton during the first quarter of 1914.

The Snowball vein is today the leading producer, and is also responsible for between a third and half the total tonnage of ore blocked out, and the Adirondack and the Edith May, contributing about equally. The two Crows and the two Gem veins, in the order named, also contribute appreciable tonnage.

The Snowball, the most northerly developed vein in North Butte, now holds 1,125,000 tons of ore, and the Adirondack, the second most developed vein, holds 1,000,000 tons. The Snowball vein has been opened up for 1,800 feet all continuous stopping ground, the ore varying from two to twelve feet, averaging five to six feet in width, and running around 100 feet in length. The Snowball vein is today the leading producer, and is also responsible for between a third and half the total tonnage of ore blocked out, and the Adirondack and the Edith May, contributing about equally. The two Crows and the two Gem veins, in the order named, also contribute appreciable tonnage.

Some 150 to 200 feet have been opened on the Snowball vein, and the work has been done very steadily in a poor section of the vein. No work has been done yet on the 2,400.

The Adirondack vein, the most southerly developed vein in North Butte, now holds 1,000,000 tons of ore, and the Snowball, the second most developed vein, holds 1,125,000 tons. The Snowball vein has been opened up for 1,800 feet all continuous stopping ground, the ore varying from two to twelve feet, averaging five to six feet in width, and running around 100 feet in length. level shows a 200-foot zinc shoot ten feet wide, and running over 10 per cent in zinc.

The North Butte management has under tentative consideration the exploring of entirely new ground north of the Snowball vein. It is likely that two crosscuts will be run on several levels—one in the central part of the estate and the other 1,000 feet or so westward, southeast of Pilot Butte ground. The objective of these crosscuts is the Berlin vein, which has a good surface showing on North Butte's Berlin and eastern side, but which has never been explored at depth.

Summing up North Butte's situation at depth, the 2,400-foot level is one of the best in the mine, as the higher level, the 2,200-foot, was one of the worst. The 2,400-foot level makes a poorer showing to date than the 2,200-foot level, but the appearance of the Snowball and Adirondack veins. It was the 2,400-foot level which has shown the prominence of the 2,200 and 2,400-foot levels, and which partly bridged the gap caused by the falling down of the Edith May and Jessie veins on the 2,400-foot level.

Whether or not the Snowball and Adirondack veins, which show the 2,400-foot level, the fact stands out that the Edith May shows on the 2,400, 2,600 and 2,800-foot levels, and that the signs of a "come back."

MYANJO'S GOOD COPPER

Appears Throughout Bottom of Winze on the Eighth Level.

Drill Particularly Adapted to the Calumet Conglomerate Developed.

Houghton, Mich., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Wyandot is in about ten feet of copper in the winze 75 feet from the 815-foot, or eighth level. This work is being done on the No. 8 level, which is being driven from the present 1,200 feet east of Winoma level.

The course of the crosscut revealed two lodges of promising indications, Nos. 2 and 8, the latter, which was encountered at 1,800 feet, was considered the most encouraging. The drifts on the level of the crosscut, the 700-foot or seventh level, a little copper being encountered constantly with some commercial grades. A winze was then run on the level to the 815-foot, and the drifts on the level of the crosscut, the 700-foot or seventh level, a little copper being encountered constantly with some commercial grades.

week from a nearby swamp. The northern drift on the 600-foot level has a length of about 50 feet and is about 200 feet wide. It is likely that the 200-foot level is begun, there will be five drifts in operation, one on that level, one in each drift of the 150-foot level and two in the 600-foot level. It will probably take three to four weeks to reach the level on the new level.

Copper Range Consolidated is deepening two of its shafts at the Baltic and the same number at the Trumountain so as to keep its reserves up to the proper mark. The former a drift has been extended over from No. 3 shaft on the twenty-fifth level to No. 2 and a raise is being made on the twenty-fourth, 25 feet having been covered already. Sinking is also being done from the twenty-third level and from the twenty-fifth, the latter having carried down about 18 feet. At No. 3 the skip road is being laid down to the twenty-fifth level, and when this work is finished, sinking will be resumed. On the twenty-seventh level 500 feet of good ground has been found on the southern drift, 600 feet on the twenty-fifth, and 200 feet on the twenty-third, and the corresponding drifts. The good shoot seems to be widening. The Baltic is better than for three or four years. At the Trumountain, the 2,400-foot level is in progress, and a little below the twenty-second level a drift and a crosscut is being driven from No. 2 and No. 3, and when completed a raise will be begun. The openings at the bottom of this mine, which is from the bestest, are disclosing the good ground first met with on the twentieth level at No. 2 and No. 3. A. H. has been persistently good almost from the start. The Copper Range Consolidated is breaking records for daily tonnage.

Keweenaw Copper has been through the portion of the formations where the Armstrong fissure was located. The fissure is becoming less broken and the copper is appearing more and more in the form of a zone as it occurred before the disturbance. At that level the copper that is being taken out in the enlarged drifts is of a high grade, and is abundant and rich in any that has yet been revealed.

Allouez began to ship rock to the 2,400-foot level on June 15, and is now forwarding 450 tons daily. Only one head is stamping and that is being gradually brought up. The other head will be started soon. The other head will be started soon. The other head will be started soon.

Old Colony began Friday to drill for the No. 2 mine, located 550 feet northwest of No. 27.

UNWATERING OF BUTTE & LONDON

All Electrical Equipment Installed by the Rainbow Company.

Butte, Mont., June 20.—Good progress is being made in unwatering the Butte & London. The plant now has a modern electric hoist which is proving itself to be practical and successful in every respect. There are about twenty men employed there at present and during the preliminary work of unwatering of lifting two 600-gallon tanks at one and the same time. The water has been taken out of the shaft from the 400 to the 600-foot level already, and the work is being continued. The water has been taken out of the shaft from the 400 to the 600-foot level already, and the work is being continued.

Another electric pump, which is also being installed, will be used to force the water from the collar of the shaft from that level. When the water falls below the 1,100 level, two pumps will be used to pump the water to the new electric pump.

N. Bralley, superintendent of the Butte & London, is in charge of the work at the Butte & London, and James Naughton, master mechanic for the Butte & London, is operating with him in the installation of the electric hoist. The plant is being run entirely by electricity. The Butte & London company is contracted with the Rainbow Development company to install the electric hoist. It is estimated that $75,000 will be expended by that company before development work is started.

Movement to Put Specific Tax on Output in Montana.

Annual Reports Show Material Decrease in Net Earnings.

Butte, Mont., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—A movement that seems to be specially aimed at the Anaconda company has been inaugurated in Montana, the object being to initiate a law to tax the gross output of the company to the extent of 1 per cent. The companies are already paying the regular personal property tax on the net proceeds. The movement is started by petition throughout the state, and is the first of the kind in the history of the state. Stockpiles at Cuyuna-Duluth Mine Are Increasing in Size.

Erainerd, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—News of importance to Crosby and the north range is the report that Supt. Savage, formerly with the Shenango Furnace company, and now the head of a group of capitalists, is to start opening up the Hans Anderson property.

The Armour No. 2 mine of the Rogers, Brown Ore company at Crosby, is now shipping nineteen cars daily. The mine is producing considerably more than the stockpile is in full blast. The Kennedy mine of the same company at Cuyuna will also soon commence shipping. The Kennedy is under contract to ship 16,000 tons a month.

ADVERTISING SELLS FARM PRODUCE.

By GEORGE H. DACY.
A Wisconsin farmer spent $1.25 for 100 printed postcards. He used these cards to advertise the fact that he offered seed corn for sale. As a result of this simple and inexpensive method of advertising he sold $300 worth of seed within a year. A roadside bulletin board on which he affixed notices indicative of the farm produce which he had to sell was instrumental in increasing an Illinois farmer's bank account $1,000. A simple "ad" run in several issues of a city newspaper enabled a Missouri farmer to buy the foundation for a poultry plant that today is yielding $5,000 profit a year.

It pays to advertise, Mr. Farmer. Appreciate your opportunity for placing your wares before the public through the medium of the daily or weekly press, the billboard, the postcard, the circular letter, the catalogue or through exhibits at fairs and shows. If you profit every farmer who markets his crops (be they grains, grasses or livestock) to maintain an accurate mailing list containing the names and addresses of possible purchasers who reside in his vicinity. This mailing list should be the basis of his personal advertising. At regular intervals he can inform his patrons what he has to sell and what price he wants for it.

Try a Bulletin Board.
Who would ever hear of Bill Jones' auction sale if Bill had not had huge placards printed and distributed broadcast announcing that he was selling out? Who is going to know that you have some fine seed corn for sale unless you get busy and advertise the fact? Mouth to mouth and house to house publicity is perhaps all right in its place, but using it is too slow in effecting sales. The average farmer who has something to sell should do it to ascertain names and addresses of possible purchasers. Then he should keep plugging away at them until he has a sale.

A simple bulletin board either inclosed in a glass front case or open could profitably adorn the front gate post of every farmer who has anything to sell. It will catch the eye and notice of every passerby. Where it is kept up to date it will accomplish many sales during the twelve months of the year. Classified and display "ads" in the local newspapers also aid the farmer in marketing farm produce has measurably increased. The farmer who has a place at present for the farmer who has something to sell and does not know how to locate a purchaser?

INOCULATING THE ALFALFA FIELDS.

By A. C. ARMY.
Assistant Agriculturist, University Farm, St. Paul.
Alfalfa fields may be inoculated with soil taken to a depth of four or six inches from an alfalfa or sweet clover field where the plants are known to be in flower. The rate of about 200 pounds per acre. It is well to avoid exposing the soil to the sun light for any considerable length of time. Part of this soil may be sifted and from ten to fifteen minutes thoroughly with the seed for each acre.

The seed should be slightly moistened before mixing and the mixture shoveled over frequently. The soil particles and the bacteria clinging to the seeds and are ready to begin work as soon as the plants start growth. The remaining soil may be scattered broadcast at seedling time and harrowed in immediately.

Care must be exercised to secure the soil from clean fields so that the roots and seeds of noxious weeds and alfalfa diseases are not introduced. In order to secure a thorough inoculation of the alfalfa plants the first year, it is important that the soil containing the bacteria be mixed thoroughly with the soil of the field. Feeding alfalfa to the stock in the manure on the field to be sown probably introduces some bacteria.

Pure cultures of bacteria for use in treating seed are furnished without charge by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., with directions for use. Soil from sweet clover patches along the roads may be used with fair success, but the inoculation of the plants usually will not be as general the first season as if soil is used from a well-inoculated alfalfa field.

RAINFALL AND WHEAT COMPOSITION.

By R. W. THATCHER.
Agricultural Chemist, University Farm, St. Paul.
The rapidity with which wheat fills and ripens depends chiefly upon the amount of moisture which is available to the crop during the month of July. In all except the dry-farming districts this supply is determined by the amount of rainfall received during June and July. In regions where winter, or early summer, use of dry-farming methods of tillage, the total annual rainfall may influence the amount available for the maturing crop. But whether the moisture supply is assured in terms of that present in the soil or of total rainfall, it has been found that the kind of wheat grown in different sections varies with the moisture supply. The hardest wheats come from those districts where the moisture supply is least. This is true not only in comparing the wheat of different states or localities, but in comparing the wheat grown in the same locality in different years.

In some localities, like the Pacific coast states, where the summer temperatures are low and the rate of evaporation of water from the soil is therefore low, a small rainfall may actually supply more moisture in the soil and available in other regions where the temperature is higher in summer, even though more moisture was actually received in the form of rain. Hence the Pacific coast states

A CHAMPION FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD CORN GROWER

By W. B. MERCIER.
To Walker Lee Dunson, a 14-year-old country lad, belongs the international record of corn production. Walker is the champion boy corn grower of Alabama having produced 227 bushels on one acre at the cost of 13.9 cents per bushel.

The following letter from the lad tells how he raised this splendid crop: "I am just 14 years old and live on the Tallapoosa county farm, Ala., on Dec. 4, 1909. I have lived on the farm all my life, and I have only had school advantages to the extent of attending the common school during the idle seasons from the farm work, and for this reason my education is limited. In preparing my land for the corn I first cut the stalks with a stalk cutter and turned the land on the first of March with a two-horse plow from ten to twelve inches deep, then double plowed with a disk harrow, and on the seventh of April I laid off the rows three feet apart and beat down the land with a one-horse roller and planted the corn in the water furrow, using 100 pounds of 104 guano. The corn came up to be a perfect stand.

Keeping the Cultivator Going.
The first thing I used a cultivator deep enough to loose the soil. The second plowing I used a single steel and a top with a disk harrow and applied 400 pounds of 104 guano. The third cultivation I used a harrow and applied 100 pounds of 104 guano. I then thinned out the corn to a stand of about eight inches in the drill. The fourth cultivation I again used the harrow and applied 100 pounds of 104 guano. The fifth cultivation I harrowed again and applied 100 pounds of 104 guano. The sixth plowing I harrowed and applied 100 pounds of nitrate of soda. The seventh plowing I used a Planet Junior cultivator very lightly.

The cost of this one acre of corn will be found as follows:
Preparing the land.....$1.80
Hoing the corn.....1.00
Hoing the corn.....1.00
Gathering the corn.....2.40
Rent of land.....8.00
Fertilizers.....26.70
Total cost of labor and fertilizing.....$26.40
227 5/7 bushels of corn at 90 cents a bushel.....209.43
Profit to balance.....$183.04

Of course all this lot means lots of extra work, but then if I hadn't been working on my own corn I should have been doing something else.

COMMUNITY MARKETING.

By A. D. WILSON.
Director of Agricultural Extension and Farmers' Institutes, University Farm, St. Paul.
Co-operation in marketing and in buying is, we believe, essential to the economical distribution of products. Large quantities of uniformly good products can be sold much more advantageously than can small quantities of inferior products. Each sample of which may be good in itself but which when brought together are not uniform. When every farm was manufacturing its own butter, and each of the hundred more farmers in the community was trying to sell butter of a different quality, the price of butter was comparatively low. When butter is manufactured in one plant, the quality is uniform, and the price is high. The creamery at its disposal large quantities of a uniform product and can sell at the best possible price.

If the products of a community, such as grain, potatoes, and livestock, can be made uniform by co-operation among the members of the community, the products can then be sold in large quantities of uniform products can be sold by one man, the man who has the best of the large farmer, or have come to the dairy industry, can be secured in other enterprises on the farm.

FARMERS' ELEVATORS.

By L. D. E. WELLS.
Agricultural Economist, University Farm, St. Paul.
When the farmers determined to enter the field of co-operative grain marketing they were beset by many obstacles. In the first place it was difficult for them to procure truckage to the elevators. When they did procure it and build their elevators, every possible device of obstructive competition was brought into play by the line elevator companies to kill them before they could get fairly started. Add to these difficulties the inexperience of the farmers in business affairs, and the resulting poor management of their elevators, and it is only natural that a great many failed. In spite of early discouragements the farmers persevered, and today we have a goodly number of successful farmers' elevators in many of the states of the grain belt—notably Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

Frequent failures among farmers' elevator companies, however, have not been confined to the early days of the movement. The same is still true with deplorable frequency. Competition of line elevator companies at local points still prevails. Poor management, in the form of inefficient managers and cumbersome and faulty accounting systems, is still common. Every year, scores of farmers' elevators are closed down. The Northwest, with the aggregate number in operation is steadily increasing, owing to the entry of new companies every year. These facts suggest the principal prob-

THE ANNUAL CLEANING UP OF THE INCUBATORS

By E. O. MORTON.
About the middle of June the hatching season is almost over, so the time has come for cleaning up the incubators. Unfortunately it is frequently a great temptation to put off this work until winter, when it always seems as though there would be more leisure. But this is a great mistake and will result invariably in the same dirty, germ-filled incubators and this just when they are the most needed.

A tried and experienced poultryman has, of course, his own particular methods at such a time, but the novice, on the other hand, is often at a loss to know just how and with what to start in. The following suggestions, then, will be found helpful. Incubators should be cleaned up after each season. First, take out the trays, brush them thoroughly with warm water, and then wash them with hot water, to which has been added a tablespoonful of water. The washing over set the trays in a bucket of water, or course. Disconnect the lamps and give them the flues a good cleaning, and when with a good brush will prove an excellent cleaner. Brush out the incubator stock with a broom and over it with warm water and the disinfectant, as specified above.

Varnish the Old Machines.
If the machine has been in use for several seasons it should be wiped off with a damp cloth and the top, sides and bottom given a fresh coat of varnish. If it happens to be of the hot water type, empty out all the water and leave it until needed for use again. If it is of the cold water type, do not leave it until next winter where the water may freeze in it.

All this may seem to the beginner to be a vast amount of work, but it is always well to remember the fact that it is possible a number of the little chicks may have been born with the germ of some disease, and therefore it is only by using the greatest of precautions, and the most thorough methods of cleanliness that the germ life can be destroyed all the germ life to which fowls are so often subjected. The most successful poultrymen, and the ones who carry off the big prizes, are those who carry out the most thorough cleaning up of their incubators. If a stone turned up to keep everything to do with their poultry houses and yards, etc., up-to-date and in the most immaculate condition, and surely these are the men whose example must be followed if success is looked for.

THINNING APPLES.

By R. S. MACKINTOSH.
Horticultural Specialist, University Farm, St. Paul.
The Utah agricultural college during 1911 and 1912 thinned the fruit on a number of apple trees to test the exact value of this important orchard practice. It was found that the thinned trees produced more fruit than the unthinned trees. In 1911 there was 61.3 per cent fancy fruit on the thinned trees and 41.3 per cent on the unthinned trees. In 1912 there was 38 per cent fancy fruit on the thinned trees and 16.3 per cent on the unthinned trees. The trees thinned in 1911 produced 6.4 per cent on thinned trees and 3.3 per cent on unthinned trees. In 1912 there was 18 per cent on thinned trees and 10 per cent on unthinned trees. When reduced to dollars and cents, the trees thinned in 1911 were worth $30 per acre. The cost of thinning always lessens the cost of some of the creamery at its disposal large quantities of a uniform product and can sell at the best possible price.

JAP CRUISERS FOR PANAMA OPENING

Will Join American Fleet in Passing Through the Canal.
Tokio, June 20.—The battle cruiser Ito, and the scout cruiser Chikuma, which have been selected to participate in the opening of the Panama canal, will leave for the United States on or about Oct. 15. Both the Ito and Chikuma were built in Japanese yards, and will suffice to show the progress of Japanese industry in the line of shipbuilding, though the Ito is of a somewhat old type, having been built in 1905. The Chikuma is a fine ship. She is said to be second to no other vessel of her class on an international scale. Her displacement is only 4,450 tons. The Ito is larger and will serve well for the reception which will be held on board.

Capt. Kanji Kato, who has been made the commanding officer of the Ito, is one of the ablest officers in the Japanese navy. He was more than once designated as probable candidate for the post of the vice minister of marine.

Capt. Sakamoto of the Chikuma for a long time occupied the post of the Japanese navy. He is well acquainted with the formalities of foreign manners and etiquette.

GARDEN NOTES.

Hints From a Gardener's Notebook.

By E. K. PARKINSON.
June, in spite of its late days, is unfortunately also an ideal month for insects of all kinds, these little creatures reveling in the warm weather and the bright sun, and unless we are continually on the lookout for them they very soon get the upper hand of us. But here let it be remembered that birds are invaluable in helping to keep down insects, so that the kingbirds, robins, song sparrows, catbirds, Baltimore oriole, chipping sparrows, rose breasted grosbeaks, house wrens and many others should be most emphatically encouraged to build in and around the house and garden.

A Beetle Trap.
In planting melons and squash one must always keep a sharp outlook for melon and squash bugs, which may either be picked off the vines or trapped set by planting a number of extra squashes between the ones that are to be consumed. The new leaves of the leaves with parls green and lime, although the old foliage, melons and cucumbers with a frame covered with netting, will be as much as any to protect the vines.

It is also a good idea to dust the young vines with a fine powder of pyrethrum powder mixed with flower-powder. The pyrethrum powder is one pound of the former to five pounds of the latter, which discourages the moths that lay their eggs there. After the plants are up and growing, if it is to be kept over another year, go over it with a moving hoe, and when dry, then plow a furrow or two on either side of the vines, leaving a strip four feet wide; fill the furrows with stable manure and harrow it in. The new leaves will soon start again, and the bed will be nearly as good as new. In the tomato vines, for tomato worms, which are a great nuisance, and perhaps the plan to pick them off. Keep the weeds "out" of the onion rows or they will soon choke out the young onions. The onion plants are the greatest of pests, and must be continually cultivated to do well. Vienna Proposes to Develop Its Municipal Ownership Utilities.
Vienna, June 20.—The city council of Vienna is proposing to float a loan of $75,000,000 at once, to be expended mainly upon the development of existing municipal ownership undertakings. It is proposed to spend $30,000,000 on subways around the congested districts of the city, where up to the present time there has been only an insignificant amount of horse manure. ## FRENCH MILLIONS SENT TO MEXICO

Enormous Losses Suffered on Account of the Disorder.
Paris, June 20.—Events in Mexico are followed with an almost painful interest by the French people. Hundreds of millions of dollars in French money have been sent to Mexico in the last few years, and the enormous losses suffered by French finance on account of the trouble in Mexico, may be found in comparing the present values of shares in Mexican banks, which are largely held in France. Thus:
National Bank of Mexico, 1,245 499
Bank of London and Mexico, 709 499
Central Mexican Bank, 517 65.50
The principal cause for the criticisms of the French press of the policy followed by the American government toward Gen. Huerta is in the enormous losses which the French investors have had on account of the disorder in Mexico. The idea was accepted more than two years ago that if the United States should recognize Huerta he would be able to pacify the country and the United States would therefore hold responsible indirectly for the disappearance from the French point of view of some hundreds of millions of dollars in values belonging to the French people.

TURKISH PRINCE IS EXHIBITOR AT SALON.

Paris, June 20.—Among the more notable exhibits at the salon of the Society of French Artists, is one that has escaped much notice, although it is a masterpiece of modern art. The work is "Lecon d'Histoire." It was painted by Prince Abdul Medjid, son of the Sultan Abdul Aziz of Turkey, a cousin of the reigning one and fourth son of the late Sultan Abdul Hamid. Prince Abdul Medjid was kept in confinement during twenty-eight years by Sultan Abdul Hamid, and his education was only when the latter was dethroned. It was during the long years of his confinement that he took up the study of painting to while away the time.

CONVERTED TO MOHAMMEDANISM

New Ambassador to America Recently Embraced Moslem Faith.

Constantinople, June 20.—Alfred Rustem Bey de Billinski, who has just succeeded to the post of ambassador to the United States, has received widespread commendation in the Turkish newspapers because he recently embraced the Moslem faith. He has Polish blood on his father's side, and his mother was a Miss Sanderson of an aristocratic British family, which has been settled in Constantinople for two or three generations. Rustem Bey, upon being converted to Mohammedanism, substituted the name Ahmed for Alfred. The sultan received the neophyte with great favor and presented him with a jeweled watch and chaplet. Rustem Bey has recently been a contributor to the Turkish political press, and has had a varied diplomatic career, including service at Washington several years ago as counselor of the embassy. During the regime of Abdul Hamid, when the Turkish diplomats away from home found their pay day a hollow dream, Rustem Bey, "no pay, no work," although he won the fight, the government punished him by dropping him for a time.

TO STOP DRINKING BEFORE BREAKFAST

Scottish Saloons Are Not Allowed to Open Until 10 a. m.

London, June 20.—The Scottish workingman has been deprived of his early morning drink, which is generally a "p and g"—a pint of beer and a gill of whisky. "It has been found that the habit of drinking before breakfast has a bad effect on the health of the workingman, and a law has just come into force which prevents the saloons or clubs from opening before 10 o'clock in the morning." By this the men are forbidden to work and the time for temptation passed. While the regulation applies to the whole of Scotland, the mischief it is intended to strike at is localized in the industrial districts of Glasgow. There it is the custom for the workmen to start their day at 6 in the morning and continue until 8:30 in the evening with a breakfast interval from 9 to 9:30, and a dinner hour from 12 to 2. With the saloons open from 8 o'clock there was a temptation for the men to take a drink before breakfast, and this was not only unwholesome in itself, but conducted to excessive drinking at other hours. The men have not complained of the new law, but they have asked that the saloons are not opened before breakfast hour they be opened before they return to work so they may at least have a drink after eating. The saloon keepers have been complaining that the best part of their trade will be ruined.

GERMAN SHIPPING SHOWS INCREASE

Growing More Rapidly Than British Shipping at Antwerp.

London, June 20.—Sir Cecil Hertslet, British consul general at Antwerp, reports: "German shipping at Antwerp has increased, and is continuing to increase more rapidly than British shipping. At the present rate of progress, only three or four years will elapse before German shipping exceeds British at Antwerp, and it will do so unless active measures are adopted to retain and increase the trade of British vessels visiting the port. In 1913 British shipping actually declined by forty-two vessels and 96,027 tons, while during the same period German shipping increased by seventy-eight vessels and 261,000 tons. The state of affairs," says Sir Cecil, "is undoubtedly serious, though it is true that British vessels do more actual trade in the port, carry more cargo and bring more wealth to the port than German vessels. Of course British shipping is still greatly in excess of that of Germany. The total shipping of Antwerp last year amounted to 7,055 vessels with a volume of 1,146,819 tons, of which 6,183 and 8,321 tons were British, while the Germans accounted for 1,705 vessels of 450,000 tons. One of the causes of the decline of British shipping was the transfer of some of the Red Star liners from the British to the Belgian flag. "I should say that a French family can live off what an American family wastes."

French Family Can Live Off What American Family Wastes.

Paris, June 20.—Simon W. Straus of Chicago, the president of the American Society for Thrift, has just finished several months of inquiry on the continent into the origins of economy among European peoples. "I should say that a French family can live off what an American family wastes," said Mr. Straus. The principal reason of course is in a habit of mind, in a way of looking upon the relative values of efficient living as compared with inefficient and wasteful living. One may be as extravagant with a dollar as with a million.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

DULUTH CONTRACTORS ARE BUSY WITH SUMMER WORK

Prospects for Some Big Jobs to Be Let Before Fall.

Addition to Chester Terrace—Permits Make a Good Showing.

With the large amount of new construction in progress both in the city and at outside points, Duluth contractors are now well employed, and the prospects for the next few months are regarded as exceptionally bright.

It is anticipated that the Duluth contractors are likely to go out for figures within the next couple of weeks, both for factory and residential propositions.

An interesting feature of the week in Duluth is the announcement that Chester terrace, at First street and Thirteenth avenue east, is to be completely remodeled and an addition built to it. The work will entail a heavy outlay, involving the removal of the existing structure and the construction of a new one. The terrace is situated on a valuable piece of property, and the owners are determined to make the most of it. The new building will be a two-story structure, with a frontage of about 100 feet. It will be built on the same site as the old one, and will be a good example of modern architecture. The work is expected to be completed by the fall of next year.

According to the plans for the remodeling as prepared by Bray & Nystrom, architects, three six-room flats will be placed in each section, thus making altogether fifteen sections in all. Figures on the job are now being taken by the architects, and it is so to be proceeded with immediately. This week's building permits mount up into substantial figures, involving improvements estimated to cost over $52,000.

A permit for $18,000, issued to the Brunswick company, was the largest one taken out. It involves the reconstruction of the premises on Superior street west, at present occupied by the Odium and Lyrice theaters, so as to provide for the building of a new moving picture house with a fifty-foot frontage and a depth of 100 feet. The new building will be a two-story structure, with a frontage of about 100 feet. It will be built on the same site as the old one, and will be a good example of modern architecture. The work is expected to be completed by the fall of next year.

The joint committee of the Builders' exchange, architects and building owners, appointed to go through the present city building code with a view to suggesting certain revisions, is making good progress and it is expected its report will be ready shortly.

The Builders' exchange has arranged for a talk by J. H. Chubb of Minneapolis at its rooms in the Lyceum building next Thursday, June 25, on the subject of Portland cement and the construction of concrete buildings. The talk is of great interest to all interested in the building trade. Fawcett & Hargrave, contractors, will start work on the interior decoration within a few days. It is expected the theater will be ready to open about July 15.

Jacobson Bros., contractors for the R. Maroon apartment building at Seventh avenue east and Second street, have made a start on the foundation. The various materials for the job are being assembled, and it will be pushed through to completion as early as possible. An investment of $34,000 will be involved in the structure. The plans were prepared by Holstead & Sullivan, architects.

The general contract for the Johnstown Land company's two-story brick business block on Superior street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues east, has been awarded by the architect, Anthony Puck, to Fawcett & Hargrave at $10,000.

Anthony Puck has plans out for figures for a duplex brick house for Frank Kane on Fifteenth avenue east, between Fourth and Fifth streets. Its cost is estimated at $6,500.

The same architect is also taking figures on a brick house for L. J. Pitt in the Colman's addition at Woodland. Its cost is estimated at $8,000.

F. G. German, architect, will take figures next week on the excavation and foundation for the Gowan-Lanning-Brown company's warehouse on Lave avenue south. The old frame building at the corner of Morse street and Lake avenue has been torn down preparatory to moving the National Biscuit company's plant to the site. N. L. McIntyre of St. Paul, who has the contract for the job, has brought his outfit up and will start in upon it next week.

Bray & Nystrom, architects, will take figures next week on the proposed new village hall at Kinney, Minn., to cost approximately $15,000. It will be a two-story brick building 30 by 75 feet on the ground floor plan. The hall will be located on the lower floor with the offices and council chamber on the second one.

The same architects have prepared plans for an eight-room frame school to be built at Spina, Minn., at an outlay of about $25,000. Bids will be taken by Bray & Nystrom next week on the electrical work for the new manual training school at Eveleth, Minn., and also on the heating installation for the Minnesota National bank building at the same place.

The Lounsbury-McLeod company is still employing a force of about 300 men on its contract for houses at the Minnesota Steel company's model town at Spirit Lake. The last batch of foundations is now being put in, and the company expects to complete its contract for the 170 buildings early in October.

J. Colburn of Cloquet, Minn., has been awarded the general contract for the two rural schools to be built in the Floodwood district at a cost of about $8,000 each. The plans were prepared by Kelly & Williams, architects.

The following permits were issued during the week at the office of the building inspector:

LUTHERANS RECEIVE MESSAGE FROM KING

Haakon of Norway Acknowledges Greeting From America.

Brainerd, Minn., June 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Acknowledging the greetings sent by the Lutheran free churches of America, now in national convention at Brainerd, on the occasion of the Centennial celebration of Norway, King Haakon has cabled to the Lutheran churches and countrymen in the United States.

Rev. E. E. Gynild was elected a member of the organization committee and Rev. Claus Morgan and Rev. Amund Ojeda of the resolutions committee. Rev. U. Rutsa, rector of the deaconesses home and hospital in Christiania, gave a report today on the annual conference of the free church in session.

The old officers were re-elected, as follows: President, Rev. C. M. Tollefson; Vice President, Rev. J. E. Loeck, St. Paul; Secretary, Rev. N. Nelson, Minn.; Treasurer, J. B. Anderson. On Monday the delegates will be

at Waverly Park,

Today, from 3 to 8 p. m.

It is the desire of the Exchange that Duluth people see the natural beauties of this new addition to Duluth's high grade residence district—that they may hereafter watch its development, growth and the advance in values accruing to purchasers of lots there. Therefore, the invitation is general and not restricted to those considering buying lots. There will be a reception committee to look after those not buying, as well as salesmen for those who do. Members of the Third Regiment Band will play between 5:30 and 7:30 p. m., and coffee and sandwiches will be served from 6 to 7 to all who attend as guests of the Exchange.

Take either Hunter's Park or Woodland cars to Hardy street, walk one block toward the lake.

WILSON "SPARKS" AND THE KAISER REPLIES

Messages on Opening of Wireless Service Are Exchanged.

Washington, June 20.—An exchange of wireless messages between President Wilson and Emperor "William" was made public today at the White House. The messages sparked through 4,062 miles of air between Tuckerton, N. J., and Wilhelms, Germany, near Hanover. The messages, signaling a new era of trans-Atlantic wireless communication, were as follows:

Washington, D. C., June 19, 1914.—His Majesty, William I., German Emperor, via wireless station, Tuckerton, N. J.: "On this occasion of the opening of the Tuckerton radio station, I send to your majesty my best greetings and offer my congratulations on this additional link to bind the United States and Germany in closer intercourse and good relations."

"WOODROW WILSON." "German Trans-Atlantic Station, Ellershausen, Tuckerton, D. C.: During my visit to Elbershausen, I received your kind message. I thank you for the greetings. I return your congratulations and offer my best wishes for the opening of wireless communication between Germany and America. I, too, consider it as an additional link which will bind our two countries in mutual friendship and closer intercourse." WILLIAM, I. R."

STRUCK BY AUTO; MAY RECOVER

Tony Bell, an Italian laborer, was struck by P. B. McTague's automobile last evening as he was crossing Superior street between Third and Fourth avenues west. He was hurled to St. Luke's hospital, where it was stated that he was seriously injured but he recovered. He sustained a scalp wound and several ribs were broken but he escaped dangerous internal injuries. Bell was attended by Dr. I. J. Murphy, police surgeon.

Among the witnesses of the accident were Mayor Prince, Irvin L. Powers of 121 West Third street and G. Rue of 120 East Superior street. Mr. McTague is a member of the Board of Trade and resides at 1429 East Second street.

ONE INDICTMENT IN LORIMER BANK

Chicago, June 20.—Indictment of at least one officer of the La Salle Street Trust & Savings bank, the Lorimer Bank, today filed against W. C. Niblack was appointed receiver yesterday, is certain, according to a declaration today by Maclay Haine, state's attorney.

"We already have what appears to be a prima facie case showing this officer to have been guilty of receiving a deposit after he knew the bank to be insolvent," said Mr. Haine.

The receiver perfected his bond today and took charge of the bank.

ASKS RECEIVER FOR LORIMER CONCERN.

Danville, Ill., June 20.—The Lloyd Building & Construction company of East St. Louis, Ill., today filed suit for a receiver for the Lorimer-Gallagher construction company, of which former Senator Lorimer is a member. The company built the Southern traction system, from which Federal Judge Wright yesterday accepted Lorimer's resignation.
